

hin1)-Roy Parks is a brother of James W. Parks, ex-Mayor of Aberdeen, and head of the Pacific Fisheries and Pack-ing Company. Roy Parks was single and had recently gone to Roseburg from California. The young man had not been in communication with his brother for some time. Mr. Parks left tonight for Roseburg to make arrange-ments for disposition of the body.

GOVERNORS WILL ATTEND Executives of 14 States to Join Boise

Good Roads Convention

BOISE. Idaho, May 10.-(Special.)-The Governors in attendance at the Western Governors' Association conference to be held in Salt Lake the first week in June will, following the close of their conference, speed to Bolse on of their conference, speed to Boke on a special train to attend the Inter-Mountain Good Roads convention which opens in this city on June 10. Because the chief executives of 14 states expressed a desire to be in at-tendance at the convention of the Inter-Mountain Good Roads Association a change was made in the date for the meeting of the Western Governors' Association from the second to the first week in June.

week in June. While the greater part of the week of the Goog Roads convention will be devoted to the discussion of good road matters, entertainment of the visitors will not be forgotion. They will be given a special trip to the site of the great Arrow Rock dam, the highest in the world, shown the orchards of the main of the or a trip around Boise valley, taken on a trip around the electric loop that now connects Boise, Namps and Caldwell as well as intermediate smaller towns, plunged in the big natural hot water dip at the Natatorium, Idaho's famous resort, dined and maybe wined.

PORTLAND MOTHER LOSES Mrs. Charles A. Purdin Can't Have Daughter, Says Court.

HILLSBORO. Or., May 10.-(Special.) For the first time in the history of Washington County jurisprudence a jury today awarded the, custody of children in a divorce case, giving Charles A. Yergen, the father, posses-sion of a little daughter, aged 5 years, the monther of the mother against the opposition of the mother, Mrs. Charles A. Purdin, residing in a Portland apartment house.

The father owns a 20-acre hop farm near Laurel. A year ago he procured divorce by default and was awarded the custody of a little son. The little girl was awarded to the mother, the father thinking, according to his evidence today, that he might consider the mother caring for the child. A few weeks ago Mrs. Yergon again married and the father then applied to the court for the care of the daughter. Mrs. Yergen, who on March 22 failed in habeas corpus proceedings to get the child in a Yamhill County Court. resisted the petition of the father and insisted on a jury trial. The jury was out but 20 minutes and came in with a verdlet for the father.

Albert Whitla Paroled.

HILLSBORO, Or., May 10 .- (Special.) -Judge J. U. Campbell today paroled Albert Whitla, a Newberg young man, who was recently sentenced to one year for cutting a man in a fight over a dog. Whitla had served about six weeks of his sentence and profossed penitence. His wife and little children were in the courtroom when Whitis was released and the family started for Newberg on a late train.

Centralia Militia Inspected.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 10.-(Spe-clal.)-The annual Federal inspection of Company M, Second Regiment Na-tional Guard of Washington, was held as low as $1 per running foot for asphaltic macadam pavement. The Crescent City road is becoming one of the best in the county and is one of the main highways to the Josephine County caves.

Fraudulent Advertising Charged.

CENTRALIA, Wash., May 10 .- (Spedal.)-Charged with fraudulent advertising, H. Simon, proprietor of a Cen-tralla store, was arrested yesterday on the complaint of a half dozen Centralia merchants. Simon advertised goods for sale that had been damaged in the re-cent floodg in Ohlo, but it is the contention of the complainants that the goods never saw Ohio. Simon was released on bonds.

ALBANY COLLEGE ORATOR HOLDS UNIQUE HONOR.

IN ORIGON

Arthur R. Hodge.

ALBANY, Or., May 10 .- (Special.)-The remarkably unique honor of being president of two of Oregon's leading intercol-legiate associations at the same time is enjoyed by Arthur R. Hodge, of Albany College. It is probably the first time an Oregon college student has held such an honor Hodge is president of the Oregon Intercollegiate Oratorical Association, which embraces the Association, which embraces the University 'of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, Willam-ette University, Pacific Univer-sity, Albany College, McMinn-ville College and Pacific Col-lege, and is also president of the Oregon Collegiate Debating League, which consists of Al-bany College, McMinnville Col-lege and Pacific College, He was chosen president of the Oratorical Association at the annual oratorical contest hast March. At the recent annual annual oratorical contest last March. At the recent annual meeting of the executive com-mittee of the Collegiate Debat-ing League at Newberg it was decided that Albany College should have the presidency, the choice of the president being left to the student body of the college and Hodre was elected college and Hodge was elected this week.

clal.)—County Court, now in session, is considering bids for an intermediate stretch of road that will couple up the Crescent City with macadam ice a roadway 16 feet wide, macadamized Bids so far have been $1.35, $1.50 and $1.01 per lineal foot. One bid went a line as low as $1 per lineal foot. fur. Co-operation-E. E. Blanchard, Gran Pass: O. C. Young, Culver; C. S. Dow, A Co-operation--E. E. Blanchard, Grants
Co-operation--E. E. Blanchard, Grants Without the use of the county conven-tion, as now employed. But the most Tradical change proposed is in the elec-tion of the officers of the State Grange,
Which takes the power of electing the state officers out of the hands of the state officers out of the hands of the bership throughout the state.
The amendment provides that the officers of the State Grange shall be nominated by petition, and the candi-date must represent 25 per cent of the Granges in five counties, and he must have the signatures of five members
Co-operation--E. E. Blanchard, Grants A. J. S. Dow, As-toria; J. George Johnson, Junction City; Mrs. Cordelia Kenanton, Mayville; Mrs. J. G.
Marshield.
Good Cleveland; Grants Pass, Mrs. F. Officers of the State Grange shall be nominated by petition, and the candi-date must represent 25 per cent of the Granges in five counties, and he must have the signatures of five members Co-operation--E. E. Blanchard, Grants Pass, Mrs. F.
Marshield.
Education--J. L. Jones, Parkplace; J. D. Gustin, Beaverion; Mrs. June-tion City; Mrs. Grave Liby, Jefferam.

The committee on revision will submit date must represent 25 per cent of the Granges in five counties, and he must have the signatures of five members from each of these Granges, in one county cast of the Cascades, one south of the boundary of Lane County and west of the Cascades and one north of this line and west of the Cascade moun-tains. The patitions shall be submitted to the executive committee, not later than January 20, and this committee will prepare and supply to the Granges of the state ballots on or before March 10. The Granges then will ballot on the nominations, using the preferential of the state ballots on or before March 10. The Granges then will ballot on the nominations, using the preferential system of voting the same as provided in the new charter of Portland. The count shall be made in the several Granges and the returns forwarded to the executive committee, of the State Grange, which on April 25 will neet and canvass the votes and declare the result. The persons, who have been elected, will be installed at the next result. regular meeting of the State Grange. This method has been recommended to make the election of the officers of the State Grange more democratic and the State Grange more democratic and give the power of selecting the state officers direct into the hands of the members themselves. It will do away, it is urged, with the usual delay and excitement of an election of officers by the State Grange as it will take away completely the power to elect from that body and give it to the members. Al-though electioneering is forbidden by the laws of the order yet it is always the laws of the order, yet it is always indulged in indirectly.

The committee on arrangements is Arrangements Committee Named.

imposed as follows:

A. C. Miller and Mrs. E. R. Allen, Linn Jounty business council; C. L. Shaw, E. R. Ilen and Mrs. Lulu E. Miller, Jinn County omions Grange; G. T. Hockensmith, J. L. Jominson, W. A. Wastburn, W. Y. Mer-ili and F. J. Fletcher, Albany Commercial up. The officers of the State Grange, who will conduct the coming sessions are:

J. R. McGee, Donna; Ralph Hamilton, Fos-sil. Agriculture-W. H. Stevens, Gervais: J. W. Parrieh, Toiledo, Randolph Brown, Juno-tion City: Mrs. F. W. Neely, Freewater: Mrs. Barnett Y. Roe, Gaston; Mrs. E. W. Perrell, Klondike. Appeals-E. E. Shields, Gervais: G. F. Johnston, Lyons; Church Stevens, Crow; Barbara Galbraith, Sherwood; Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen, Corbett; Mrs. M. C. Leonard, In-dependence. Resolutions-F. D. Cornett, Albany; L. Hurner, Carlton; Lloyd J. Worth, Medical Springs; Mrs. J. Maude Laughary, Mon-mouth; Mrs. Emms Springer, Holley; Mrs. T. J. Kruder, Lents. Good of the order-Mrs. Ida L. Gustin, Beaverion; Mrs. Viola Cornett, Albany; Mrs. Margie Gage, Burns; F. O. Good, Cleveland; E. W. Ferrell, Klondike; E. M. Dean, Nyssa.

Need of County Agricultural Experts Emphasized at Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 10 .- (Special.)-Three hungred farmers of Chehalis County took part in a Farmers' day celebration under the auspices of

DEVELOPING A REAL MUSIC

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Entrust your furniture to us for upholstering, repairing and finishing. Estimates submitted. We guarantee our workmanship. Special box mattresses and top mat-

$13.50 for the 6x9-foot size

dinner and supper, a band concert and made tonight. reception formed the special features, shile addresses by foremost agricul- tural expert. tural experts were made.

he later session. [ance with plans and specifications, and great sorrow] Addresses on animal diseases and di- there is likely to be litigation over the MR. AND MRS. LEVIN P. CLARK.

he Chamber of Commerce today. Free versified and intensive farming were settlement. Contractor William Fos-The Farmers' day movement is to agitate the need of a county agricul-tural expert tural experts were made. Among the speakers were C. L. Smith, O.-W. R. & N. expert; S. B. Nelson, State College; W. A. Linklater, superintendent of the Experiment Sta-tion, Puyallup, and M. Dupertius, a wealthy farme of Adar, Lewis County. Talks on the need of county farm experts and care. of dairy herds and pigs formed the principal features of the later session. CARD OF THANKS. CARD OF THANKS. We extend our utmost gratitude to each and everyone who remembered us torthe serveral weeks ago, has not been accepted, the County Commis-sioners' Court holding that the struc-ture in some respects is not in accord-ance with plans and specifications, and

$17.50 for the 7x10-foot size

