the afternoon were: Mrs. James Muckle and Mrs. Thomas West, with Miss Doris Clark, Miss Clementine Lambert, Miss Mabel Warren, Miss Ollve Kincaid, Miss Lorna Ganong, Miss Edwinta Williams, Miss Adina Libak, Miss Edvin Miss Margaret Mooney, Miss Helen Miss Borothy Walton, Goney, Miss Helen Miss Breedlove, Miss Margaret Mooney, Miss Helen Miss Margaret Mooney, Miss Helen Miss Margaret Stanffer, Miss Elva Burness and Miss Ruth Barlow and Miss Helen Coulin contributed to the pleasure of the afternoon by slaging of the afternoon by slaging formed a quartet with Mr. Branion, Mr. Nead, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Mackie, who sang the traditional wassall song, to which the host responded, Assistion to which the host responded Assistion to the proposition of the week was that the sum of the sum of

An engagement of more than ordinary interest is that of Miss Ruth Elizabeth Stelwer to Earle C. Latourette, of Oregon City. The news was told at an attractive tea given by Mrs. Stelwer Friday afternoon Miss Stelwer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winlock W. Stelwer, of 693 Halsey street. She is a talented musician, a graduate of the Portland Academy and of Miss McClintock's Finishing School, Boston, and a member of the Dolta Iola Chi Sorority. She is a sister of the Misses Mary and Susan Stelwer, who are also popular society girls.

Mr. Latourette is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Latourette, of Oregon City, and a brother of John R. Latourette, of Portland. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where he was prominent in athletics and a popular secretae of the Mose Stews Fri.

was prominent in athletics and a popular member of the Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He is now reading law and expects to practice in Oregon City. The wedding will occur in the early Fall.

Complimenting Mrs. Thomas Mos-grove, of Walla Walla, Wash, Mrs. George Norman West was houses at an informal bridge party Monday after-Card honors fell to Mrs. George D. Schalk and Mrs. C. D. Brunn. Additional guests were Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Leroy H. Parker, Mrs. Engene Boyer, of Walla Walla; Mrs. George Cotner Mason, Miss Vidae Marshall and Miss Margaretta Marshall Miss Margaretta Marshall.

The women of Reed College faculty will be "at home" the first three Mundays of each month.

Mrs. E. C. Giltner will leave today for a month's sojourn in New York

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Malpas left Friday morning for a trip of three weeks to New York.

Mrs. James Gillison, who has been passing a week in San Prancisco, at the St. Francis Hotel, has been the inspiration for many delightful informal affairs. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Martin gave a large luncheon at the Burlingame Club in her honor Saturday following New Year's day. The guests included prominent members of the smart set in the Bay City, and a large party of society folk gathered at the train Tuesday to say their adleux to train Tuesday to say their adjeux to Mrs. Gillison, who returned to Port-land, Complimenting Miss Lena Simps whose engagement to Dr. George Macwhose engagement to Dr. George Mac-auley was recently announced. Miss Genevieve Matteson and Miss Villah Crawford, of Vancouver, were joint hostesses at a card party Saturday af-ternoon at the home of Miss Matteson's mother, Mrs J. P. Ford, in Irvington. Four tables were arranged for the game and the guests who were former schoolmates of Miss Simpson's at Mills College, included Miss Marguerite Cogs-well, Miss Lois Courney, Miss Hazel Altcell, Miss Lois Courney, Miss Hazel Alt-nan, Miss Frida Baruh, Misses Rachel and Constance King, Miss Louise Glea-son, Miss Mary Thomas, of Vancouver, Miss C. Blaker, of Vancouver, Card honors fell to Miss Louise Gleanon and diss Simpson, who also received a speinf guest prize.

Rev. Frederic K. Howard, formerly of loquiam, Wash., who has recently been appointed chaptain of the Good Samariappointed chapinin of the Good Samari-tan Hospital, and his son, are the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Panton un-til Mr. Howard becomes permanently located in the city. Mr. Howard is also interested in city mission work and has had the support of the prominent residents of Hoquiam in his previous work.

Mrs. S. D. Smith, Miss Laura Smith and Russell Smith will leave Tuesday for Southern California, where they ex-pect to pass the Winter.

Miss Elsa Gill and Harold Gill, who

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Russell, who returned to Portland on account of the death of Mrs. Russell's mother, Mrs. Sylvester Pennoyer, will leave today for New York, and will sail January 23 for Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Chapman (Miss. Mahal Shea) have decided to make their Mahal Shea) have decided to make their Makel Shea) have decided to make their future home in Portland. Mrs. Chapman is one of the popular young matrons in society, and her numerous friends are happy to have her with them again. . . .

A group of industrious young women who have formed a sewing club, which meets once every fortnight, met at the home of Miss Harriet Kern Thurs* the home of Miss Harriet Kern Thurseday afternoon and enjeyed the inevitable 5 o'clock tea. Miss Kern's guests were; Miss Rosalind Kingsiev, Miss Clarice Biles, Miss Doris Clark, Miss Graeta. Butterfield, Miss Helen Whitney, Miss Dorothea Waggoner, Miss Grace Mackenzie, Miss Lucille Bronaugh, Miss Mary Campbell, Miss Clara Fleischman and Miss Mary Kern.

One of the most delightful affairs of the week was the bridge-luncheon at which Mrs. T. H. Edwards was hosters Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Edwards' guests were members of her bridge club, with the addition of Mrs. Richard Dunmire, Mrs. J. M. Strowbridge, Mrs. Harry M. Cake, who has gone to California, and Mrs. M. E. Merges. The decorations were effectively carried out in tones of flame colored crystal beaded ribbon and carnations forming a cenribbon and carnations forming a centerpiece. Scarlet hand-painted place cards and favors with rozebuds marked places for the guests. The club members are Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson, Mrs. J. F. Stoneroad, Mrs. George Eastman, Mrs. Edward Munnell, Mrs. S. Henry Morgan, Mrs. J. D. Kidwell, Mrs. J. P. Jaeger and the hostess. Card honors fell to Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Merges. of Mrs. Wallace McCamant, 226 King

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hild left Saturday for a trip to California, which includes San Francisco, Les Angeles and San Diego. Mr. Hild will return to Portland in a fortnight, but Mrs. Hild will remain in the southern part of California for about two months.

Mrs. Harry M. Cake and Mrs. Wil-ham M. Cake left Thursday for South-ern California, and plan to be away about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hart arrived home last Wednesday from Colorado Springs, Colo., where they passed the mid-season holidays with Mr. Hart's sister, Mrs. Alfred F. Cross.

Mrs Carrie Jacobs Bond, concert singer and composet, was honor guest at an informal supper last Sunday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Byron E. Miller, Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. John F. Beaumont and Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar Lind.

A delightful affair of the week was the eard party at which Miss Verna Menefee was hostess Saturday in honor of her house guest. Miss Alice Thurs-

Claussenius presided in the diffing-room. They were assisted by Miss May Coon and Miss Jessie Beckwith. Miss Mary Burns, the small daughter of the hostess, received the guests at the door. About 190 guests called during the afternoon. Numerous affairs are planned for Miss Riley's pleasure during the next few days. ESTACADA GIRL RETURNS TO PALO ALTO SCHOOL.

Miss Helen Harriett Bartlett. Miss Helen Harriet Bartlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W.

Bartlett, of Estacada, returned to the Miss Harkers' school, of Palo Alto, Cal. this week, after spend-ing the holidays with her parents.

The annual meeting and election of officers of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be held at the home

WATCH PARTY MARKS 20TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mrs. G. A. Signalness. A notable event of the week

A notable event of the week was the anniversary and watch party given by Mr. Ind Mrs. G. A. Signalness at their residence, 405 Rose street. New Year's eve. Cards and music were the features of the evening and honors fell to Mrs. Frederick King, Mrs. Samuel Olsey S. I. Decker and fell to Mrs. Frederick King, Mrs. Samuel Olsen, S. J. Darkes and Professor Smith. The guests wore: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick King, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staver, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Siggiin, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Siggiin, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. P. G. Onstad, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schel, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Darkes, Professor C. P. Smith, Miss Mamie Sigglin, Miss Beatrice Smith, Miss Cora Rotto, Miss Inex Atkison, Miss Onstad, Mr. Ronald Atkison, Miss Onstad, Mr. Ronald Atkison.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a meeting at Hotel Portland Thursday, January 16, at 2 o'clock. This meeting will be in the nature of a Lee memorial, in observance of the anniversary of the birth of General Robert E. Lee, which occurs Sunday January 29. Grosses of Honor will be

LADIES' TAILOR

Now Located at 407 Eilers Bldg., 7th and Alder $50 Suits to Order for $30

Fit and Work Guaranteed

Everything the Best.

street, Friday, January 17

was the inspiration for a number of affairs in Estucada and Portland during ner sojourn. Mrs. Frank Menefee entertained the Broadway Auction Bridge Club, of which she is a member, at her home in Irvington Friday evening.

Mrs. C. J. Wheeler, of Irvington, was hostess at a small bridge party Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. E. V. Can-field, of St. Paul, who is the house guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Frank

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Costello, who have been passing New Year's holidays in Seattle, returned to Portland last week. They were extensively entertained dur-ing their stay in the Sound city, and were honor gusts at the Arctic Club New Year's eve at a watch party, and Thursday evening were complimented with a dinner at the Washington Hotel and theater party at the Moore.

An event anticipated with consider-An event anticipated with considerable pleasure is the dance to be given by the Portland Rowing Club at Masonic Temple Friday evening, January I., at 8:39 o'clock. The patronesses for this affair are Mrs. William L. Brewster Mrs. Herbert E. Judge, Mrs. Alpha E. Rockey, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur. The committee, which has the affair in charge and have worked hard to make the dance a brilliant one, include Arthur A. Allen, Herbert E. Chickering, David G. Cooper, Frank M. Moore, Edward R. Mordis, Clyde I. Spooner.

Helen Walton, Margaret Walton, Olive Kincaid, Doris Smith, Clara Wuest, Edna Johnston, Mildred Broughton, Ruth Van Waters, Beckie Van Waters, Amzelle Samuels, Margaruite Emerson, Alberta Bair, Engenie Cathoun, Edith Dufur, Genevleve Dufur, Margaruite Palitzsch, Loraine Percival, Edla Rich-John William Ditchburn left last week for the East to attend Lawrence-ville School. En route he will visit his sister, Miss Ann Swinburne-Ditchburn and for the first time witness her per formance of the "Count of Luxemburg," now playing in Chicago,

Palitzsch, Loraine Fercival, Edia Rich-ards, Margaret Keating, Anna Barker, Ella Ashbaugh, Helen Conlin, Dorothy Downard, Miss Peck, Mrs. Russell Clark, Misses Neva Bonnywell, Bernice Moorchead, Helen Hall and Miss Brown. Mrs. Carl G. Liebe has issued invitations for a card party of 16 tables on Friday, January 15, in honor of Mrs. Pearl Norman, of Los Angeles, her

A wedding of interest to her many friends was that of Miss Sylvia Leslie Bryant, of this city, to Robert Hair, a prominent young husiness man of Honolulu, which took place recently in Honolulu, H. I. The ceremony was solemnized in the pariors of the Alexander Young Hotel. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Hair will make their home at the Alexander Young Hotel.

At a delightful lumphoon last week social function given in Vancouver Miss Valeska Liebe, of The Dailes, who has been visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Liebe, returned to her home last week, but will come to

GOSSIP OF THE ARMY POST

At a delightful luncheon last week, Mrs. James Robbins, of Spokane, announced the engagement of her daughter Miss Gertrude Robbins to Milton Worschkul, of this city. No definite plans have been made for the wedding. social function given in Vancouver Barracks this year—the military ball to be given by the bachelor officers of the post to the officers and women of the post and department headquarfers and Portland society folk. The ball will be given on the evening of Jan-Miss Clara Weidfor was hostess at an informal bridge party Friday evening. Miss Weidfer's guests included Miss Clare Houghton, Miss Inzel Weidfer, Miss Isabella Gauld, Ray Small, Joseph Forguson, Mr. Natzig and Edmund de Schweinitz.

An innovation will be a special train leaving the North Bank station, in Portland, at 7:45 o'clock, running direct to the post, where it will be backed to within a few hundred yards of the ballroom. This train will return to Portland at the conclusion of the ball. Also a special ferry will be run after the ball, for the accommodation of automobiles, but no streeter.

run after the ball, for the accommodation of automobiles, but no streetcar will connect with this. The unpleasant trip from Portland to the post will thus be obviated and it is thought that many in Portland will attend who would not otherwise, the trip by streetcar being unpleasant going to and from the ballroom.

The committee in charge of arrangements is: Captain Charles R. Howland, chairman; Captain Conrad H. Lansa, Lleutenant Robert W. Wilson, secretary, and Lieutenant Walter R. Taliaferro. The other bachelor contingent of the post, giving this party, are: ferro. The other bachelor contingent of the post, giving this party, are: Captain H. Van Deman, Captain Armistead, Captain Brambila, Captain J. H. Page, Jr., Captain Dent and Lieutenanis G. M. Parker, L. M. Wheeler, W. H. Gill, L. H. Stewart, R. T. Snow, E. V. Schneider, G. J. Conser, F. J.

are being issued. Captain Arthur L. Conger, of the Twenty-first Infantry, who is on leave of absence, has been transferred to another regiment. He is now visiting Captain Daniel W. Hand, who has been in the quartermaster's department in the Western Division headquarters, in San Francisco, is now assigned to the Second Field Artillery and he will arrive here soon for station.

Mrs. Richardson entertained at supper Sunday night, covers being laid for eight. The guests were Major and Mrs. Wilson Chase, Captain an Mrs. Herbert C. Gibner and Captain and Mrs. Elmer W. Clark.

The men were paid Friday, Major James Canby, of the quartermaster's department, stationed here, having

An informal hop was held in the post gymnasium Friday evening.

Lieutenant McCleave, aide-de-camp deas-will duty here January 26 and he will re-that join the Twenty-fifth Infantry, recent-by ordered to Hawali.

Mrs. George B. Vosburgh, who has been visiting her daughter, wife of Lieutenant Bernard Lentz, left for her home in Denver Tuesday.

Chaplain Walter Kenyon Lloyd, of the Second Field Artillery, may go to Hot Springs, Ark., for the benefit of his health, us he is suffering with ma-tenants G. M. Parker, L. M. Wheeler, an enjoyable bowling party in the post W. H. Gill, L. H. Stewart, R. T. Snow, gymnasium Tuesday evening. After F. V. Schneider, G. J. Conser, F. J. the party had bowled a couple of hours Riley, F. B. Mallon, J. C. Beatty, Mert. Mrs. Warfield served suppper at her

Portland's Foremost Specialty Garment Store

Look at This Garment Sensation!

$22.50 to $30.00 Suits $19.50 to $24.75 Coats $21.50 to $28 Dresses

S YOU read this, don't you feel the impulse of economy — a A SOMETHING which says, "I must see what an extraordinary sale that is at Portland's Emporium tomorrow?" Smart new styles that do not differ perceptibly from the models we are now selecting for Spring. The values quoted are our regular prices.

Coats Dresses

You cannot fully appreciate this Wonderful Sale until you see the garments. Plan to come early tomorrow for first choice.

SUITS, COATS, DRESSES, WAISTS Waists 1/2 Price

To $7 Waists

124-128 SIXTH, Bet. WASHINGTON & ALDER STS.

First Showing of Paris' New Millinery Creation-the Mephisto Hat, by Mme. Carlier.

quarters and prizes for high scores were awarded. Lieutenant Ward Dabney won first prize among the men and C. Gibner was awarded a consolation (Continued on Page 4.) Procter, Vincent Meyer, J. F. Barnes, J. A. Gillespie, C. J. Taylor and Daniel D. Pullen. Four hundred invitations in the East.

Captain Harry A. Hageman, of the Twenty-first Infantry, now on leave in the East, is to return within a month.

Lieutenant John B. Richardson and Captain Herbert C. Gibner and Mys. Gibner will give a dinner party at their quarters tonight.

Fur Coats

Monday and Tuesday Only

AT $40.00 TO $87.50

Russian Mink Coats from $95 to $175 AT $47.50 TO $87.50 French Coney Coats from $65 to $95 AT $32.50 TO $47.50 Near-Seal Coats from $50 to $225 AT $25.00 TO $112.50 Caracul Coats from $150 to $325 AT $75.00 TO $162.50 AT $75.00 TO $175.00

Style Book Sent Free Upon Request Mail Orders Promptly Filled Highest Price Paid for Raw Furs

Manufacturing Furrier

Morrison Street, 286 Opposite Old Lo-

Your Opportunity

LIEBES FUR or FUR

GARMENT

At PRICES far below their normal value. FUR NECKPIECES FUR MUFFS FUR SETS FUR COATS

> Furs Repaired and Remodeled at Discount Prices During Our Annual Sale.

288 Morrison St., Corbett Building. Raw Furs Wanted. Will Pay Highest Market Price for Prime Pelts.

"PHOENIX" Sent Anywhere Prepaid by Parcel Post

OUT-OF-TOWN WOMEN may now secure Phoenix Guar-anteed Silk Hogiery almost as conveniently, and just as cheaply, as if bought personally. We'll send them anywhere, prepaid, by parcel post, A pure-thread silk, with lisle inner lining, for Winter, Also sheer-thread silk. Any pair which comes to holes for any reason whatever within three months may be replaced free here at the store.

White Serges are included. Spring goods are arriving. K. STERN 447 ALDER ST.

For $50

Don't lose any time, as this price may not last long. If you have a suit in mind, examine our goods and learn of the great values offered before placing orders.

Health and Beauty Advice

No More Gray Hair

Try This Simple Home-Made Preparation on the Whitened Locks.

Celia: You can't expect to appear fastinating with pimples all over your factors and the summer anyone's sluggish from accumulated poisons which frequently find an outlet in the factor of the summer anyone's sluggish from accumulated poisons which frequently find an outlet in the factor of the summer anyone's sluggish from accumulated poisons which frequently find an outlet in the factor of the summer anyone's sluggish from accumulated poisons which frequently find an outlet in the factor of the summer anyone's sluggish from accumulated poisons which frequently find an outlet in the factor of the summer and the persone of age. These "footprints of Time." however, may be fradily covered up by using a simple, inexpensive old-frashloned tonic of tried of age. These "footprints of Time." however, may be fradily covered up by using a simple, inexpensive formula which can be prepared privated by using a simple, inexpensive formula which can be prepared privation of the summer and counce of bay rum, a quarter ounce of glycerine and a small box of Barbo Compound; then dissolve the Barbo Compound; then dissolve the Barbo Compound in 7 ounces of water, add the other two ingredients and you will only the summer and the summer guite soon.

E. B. S.: Although gray hair is sometimes caused by worry, it is generally due to a diseased scalp as indicated by such symptoms as dandruff, itching of the scalp and brittle, falling hair of which you speak. To restore your scalp to a healthy condition, first keep it clean by shampooing every 10 days or two weeks with canthrox, then massage the scalp, using a good quinine hair-tonic. You can prepare the tonic yourself by adding one ounce of quinzelf by adding

E: 104.0