

OROZCO SAYS HE IS EAGER FOR PEACE

Rebel Commander in North Sends Envoy to Learn What Huerta Will Offer.

CHIEFTAINS WILL CONFER

Demands on New Government to Be Formulated - Huerta Predicts Order Will Prevail in Republic in 60 Days.

EL PASO, Tex., March 1.—General Pascual Orozco, Jr., the commander-in-chief of the northern revolution, until today silent regarding his stand in the Mexican dilemma, declared that he was eager to arrange peace negotiations.

General Orozco, from his camp at Villa Ahumada, Chihuahua, made declarations as to the cause of his disappearance, if not as to his whereabouts, and connected with the revolution since his disappearance after rebel defeats at Ojinaga last September.

"The government of Madero having fallen, I am disposed to recognize President Huerta and to complete arrangements have sent my representative, Colonel Cordova, to Mexico City," General Orozco said today. "Regarding the manner of Madero's death I cannot express any opinion, for I lack data of the circumstances."

Regarding the meaning of General Inez Salazar as commander-in-chief of the northern revolution at Guadalupe some weeks ago, General Orozco insisted that a change in his position in his relation to the other rebel chiefs; that Salazar merely had been acting commander in view of Orozco's displacement. The chief of the various columns operating in the north are still under his orders," he declared. "They occupy the same positions as at the beginning of the revolt against Madero."

Colonel Jose Cordova, Orozco's secretary, has been with General Orozco constantly. Through his agency the rebel chief proposes to take up directly and at once the matter of the pacification of the north, but to see first what will be offered by Provisional President Huerta, and his advisers. Orozco himself will remain some time at Ahumada, between Juarez and Chihuahua City, where he is in touch with the outside world by telegraph and by railway. Manuel Garza Aldape, named as General Huerta's provisional cabinet, will arrive here tomorrow from San Antonio. With others he will proceed by special train to Ahumada to confer with Orozco. Rebel chiefs still in arms are marching toward El Paso, where they will hold a general congress of all revolutionary leaders to come to some conclusion regarding the requests to be made on the part of the government.

So far the many rebel generals have expressed varying versions of what the demands of the northern revolution will be.

The meeting of rebel chiefs at Ahumada would be preliminary to the projected meeting of the northern revolutionists at El Paso, where the Huerta government at San Antonio, Tex., which apparently has been fostered by the United States Government, Senator Aldape, however, is being held by formally General Huerta. Negotiations already are under way by telegraph between General Orozco and General Rabago, commander of the northern military zone headquarters at Chihuahua City.

"Peace will be restored in Mexico within 60 days," declared General Victoriano Huerta in telegrams received here today. Asked by American, English and German property owners in Chihuahua City regarding the safety of their property, the Provisional President gave assurances that full guarantees would be given to all foreign capital in the republic.

GOVERNOR VIRTUAL PRISONER Chihuahua to Be Removed, Then Arrested for Treason.

EL PASO, Tex., March 1.—Governor Abraham Gonzalez, declared a virtual prisoner, is said to remain at Chihuahua City, it is explained, his power at the national constitution providing that a state governor may not be jailed. The military authorities are said to be making an effort to bring Gonzalez to Lewisville, the State Senate chiefly to oust Gonzalez and later rearrest him on charges of sedition, originally preferred. The Chihuahua Governor, in this case, is not permitted to leave the state capital, although apparently at liberty.

REFUGEE TELLS OF 'FORGERY' Madero Killed So Resignation Would Not Be Denied.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 1.—The purported resignation of the late President Madero, declared today by R. V. Pesquera, a member of the Mexican Chamber of Deputies, to be a forgery by those who killed Madero, aimed to give the "war of legality" to the Huerta administration.

Pesquera is now a refugee in San Antonio. He asserted that Madero and Vice-President Gomez were killed because they could not deny the authenticity of the resignations. Senator Pesquera has telegraphed his statement to Washington.

NAPAVINE GETS SALOONS Sawmill Town Incorporates With "Wet" City Council.

CHEHALIS, Wash., March 1.—(Special.)—Napavine, a lively sawmill town seven miles south of Chehalis, has voted to incorporate after an extended campaign and much discussion of the subject. Incidental to voting to incorporate, a "wet" city council was elected and the place will again have saloons.

Some time ago the local third parties were closed out by Lewis County outside the incorporated cities having been voted dry at the county election. There were 36 votes for incorporation and 26 against.

The ticket which was successful was composed of A. M. McKinley for Mayor, J. F. Linhart, D. T. Roland, M. F. Marshall, T. J. Mason and H. D. MacDonald for Councilmen, and E. F. Coulson for Treasurer.

Russia to Increase Peace Army. PARIS, March 1.—The Russian government has decided to add three new army corps to the peace footing of the active army, according to a dispatch to the Temps. A majority of the Duma is said to approve the project.

BRITAIN SAYS ITS LAST WORD TO TAFT

Answer in Canal Tolls Controversy Holds Grievance Already Has Arisen.

OVERT ACT UNNECESSARY

Ambassador Bryce Argues Settlement Should Precede Opening of Waterway, That All May Join in Celebration.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Great Britain's final word to the Taft Administration on the Panama Canal tolls dispute, made public today, insisted that a case for settlement under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty has arisen, but suggested in effect that there would not be time to discuss the subject further before the United States Government changed hands.

Secretary of State Knox acknowledged receipt of this communication without committing the State Department to an answer, reserving to his successor the decision of the question of whether it is proper to make such answer at all or to await another communication from the British government continuing the argument.

Issue Open, Says Reply. The latest British note, which was submitted yesterday to Secretary Knox, instead of being a communication from Sir Edward Grey, the Foreign Minister, was a set of "observations" by Ambassador Bryce.

The note dissents flatly from the view that a government cannot protest the mere passage of threatening legislation, but that the injury has been committed, which would mean until tolls were actually levied, and contends that the issue is raised when Congress passes a discriminatory toll bill. It adds:

"The mere conferring by Congress of power to fix lower tolls on United States ships than on British ships amounts to a denial to British shipping of equality of treatment and is therefore inconsistent with the treaty, irrespective of the particular way in which such power has been so far actually exercised."

"In stating thus briefly their view of the compatibility of the act of Congress with their treaty rights, His Majesty's government hold that the difference which exists between the two governments is clearly one which falls within the meaning of article 1 of the arbitration treaty of 1908."

Present Treaty Held Sufficient. "As respects the suggestion contained in paragraph 3 of the note of your note, His Majesty's government conceive that article 1 of the treaty of 1908 so clearly meets the case that he has now arisen that it is sufficient to put its provisions in force in whatever manner the two governments may find the most convenient. It is unnecessary to repeat that a reference to arbitration would be rendered superfluous if steps were taken by the United States Government to remove the objection entertained by His Majesty's government to the act."

"His Majesty's government has not desired me to argue in this note that the view they take of the main issue—the proper interpretation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty—is the correct view, but only that a case for the determination of that issue has already arisen and now exists. They conceive that the interest of both countries requires that issue be settled promptly before the opening of the canal and by means which will leave no ground for regret or complaint."

Friction to Be Avoided. "The avoidance of possible friction has been one of the main objects of the arbitration treaty, and it is the wish of the United States that for so long a foremost and consistent advocate, His Majesty's government thinks it most in accordance with the general arbitration treaty that the settlement desired should precede rather than follow the doing of any acts which could raise questions of actual damages suffered, and better also that when vessels begin to pass through the great waterways in whose construction the world has been interested there should be left subsisting no cause of difference which could prevent any other nation from joining without reserve in the satisfaction the people of the United States will feel at the completion of a work of such grandeur and utility."

"SOCIAL CLUB" IS RAIDED

Sheriff Word and Reputes Arrest Proprietor and Four Men.

Raiding the "Portland Social Club" at 266 1/2 Alder street last night, Sheriff Word and two of his deputies arrested the proprietor, Max Wagner, and four men who were in the rooms at the time, and is holding them in the County Jail with bonds fixed at $600. This club was broken up last Spring, but recently Sheriff Word discovered that the proprietor had renewed his charter and had reopened his establishment.

Two men were sent to investigate and ascertained that membership in the club could be had for an initiation fee of $1 and dues of 25 cents for a year.

COLUMBIA GETS BIG SUM

(Continued From First Page.) The Cello Canal appropriation from $600,000 to $1,200,000, though the House members of the conference committee had stoutly resisted this item and sought to have it withdrawn. The conferees also ineffectually opposed Senator Bourne's amendment adopting the Tillamook Bay project and appropriating funds for its construction.

If the bill is passed there will be available $1,000,000 for further work at the mouth of the Columbia, $150,000 for the lower Willamette and Columbia below Portland, and other amounts heretofore enumerated.

Senators Give Ultimatum. Senators Root, O'Gorman and Brewster had issued a direct ultimatum that the House of Representatives must either accept some of the general amendments put into the public building bill by the Senate or the measure would not pass at this session of Congress. Senator Newlands, of Nevada, holding the floor for several hours during the day, insisted there should be no action on the river and harbor conference report unless an opportunity was given for a vote in the House on his amendment proposing a river regulation board to take control of all waterway development.

The naval, agricultural, pension, Indian, legislative, postoffice and sundry civil appropriation bills were all held back from final preparation when the filibuster started. Conference committees worked until after midnight last night and throughout today attempting to adjust differences between the two houses.

Bristow Sees "Grab." The opposition to the public buildings bill was based on the ground that the conferees had omitted all of the general items and had left only the local appropriations, which Senator Bristow referred to as "grab" items. Among the items omitted were dropped out of the bill were those for the Arlington memorial bridge, a militia armory, an extension of the park system and a National Red Cross building, all in Washington, and $2,000,000 for the New York courthouse site.

The only measures that had reached the President's desk were the national appropriation bill involving about $4,000,000, and the diplomatic and consular bill, carrying something more than $3,000,000. The measures resting in precarious condition today involved total appropriations of more than $1,000,000,000.

The postoffice appropriation bill was sent to conference by the House today after a motion of Representative Murdoch of Kansas, to disagree to the Senate amendment increasing the pay to the railroads for carrying the mail by about $3,000,000 had been voted down. The Senate agreed to the Indian appropriation bill to pay a claim of the Potawatomi Indians and fixed it at about $500,000, which has tied up that supply bill in conference. The conferees have disagreed and the House will be asked to insist upon elimination of that amendment and further conference.

Carrying a total of $28,948,624, an increase of $3,245,514 over the House total, the general deficiency bill was reported to the Senate tonight by the Senate appropriations committee with the intention of pressing it for passage before adjournment.

President's Secretary's Pay Raised. The committee added $3,305,257 to pay a Ute Indian claim and fixed the salary of the secretary to the President at $7500 a year instead of $6000, as authorized by the House.

"The public buildings bill is dead—as dead as a door nail," Chairman Burnett, of the House public buildings committee, said tonight.

Mr. Burnett added that the Senate had insisted upon its amendment for many millions of dollars for various projects and that it had been impossible to reach an agreement.

WEBB BILL IS LAW

Anti-Liquor Measure Passed in House Over Taft's Veto.

VOTE STANDS 244 TO 95

Action Overriding President Comes After Limited Debate—Backers Say Prohibition Laws of "Dry" States Aided.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—For the second time in the last 15 years, Congress overrode a President's veto. When the House today repassed over President Taft's veto the Webb bill prohibiting shipments of intoxicating liquors into "dry" states, the vote in the House today stood 244 to 95. The measure was repassed by the Senate last night and the bill is now a law.

The last time Congress passed a bill over a President's veto was when it approved the Rainey River dam bill over the veto of President Roosevelt. President Taft based his veto almost entirely upon the ground that the bill delegated to the states control of interstate traffic in liquor, when, he held, that control was vested solely in Congress. Even an opinion, also holding the bill unconstitutional and that the President forwarded to the Senate yesterday with his veto message.

President Taft based his veto almost entirely upon the ground that the bill delegated to the states control of interstate traffic in liquor, when, he held, that control was vested solely in Congress. Even an opinion, also holding the bill unconstitutional and that the President forwarded to the Senate yesterday with his veto message.

Debate was limited and the House repassed the bill with a wide margin over the necessary two-thirds vote as the Senate had done.

Supporters of the bill say it will make effective the prohibition laws of dry states, which, they say, now are violated because intoxicants are shipped to private individuals and have the effect of nullifying the local laws.

UNION OPPOSES 'WORKERS'

Shingle Weavers Against Strike Unless as Last Resort.

RATMOND, Wash., March 1.—(Special.)—Denouncing the Industrial Workers of the World and declaring war against them, J. G. Brown, president of the International Shingle Weavers' Union, addressed an audience of more than 150 mill and woodworkers in this city last night.

Mr. Brown spoke for an hour and a half and during that time explained in detail the plan of organization of the new union and the reforms in the way of better working conditions, shorter hours and bigger wages they will result from such a union. He declared in the course of his speech that the Industrial Workers' first thought was for their organization and that the welfare of its members was secondary. He disapproves of any general strike such as is being advocated for May 1, and said that he was in favor of a strike only as a last resort and then only after perfecting an or-

Property of William Geiger Placed in Escrow for C. B. Stokes.

HILLSBORO, Or., March 1.—(Special.)—William Geiger, the Forest Grove rancher who shot C. B. Stokes last Sunday night, mistaking him for a chicken thief, has been allowed to depart from custody, his brother, F. L. Geiger, of Cornelius, being appointed to look after him. Geiger was committed to the State Hospital for the Insane at Salem, but upon a rehearing was allowed his liberty, the commitment being suspended during good behavior.

It is reported here on good authority that when Geiger realized his position he gave Stokes $500 in cash for immediate expenses and surgeon's bills, and thereafter placed a deed of the Geiger ranch in escrow with a Forest Grove bank to be turned over to Stokes in case he lost either one or both of his legs. Stokes' lower limbs were horribly lacerated with the shot.

GARDEN SAGE DARKENS GRAY HAIR

SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

Restores Its Luster, Prevents Scalp Itching, Dandruff and Falling Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. While it is a messy, tedious task it will repay those whose hair is turning gray, faded and streaked.

Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, waxy and scraggy, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any druggists a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and luster of your hair and is the best thing known to remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody chooses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time, which requires but a few moments. Do this at night and by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. It certainly helps folks look years younger and twice as attractive, says a well-known downtown druggist. Agents, The Owl Drug Co.

MARSHALL SHUNS GOLF

VICE-PRESIDENT-ELECT LIKES TO WATCH BASEBALL.

HOOVER JOINS CHEVY CHASE CLUB After All He Says His Only Pastime Is Smoking Cigars.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—Although Vice-President-elect Marshall acknowledged being a lover of baseball "when other people play it," he made it plain that he did not share President Taft's love of golf.

"I don't know whether I shall ever learn to play the game or not," he said, "but I joined the Chevy Chase Club so that if I get the time and have the inclination I will have a place in which to play."

Governor Marshall said that on one occasion in Arizona his hosts tried to get him to "knock a little ball around the golf course." He did not say whether his hosts succeeded.

The Vice-President-elect said his only pastime was "smoking good cigars," and he puffed a cigarette with the newspaper correspondents while making the confession.
