

INTEREST AROUSED IN 12 CHOSEN MEN

Committee of 100 Stirs Political Circles by Commissioner Indorsements.

CAREER OF EACH SCANNED

Men of Various Callings and Degrees of Apparent Business Ability Listed in Dozen Recommended to Voters.

Much interest has been aroused in political circles regarding the report of the committee of 100, in which 12 candidates for Commissioner are indorsed for election. Those selected are W. L. Brewster, T. N. Stoppenbach, Will H. Daly, Robert G. Dieck, George B. Cellars, C. A. Bigelow, C. C. Craig, T. M. Hurlburt, J. E. Werlein, Marshall N. Dana, W. H. McMonies and John Driscoll.

George B. Cellars—Born in Ohio in 1848. Educated in grammar schools, high school and university. In 1886 went to Kansas and was in the banking business until 1888. Resigned and returned home on account of the serious illness of his father. Came to Portland in 1893. Attended the law school of the University of Oregon and was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court in June, 1895. Practiced law eight years. In 1901 organized the Portland Safe Company and in 1903 on account of its growth assumed active management of this company. Sold out in 1908 and served as manager until 1910. Since has been president of the Cellars-Murton Company. Was elected Councilman-at-large in 1907 and served with much credit for four years. Was antagonistic to the granting of licenses to saloons and other places of questionable character. Was active in the fight for playgrounds for children. Was considered a leader in reasonable moral issues in the Council. Was outspoken in his transactions.

Will H. Daly's Career Active.

Will H. Daly—Born in Springfield, Mo., in 1883. Educated in private schools and night schools. Came to Portland in 1902, after working in various parts of the United States at various occupations. Upon his arrival in Portland he was employed by The Oregonian as a linotype operator. Later worked as operator for five years for the Portland Linotype Company. Two years ago established Portland Monotype Company and had success. Is closely identified with labor unions, having been a member of Typographical Union 27 years. Was president of the State Federation of Labor four years and served two terms as president of the Portland Central Labor Council. His only political experience has been two years as Councilman, which position he secured without a vigorous campaign. Is considered a safe and successful business man. In the Council he has been known as fair to all persons and classes, conservative in transactions and apparently has had no special interest or class to represent.

W. L. Brewster—Attorney. Born in Philadelphia in 1866. Educated in the public schools of Massachusetts and in Amherst College and the law department of Columbia University. Practiced law in various parts of the East until 1891, when he came to Portland. Has been successful in his practice and has a good standing in his profession. Takes an active interest in civic affairs. Is a member of the Oregon Text Book Commission. In 1901 was elected director of the Library Association of Portland and has served in that capacity since. Is chairman of the committee in charge of the building of branch libraries and the development of library work outside the main building. In 1910 was made director of the Associated Charities, which position he still holds. Was elected secretary of the Oregon Bar Association in 1910 and still occupies that position. In 1905 was made a member of the Civil Service Commission and served until 1911. Became well acquainted with municipal affairs in this way.

Stoppenbach Paper Merchant.

T. N. Stoppenbach—Born in Wisconsin in 1868. Grammar school education. At 14 years of age was engaged by a paper concern and continued with this for 10 years. Went from the East to Tacoma in 1880 and engaged in the paper business there for a year and a half. Came to Portland in 1891. Organized the Pacific Paper Company and built up a big business in 1892. Sold out in March, 1910. Since has been managing his property interests. Is considered a man of good business ability and is a good manager and promoter. Has never served in a political office or been a candidate for public office.

Dieck Is Consulting Engineer.

Robert G. Dieck—Born in Philadelphia in 1876. Educated in public schools there and the University of Pennsylvania. First employed with Board of Highway Supervisors in Philadelphia

CANDIDATES FOR COMMISSIONER INDORSED BY COMMITTEE OF ONE HUNDRED.

 T.N. Stoppenbach	 W.L. Brewster	 Marshall N. Dana
 T.M. Hurlburt	 Will H. Daly	 C.A. Bigelow
 Robert G. Dieck	 J.E. Werlein	 Geo. B. Cellars
 W.H. McMonies	 C.C. Craig	 John Driscoll

and later with Bureau of Filtration. In 1901 was selected by the Bureau of Insular Affairs, War Department, as one of 20 engineers to serve as provisional supervisors in Philippines. Had charge Province of Rizal. Served till end of 1902. From 1902 to 1905 acted as superintendent of water supply and sewers in Manila. From 1905 to 1907 was City Engineer of Manila and had charge of much engineering work. Was later a member of the Municipal Board of Manila, similar to a city commission, as adopted in Portland. Resigned from foreign service in 1907 and came to Portland. Cause of resignation ill-health. Since coming here has been a private consulting engineer. Was member of the committee which drafted the Portland plumbing code in 1910-11. Is considered energetic, efficient engineer and an ardent student of municipal affairs.

C. C. Craig—Born in Missouri in 1876. Educated in the grammar school, business college and preparatory electrical engineering school. In the early days was a collector for telephone companies in San Diego and went rapidly up the ladder. Later went to Los Angeles and had a prominent place with the Home Telephone Company of that city. Came to Portland seven years ago and took position of general manager of the Northwestern Long Distance Telephone Company. Had unusually good success and won a name in the telephone and general business world. Later went back to California and assisted in the completion of the Home Telephone Company system in Oakland and Berkeley. Returned to Portland and went into the real estate business as sales manager for Hartman & Thompson and is said to have made a big showing. His only political experience was one term in the Council of San Diego, which term he only partially completed because of the transfer of his business to Los Angeles.

Driscoll Is Bank Director.

John Driscoll—General manager Boston Packing Company. Born in Ireland in 1863. Educated in grammar schools. Came to the United States in 1864 with his parents and took up home in Connecticut, where he lived until 1888, when he came to Portland. Soon after coming here he went into the wholesale and retail meat business, which business he conducted successfully for many years. Is at present president and general manager of the Boston Packing Company. Is a director in the Hibernia Savings Bank. Was a member of the House of Representatives of the Oregon Legislature in the sessions of 1901 and 1907, and in both made a good record. In 1903 was appointed a member of the Portland Commission, on which he served for eight years. Resigned in 1911. In a business way is considered conservative. Has achieved success, according to those who have been acquainted with his operations.

Marshall N. Dana—Born near Newport, Ohio, 1874. Educated in the public schools, high schools and several universities, paying way by working as carpenter outside school hours. Went into newspaper business, worked in various capacities in Dayton, O., Huntington and Charleston, W. Va., and Kansas City. Came to Portland in 1903 and became member of the staff of the Oregon Journal, serving as special feature writer. Has headed many civic betterment campaigns. Is secretary-manager Greater Portland Plans Association, president Garden Contest League, director Portland Ad Club, member Progressive Business Men's Club, North Portland Commercial Club and State Board of Immigration.

Hurlburt's Career Successful.

T. M. Hurlburt—City Engineer. Born in Iowa. Came to Portland in 1870 and went through the public and high schools here. From 1878 to 1885 served under his father as a civil engineer for railway companies. From 1886 to 1891 was Surveyor for Multnomah County and from 1891 to 1895 was City Surveyor of Portland. From 1897 to 1907 was United States Examiner of Surveys, Department of Interior. In 1907 entered the city service, becoming City Engineer two years ago. Has engineered many important projects, including the making of the original surveys and inspections of the Bull Run watershed and reserve. Has successfully handled the engineering affairs of the city without a stain of any kind as far as known. Is energetic, painstaking and conservative. Was member of the commission which drafted the commission charter.

J. E. Werlein—Born in New Orleans in 1867. Educated in public schools there and later in the University of Oregon. Came to Portland in 1886. For three years served as computer in the City Engineer's department. Later served as Deputy City Treasurer. Held office as City Treasurer for ten years. Held two years ago with good record. Defeated in primary for Mayor two years ago and then accepted a position with the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, serving first as traveling auditor and later as special agent. Has represented the company in franchise matters and is considered a conservative official and knows the workings of the city government. Is well versed in law. Contract with company expires in 1913. Member of Oregon Workmen, Macabee, United Artisans, Masons, Shriners, Cricket Club, Transportation Club, Progressive Business Men's Club, Ad Club.

McMonies Shows Ability.

W. H. McMonies—Born in Canada 49 years ago. Educated in the public schools of Canada. Came to Portland with parents when 15 years of age. Commenced then to learn the saddlery trade. Worked at this business for others until 1885, when he established a plant of his own on the East Side. Has built up a good business. Is considered a successful business man and is well spoken of in the business world. In May, 1912, he suffered a heavy loss at his factory by fire, but has re-established his plant and is having success. Fine type of business man and citizen.

C. A. Bigelow—Manager for W. H. Markell & Co. Born in Michigan in 1875. Educated in Eastern grammar schools and in the high school at Olympia, Wash. In Olympia, where he went when a boy, he was employed in the state printing office. Also engaged with credit in other lines of work. Came to Portland in 1894 and accepted a position with the company with which he is still connected. Is now stockholder, vice-president and manager of the company. Was in the Legislature of 1911 and served with credit. Was made a member of Mayor Rushlight's Executive Board about two years ago and resigned a few months after appointment because of friction between himself and the administration. Has a good record in the Executive Board. Was vice-president of the Rose Festival Association for two years. Was president of the East Side Business Men's Club. Is considered a good business man and has strong financial standing.

CHICKEN DINNER AT OAKS

Don't forget to eat your chicken dinner at the Oaks Tavern today from 2 to 5 P. M. Our chef will make Sunday a gorgeous delight. Come. Warren R. Jackson and his cabaret girls provide heap of fun in their song revue. With Jackson are Misses May Fern Lucille de Novelle and Wiji Joyl.

HARRY C. McALLISTER FOR COMMISSIONER

Trained and Qualified

ATTENTION, VOTERS!

Harry C. McAllister should not be confused with E. S. J. McAllister, the attorney who was implicated in the recent vice scandal.

They are in no wise related.

Signed,
McAllister Campaign Committee

(Paid Advertisement.)

RUSHLIGHT IS BLAMED

WINN DISCUSSES SNODGRASS AFFAIR BEFORE CLUB.

J. H. Nolte Also Speaker but Representative Sent by Ralph C. Clyde Is Not Satisfactory.

The failure to bring Snodgrass, the embezzling employe of the water department, back to Portland for trial was virtually laid at the door of Mayor Rushlight by Frank W. Winn, a member of the Water Board and a strong supporter of Rushlight for re-election, speaking before the Twelve o'Clock Club yesterday. Mr. Winn is a candidate for Commissioner, and with J. H. Nolte, also a candidate for Commissioner, addressed the club. Ralph C. Clyde had been scheduled to speak, but sent a representative, to whom the members of the club refused to listen, saying that if Mr. Clyde wished to speak to them he must appear in person.

In fixing the responsibility in the Snodgrass case on Mayor Rushlight, Mr. Winn said that possibly other members of the Water Board were consulted more than he was on the matter, but that as far as he was concerned he believed the case had been left entirely in Rushlight's hands.

Mr. Winn was asked what he knew about two miles and two-thirds of pipe belonging to the water department that was said to have disappeared. He said that he did not know about that, but that he believed that a carload of supplies for the department, aggregating $2300 and $47.10 in gold and silver,

TOURIST RUSH EXPECTED

Passenger Agent to Open Validating Offices in Portland.

N. C. Keeran, until recently city passenger agent for the Wabash Railroad in Chicago, has come to Portland to take charge of the joint validating office for the Transcontinental Passenger Association. He will have his headquarters in the Union Depot. A branch office will be established at the North Bank station.

Reduced rate round-trip tickets from Eastern points to the Northwest went on sale on May 15. They will be good until October 21 and the local office will remain open until that time.

Passenger men expect a steady tourist movement through Portland this year. Portland, for the last few years, has led every city on the Coast with the exception of San Francisco in the number of tickets sold.

Two Held on Lottery Charge.

On a charge of selling lottery tickets, Louis Sam and Chun Pack, Chinamen, were arrested at 42 North Second street yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriffs Rogers, Curtis and Lumden. The officers say they interrupted proceedings as a drawing was being held. A quantity of lottery tickets and some cash was seized and is being held as evidence. At the County Jail there were taken off the Chinamen by Jailer Grafton three certificates of deposit aggregating $2300 and $47.10 in gold and silver.

FRANK E. WATKINS

(Of Parrish, Watkins & Co.)

FOR COMMISSIONER

When you think "Commissioner," think "Watkins." When you vote for "Commissioner," vote for "Watkins."

Qualified to serve you capably by 20 years' successful business experience and four years' experience in Portland's municipal affairs as Councilman. "Ask any unbiased citizen who knows."

FRANK E. WATKINS, For Commissioner

Ballot No. 63

(Paid Advertisement.)

FLASHLIGHT PHOTOGRAPH OF H. R. ALBEE ADDRESSING LARGE CROWD AT KILLINGSWORTH AND ALBINA AVENUES FRIDAY NIGHT.

MAYORALTY CANDIDATE CONDUCTS HIS FIRST OPEN-AIR MEETING OF THE CAMPAIGN, PLEDGING HIMSELF TO WORK DEVOTEDLY FOR ALL THE PEOPLE, IF ELECTED.