Mike's club looks formidable, but B. C., when the Portland club defeated Vancouver, 6-0.

A few days later Hynes set Tacoma it is down keeping company with the Colts, and the impending series will be down with three hits and won 2-1, so he must be all that his past performances in Class C would seem to indicate. The new Northwestern pitching re-cruit is only 23 years old, although he has another birthday the 30th of this

Colts, and the impending series where for the cellar sovereignty. Felts, an ex-Scal Coast Leaguer, is in left; Rawlings, of Vernon, at short; Melchoir, Spokane and Scal castoff, is in right; Delmas, Los Angeles and Oak-land veteran, at second, and Danny Shea, of Portland, is bearing the brunt of the catching. Other Bees are Mike the is conterfield Brooks formerly month. He has been pitching profes-sional baseball only two years-this makes his third. But in those two years Shea, of Porthind, is bearing out the of the catching. Other Bees are Mike Lynch in centerfield; Brooks, formerly of Seattle, at first, and Lamb at third. This makes Lynch's third manage-ment in the league, Mike having bossed both Seattle and Tacoma in the past. Last year he had Tacoma. he has done remarkably well. Last year at London, Ont., in Whe Canadian ball club, champions of the Texas League, he won 20 out of 28 games under Nick Williams there will be some sorely disgruntled critics.
