ARE YOU DOING WORK that is laying the foundation of a successful, happy life? Or are you just drifting along, doing any work you can get whether you like it or not? You can't afford to disregard the future. If between 17 and 25, the age when you have the foundation of your life's success or failure, you should be at work where everything you do counts. If you feel that your present job will not lead you well onto the road to success, find out what the United States Navy will do for you. Call at the Navy Recruiting Station, Railway Exchange Hidg., Portland, Or., and find out everything about Navy pay, hours, promotion, the healthy life, plusdeal training, and fine class of men you'll associate with. Get full details about chances to learn a trade, to see the world and to save up money. The officers and men at the Recruiting Station will answer every question. You'll enjoy meeting them, even if you decide not to enter the Navy. Write for "The Making of a Man-o'Warmann," a free book which describes the daily life of Navy men, in simple language and interesting photos. Send now—so you won't present the simple language and interesting photos. Send now—so you won't present and forget. Address Bureau of Navigation, Box 326, Navy Department, Washington, D. C.
