

In demand at all social functions. Mr. Calvin is the son of E. E. Calvin, vice-president of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kerr returned the latter part of the week from an extended trip through the Sound cities and British Columbia.

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was the dance at the Portland Heights Club Tuesday evening, for which Miss Gretchen Klosterman and Miss Vona Guthrie were hostesses. Enchanting carnations, palms and ferns were effectively arranged about the rooms, and the many handsome gowns in all the brilliant hues of the season added to the personal beauty of the fair debutantes. Present were the younger set were present, and were charmed by Mrs. August G. Klosterman and Mrs. Robert Guthrie.

Mrs. Klosterman was adorned in a handsome gown of black chintilly lace over pastel gray satin.

Mrs. Guthrie wore a yellow charmeuse gown with overskirt of chiffon, elaborated with fillet lace.

Mrs. Guthrie was attractive in a gown of pink satin and chiffon trimmed with silver lace. She wore a corsage of parma violets and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Klosterman's gown was a chic Atlantic blue satin and princess line. She carried an arm bouquet of Richmond roses and lilies of the valley.

A number of prominent members of the smart set who are devotees of music have organized a club for informal musicals which they plan to give fortnightly, beginning tonight at 8 o'clock at Masonic Temple. If these events prove popular here as they are abroad, they will become regular functions during the winter months.

The idea of the club is to have music by local talent, and the social side of the affairs is bound to appeal to men, as they will be permitted to smoke. A collection will be served later in the evening, making these on the order of salon concerts. Portland is growing along the lines of musical endeavor, and this little club is arranged to promote enthusiasm.

J. Hutchinson is in charge of the program, and the following matrons are on the committee: Mrs. W. B. Ayer, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Miss Hirsch, Mrs. David Taylor Honeymann, Mrs. Robert Strong, Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas.

The many friends of Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, who has been ill for a week, will be interested to know that she has entirely recovered.

Miss Greata Butterfield and Miss Lois Scott are passing several days at the Scott farm at Hood River.

At an informal reception on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Henriette Rothschild announced her engagement to Arthur Senders. The Rothschild residence was attractively decorated with daffodils and other spring blossoms, and also adorned the tea-table, at which Mrs. Roy Getz and Miss Lois Senders presided. Miss Rothschild's guests were presented with corsage bouquets of pink sweet peas, to which the betrothal cards were attached. Miss Laura Korell and Miss Edna Patterson.

Miss Rothschild is an exceptionally attractive girl and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Rothschild. She is popular in the younger set, and a number of delightful affairs are being planned in her honor before the wedding, which will take place in June. Mr. Senders is the son of a prominent family of Harrisburg, Or., and is in business in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noble (Miss Meta Buchner), who have been living in Chicago since their wedding a year ago, returned recently to Portland and will make their future home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Patten, of Seattle, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Katherine Patten, to Laurence H. Lemmel. Miss Patten was formerly a Portland girl and popular in the younger set. The wedding will take place April 23 and will be a home affair. Miss Greata Butterfield, of Portland, will be the bride-elect's only attendant.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Jr., are now established at 781 Marshall street, their new residence.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge Club met last week at the apartments of Miss Bertha Tongue, at Alexandra Court.

An interesting wedding of the week will be that of Barge E. Leonard, of this city, and Miss Madge Seyster, of Oregon. Mr. Leonard left last week for the East and the wedding will take place April 18 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Seyster, and will be a simple affair. Mr. Leonard is associated with Chester Griffin Murphy in the practice of law and is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Miss Seyster is a Psi man, a member of the University Club, the Michigan Alumni Association, the Scottish Rites and the Al Kader Temple. Miss Seyster is a graduate of Ferry Hall, of Lake Forest, Ill., and is popular in her set in Oregon, Ill.

Miss Jane O'Neil returned Wednesday from a two months' trip to Fort Yellowstone, where she was the guest of her brother-in-law, Lieut. Leonard, and Mrs. Frank Keeler. Miss O'Neil was the inspiration for many delightful entertainments during her visit at the Fort.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mayer and Alexander Mayer returned last week from a fortnight's visit in the Sound cities and British Columbia.

The wedding of Miss Florence Davis and Mark Hawes took place Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis. The wedding was a simple affair, only 50 guests being present. Rev. T. L. Elliot officiated. The ceremony was performed at an improvised altar of lilies and carnations.

The bride was charming in a gown of ivory charmeuse and train embellished with Bohemian lace. Her veil, fashioned in a mob cap, was wreathed with tiny rosebuds, and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses.

Miss Helen Hubbard, of Tacoma, was maid of honor and wore an attractive gown of pink satin and lace. She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Frances Brady and Miss Harriet Kern were bridesmaids and wore chic gowns of pink charmeuse, veiled with shadow lace. They carried French bouquets of pink rosebuds. Edwin Davis, brother of the bride, acted as best man.

The house was elaborately decorated with daybreak carnations and ferns. Mrs. Otto Dekum and Mrs. Patterson presided at the samovars and Mrs. Roy Getz and Miss Irene Lovel served ice.

Upon their return from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Hawes will reside in Irvington.

Among the passengers of the White Star liner Canopic to sail from Boston for Naples on April 25 are Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Zimmerman and Miss Christel Zimmerman, of Portland. Or. It is planned to pass the Spring months in Italy and Switzerland and after several months in Germany will return to the states late in the Fall.

Of particular interest to her many Portland friends is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Marie Zimmerman, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

MUSIC CRITICS SHOWER PRAISE ON JULIA CULP

Noted Artists Who Come to Heilig Theater Saturday Night Is Heralded as Unrivalled Singer and Skilled Interpreter of Tonal Art.

JULIA CULP, SINGER, WHO COMES TO PORTLAND HIGHLY PRAISED.

IN EUROPE, particularly in Germany and England, Julia Culp stands unrivalled as a singer and interpreter of every school of singing. Her complete devotion to vocal lyrics has resulted in splendidly exact interpretations of German Lieder, French Chanson, Italian Canticle and English Ballad, in each of which her pronunciation is faultless and her conception of the text flawless.

H. E. Krebbs, in the New York Tribune, in speaking of one of the songs on the Portland programme, Loewe's "Mädchen sind wie der Wind," said: "She sang it with a poignant humor that none but a Sembrich could equal. Again Miss Culp exemplified all that is finest, highest and truest in the art of song singing—exemplified it in such a manner that an adequate description of it would be in danger of running out into a species of rhapsody which has no place in a staid review of a day's occurrences."

Besides the most extravagant praise from all the best music critics of America, personal communication from musicians well known in Portland are laudatory.

"You cannot make too many claims for Culp. She is a genuine artist," says one of the critics. "I never heard more beautiful legato nor such wonderful phrasing," declares Mayor Dearborn Schwab.

"I consider Julia Culp the greatest singer I have heard," says one of the critics. "From a student's standpoint the most wonderful lesson I ever had. Have heard her four times and can quite candidly say I've never heard such singing before in all my life," writes Tom Dobson.

Madame Culp will sing a recital at the Heilig Theater Saturday night, April 12, under the direction of the Portland Musical Association.

Ferdinand Zimmerman, of this city, to Charles Austin Prevost, of Chicago. Miss Zimmerman, one of Portland's younger set, attended National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C., and is a member of the Gamma Phi Beta Sorority.

Mr. Prevost is a graduate of Stanford University, a member of the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, and manager of the Chicago branch of the Pacific Surety Company.

Miss Annie Blanche Shelby has returned from California, and has taken apartments at the Carlton Hotel.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST "The" big event of the Spring season was the elaborate regimental dinner given by the officers of the Twenty-first Infantry Thursday night in the Multnomah Hotel, in Portland. Forty-three officers, all present or past officers of the organization, were present.

The four guests of the evening were General T. M. Anderson, Colonel C. E. S. Wood, Colonel James Jackson and Captain V. M. C. Silva, all past officers of the Twenty-first Infantry. Colonel George S. Young, post commander of Vancouver Barracks, presided.

The decorations were military and unusually unique and artistic. The table represented a large rolling country, broken up by mountains and foothills, on which were arranged a large number of soldiers in the battlefield, in different formations, with their shelter tents in proper place and fortifications built. Cut flowers and evergreens and flags added to the pleasing effect of the decorations.

General Anderson spoke on "The Original Organization of the Twenty-first Infantry," telling what the regiment accomplished during the Civil War. Following up these interesting experiences, Colonel Wood told of his life in the Seventies. Chaplain James Osseward told of the regiment as it is today. The future of the Twenty-first Infantry was predicted by Lieutenant-Colonel John F. Morrison.

The orchestra of the Twenty-first Infantry furnished delightful music throughout the evening. Lieutenant John C. Fairfax sang "The Infanteries Song," with all joining in the chorus. Lieutenant Lemme, singing his own composition, "Give Me Back My Swivel Chair," made a big hit. This piece of furniture was once taken by Congress. Captain John H. Page, Jr., entertained with the song "On the Road to San Francisco."

While the officers of the Twenty-first Infantry were enjoying the banquet in Portland Mrs. George S. Young, at her delightful and spacious quarters, entertained all of the ladies of the Twenty-first Infantry, and the party was just over when the officer husbands arrived from Portland and took them home.

Brickbat and 500 were played, Mrs. George Clarke Rockwell and Mrs. Robert T. Phinney winning the prizes for high scores. The guest prizes were won by Mrs. Phinney and Miss Elizabeth Grady, the first one being a cut-glass "cologne bottle," set in silver, and the second a leather container for telephone numbers. Mrs. Young was assisted in serving unusually appetizing refreshments by Mrs. George S. Tiffany, Mrs. Edgar A. Fry and her daughter, Miss Polly Young. The only three ladies of the regiment not present, on account of illness in their families, were Mrs. William R. Scott, Mrs. John P. Morrison and Mrs. Samuel E. Smiley.

Captain and Mrs. George S. Tiffany left Friday evening for a month's stay in the East. The future of the two months' absence. He will go to New York, his home, while she will visit relatives in Louisville, Ky., before joining him.

A large number from the post went to the subscription dance in Portland Friday evening.

Miss Phinney, sister of Lieutenant R. T. Phinney, left Monday for a month's stay in California, to visit in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Palo Alto and other Southern points.

Captain Edgar H. Yule, Captain H. C. Glibner and Lieutenant John B. Richardson, with a number of soldiers, will make a reconnaissance on the territory around the target range near Probstel. They will start tomorrow and be gone four or five days.

The first band of the Twenty-first Infantry, including Companies A, B, C and D, under Major Chase, will leave here about May 1, for Clackamas, Or., for several weeks' target practice there. All of the troops will go there during the summer.

Lieutenant George Clarke Rockwell, on Friday, went to Clackamas, Or., to make arrangements for the care of the First Battalion while at target practice there.

Interest in polo is increasing and indications are that the teams this year will be the best ever trained in the post. At a meeting of polo enthusiasts last week, Lieutenant Charles P. George was elected president, secretary-treasurer and captain of the team. The first game of the season will be played at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon. Colonel Young throwing in the ball. Later in the season, the Second Field Artillery band will furnish music during periods, and a canopy will be put up for visitors. It is expected that a large number will come from Portland to witness the games. Among the players now practicing every available hour are Captain A. B. Warfield and Lieutenants George Clarke Rockwell, John C. Beatty, William H. Rucker, Thomas Meyer, Robert W. Wilson, George P. George, Daniel D. Pullen, Julian F. Barnes and James A. Gillespie. The enlisted men in the Second Field Artillery will also have several polo teams. One of the first games to be played with an outside team will be that with the Waverly Club of Portland. It is probable that the most of the games this summer will be played with this club.

Five band concerts a week are being given by the band. Twenty-first Infantry plays three days one week, while the Second Field Artillery band plays two days, and the following week the artillery plays three days. The concerts are held on every afternoon of the week, except Saturday, at 3:30 o'clock.

Miss Brambila entertained the "Parang" Sewing Club Wednesday afternoon, the members being those who used to meet with her in Parang, Philippine Islands.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

A brilliant finale to the many delightful affairs given during the season by the Knights Templars was the banquet and ball held last night at Multnomah Hotel.

The decorations were unusually beautiful and exceptional in design. The banquet room was arranged with the long table on which were strewn red roses and ferns. A garden scheme of decoration was adopted around the room; hanging baskets of roses were placed all over the hall, and on the side walls were climbing roses and palms.

In the card room, where 29 tables were arranged for 500, banks of Dorothy Perkins roses, palms and ferns were used in a growing effect, combined with festoons of huckleberry, making a pleasing foil for the gorgeous gown worn.

The patronesses for the occasion were Mrs. Harold T. Hutchinson, Mrs. Franklin A. Freeman, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mrs. Benjamin Gadsby, Mrs. George A. Lovejoy, Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Mrs. Edward G. Crawford, Mrs. Alva L. Stephens, Mrs. John H. Hall, Mrs. Alexander G. Crawford, Mrs. A. H. Averill, Mrs. Deodato G. Tomasini, Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, Mrs. Walter J. Holman, Mrs. Joseph McClelland.

The committee included Deodato G. Tomasini, Joseph McClelland, Hopkin Jenkins, William E. Grace, Edward G. Crawford, E. J. Jaeger, Alexander G. Riddell, Frank McClelland, E. L. Pettis and Charles E. Runyon.

John H. Hall presided as toastmaster, and short addresses were delivered by Franklin A. Freeman, commander of Oregon Commandery, No. 1, Hopkin Jenkins, president of the Knights Templars club, George F. Robertson, commander of the State of Oregon, and Mrs. Walter J. Holman responded on behalf of the women.

All the gowns were worthy of description, and a few of those particularly attractive were worn by: Mrs. Franklin A. Freeman, who was adorned in a stunning, embroidered Arabian lace robe, built over white satin. A corsage of Richmond roses completed her costume.

Mrs. W. H. Monroe was in a black chintilly gown, trimmed with gold bands and chintilly lace.

Mrs. George P. Robertson wore a Tuscan charmeuse, trimmed with gold lace and jet.

Mrs. Harold T. Hutchinson, white embroidered voile, with swansdown and pearl trimmings.

Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, pastel pink charmeuse with cream lace bodice, silver trimmings.

Mrs. Alexander Riddell, yellow charmeuse, with over dress of yellow chiffon, with over dress of pink roses and gold beads.

Mrs. Edward L. Pettis, pink charmeuse, with over dress of white lace, and green velvet girdle. She wore a sweeping aligrette in her coiffure.

Mrs. John Hall, turquoise chiffon over pompadour silk elaborated with shadow lace.

Mrs. D. G. Tomasini, burnt orange charmeuse, with over dress of same tones chiffon and gold trimmings.

Mrs. A. H. Averill, an imported model of pink charmeuse elaborated with Bohemian lace.

Mrs. N. U. Carpenter, a creation of silken charmeuse with a silver spangled drape.

Mrs. Frank McClelland, pastel blue charmeuse, trimmed with shadow lace, and Mrs. McClelland, white crepe de chine and shadow lace.

Mrs. Walter J. Holman, a creation of apricot charmeuse and filmy lace.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Alva L. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Thurlow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Latimer, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Pettis, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. A number of friends assembled at the home of E. J. Wood, 1076 Belmont street, Tuesday night. The affair had been arranged by Mrs. Wood as a surprise for her husband, in honor of his 59th birthday anniversary. Mr. Wood has long been a faithful and energetic member of the official board of the Central Christian Church and as a token of their esteem, the members of this organization presented Mr. Wood with a handsome Bible. The house was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, the color scheme being

How to Brown Hair Without Detection. Mrs. Potter's Walnut-Tint Hair Stain Can Be Applied in a Few Minutes Every Month.

There is a way of staining gray, faded or bleached hair any shade desired, from a beautiful rich brown to almost black, so that it is difficult, if not impossible, for even experts to detect that the hair has been treated in any way. This preparation has the tremendous advantage over hair dyes of containing no silver, sulphur, lead or other poisons which invariably cause hair-falling. It has no odor, no oil, no sediment and no grease and does not rub off on the clothing. It makes the hair grow out fluffy and luxuriant.

A liberal amount as a laboratory trial package of this Walnut-Tint Hair Stain, together with a booklet on hair, is sent by Mrs. Potter's Hygienic Supply Co., 1773 Grotto Bldg., Cincinnati, in plain sealed wrapper, if you will send 25 cents in stamps or coin. And if it is desired to continue the treatment, full-sized packages may be obtained at drug or department stores for $1 a package.

It is applied in a few moments with the comb and it stains the hair evenly from tip to root. It processes gray hair to almost black. One bottle of this Walnut-Tint Hair Stain can last a year.
