

Mrs. Edward C. Crawford

Mrs. Franklin A. Freeman

Mrs. Chas. E. Runyon

Mrs. Harold T. Hutchinson

A group of Patrons for the Knights Templar Ball Held Last Night

(Continued From Page 3.)
 ney Smith, V. K. Cullen, D. H. Diamond, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Torrey, Colonel David M. Dunne, F. H. French and R. D. Macnab. From Astoria: L. L. Tracey, Mayor E. Gray, G. B. Johnson, G. B. Jameson, Miss Eleanor Jenkins, Mrs. Summers and C. L. Gallagher. From Silverton: Mrs. O. E. Thompson, Mrs. F. A. Love, Mrs. Ethel M. Gordon, Spokane: H. Sontage, New York, and R. Lind, San Francisco.

One of the events of the week was a "500" party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. Backstrom and daughter, Verna. A color scheme of red was carried out with spring flowers, fern and Oregon grape. Card honors fell to Mrs. J. O. Trambly and Mr. Waller. The guest list included: Mr. and Mrs. George Baer, Mr. and Mrs. Reschke, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Backstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Lundberg, Mr. and Mrs. O. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Waller, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Backstrom, Mr. and Mrs. E. Helmer, Mr. and Mrs. O. Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Sell, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Trambly, Mr. and Mrs. P. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Shoberg, Mr. and Mrs. Berens and Mrs. Jansson, the Misses Blanche Waller, Minnie Alexander, Violet Backstrom, Lillian Sell, Edna Shoberg, Gladys Shoberg, Lenora Gardner and Lucile Helmer, Arthur Reschke, John Young, Harry Reschke, Oscar Helmer, Ed Sell and Earl Waller.

Mrs. G. M. Gilnes, 342 East Everett street, entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club last week. Current events were given in response to rollcall. The following papers were read: "A Presidential Campaign," by Mrs. E. J. Haight; "Initiative, Referendum and Committee System," by Mrs. W. F. Amos. Lecture day will be celebrated April 15 at the residence of Mrs. Harry E. Chipman, 350 East Twenty-second street at 2 o'clock. Subject of lecture, "The Drama of the Celtic Revival," by Jasper J. Ruhl, instructor in Germanic languages and literature of Reed College. Mrs. Gilnes served refreshments during the social hour. Mrs. Steadman was a guest of the club.

Miss Verna Menefee entertained with six tables of cards on Saturday. The honors were awarded to Miss Mary Corquum and Miss Gladys Reed. Miss Ruth Van Waters and Miss Edna Kindred assisted. The guests included: The Misses Amelle Samuels, Dorothy Wood, Helen Jones, Alma Enke, Marie Michener, Alta Clark, Rosalie La Roche, Helen Hicks, Margaret Walton, Gladys Reed, Ruth Van Waters, Beckie Van Waters, Dorothy Downard, Mary Cor-quum, Ida Marshall, Alice Norton, Phila McDuffy, Vivian Fallett, Miriam Beal, Marian Grebl, Cora Hosford, Grace Townsend, Clarabelle Chaloupka, Edna Kindred, Doris Ball and Jeanne Finley.

Mrs. Theodore Opusund entertained in honor of Miss Fields McLaine, of Silverton, Tuesday afternoon. The house was decorated with yellow roses. Professor Charles Swenson and Mrs. Swenson gave several numbers on the piano and violin. The remainder of the afternoon was passed playing 500, honors falling to Mrs. G. L. Wade and Mrs. H. O. Coale. The guests were Mrs. Bert Jackson, Mrs. C. A. Zigler, Mrs. Paul C. Yates, Mrs. Hammett N. Lacy, Miss Fields McLaine, Miss Ione Lambert, Miss Mabel Adams, Mrs. E. R. Wiggins, Mrs. H. D. Coale, Mrs. Charles Swenson and Mrs. George Cathey.

A most enjoyable meeting of George Wright sewing club was held at the home of Mrs. Detje Friday. Corps women present were Past Department President Mary E. Chamberlain, Corps President May E. Renner, Mesdames Beal, Bodley, Bart, Cooper, Emery, Ellis, Godshall, Greene, Griffith, Hamilton, Hunter, Ellen Mills, Lydia Mills, McKelley, Munger, Morse, Reed, Pfordner, Smith, Walle, Wenzel and Worick. Visitors were Mesdames Fisher, Hume, Lucky and Morris. The next meeting will be held April 18, from 10 to 2, at the home of Mrs. Emma Henderson, 491 East Thirty-eighth street, W.-R. car.

The Monday afternoon Sewing Club was entertained by Mrs. Helen E. Rice at the home of her son, E. F. Rice in Rose City Park. Members present were: Mrs. Fannie Reid, Mrs. Helen Rice, Mrs. George Reid, Mrs. Robert Reid, Mrs. Baucum, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Charles Purvine, Mrs. Harold Rice, Mrs. Gordon Purvine, Mrs. George Himes. Guests present were Mrs. Roxy Reid, of Bedford, Ia.; Miss Walk and Mrs. Fred Purvine, of Salem; Mrs. Chatterton, Mrs. E. F. Rice and Mrs. L. M. Rice. Mrs. Webster will be the next hostess.

In honor of Miss Valeska Liebe, of

The Dalles, Mrs. Carl G. Liebe entertained informally Friday afternoon. The guest list included: Mesdames E. V. Canfield, of St. Paul; Frank Menefee, Fred Schanz, Walter Smith, Pearl Norman, James Abrey, George Beckley, J. E. Simonton, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Henry Lovelidge, Burr Wagner, L. Therkelsen, William Andersen, Frank Parker, W. Waldman, Miss Rose Schacht, May Brethlin, Mrs. H. F. Sturdevant, Miss Rose Mary Baldwin, Mrs. F. P. Spaulding and Miss Valeska Liebe.

Mrs. Paul C. Yates entertained the Wednesday Five Hundred Club on Wednesday afternoon. The parlors were decorated in red and white carnations. The guests were Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie, Mrs. W. P. Jenkins, Mrs. Robert Jenkins, Mrs. C. C. Child, Mrs. J. H. Long, Mrs. Frank Wagner, Mrs. S. D. Stouffer, Mrs. George Weldon, Mrs. John McCue, Mrs. Frank Menefee, Mrs. A. E. Hammond, Mrs. G. L. Wade, Mrs. H. O. Coale, of Seattle. The honors fell to Mrs. Frank Wagner and Mrs. A. E. Hammond.

Mrs. D. L. Brace entertained Chapter F. P. E. O. Thursday afternoon at her home, 587 Flanders street. The programme was in charge of Mrs. M. O. Godding. She was assisted by Miss Margaret Copeland and Mrs. Gerald Volk, who read a paper on "Commerce of Oregon—Effect of the Panama Canal," and the "Panama Exposition." The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Seeburger, April 24, 825 Hamlet avenue.

At the home of Lewis P. Love and wife, in Elstover Addition, in the north-east part of the city, a large concourse of the Love family met last Sunday to celebrate the 62d birthday of Lewis P. Love, the baby of the family of the late Captain Lewis Love, a pioneer of the year 1848.

Mr. Love is the father of 11 children, all of whom were present.

A birthday dinner was served and at each table was a cake with miniature candles.

Mrs. Mary Hawes entertained at luncheon Thursday, assisted by her daughters, Mrs. Wise, Mrs. Bradbury and Miss Grace La Mont. Covers were laid for Mesdames Becker, Rodgett, Chamberlain, Emery, Eley, Godshall, Mickley, Mills, Renner, Reed, Wenzel and Worick. The color scheme of the decorations was cream and green. Mrs. Eley and Mrs. Wenzel won the honors at 500.

Miss Florence Olds, a recent arrival from the East, was the inspiration for a matinee party at the Orpheum Friday, given by Miss Alta Cox. Tea followed at the Hazelwood. In the party were: Miss Olds, Miss Emily Maguire, Miss Jessup, Miss Evangeline Maguire, Miss Edna Converse, Miss Ella Littlejohn, Miss Marie McDugale, Miss Maud Maloney, Mrs. Mable Maloney and the hostess.

Delightful in every detail was the evening given by the Misses Helen Greene and Blanche Pinkelstein Monday, in their apartments at the Fordham, in honor of Miss Nola Fabri Hobbs, who has been sojourning for the past six months in England and France. Miss Hobbs is a musician of note and her charming rendition of some of the old English ballads was a delight to her many friends present.

The Richmond Self-Advancement Club was entertained by Mrs. M. M. Kittrell on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. C. Lancaster, 591 Greenwood avenue. A short talk on the proposed commission charter was given by Mrs. E. C. Strayer. A general discussion of this subject followed. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The Knights of the Rose have just closed a series of "500" parties with a most pleasant time and with a new committee in charge will start another series commencing April 14 at the usual time and place, 129 Fourth street, hoping that all who have attended in the past will come and bring as many more new friends. There will be prizes given and refreshments served.

The marriage of Margaret Mary, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. O'Loughlin, and Thomas Bernard Johnston will be solemnized at the Church of the Ascension, in Montavilla, Tuesday morning, followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Laurelhurst that evening.

Mrs. Beckwith, of Portland, was one of the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Crosby on Monday evening, at Coronado. Later the hosts gave a "rag" party in the private ballroom, where the guests enjoyed themselves until long after midnight.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of Woodlawn gave a luncheon in the restaurant for the teachers Friday noon. Following the lunch, Dr. Mary Madigan gave an interesting talk on sex hygiene.

Mrs. David Wendlick entertained the Summer Relief Corps Sewing Club in her home on Denver avenue Thursday. A luncheon was served by the hostess and members of the committee to 25 guests.

Marguerite Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, entertained with a masked ball Thursday evening, the characters represented being many and varied. About 75 couples took part in the grand march.

COMING EVENTS.

The Irvington Club has completed arrangements for a formal dancing party to be given Friday at the clubhouse. This dance will be one of the most elaborate of the season, special decorations of lights and flowers, and special music will be provided, and every effort has been made to have this party eclipse all former ones. The patronesses are: Mrs. W. F. Woodman, Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Mrs. Johnston Porter, Mrs. W. J. Hofmann, Mrs. C. L. Mead, Mrs. J. W. Creath, Mrs. E. A. Hartman, Mrs. W. C. Cameron. The committee in charge includes: J. L. Bowman, chairman, A. H. Cousins, F. V. Andrews, E. A. Hartman, J. P. Menefee.

At the recent Michigan Society Easter party, the Wolverine Strollers reorganized for the 1913 season and will give their initial 1913 walk Friday evening, meeting at Council Crest at 7:45 P. M. The calendar says "full moon" for that date, so all Michigan-ers and their friends should take advantage of the beautiful Council Crest walk. B. L. Gardner and Arch MacDonald, Portland's long-distance walkers, have joined this enthusiastic strolling society. All interested in the walks are invited. For information, call Mrs. Harriet Hendee, afternoon or evening, Sellwood 1467, or R. W. Chapman, A. 4936, before 4:30 P. M.

The military Mayday dancing party which will be given by Company B, Third Infantry, Oregon National Guard, at the Armory Hall, on Thursday evening, May 1, is expected to be the most popular dance of the year. The many trophies won by the company during recent years will be displayed, which will form part of the decoration for the hall. The committee will arrange everything for the comfort of its guests and the music will be of the latest features. The patronesses are: Mrs. W. E. Finzer, Mrs. L. A. Bowman, Mrs. E. Carlson, Mrs. E. A. Porter and Mrs. K. S. Whitehead.

Oregon Rose Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will give its monthly dancing party on Friday evening in Royal Academy Hall, Manchester building, 5515 Fifth street. Rose Weinberg's orchestra will have charge of the music. Patronesses for the evening are Mrs. Mae Angel, Mrs. Martha Hemminger, Mrs. Frank Fastbender, Mrs. G. S. Nettle, Mrs. Danielson and Mrs. C. Swain. Preceding over the punch bowl will be the Misses Buchtel and Foch.

The graduating class of Jefferson High School will give a dance at Masonic Temple, Friday, April 18. The patrons and patronesses for the affair are Mr. and Mrs. Hopkin Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mangold, Miss Estella Ingalls, Miss Sarah Ruby, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis, Mrs. D. A. Povey and Mrs. M. M. Mace. The committee in charge of the arrangements are Frank Davis, Allen Emery, Clarence Hendrickson, Robert McMurray, Gladys Mace, Veda Povey, M. Krumpke and Miss Ruth Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Loughlin, 1214 Everett street, Laurelhurst, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret O'Loughlin, to Thomas Johnston. The wedding will take place at Ascension Church, at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening.

Rose City Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, will entertain with a five hundred and dancing party Monday evening, April 14, in their hall, in the Selling-Hirsch building. The following committee on entertainment promising to give a most enjoyable affair: Frederick Schulze, F. W. Coffee, C. F. Wood.

The Young People's League of St. Michael's Church will give a vaudeville entertainment in the Rose City Park Clubhouse April 23. The performance will last from 8:15 to 10:30 P. M. after which there will be a dance. Stipe's Orchestra will furnish the music.

The event of each year with the Benevolent of the White Temple is their annual public entertainment. On April 22 they will give, with other literary and musical features, a "Blind Girl of Castle Cule," in its quaint Lowland Scotch peasant setting and costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander G. Ogilvie have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Bernice Elizabeth Ayers to James Edward Ludlum. The ceremony will be performed at 2 o'clock, in St. James, Wash., Wednesday noon, April 30.

The Easter supper and promenade, which is an annual event, will be given in St. Lawrence Assembly Hall on the evening of April 15. The affair, which is largely patronized, is in charge of the women of the parish.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet Thursday at 2 o'clock at the Hotel Portland. Mrs. R. C. Taylor is in charge of the programme. All Southerners are invited.

Rev. I. B. Self, formerly of Denver, will deliver his humorous lecture, "Slips of the Tongue," Friday evening at Hope Presbyterian Church, corner East Seventy-eighth and Everett streets, Montavilla.

Professor Frank T. Chapman, Pauline Miller Chapman and Harmon Marbold Chapman will give a concert for the Sellwood Y. M. A. on Friday evening, corner Spokane avenue and Fifteenth.

The La Hoa Club has completed arrangements for a short musical dancing party to be held in Christiansen's Hall on Friday evening, April 25. Invitations will soon be issued.

Invitations are out for a Yama Yama dance, which will be given at the Port-

Queen Quality

SHOE

$3.50 to $5.00

They Hold Their Shape.

Nothing is more annoying to the average woman than the get-out-of-shape-quickly shoes. And shoes that lose their shape quickly wear out quickly.

Queen Quality Shoes hold their shape. This is due to the flexible sole and perfect construction of vamp and uppers. Try one pair and you will never wear any other kind.

Sole Agency
A. J. Wochos Shoe Co.
 TWO STORES.
 380 Wash. St., Cor. W. Park
 308 Wash. St., Wilcox Bldg.
 Catalogues on Request.
 Mail Orders Solicited.

land Rowing Club, Thursday evening, April 24.

St. Ann's Charitable Society will give a dancing party at Multnomah Hotel on Tuesday evening, May 6.

WEDDINGS.

Green-York.
 A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry York Wednesday evening, April 2, when their youngest daughter, Marie Valeria, became the bride of Thaddeus H. Green. Rev. H. T. Cash officiated. Miss Nan Emkin sang "I Love You Truly" as the bridal party entered. Master Kilburn York, nephew of the bride, carried the ring in a huge calla lily and little Rowen York, the bride's niece, was flower girl. The bride was given in marriage by her father and was gown in ivory satin with trimmings of real lace and pearl ornaments, her veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms and she carried white carnations. Miss Clara Dahling was bridesmaid. She wore pale blue crepe de chine and carried pink carnations. A. Galdart acted as best man. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. About 100 guests were present. The rooms were decorated with spring flowers and greens. Mr. and Mrs. Green will be at home to their friends after April 29 at the Uphur Apartments.

Latin-Robinson.
 Karl Latin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Latin, of Dayton, O., and Miss Bessie Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Robinson, were married Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents at 4 o'clock. Rev. Henry Marcotte officiated. William Sweet was ring-bearer. The bride was given away by her father. Only relatives and intimate friends were present. The bride wore a traveling suit, a smart tailored navy blue, worn with a white hat, and a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses.

The Robinson residence was adorned with bride's roses and greenery and a profusion of jonquills were used.

Special Sale
Exhibition
Laces and Embroideries

All hand-made, directly imported from Italy, France and Madeira Islands.

1/4 OFF

Cluny, Florentine, Filet and Venetian Laces, in Luncheon Sets, Bedspreads, Pillow Slips, Scarfs, dainty novelties in neckwear, waist patterns, etc.

ATIYEH BROS.

134 Tenth, Corner Alder.

Order Your Spring Suit Now

All the newest fabrics in blue, white, fancy and plain colors. Strictly tailored and one price.

$50

Don't fail to take advantage of this offer.

J. K. STERN, LADIES' TAILOR,
 447 ALDER STREET.

parties, who commenced to gather shortly after the morning service. Rev. E. S. Bollinger, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride has a host of friends at St. Johns, where her home has been for several years. Mr. Cain has been one of the best known and popular young men of the Highland Church since its organization.

Keyes-Grover.
 J. Paul Keyes and Miss Maybelle E. Grover were married at the home of the bride's aunt (Mrs. S. F. Grover), 1113 E. Clay street, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. William H. Fry, pastor of the Sunnyside M. E. Church. After a brief visit to the home of the bride at Newport, Wash., the young couple will make their home at Corvallis, Or.

Cain-Wood.
 Archie Ray Cain and Floyd Grace Wood were married at the Highland Congregational Church, Sunday. The affair was a surprise to all except immediate friends and relatives of both Povey-Doane.

 Alfred V. Povey and Miss Nellie E. Doane, both of Portland, were married at the parsonage of the Sunnyside M. E. Church, April 5, and left for Seattle to pass their honeymoon with friends there.

Werden-Ray.
 Harry E. Worden and Elsie D. Ray were married at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational Church, Monday, by the Rev. J. J. Staub, D. D.

Atherton-Huntington.
 James R. Atherton and Miss Geneva Huntington, both of this city, were

(Continued on Page 5.)

Latest
Arrivals from Fashion
Centers

ARTISTE Milliners have contributed their choicest to our selection. Just received from our Eastern buyer, and especially noteworthy, are the new Castellan Tailored or Suit Hats in the smartest modes and colors. Uptown stores charge considerable more, but we feature them at prices from

$8 to $16

We also feature a comprehensive selection of large, medium and small Gage Pattern Hats in all the popular color combinations—are modestly priced from $15 to $40.

All the New Plumes $3 and Up

Now on display are the latest branched Ostrich Plumes—Burnt Orange, Nell Rose, New Blue and the exclusive fancy shadings—uncurled and "lobster" curled, at $3.00 to $30.00.

One Store Only

FRALEY'S

Third and Salmon Sts.

PAINLESS
DENTISTS
Good Eats

are obtained only through perfect Massages which is the result of First Class Dentistry. Our Plates, Crown and Bridgework and Fittings are made from the very best materials and workmanship.

PLATES UP FROM $5

22-k Gold Crown and Solid Bridge Work $3 Per Tooth

Entire Corner of Mulkey Bldg., at N. E. Corner of Second and Morrison Sts.

Not in the Dental Trust

All Work Guaranteed 15 Years.

Eight Years in Portland.