

Gould, Mrs. F. Patten, Mrs. M. D. Green, Mrs. C. S. Newman, Mrs. J. A. Conaway, Mrs. W. E. Slater, Mrs. M. Carmichael, Miss Grace Burnett, Miss B. Merrill, Mrs. Harry Torrence, Mrs. Catherine Morrison, Mrs. Edith Owen.

On Tuesday evening Master David Gowan was tendered a surprise party at his home, 958 East Taylor street, by his schoolmates. The evening was made merry by games and music. At 10:30 Mrs. Gowan prepared the refreshments which had been abundantly supplied by the guests. Those present were Imogene Corryell, Helen Dux, Alfred French, Frances Older, Elaine Cooper, Grace Kelly, Grace Miller, Edith Randall, Nellie Wolfe, Roberta Corryell, Nancy Gowan, Roy Cooper, Howard Staub, Turner Alton, Lynn Pickler, James Montgomery, Jack Corryell, David Russell and Ormond Gowan, Mr. and Mrs. D. Gowan.

Mrs. W. J. Vincent, 222 East Fifty-fifth street, North, entertained the Tuesday Afternoon Club last week. Roll call was responded to with current events and the following programme was given. A paper on the "Department of Agriculture" was read by Mrs. E. L. Sanborn; a paper on "Public Health" by Mrs. B. S. Gieseler; a paper on "Department of Commerce and Labor" by Mrs. Charles Steadman, a guest of the club, assisted Mrs. Vincent in serving during the social hour. Mrs. Vincent's picnic will be held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Haight, 229 Beach street, May 20, at 11:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. George Feathers celebrated their tenth wedding anniversary Monday evening at their residence, 144 East Jamon street, North. The house was beautifully decorated in dogwood, iris and lilacs. 500 furnished amusement for the guests, after which a wedding supper, followed by dancing, was given. Mrs. J. Turpin, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Turpin, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Link, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. William Galt, Mrs. Edna Kirkpatrick and A. Gordon. Prizes were won by Mrs. Link and Mr. Turpin. The hostess was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Mrs. M. G. Clancy entertained a number of friends at her attractive home in Piedmont Tuesday from 2 to 3:30 o'clock. The rooms were artistically decorated with a profusion of Spring flowers. Tables were arranged for cards in the dining room. The rooms were carded over to Mrs. D. W. Ward and Mrs. P. E. Sullivan. Assisting the hostess about the rooms were Miss Mary Galt, her daughter, Miss Hannah Donnesberg and Mrs. Wilthrop Terry. A feature of the afternoon was the musical programme given by Miss Adel Barnickel and Miss Genevieve Clark.

A pretty birthday surprise was given Mrs. R. M. Gumbert by 15 young friends Wednesday evening. The home, Mrs. Gumbert was becoming lavender gown. Many games were played, after which dainty refreshments were served. The guest of honor, Miss Minnie Gumbert, Miss Elizabeth Padden, Miss Helen E. Brown, Miss Frances Snyder, Miss Azalia Rockett, Miss Maudie Mays, Mrs. May Galt, Mrs. Gumbert, Herman Galt, Herbert Miller, A. Pander, Walter Ogilvie, M. Gumbert, Norman Ogilvie, Hyman Schwartz and Malcolm Ogilvie.

The second social of the Jewish Young Men and Young Women's Association was held on Sunday, May 11, at the home of Miss Ruby Barde, 1626 East Sixteenth street, North. Among those present were: Clara and Jennie Ryan, Bertha and Anna Martin, Clara and Gertrude Galt, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Bloor, Polly Silver, Ruby Barde, Sara Rosenblatt, M. Shank, E. Herman, Eddie Cohn, Herman Cohn, Victor Hoefer, Ben Barde, Mrs. Barde, Mrs. Barde, Harry Herzog, Julia Gordon and Meyer Cohn.

Mrs. W. Fred Bell, of Irvington, was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon at Hotel Multnomah Wednesday. The table was decorated with corsage bouquets of forget-me-nots, and place cards of the same. The luncheon was followed by a matinee at the Orpheum. Mrs. Bell's guests included Mrs. Ira B. Haul, Mrs. J. Metzler, Mrs. O. S. Rowell, C. D. McDonahy, Mrs. J. Hyde, Mrs. Dean G. Ray, Mrs. A. J. McKenna, Miss Lottie Hatfield and Miss Florence Edmunds.

Mrs. Arthur Hayward Brown was hostess at the first of a series of entertainments, giving a box party Wednesday at the Orpheum in honor of Mrs. Robert H. Ketchum (Miss Jean Hartill), a recent bride. Among the guests were: Mrs. David L. McDonald, Mrs. Robert R. Ketchum, Mrs. Walter H. Evans, Mrs. G. E. Jamison, Mrs. William F. Eshima, Mrs. Paul Khune, Mrs. Fred Smith, Miss Louise Cecil, Miss Vivie Cecil and Miss Bertha R. Masters.

Miss Greta Moore entertained Friday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Moore, with cards, in honor of her guests, Misses Lulu and Katharine Coyne, of Tacoma. Those present were: Mrs. A. E. Edinger, Mrs. M. McMillen, Mrs. G. M. Frost, the Misses Leah Cushman, Alene Wolff, Ada Jones, Ann Hansen, Bernice Morrison, Beulah Hayes, Angelo and Ariel McQueen.

Miss Harriet Smucker was guest of honor at elaborate card party Thursday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. Carter Seller. The rooms were attractively decorated with clusters of lilies of the valley and pink roses. Card honors fell to Miss Smucker, Miss Grant and Mr. Weidner. Miss Smucker gave several readings, and Professor Aldrich entertained the guests with several piano selections.

Miss Mollie Fetting entertained for Miss Helana Hawthorne, a bride-elect, with a theater party Saturday afternoon at the Baker, to see "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." Miss Hawthorne, Imogene Jewell, Dorothy Rod, Beatrice Palmer, Dorothy Rogers, Violet Link and Mrs. Reynolds were Miss Fetting's guests. Mrs. Reynolds also entertained for Miss Hawthorne yesterday. The wedding will take place in June.

For the pleasure of the new members, the Phi Pi Psi Sorority entertained Saturday afternoon with a theater party at the Orpheum and tea following at the Portland. Those present were: Mrs. John J. Hoegstrater, Miss Francis Hayes, Misses Ellen Jackson, Alven Bauman, Josephine Daugherty, Lelona Morse, Mrs. Lillian Stevenson, 529 Elizabeth street, Thursday evening. Music and games were the special features of the evening's programme, and interesting talks suitable to the occasion were made by Professor Draper.

The re-union of the graduating class of 1909 of Shattuck School was held at the home of Miss Lillian Stevenson, 529 Elizabeth street, Thursday evening. Music and games were the special features of the evening's programme, and interesting talks suitable to the occasion were made by Professor Draper.

Miss Beatrice Miller and a group of her friends entertained a surprise luncheon on Saturday in honor of Mrs. Herbert C. Miller, the former's mother.

The young girls also took charge of a delightful musical programme and recitations. Covers were laid for 19, Miss A. J. Cory and Miss May Armstrong.

A 500 party was given at the residence of Mrs. M. D. McDonald Thursday in honor of the 24th anniversary of her wedding. Those attending were Mesdames Hanson, Kronkite, Delaney, Peterson, Kettle, Carson, Singleton, Brush, Galt, Hoes, Tobias, Smith, Young, Morgan, James and Penney. Mrs. Kronkite, Mrs. James and Miss Penney won prizes.

The Corriente Club met at the home of Mrs. G. O. Jefferson on May 13, when the programme included a "review of Edward Bulwer Lytton," a sketch of "The Last Days of Pompeii" and a study of Rudyard Kipling. Mrs. and a guest of the hostess, contributed piano solos.

In honor of Mrs. Paulina Campbell Barclay, of H. H. Deum presided at an elaborate luncheon recently. Spring flowers were used in decoration. Among the guests were: Mrs. Alexander Campbell, Mrs. M. E. McElroy, Mrs. Miss McElroy and others.

Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson was hostess at a delightful card party, in honor of her husband's birthday, 400 was the game of the evening, after which an elaborate collation was served. The rooms were attractively decorated with masses of Spring blossoms.

COMING EVENTS. The Matinee Five Hundred Luncheon Club, composed of 17 prominent matrons, will hold its fourth annual meeting at the home of the secretary, Mrs. Francis P. Waring, 412 Weidner street tomorrow, at which time officers will be elected for the year. A small monthly charity donation is required of each member, which has been annually presented to the Florence Crittenton Home. The following are members: Mesdames A. G. Chaloupka, E. E. Montgomery, J. Cousin Hare, Frank James C. Costello, Ernest B. Catlin, James Henry Beely, H. W. Foster, E. H. Beal, Lee A. Knott, Joseph Supple, Harvey Beckwith, Antoinette Belger, J. B. Tanner, Louis Fulton Shaw, Mrs. Francis P. Waring.

Invitations are out for a private skating party to be given by the members of the Alpha Kappa Fraternity at the Council Crest rink, Friday evening, May 23. The club members have been looking forward to this occasion for some time and it promises to be a delightful affair. Invitations may be secured from any of the club members. Those on the committee are John O'Neill, Earl Johnston, William Gray, Harvey Fisher, L. Eastham and Otto Boyer. The patronesses are Mrs. H. Bailey, Miss Ruth Gray, Miss Leah Eastham and Miss L. Keegan.

The Portland Lincoln High School Alumni Association has plans under way for their next dancing party which is to be given at the Masonic Temple, Thursday, May 23. The association is giving this dance in honor of the graduating class of Lincoln High School. The committee in charge consists of Miss Lucy Shearer, James O'Connor, Miss Ina Dean and Earl Hammond.

The Decem Girls have issued invitations for a shirt waist dancing party to be held May 23 at Murlark Hall. A surprise drawing will be held during the evening. Patronesses are Mrs. F. W. Clifford, Mrs. H. Bartholomew, Mrs. C. H. Begg, Mrs. Julia Byrnhold and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson.

Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians will give a whist and 500 party, to be followed by dancing at the Woodman of the World Hall, 123 Eleventh street tomorrow. The committee in charge is composed of W. P. Lillis, A. B. Cain, J. D. Doyle, T. I. Maloney, J. D. Mann, F. J. McKeown and J. S. O'Meara.

Fram Assembly, No. 121, United Artisans, announces the monthly informal card and dancing party will be held at the hall, 129 Fourth street, between Alder and Washington, Monday evening. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend. A prize waltz will be a feature.

Mount Hood Circle, No. 151, Women of Woodcraft, will give the closing whist social of the season Thursday evening, May 23, in the East Side Woodmen Hall. The committee on arrangements is making elaborate preparations to make this a special Maytime event.

The East and West Side divisions of the Portland Shakespear Study Club will meet tomorrow with Mrs. Robert Silkenhitter, 953 Shaver street, Sellwood car. Election of officers and important business.

Invitations are out for an "Affinity Dance" to be given in the East Side Woodman Hall, Tuesday evening, by the Bachelor Button Club. This promises to be quite a novel party, being entirely original.

An exhibition of folk dancing will be an event of note at the Young

Women's Christian Association Tuesday. One hundred and fifty girls will participate and will be directed by the public market committee. The program of the afternoon will be a public market for Portland. All are welcome.

Eureka Council No. 204, Knights and Ladies of Security, will give entertainment Monday evening at the East Side Woodmen of World hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. There will be good music and dancing.

A card party and dance will be given by Division No. 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians tomorrow night at the W. O. W. Hall, 125 Eleventh street.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a luncheon on June 1. The affair will be an elaborate event.

Mrs. John F. Taft has cards out for a series of bridge parties.

WEDDINGS. Daira-Philip. Miss Juanita Margaret Philip, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Philip, was married to Herbert Oswald Dairs, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Dairs, of Los Angeles, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George Armstrong, Rev. Mr. Patton, of Newberg, officiated. The spacious rooms were decorated in tones of yellow and green, Scotch heather and ferns being used in profusion. The bride's gown was of apricot charmeuse with over-drape of silk in the same shade, trimmed with pearl handing and tulle. The bride, who acted as maid of honor, was attired in pink messaline with over-drape of flowered voile in tulle effect with trimmed pink baby roses. The bridegroom was attended by George Alfred Keep, of this city. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Mac Affee and after the ceremony Mrs. Sterling sang "O, Promise Me." Miss Rose Philip caught the bride's bouquet. The young couple will pass a few months in Newberg, after which they will reside in Portland.

Among those present were: Mrs. W. S. Philip, Mrs. Philip Coxall, Mrs. G. H. Shaw, Mrs. E. Kniesgen, Mrs. George Barrett, Mrs. Scireling, Foster, Mrs. E. Cousin, Mrs. Lewis Merton, Mrs. S. Goldsmith, Mrs. Alfred Goss, Mrs. John Simmonds, Mrs. M. Mac Affee, Mrs. Gilhausen, Mrs. Arthur Johnston, Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. John Schmidt, the Misses Helen Southard, Harriet Cousin, Moda Goldsmith, Virginia Brown, Rose Phil, Vivian Walker, Southard, Asnes Welch, Marjorie Merton, Desda Goldsmith, Tillie Pleblich, Effie Barnekyoff, Edna Husaker and Messrs. Walter L. Phil, George A. Keep, Elwood Kniesgen, Mark McAllen, George Phil, Wilbur Emerson, Kenneth Schmidtkie and George Armstrong, Jr.

Kefer-Holden. Miss Margaret Lee Holden and Charles W. Kefer were married at the home of the bride's father, L. G. Holden. The service was read by Rev. A. Krause, of the German Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of the Pacific Coast Abstract Company at the Courthouse. Mrs. Kefer is a popular member of her set.

Kiesendahl-Blake. A quiet wedding was solemnized at St. James' Catholic Church, Vancouver, Wash., April 30, when Miss Irene M. Blake and Earl J. Kiesendahl, both of Portland, were married. Only the parents of the bride and bridegroom were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kiesendahl will be at home at the Jackson Apartments after June 1.

Breen-McKenzie. John R. Breen, of Crescent City, Cal., and Miss Elizabeth McKenzie of Portland, were married at the home of the bride's parents May 10 at 8 P. M. by Dr. W. H. Fry, of the Sunnyside M. E. Church. Mr. and Mrs. Breen will make their home in Crescent City.

Williams-Webb. At the residence of the bride's parents, 310 Tenth street, Portland, Forrest H. Williams and Miss Julia Webb were married Sunday, May 11, by Dr. Luther R. Dyott.

Thornton-Gregg. At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Boobar, in the Paget apartment on Tenth, L. M. Thornton and Miss Margaret Gregg were married by Dr. Luther R. Dyott.

Frederickson-Adams. Gus Frederickson and Gladys Adams were married Sunday by the Rev. Delmer H. Trimble, D. D., at the Centenary Methodist Church.

Gatke-Spooner. William Gatke and Miss Florence Spooner were married in the First Congregational Church on Thursday. Dr. Luther R. Dyott officiated.

ANNOUNCEMENTS. Mrs. J. W. Goss announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mabel Goss, to John Burkhardt, the wedding to take place June 15. Miss Goss and her betrothal will be of interest to the wide circle of friends of Miss Goss and her fiancée. Mr. Burkhardt is related to the William Brewster and the Falling families. He is a possessor of a very charming personality and is gifted in many ways. The marriage will be a home affair and will be planned simply.

BEACHES ATTRACT CROWDS. SEASIDE, Or., May 17.—(Special.)—The early seashore invasion has begun and Portland's smart set is beginning to gather at the Clatsop County beaches. During the past week a great many of the Summer cottages were opened, and week-end visitors have been many. Seaside has been ill for several months, is passing a fortnight at the Hotel Moore and he finds the salt sea breezes invigorating. Mr. Lewis is accompanied by Mrs. Lewis. Other Portland persons at the Hotel Moore are: Mr. and Mrs. L. Gerlinger, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dickenson, Mrs. G. S. Ford, Mrs. Richard E. Mith, W. H. Van Gray, P. Moran, W. M. Cleveland, E. T. Vallrant, J. Brace, E. H. Vallant, A. D. Peok, R. E. Walker, Joe L. Levy, E. M. Rosenthal, F. F. Bacon, C. R. Thompson, Ed. T. Langstaff, Mrs. S. T. Ford, H. B. Leimeyer, J. O. Lamb, J. H. Messinger, W. E. Robinson, J. Cigri, George Huesner and Harry Hamblet.

M. C. Dickenson, accompanied by his wife, came to Seaside for Sunday. He heard about the fishing in the Necanicum River, and while he knows there are fine fish in the river, he also knows that the city sportsman cannot compete with a pole out from the limb of a tree and anglegworms for bait.

The out-of-state visitors at the Hotel Moore were: Miss Madden, Indianapolis; A. S. Skinner, Cincinnati; J. H. Kelly and O. E. Keyel, New York; M. Sanders, San Francisco; John Holman, La Crosse, Wis.; and Ralph Hanson, Spokane.

GEARHART, Or., May 17.—A number of Portland people are making week-end visits to the beach at Gearhart. Those who were at Gearhart last week were: Frank Woodward, H. Hamblet, O. D. Martin, B. F. Kortin, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Chandler, Mr. and

R. A. Letter, E. C. Michener and Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Boisford, Portland, Or. M. H. Wilson, St. Paul Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Daly and two children, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Taylor and son, and E. N. Wheeler, Portland, Or.; Miss Edna Goodwin, Gresham, Or.; Miss Mabel Beck, Newberg, Or.; A. M. Compton, J. W. Blaney, J. H. Messinger, Bert Cohen, Dr. E. A. Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Stone, Clyde H. MacDuffe, Robert Bushnell, Mrs. V. D. Hackett and Mr. and Mrs. J. Butt, Portland, Or.; Mrs. Charles F. Brown, Mrs. Albert Kinney, Dr. Alfred W. Kinney and wife, George F. Judd, John A. Wright, Miss Maude Ross, Dr. August M. Kinney and wife and D. C. Witman, Astoria, Or.; H. A. Webber, Samuel H. Pierce, Mrs. George Broughton, Miss Alda L. Broughton, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Teavis and G. H. Slater, Portland, Or.; C. H. Morrison, Seattle, Wash.; Isaac D. Hunt, Mrs. A. C. Ruby, and

HOQUIAM, Wash., May 17.—(Special.)—In consideration of the fact that Gray's Harbor has never held the Federation presidency, the clubwomen of the Harbor have decided to enter the contest for this office, which will take place in the annual election next month at Ellensburg. They have selected as their candidate quilm Mrs. Ruth McKee, a native granddaughters of this state, as her mother, Mrs. James A. Karr, of North Yakima, is the oldest living native-born white woman in the state.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. Ruth Karr McKee. HOQUIAM, Wash., May 17.—(Special.)—In consideration of the fact that Gray's Harbor has never held the Federation presidency, the clubwomen of the Harbor have decided to enter the contest for this office, which will take place in the annual election next month at Ellensburg. They have selected as their candidate quilm Mrs. Ruth McKee, a native granddaughters of this state, as her mother, Mrs. James A. Karr, of North Yakima, is the oldest living native-born white woman in the state.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Mrs. McKee holds the degree of master of arts from the University of Washington. She has been active in club life ever since her graduation and at present is chairman of the historical committee of the Federation. She is also state historian of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

A Sale of Necessity
Moving to New Store
Entire Stock to Go—Many Lines to Be Discontinued
This sale is distinguished from mere trade-forging events, in that it is a sale of necessity—not one of convenience. Many lines are to be discontinued in the new store, and our firm determination not to move the present stock compels prices impossible under ordinary conditions.

A. & C. Feldenheimer
Established 1898
253-255 Washington St. Bet. 4th and 5th Sts.
Diamonds, Watches, Sterling Silver, Clocks, Cut Glass, Bronzes, Statuary, Art and Leather Goods at Ridiculously Low Prices

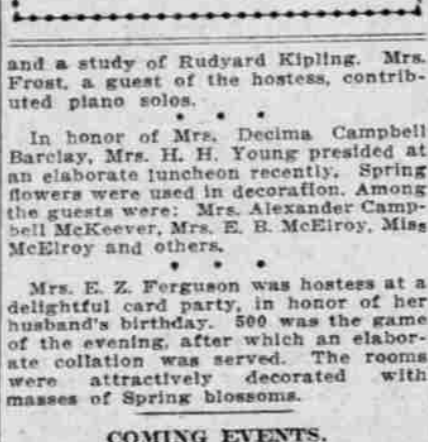

Another Wonder Sale
Worrell's
Monday and Tuesday Only
Never mind the reason for us taking such drastic losses or who must stand the brunt of them. Just so you don't "Who Should Worry!" Monday and Tuesday we price at only $29.85
Exclusive Late Coats and Suits
This is our story in a nut-shell. Whoever has thought of getting a Suit or Coat cannot hope to do better than here Monday, for similar values cannot be found in Portland. The assortment includes fine French Serges, Wool Bedford Cords, Fine Diagonal Serges, Black Worsteds, Fine Fancy Novelty Suitings, French Eponges.
Big Dress Sale Monday
In this lot will be found only one or two of a kind. They are all over embroidery, embroidered voiles, chiffons and, in fact, all the late styles for Summer wear. Come early before the selection is badly broken. Prices..... $14.95 to $24.95
Dainty Spring Coats
We will not trouble you with the particulars of this unusual purchase of Spring Coats, but we will assure you that they are positively the best values we have offered in many a day. Remember the following prices are for Monday and Tuesday only: $9.95 AND UP
THE LARGEST SPECIALTY CLOAK AND SUIT HOUSE ON THE COAST
See Our Windows Surely
Worrell's
Watch Our Windows and Prices
CORNER SIXTH AND ALDER STREETS, OPPOSITE THE OREGONIAN

Miss Adda Margaret Bristow, daughter of William W. Bristow, is visiting relatives in Washington, D. C., where she is being extensively entertained by prominent society matrons.

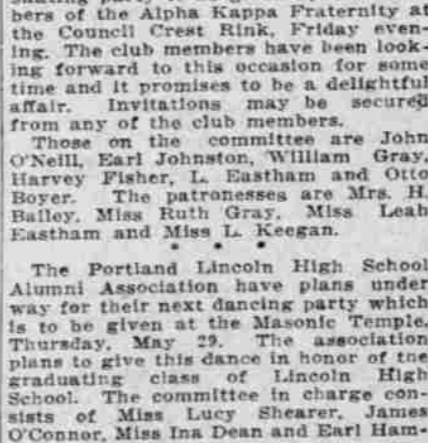

Mrs. Ruth Karr McKee, a native granddaughters of this state, as her mother, Mrs. James A. Karr, of North Yakima, is the oldest living native-born white woman in the state.

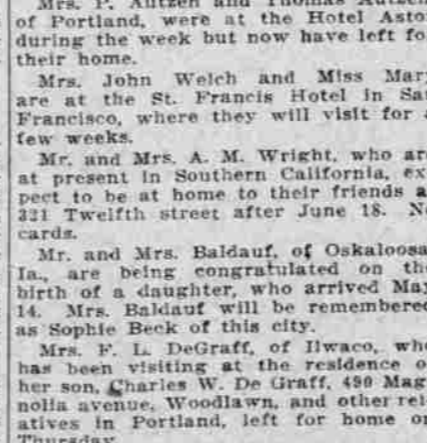

Mrs. E. Z. Ferguson was hostess at a delightful card party, in honor of her husband's birthday, 400 was the game of the evening, after which an elaborate collation was served.

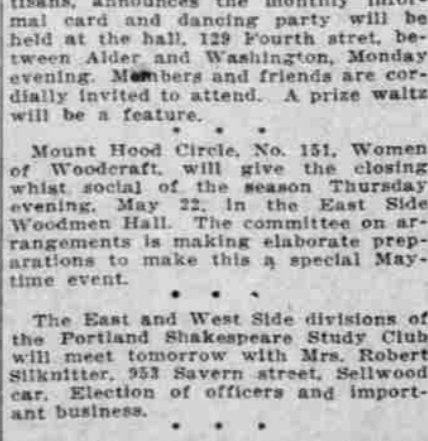

Miss Eleanor Ruby, Portland, Or.; F. C. Moser, Seattle, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. S. Solomon, Portland, Or.

Mrs. Arthur Hayward Brown was hostess at the first of a series of entertainments, giving a box party Wednesday at the Orpheum in honor of Mrs. Robert H. Ketchum.

Mrs. John Welch and Miss Mary are at the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco, where they will visit for a few weeks.

Miss Helana Hawthorne, a bride-elect, with a theater party Saturday afternoon at the Baker.

Mrs. J. W. Goss announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Mabel Goss, to John Burkhardt.