

O'HARA AND WOMAN ARE NEARLY AGREED

Maud Robinson Denies Impropriety in Relations With Illinois Official.

DEFENSE PRESENTS ALIBI

Chairman of Vice Committee Offers to Produce Press Club Tabs to Prove He Spent Night in Game of Poker.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Maud Robinson, accuser, and Lieutenant-Governor Barrett O'Hara, respondent, in accusations of immorality presented in the Illinois Senate against O'Hara, offered today before the Senate investigation committee testimony which differed in one detail, but agreed in essential particulars.

Each denied improper intimacy and differed in the single statement made by Miss Robinson that on the night of January 19 O'Hara visited the suites at the Hotel Sherman occupied by Miss Robinson and other women. According to Miss Robinson O'Hara called at the apartment after he, Thomas Redenburgh, Harry Gibbons, a Chicago court ballist, Miss Robinson, and another woman had visited the suite of the Hotel Sherman and a cafe across the street.

Details of Alibi Given. O'Hara testified, and in this testimony he was supported by Frank J. Jacobson, an advertising man, that after leaving the cafe, the second one visited that evening, he met Jacobson at the Press Club, took a midnight lunch with Jacobson at a short-order restaurant and then went home, accompanied by Jacobson. In this connection he offered to produce as witnesses his mother and father.

He accounted in similar detail for his public appearance on January 18 at a luncheon, a banquet and at the theater. He named numerous witnesses who would confirm his testimony on these points. On the remainder of the 18th he played poker with members of the Press Club, naming several of them, until 6 o'clock Sunday morning. In support of this story he offered to produce checks against him at the Press Club. This was the morning of the 19th. The most of the day he spent at his office and the home of his parents. He attended the Olympic late in the performance and sat in a box alone.

Vredenburg Accepts Theater Box.

His appearance at the theater was explained by him as follows. The manager of the theater had given him and a friend a box to attend the first performance of a play on the night in question. Not desiring to sit through a performance, he offered the box to Vredenburg, who accepted it. It was Vredenburg who showed O'Hara great courtesy in securing him a home at Springfield and who introduced him to Miss Robinson on a train coming from Springfield to Chicago on January 17. O'Hara dropped in to the play late because the manager of the theater desired to obtain his opinion of the production. Leaving the theater, O'Hara met Vredenburg and the two women and, being urged, "took a sandwich" with them at a cafe. He then returned to his home.

Woman Registered as Married.

In his testimony O'Hara said he could not remember the name of the woman who was with Miss Robinson. He said, however, that Vredenburg had told him he had registered the woman as having a husband, at the request of the woman, who had a partner in common. Vredenburg explained that this was because the woman desired to receive their friends at the event, and, without having their names announced by a possible questioning on the part of the hotel management.

HIS CASE WAS HOPELESS

Could Hardly Eat. Gradually Grew Worse. Relieved by Peruna.

Mr. A. M. Ikard, Box 31, West Burlington, Iowa, writes: "I had catarrh of the stomach and small intestine for a number of years. I consulted a number of doctors and got no relief, and the Weyerhaeuser Syndicate sent me to Chicago, and I met the same fate. They said they could do nothing for me; said I had cancer of the stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was offensive and I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse. "Finally I concluded to try Peruna, and I found relief and a cure for that dreadful disease, catarrh. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Serravallo, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle of it in my house all the time."

Persons who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.
