LOS ANGELES, May 24.—(Special.) After the Beavers had tied the score in the ninth inning, making it 6 to 6, the Tigers rose to the occasion and put across the winning run in their half of the same frame. Bayless' single to left, which scored Carlisle, did the trick. It was one of the most fiercely fought games seen in a long while on the local field. The Beavers used three pitchers and Venice found use for two. Both teams found it necessary to put in two catchers.

Portland's spirits went rocketing in the third inning, when Berry, Chadbourne and Derrick scampered home. Two hits and the same number of errors were accountable for most of the runs. Raleigh allowed Berry free passage to first. Chadbourne reached first safely because Raleigh muffed the ball and Berry scored. Chadbourne pirated second and scored on Derrick's single to center. Derrick took second on the throw in and annexed third on Elliott's miscue. Raleigh and Tonneman sent Rodgers back to the bench and Derrick scored. Kores did his best to add another run by doubling to center, but Doane, who followed him, flew out.

Lead Quickly Overcome.

This three-run lead had but a short life, however, as the next frame the Tigers tied the score. A pass for Kane and singles by Bayless and Hosp filled the bases and Kane scored on a wild pitch. The to-be-feared Patsy then fanned, but Tonneman walked, again filling the bases. McDonnel's single infield scored Bayless and Hosp.

Both teams tallied twice in the fifth. Chadbourne rambled. Derrick annexed first on an attempted sacrifice and Chadbourne reached second on Tonneman's error. Rodgers played the martyr and Kores singled, scoring Chadbourne and Derrick.

Krapp hit Carlisle and was replaced by Krause. Kane walked and Hosp's single to center scored both Carlisle and Kane. Venice again scored in the seventh when Hosp's triple scored Bayless with two.

Kores Keeps on Batting.

Hagerman took Krause's place in the eighth. With the score 6 to 5 against Portland in the ninth, and Derrick and Rodgers out, Kores tripled to right and Doane followed it with a double to left and Kores tied the score. Bayless' single, however, which scored Carlisle, who had reached third by walking and a good amount of stealing, gave Venice the game. Score:

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Cleveland 4, Chicago 3.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Errors by Berger in the fifth and Bodie in the ninth inning cost Chicago the first game of the short series here today 4 to 3, and, incidentally, preserved the pitching record of Cy Falkenberg, who has eight consecutive victories to his credit. However, Falkenberg will not get credit for today's game, his record standing intact, while the victory for the game goes to Mitchell, who started to pitch with the visitors behind and was not relieved until the last of the ninth. Falkenberg weakened toward the end of the game and Lajoie went in to bat for him in the eighth. Score:

NEW YORK, May 24.—New York and Boston fought a 10-inning tie today, darkness ending the game with the score 3 to 3. Wood for Boston was wild, but great catches by the Boston outfield saved him. Score:

Philadelphia 3, Brooklyn 0.

Batteries—Alexander and Killifer; Ragan and Miller.

Pittsburg 4, Chicago 3.

PITTSBURG, May 24.—Camnitz pitched best with men on bases today and Pittsburg defeated Chicago in a good game by 4 to 3. Cheney held Pittsburg to seven hits, but a passed ball by Archer in the eighth inning allowed Carey to score the winning run.

Camnitz was rather wild, hitting Cheney and Archer on the head. Cheney was out of the game for nearly five minutes after being hit. He was able to resume pitching and the injury did not appear to affect his work. Archer was not seriously hurt.

Liefield was permitted to run for Cheney in this inning by agreement of Managers Evers and Clarke, in order that Cheney could continue pitching after getting a rest. Score:

M'LOUGHLIN IS BEATEN

TENNIS CHAMPION FINDS ENGLISHMAN IS BETTER.

Professional Haggett, Trainer of American Team, Shows Youngster He Has Much to Learn.

NEW YORK, May 24.—Wet and heavy playing surfaces today wrecked the game of M. E. McLoughlin, the National lawn tennis champion, when the Californian met C. E. Haggett, the English professional, at the West Side Club in practice for the Davis cup matches against the Australians. Haggett, who is acting as coach for the American team, defeated McLoughlin at 6-2, 10-8.

It was the first time McLoughlin has tasted defeat in a long time. The Englishman outmaneuvered McLoughlin at driving, and passed him when he attempted to get to the net to smash.

In the doubles, McLoughlin, paired with Haggett, defeated H. H. Hackett and R. D. Little, 7-5, 7-5.

Taber Runs Mile in 4:18 3-5.

CAMBRIDGE, May 24. — Dartmouth won the New England intercollegiate meet here today. The time in the mile run, 4 minutes 18 3-5 seconds, marked a new record for the meet. The winner was Taber, of Brown, an Olympic star. A new record, shot put, 46 feet 3 1-8 inches, was made by Whitney of Dartmouth, and a new mark for the two-mile run by Atwater of Tufts in 9 minutes 35 3-5 seconds.

CLOSE-RANGE PEEP AT PORTLAND UTILITY STAR WHOSE NAME IS NORTHWESTERN LEAGUE ENIGMA.

There isn't a more puzzling name in the Northwestern League baseball than that possessed by the Portland Colts' utility man, Frank Guigni. He has been called everything from Googni to Guggenheimer and other things, too, on "off days." But the only real, dyed-in-the-wool pronunciation is as if the word were spelled "Juney."

Frank J-U-N-E-Y!

Nor is Guigni an Italian, as many fans imagine from the spelling. Frank's father is Swiss and his mother of Irish antecedents. They reside in San Francisco and it was while Frank was attending the Catholic St. Mary's College, around the bay, that Nick Williams signed the youngster to a Portland contract.

Guigni played four years with the famous St. Mary's nine, captaining it this year. Among notable victories achieved was a 1-0 victory over the Boston Americans two years ago. St. Mary's has graduated such baseball stars as Hooper, Duffy Lewis, Burns, Krause, Ferguson, Enright, Joe Corbett, Glavenich, Leonard, Cann and a host of others.

Guigni is now holding down the utility job for the Colts and doing it well. During Mohler's incapacitation a week ago Guigni filled in at second like a veteran. That is his regular position, although he has played all the positions in the infield and has also held down an outfield berth.

He is 20 years old, stands 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighs 170 pounds. He bats and throws right-handed. Personally he is quiet, well-mannered and popular among the boys.

LABOR WAR PENDING

London Writer Predicts Days of Bloodshed.

FUNDS BEING COLLECTED

Army of Submerged, Who Now Lack Bare Necessities of Life, Said to Number 2,000,000—These Will Demand "Full Rights."

LONDON, May 17.—(Special.)—Is England on the eve of a terrific labor revolution? Ben Tillett, the famous labor leader, maintains that the country is and that in a few months British history will be written "in blood." His contention is:

"Peterloo, the 'Black Sundays' of London, Liverpool, Bristol, and the shootings and maimings of Featherstone, Tonypandy, Lianelly are only ancient history now, but a bloodier history is yet to be made if the schemes of the Government for the insidious suppression of free speech are allowed to mature."

The new trouble with the British labor leaders, in a nutshell, is this: The British government is secretly utilizing the agitation against the militant suffragettes to restrict ordinary meetings in furtherance of the labor or Socialist propaganda. Several of their best-known speakers—men like Lansbury and Mann—have been recently flung into jail, and now one or two indiscreet papers are calling for soldiers and "a whiff of grape shot" and vigorous measures on the part of the police to put down all meetings that lead to economic or suffragette disorder.

Demand Free Speech.

This is the match that may, indeed, set the whole bonfire of industrial England finally ablaze—this demand to put down free speech. Ben Tillett, for one, is furious about it. He says: "These wild patriots, who are calling aloud for soldiers to suppress what our forefathers so hardly won, know if a man is murdered by baton or bullet that the murderer will not only escape punishment, but will be exalted as a hero.

"If a dozen or a hundred, or a thousand men—and, not only men, but children and women — are maimed or slaughtered, so much the better in their view—'serve the beggars right!' Whenever the slave bares his set teeth to the slave-masters he must be punished, batoned, jailed or shot dead. Starvation is often the weapon of capitalism; but, horrible as the starvation weapon is, it does not satisfy the gall of the political inquisitionists of England. They want bloodshed, and maimings, and murder.

"I speak from an experience of 30 years, of thousands of strikes, and I know that the first brutal demand of employers is that the men in revolt should either be shot or jailed; but this is a merciful demand compared with what they insist should be the punishment meted out to the leaders.

Press Aware of Facts.

"Both sides of the House of Parliament represent but one class. They unite to cheat labor. The press of the country is aware of the fact that nearly 2,000,000 families are without the bare necessaries of life—and in the 'United Kingdom.' If the 2,000,000 of the propertyless families were to rise, to demand the full rights of property—in life, in land, in wealth, in health, in government — they would be suppressed with violence, yet their rights are more essential to the well-being of the country than the rights of the capitalist classes.

"The capitalist newspapers and the government may jeopardize international peace; agents of battleship, gun and explosive manufacturers may finance so-called patriotic organizations; war scares and incentives of war may be engineered. The tremendous conspiracy of the press may be utilized to flog the war hounds to panic and hate—yet there is no government or press suppression of the 'arm-chair bullies.'

"If an invading army had traversed our streets and cities no worse state could be possible for the 6,000,000 of the submerged than the destitution and wretchedness now prevailing."

It is an open secret, however, that the British government is seriously concerned over the present condition of affairs. Information has reached them that when the next big strike occurs here—it will be a railroad strike—all the big trades unions will call out their workers, and that the fight will be fought to a finish on syndicalist lines. The moral of the Belgian upheaval has not been lost sight of by the British workers who are now slowly collecting their funds to wage the greatest and bitterest labor war that the world has ever seen.

Colt Shortstop Steals 13 Bases, Standing Second.

MEEK NOW BATTING .395

McCarl and Kippert Are Runners-Up for Hitting Honors With Speas Topping Portland Sluggers With Average of .319.

Dave Bancroft, the Portland shortstop, is going to make a strong fight for base-stealing honors in the Northwestern League this season. Off to a bad start, he now ranks second to Jackson, of Seattle, the leader, with 13 thefts.

Harry Meek needs but to keep up his present clip to finish the season around the .400 mark in batting, and lead the circuit for the second successive season. The Victoria backstop fattened his average at the expense of Portland and Spokane pitchers and jumped to .395, more than 40 points ahead of McCarl and Kippert, the runners-up.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Once again the Portland Colts flicked the scalps of the poor, bedraggled Tacoma Tigers; once again "Iron Man" Joe McGinnity had to rush to the rescue of a duo of his twirlers. But Portland, notwithstanding, defeated Tacoma yesterday in the sixth consecutive game, 6 to 2.

Victoria won a double-header from Spokane, making seven straight, so Portland went back into fourth position.

Playing as they have the past week, Nick Williams' Colts look like champs of the world, while the Tigers appear as a bunch of novitiates. Speas starred yesterday for the Colts with three hits, Kid Mohler, Harry Hellmann and Pat Eastley rushing along not far in the rear.

Eastley opened on the mound against Kaufman. Eastley had one shaky inning, the first, when three hits rounded up Tacoma's two tallies. After that Pat was as cool as a photo of Doc Cook taken after his arrival in Denmark. He did not allow a hit subsequent to the second inning and only one man reached first base.

Kaufman Hit Hard.

In direct contract with the popular Eastley's brilliant box work, Kaufman was punctured hard and often. After seven hits in the third and fourth frames, McGinnity sent Belford into the box. "Butch" sailed along nicely until the seventh inning, when he, too, blew up and was cracked twice and walked two others, forcing in a tally.

Then McGinnity yawned dismally on the bench, shed his old red sweater and ambled lazily out to the mound for his third appearance this week. He expects to pitch today's game, too, so nobody will accuse the old New York Giant of basking in the shade of his former glory.

The "Iron Man" mowed down the Colts in the eighth canto, one, two, three on 12 pitched balls, Fries fanning without wiggling his bat. He did, however, wiggle his tongue at Umpire Casey, much to the delight of 3500 wildly enthusiastic fans who have grown to be great Northwestern league boosters.

The day was perfect for baseball.

Coltrin and Speas Shine.

Aside from the blowup of the Tiger twirlers, some shopworn fielding by the visiting infield and some sensational fielding by Coltrin and Speas, there wasn't much to startle the crowd.

Bancroft tripped lightly around the edges of the calcium, first by squeezing in the winning run in the fourth inning, after McMullen's boot and Eastley's second hit, and later by screaming "I have It" on a fly out instead of the customary "I got it."

But, it was a passably good game, and, as space is scarce and the runs many, we'll let it go at that. McGinnity will pitch for Tacoma against Martinoni today, starting at 2:30 P. M. Williams hopes to make it seven straight. The score:

Notes of the Game.

Mohler drove in Portland's first tally in the third inning by a single after Coltrin's hit and Eastley's terrific two-base clout over Kennedy's head. Eastley tallied on Burrell's error, tying the score.

Eastley walked Kurfuss, first man up for Tacoma in inning one. McMullen singled and Kurfuss later scored on Keller's sacrifice fly. A single by Neighbors and McMurdo's double tallied the other run in the same frame.

Kurfuss played center field in Harris' place. He is a young pitcher brought West by McGinnity from Jersey City. This is his first professional work.

Speas was caught at the plate after Hellmann's clout up against the right field fence in the seventh. Hellmann was caught off third on a grounder to shortstop a moment later, but Umpire Casey expected the throw to go to first and missed the play.

McMurdo is playing a great fielding game for the Tigers and so is First Baseman Speas, of Portland.

CANUCKS BEAT BUGS TWICE

Ingersoll Blanks Seattle in Second Game Before Monster Crowd.

VANCOUVER May 24.—Ingersoll was invincible for Vancouver in the afternoon game today and backed by brilliant support, succeeded in shutting out the league leaders by a 2 to 0 score. Meikle, pitching for Seattle, was hit freely, but managed to keep the hits fairly well scattered. The game was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever attended a ball game in Vancouver.

Dell was invincible against the Canucks here this morning, and but for a overthrow by Wally in attempting to catch Kippert stealing and which allowed him to score, he would have earned a shutout. Concannon was hit hard throughout. The Giants won 4 to 1. Killilay's home run drive in the ninth featured. A grounder from Killilay's bat in the second inning struck Bennett in the face, breaking his nose. Scores:

EXTRA INNINGS PLAYED

BUCKS BEAT BOISE IN ELEVEN FRAMES; YAKS MINERS IN 10.

Spuds Hop on Bear Pitcher and Make Four Runs in Fourth, Winning 4 to 3.

Two games in the Western Tri-State League Saturday went extra innings, Pendleton requiring 11 innings to defeat Boise, 8 to 6, and North Yakima 10 to defeat Baker, 12 to 10. La Grande did a good job of trouncing Walla Walla in the regulation nine, winning 4 to 3.

La Grande won at Walla Walla by taking advantage of Greene, the Bear pitcher, in one inning. Greene pitched a good game, except in the fourth. Four hits and an error let in four Spuds and lost the game for the Bears. Harmon, for the Bears, was the batting star. Up four times, he got four hits, one a three-bagger, made two runs, stole two bases. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
Walla Walla	3	8	2	La Grande	4	10	0

Batteries—Greene and Brown; Jamieson and King.

Berger, for Pendleton, went in as a pinch hitter at Boise in the 11th and broke up the game by driving out a double, scoring two. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
Pendleton	8	15	5	Boise	6	9	7

Batteries—Peet and Byrnes; Johnson, Bridger and Gard.

Timely hitting of the Braves at Baker, with three bonehead errors by the Miners, did the work. Engle, for Yakima, was touched hard in three innings. Seven hits and six runs were charged against him. Gordon went in and held to five hits. The score:

	R.	H.	E.		R.	H.	E.
N. Yakima	12	15	2	Baker	10	15	6

Batteries—Engle, Gordon and Stanley; Woods, Krause and Post.
