roses. A delightful feature of the aftseronom was music by a stringed orchestra and selections by the Cecilian quartet.

Card honors fell to Mrs. John Burgard, Mrs. Frank Le Fevre and Mrs. B.

S. Huntington. The hostesses were assisted by Mrs. R. E. Watkins and Miss Ida Shea. At the conclusion of the game a number of additional guests came in for tea. The guests included: Mesdames Lee Arnett, McKinley Mitchell, Byron E. Miller, D. G. Tomasini, M.

C. Banfield, C. B. Simmons, James Muckle, R. R. Giltner, H. M. Haller, John Toft, Nina Larowe, J. C. Contello, J. B. Tanner, A. G. Chaloupka, Frank Waring, Joseph Supple, L. F. Shaw, J.

H. Buckley, H. A. Heppner, F. La Peyrs, D. C. Burnes, B. S. Huntington, W. D. Jellison, C. E. Runyon, Theodoro Nicolai, F. E. Harlow, M. J. Delahunt, H. Blaesing, A. B. Balley, F. W. Isherwood, J. H. Burgard, E. M. Baker, C. E. Boss, John Manning, W. T. Wade, E. B. Catlin, R. B. Montomery, Carlton Lewis, B. F. Weaver, E. H. Beall, Georgen Simpson, John Annand, Charles F. Jones, Harvey Beckwith, George Parrish, Allen Todd, James Appleby, C. C. Shea, H. N. Lacey, Therkelson, Perry C. Graves, Martin J. Shea, W. Campbell, T. J. Coleman, W. W. Bahks, N. T. Harris, M. Rothrock, F. Eggert, Amedee Smith, Louks, John Luckle, C. J. Cooke, W. H. Webrung, F. E. Vrooman, Harry Chipman, Misses Helen Gates, Nona Lawler, Ida Shea, Helen Eilers.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Susan Steiwer to William

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Susan Stelwer to William Lester Reinhart was made known at the wedding reception of the former's sister Wednesday evening. Miss Stelwer is a beautiful girl and popular in the younger set. She is the second daughter of Mrs. Winlock W. Stelwer, and after graduating from Portland after graduating from Portland Academy attended Miss Merrill's school in New York.

Mr. Reinhart is the son of Mrs. George Angell, of Fossil, Or. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon, and of the State College of Washington. He is engaged in business in Eastern Oregon, and the wedding is scheduled to take place early in the

A simple but pretty wedding of the week was that of Miss Patience Mc-Mahon and Willis Dillenbeck, which was solemnized at 4 o'clock in the chapel of Trinity Church, Wednesday. There were no attendants and the guests were no attendants and the mate friends. The bride work guests were relatives and a few intimate friends. The bride wore a smart traveling suit of blue ratine, with hat trimmed with bird of paradise. Mr.
and Mrs. Dillenbeck left for a wedding trip to Puget Sound cities, and upon their return will reside at Olequa.

The bride is the daughter of Mr.
and Mrs. George McMahon. Owing to the recent illness of the bride, the elaborate wedding which had been pleased originally had to be aban-

planned originally had to be aban-

Many luncheons and dinners were given during the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orpheum Theater. On Wednesday, after the matince, Mrs. David McDaniel gave the matince, Mrs. David McDaniel gave to be at a charming and elaborate tea at her than the matine of the ma a pretty tea at the Hotel Portland in her honor. Mrs. McDaniel's guests were his Miss Reed, Mrs. Rose Coursen Reed, Mrs. Dolph Taylor, Miss Vieve Cecil, Miss Helen White, Mrs. Arthur H. Brown, Mrs. G. E. Jamison and Miss Louise Cecil.

at a charming and elaborate tea at hor home in Vancouver, Wash, Wednesday. The guests of honor were Miss Pompe, of Vancouver: Miss Henriette Rothschild and Miss Alma Lauritzen, of Portland.

The Elchenlaub home was converted into a floral bower by the use of Spring

Two delightful affairs of the week were the card parties given by Mrs. H. M. Haller, Thursday and Friday afternoons. The Haller residence in Irvington was elaborately decorated for the occasion with pink roses, carnations, sweet peas and ferns. A color scheme of yellow was adopted in the dinning-room.

Thursday was devoted to bridge at which seven tables were played. Mrs. Fitz-Howard Jarvis, Mrs. Keir and Mrs. R. F. Lytie were the successful can-

On Friday there were 13 tables of 500 and card honors fell to Mrs. J. A. Anthony, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. A. C. Chaloupka and Mrs. F. W. LaFevre. Refreshments were served each day at small tables.

Mrs. Haller's guests for both days included Mrs. Robert L. Aldrich, Mrs. J. A. Anthony, Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, Mrs. J. C. Bracher, Mrs. Charles L. Bass, Mrs. F. C. Barnes, Mrs. Harvey Beckwith, Mrs. J. Culien Bryant, Mrs. Walter D. Brewer, Mrs. F. C. Baker, Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. F. C. Baker, Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mrs. Harry Cauthright, Mrs. A. C. Chaloupka, Mrs. James E. Cameron, Mrs. Elmer E. Coovert, Mrs. W. C. Cameron, Mrs. George B. Cellars, Mrs. George W. Caldwell, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. F. S. Doernbecher, Mrs Marcus J. Delahunt, Mrs. Bert M. Dennison, Mrs. George A. Emery, Mrs. Arthur L. Fish, Mrs. Arthur L. Finley, Mrs. C. F. Fisher, Mrs. H. W. Foster, Mrs. J. P. Ford, Mrs. William F. Fleidner, Mrs. Herman A. Fredrich, Mrs. L. Gerlinger, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. George L. Gerlinger, Mrs. Graves, Mrs. George D. Green, Mrs. P. Grossmeyer, Mrs. Ed-mund Gurney, Mrs. J. Coulson Hare, Mrs. Charles O. Hill, Mrs. William B. Hare, Mrs. William J. Hofmann, Mrs. E. F. Hitchcock, Mrs. Edward J. Hall, Mrs. George M. Hyland, Mrs. Hogg, Mrs. Fitz-Howard Jarvis, Mrs. Charles L. Jones, Mrs. G. Orlo Jefferson, Mrs. F. O. Jennings, Mrs. Charles W. King, Mrs. Thomas C. Kurtz, Miss Anna Kurtz, Mrs. Keir, Mrs. Samuel P. Lockwood, Mrs. R. F. Lytle, Mrs. F. W. LeFevre, Mrs. Levi M. Lacy, Mrs. Nina Larrowe, Mrs. lightfully Wednesday and Thursday afternoons with bridge parties. Six tables were arranged for the games both afternoons, and the rooms were decorated prettily with wallfowers. Card honors fell to Mrs. Paul E. Froehlich and Miss Marshall the first day, and the second day Mrs. Charles T. Whitney and Mrs. E. L. Thompson were the fortunate contestants. At the conclusion of the Edward Lucas, Mrs. C. Lewis Moad, Mrs. C. H. Maginnis, Mrs. William L. Morgan, Mrs. Robert Menefee, Mrs. Joseph P. Menefee, Mrs. T. B. Montgomery, Mrs. Ernest H. Meyer, Mrs. Joseph McCielland, Mrs. William C. McBride, Stone, Loia Senders and Mesdames Fred lightfully Wednesday and Thursday aft-

Prances Fuller, and Miss Elizabeth Bruere.

One of the smartest events of the week was the attractive bridge party of 15 tables given by Mrs. J. Coulsen Hare, Mrs. William B. Hare and Mrs. Cora Puffer on Wednesday at the residence of the former. The rooms were charmingly decorated with masses of Spring flowers and huge bowls of pink roses. A delightful feature of the afternoon was music by a stringed orchestra and selections by the Cecilian quartet.

Mrs. Joseph M. Rothehild, For-Margnerite Egan.

Miss Marguerite Cathrine Egan, of Salem, and Joseph M. Rothchild, of Portland, were united in marriage at the Hotel Marion in Salem April 30. They will be at home to their friends at the Wilmar apartments, Lucretia and Everett streets, after June 1. The ceremony was per-formed by Father Moore, and only relatives and immediate friends of the couple were pres-ent. After a wedding supper the couple departed for Scattle and British Columbia, where they are spending their honeymoon. Those present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rothchild, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Rothchild, Arnold Blitz, Miss Amy Rothchild of Port-land, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Egan, Albert Egan, and Miss Irene Williams

A most delightful welcome is being extended to Miss Vida Reed, who has just returned to Portland after three years' stay in New York City. She has been extensively entertained and during this week will be the guest of honor at a number of affairs.

A group of Miss Reed's girl friends who are members of a sewing club made up a theater party at the Orpheum yesterday, and after the performance all adjourned to one of the grills for tea, with the clever girl as honor guest, Among those in the party were the Misses Ruth and Louise Small, Miss Louise Bradley, Miss Mary Hong, Mrs. Lloyd Bates, Miss Louise Williams, whose engagement has just been announced; Miss Jessle MacLean, Mrs. A. G. Long, Mrs. A. L. Patulio, Mrs. Fletcher Lynn, Miss Gene Spenser, Miss Geraldine Coursen, Miss Gerealdine Coursen, Miss Gereald Mrs. Cari L. Wernicke asked a number of Miss Peach Marthal Miss Greats Butterfield.

Mrs. Cari L. Wernicke asked a number of Miss Reed's old friends into her apartments at the Bretnor Friday afternoon for tea.

Miss Louise Emmons will entertain Tuesday informally in honor of Miss Reed, and several other charming affairs are planned to make this attractive young woman's short visit in Portland a pleasurable one. fairs are planned to make this attractive young woman's short visit in Portland a pleasurable one.

Miss Eleu T. Smith was hostess at an informal auction bridge party yesterday at her home on Irving street.

Many luncheons and dinners were given during the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction bridge party yesterday at the Orton auction bridge party yesterday at her home on Irving street.

Many luncheons and dinners were given during the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction bridge party yesterday at the Orton auction bridge party yesterday at her home on Irving street.

Many luncheons and dinners were given during the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction bridge party yesterday and the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction bridge party yesterday and the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction being the past week for Miss Vida Reed, who appeared at the Orton auction bei blossoms and ferns. The drawing-room was artistic with clusters of dogwood blossoms, combined with pink carna-tions, pink tulle bows and pink-shaded candelabra. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Melrose Kaser, Mrs. Frank G. Eichenlaub, Mrs. Frank Fox and Mrs. Harry Dunlap, They were as-sisted by Miss Viola Crawford, Miss Verna Paynter, Miss Louise Lackaff and Miss Lena Schulz.

Mrs. P. J. McHugh, Who Will Be Guest of Honor at a Bridge Luncheon on Thursday.

The hostess was further assisted in the drawing-room by Miss Frances Lackaff, Miss Pearl Pompe and Miss Louise Chalmers. Miss Joanna Harvey received the depends far more upon the taste and skill with which its furnishings are assembled than upon their cost.

If you have a room to furnish, wholly or in part, we cordially invite you to consult with us about it. Our training and experience are at your service without charge. At the very least we will show you a wealth of new decorative materials-wall papers, drapery fabrics, furniture coverings, rugs, furniture, mirrors, lamps, pottery, pictures, that you will not be able to see elsewhere, and that, we think, you can scarcely afford to miss seeing.

We are closing out at cost many of the things carried by Moore & Co. Among them are silver, jewelry, pictures, china and art objects. No such opportunity to buy distinctive gifts, prizes and small pieces for the home will occur again.

Unander and Jakway Decorators and Furnishers

Alder at Eleventh Street.

bridge parties of the week at her at-tractive home, "Glenmorrie." Mrs. Nor-ris is a prominent society matron in of three tables. Thursday afternoon, the Bay City, and left on Tuesday for when she entertained a group of her her Summer home on Bainbridge closest friends.

Island, near Seattle, for a fortnight.
En route to her home in San Francisco, she will be the guest of Mrs. Mrs. Duncan W. Campbe Morey for any lar week

Oakland, formerly of Portland, are being felicitated upon the birth of a son, their second child. Mr. Laidlaw is a son of the late James Laidlaw, of Port-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Watkins have returned from a month's visit in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Long Francisco, Beach, Cal.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Bernice Ayers, of White Salmon, Wash, youngest daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Oglivle, to James Edward Ludlam, of Portland. The wedding was an al fresco affair, taking place in the Ogilvie orchards, which made a charming foil for the bridal party, with its masses of pink and white fruit blossoms, on Wednes-day, April 30, at 12:30 o'clock. Rev. J. C. Tate, of White Salmon, officiated. The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Polivka, of Portland, and the ceremony was performed beneath a bower of apple blossoms and maiden hair fern. Lovell E. Winters acted as best man, and the maid of honor was Miss Mabel Ayers, of Pasadena, a sister of the bride. Elizabeth Ludlam, sister of the bride. Elizabeth Ludlam, sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and at the conclusion of the ceremoney Miss Mabel Ayers sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who is an unusually at-The wedding march was played by Miss

The bride, who is an unusually at-tractive girl, wore the conventional white charmeuse, en train, embellished with duchess lace. She also were a full-length veil and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor, Miss Mabel Ayers, was in yellow charmeuse trimmed with shadow lace. She carried a bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses. Miss Ludiam vore a chic frock of white lace over Archibald, C. Connors, F. G. Elchenlaub, Roy Getz, Mark Hawes, W. R.

Kaser and Ralph Robinson.

An elaborate affair of the week was the card party given by Mrs. M. C. Banfield Tuesday afternoon at her home on Portland Heights. The rooms were attractively decorated with palms and cut flowers. A feature of the afternoon was the delightful musical programme.
Mrs. Banfield was assisted in receiving Shelley, Arthur P. Gram, Mr. and Mrs. was the delightful musical programme.

Mrs. Banfield was assisted in receiving by Miss Aadie Banfield, Mrs. W. K. Siater, Miss Charlotte Banfield and Miss Eileen Yerex.

Complimenting Mrs. Loren A. Norris, of San Francisco, Mrs. Fred P. Morey was hostess at one of the prettiest bridge parties of the week at her at-

Island, hear En route to her home in En route to her home in En route to her home in cisco, she will be the guest of Mrs. Morey for ano her week.

Six tables were arranged in the drawing-room for bridge, and elaborate decorations of wild flowers combined with cut blossoms were artistically arranged about the rooms.

Presiding in the dining-room were sly mrs. Thomas O'Day and Mrs. W. W. Cotton. Card honors fell to Mrs. Ed. Fourteenth Infantry, United States arrows Owen, Mrs. Thomas O'Day, Miss Bertha Carring. Inclusion of the game, a number of additional guests called for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Laidiaw, of and Mrs. Won dem Bussche, of Fort Missoula. Only relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride and bridegroom were attended by Lieutenant and Mrs. von dem Bussche, of Fort Missoula. Only relatives and a few friends witnessed the ceremony.

ceremony.

The bride wore a handsome gown of mauve brocade satin, embellished with plume-laden picture hat.

Mrs. von dem Bussche was in a gray crepe de chine, trimmed with lace and fringe, worn with a plumed hat. After George Wright, near Spokane, where Captain Mullay is now stationed. Mrs. Mullay is the daughter of the Mrs. Mullay is the daughter of the late Captain Cleveland Rockwell, United States Army, and was one of the popular society girls of this city. She is also popular in Hamilton, where she has been living for the past year. Mrs. Mullay is a sister of Mrs. John Rittenhouse Stephens, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Haller and daughter, Miss Helen, will leave Tuesday for the East to attend the commencement ex-ercises of their daughter and sister, Miss Marle Haller, who will graduate from Mount Vernon Seminary in Washington, D. C., May 22. Mr. and Mrs. Haller will be gone a couple of months, of interest.

McHugh, a prominent society matron of Seattle.

Mrs. Harry Edmund Coleman and Duchess lace. She also wore a large fringe, worn with a plumed hat. After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Ravalli Hotel, the home of the bride.

Captain and Mrs. Mullay left for a wedding trip to the Pacific Coast, and will be hospitably welcomed by society.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST George Wright, near Spokane, where Captain Mullay is now stationed.

Target practice began at the Clackamas, Or., target range Thursday, where Captain Fred W. Bughee and Company: Captain Fred W. Bughee and Continued on Page 4.)

visiting large Eastern cities and points

Mrs. J. C. Costello will be hostess at two large and elaborate card parties on Thursday and Friday this week in honor of her house guest, Mrs. J. P.

Mrs. Roland Chapman will compilment Miss Irene Flynn, whose wedding to Raymond McCarthy will take place June 4, with a large tea on Friday, May 16, and Miss Catherine Hunt will A wedding breakfast was served in the dining-room, where great clusters of dogwood blossoms were effectively combined with apple blossoms. A pretty arrangement of asparagus fern and white tulips adorned the center of the table.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludlam left for a wedding trip to Gearhart-by-the-Sea, and will be at home after May 15 at Altonia Apartments.

A novel feature of the wedding was the anniversary of the wedding of Mrs.

J. P. Ludlam, mother of the bride-groom, and of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Standifer and daughter, Miss Ruth Standifer, of Los Angeles, arrived in Portland yester-day, and are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Menefee. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Menefee. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Standifer are going to make their home in Portland. and Miss Standifer, who has an expert horsewoman. Mr. Ludlam

Can you hesitate, if there's the slightest need for Spring and Summer apparel? The smartest styles! The latest fabrics and colorings! Every garment new this season! Four models precisely as illustrated above. This sale is an annual event with us-planned for months back. Regular $27.50, $24.75, $22.50 and $19.50 Suits, Coats and Dresses, comprising practically our entire stock at these prices. Your unrestricted choice of eight big racks at

TAKE ADVANTAGE TOMORROW

Phone or

Approval

ONLY

TWO MORE

DAYS

Our beautiful showing is of particular interest to those planning new homes.

ORIENTAL

Out of the high-rent distriet. You can't afford to buy Oriental Rugs without seeing us.

Cartozian Bros. Oriental Rug Importers. Wash., Bet. 13th and 14th. Oriental Rugs mended and washed clean by native weavers. Prices moderate. Phone us. Wedding announcements, Invitations at-Home Cards

We have the exact knowledge of every requirement and every detail of style which produces the most Beautiful Engraving, Die Stamped Social Fraternity Stationery

We shall be glad to submit samples

and prices Kilham Stationery & Printing Company

Fifth and Oak Streets

The Up-to-Date Engraving Store of Portland.

Careful attention, with delicate handling, given to every order. Wedding Invitations Announcements Reception and Visiting Cards

Steel Die Engraving Monograms Note Papers and Business Cards

The Souvenir Season is now here. Gill's and Souvenirs have always been synonomous. This year we have many new ideas in the Souvenir line which are sure to please. Columbia River and Portland View Books, Folders, Photogravures, etc. Night in Portland, just published, at 10c, has proven a big favorite.

Our stock of Western Books is bigger and better than ever. John Williams' Book, "The Guardians of the Columbia," has been pronounced the most perfect Souvenir of Oregon ever published. Commencement Books and Congratulation Cards now on display.

The J. K. Gill Co.

Books, Office Supplies, Furniture, Engineers' Supplies, Etc. PORTLAND. . . . Third and Alder . . . OREGON

Don't Forget Your Furs

Moths do more destruction to your FURS every year than actual wear PROTECT YOURS by storing in our MOTH, FIRE AND BURGLAR-PROOF VAULTS of STEEL and CONCRETE.

FURS stored and insured for the entire season at special rates. PHONE-Our messenger will call. Main 24, A 2440.

FURS REMODELED AND REPAIRED FOR LESS during the Summer months. Delivered later when needed

GJ. P. PLAGENANN, MGR 288 Morrison St.

Corbett Bldg.

Geo. Hotchkiss Street who, during his residence in Paris, has become recognized by all who have watched his work, as one of the most successful teachers of singing in Europe, has come to Portland for a visit and will remain until September and probably longer.

During this time Mr. Street will accept pupils at his studio, 509 Eilers building. Appointments must be made in advance, either by telephone or in writ-Telephone at residence be-

9 and 10 A. M., Marshall 1411. Tone Production, Diction, Style.

See next Sunday's papers for an outline of what you would call Mr. Street's "method."