

Society

Miss Ruby Crichton, whose engagement to Philip Hart was announced last week.

THE lure of the bright sunshine and the call of the out-of-doors and the love of the beautiful country that is strong in the hearts of all dwellers in the city at this time of the year have kept society folk busy all this week planning motor trips, making up picnic parties, and, above all, getting ready for the opening of the Waverly Country Club, which formally will assemble in large numbers to give proper eclat to the important event. The location of the new clubhouse on the banks of the river, its appropriate and attractive style of architecture and its commodious rooms and wide verandas make it one of the finest clubhouses in the West and an ideal place for entertaining.

On Friday the polo game between the Waverly and Vancouver Barracks teams brought together an enthusiastic crowd of spectators, both teams having many friends interested in their success. Numerous teas and small dinner parties followed, and an informal dance rounded out the pleasures of the holiday. The perfect weather made the day one of the most delightful on the social calendar. Polo will be the event again today. The stag dinner given last night was in the nature of a farewell to the old building, which has been the scene of many delightful gatherings. The furnishings of the new quarters will begin tomorrow, and by Saturday all will be in readiness for the gala event.

The rendition of "In a Persian Garden" at Reed College called forth an appreciative audience and a society and musical folk on Thursday evening. The affair was one of the most artistic musical events ever given in this city, and much credit is due the splendid chorus of young student voices.

Among the affairs planned for this week are two delightful engagements to Miss Lucile Smith, whose wedding to Clifton N. McArthur will be a brilliant event to come—the dinner at which Miss Lucile, MacMaster will preside at her home in Arisour and the tea, which Miss Gretchen Klosterman will give on Thursday.

Among the brides-elect who have chosen June, the month of roses, for their wedding days are Miss Irene Flynn, on June 4; Miss Milla Williams, on June 18; Miss Louise Williams, on June 21, and Miss Lucile Smith, on June 23.

The Misses Cornelia and Cully Cook were hostesses at a delightful luncheon Thursday in compliment to Miss Milla Wessinger, whose wedding to Philip Hart will be a smart event of this month. Seated around the table in addition to the guest of honor were Mrs. Carl L. Wernicke, Mrs. Stanley Jewett, Mrs. Erskine Wood, Mrs. Gilbert Durham, Miss Katherine Hart, Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Miss Margery Hoffman, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Miss Anita Burns, fiancée of C. H. Davis, Jr., and the hostesses. The same evening a number of the younger set gathered at the Waverly Country Club for an informal dinner dance which was one of the jolliest affairs of the week. Several of the newest versions of the universally popular "rag" were tried by the enthusiastic dancers, and the party included Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Durham, Mrs. Cornelia Cook, Miss Cully Cook, Miss Louise Burns, Miss Margery Hoffman, Miss Anita Burns, Miss Katherine Hart, Miss Polly Young, Mrs. Evelyn Carey, Charles H. Holbrook, Maurice E. Crampacker, Lester Teal Hodson, C. Harry Davis, Jr., Fritz Behrens, Kurt Koehler, Irving Webster, Jordan Zan, Mr. George of the Army Post and James Colborn.

Miss Milla Wessinger, who is en route to Portland from the East.

One of the smartest affairs of the week was the charming bridge-tee given by Mrs. Victor A. Johnson Thursday afternoon. Guests made up nine tables at the game, and additional guests thronged the Johnson residence later in the afternoon. The rooms were artistically adorned with huge clusters of lovely garden flowers, which also centered the tea table. Mrs. Walter F. Burrell and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood presided at the samovars. Mrs. D. T. Honnert and Mrs. Landon H. Mason, Jr., served ices. They were assisted by Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Clementine Lambert and Miss Claire Houghton. Card honors fell to Mrs. F. C. Malpas, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Donald W. MacGregor, Mrs. Frederick P. Morey, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Carter Flavin Pomeroy, of San Francisco, who is the house guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke; Mrs. J. Andre Foulhoux, Mrs. Robert S. Howard, Jr., and Mrs. Walter Boswell, of the Barracks.

Complimenting Mrs. Lausant-Richter Rogers of Wilmington, Del., Mrs. Samuel D. Adair was hostess at an elaborate tea Wednesday afternoon. A profusion of Spring blossoms, including Scotch broom, snap dragon and gladioli, were effectively arranged about the rooms. The tea-table was in charge of Mrs. Walter John Burns, Miss Failing, Mrs. George Taylor and Mrs. Harriet McArthur, and they were assisted by a bevy of the younger set, about 100 guests called during the afternoon. Mrs. Rogers (Miss Hannah Adair), ar-

Workman delighted a fashionable gathering of society with an interesting lecture on art topics. Her talk included a description of many of the treasures in the Freer art collection, including the famous peacock room, by Whistler; about fifty canvases of distinguished people whose acquaintance Mrs. Workman had made last winter. The lecture was followed by tea. Mrs. Vincent Cook presiding, Mrs. Nash dispensing ices, assisted by Mmes. George W. McMath, Arthur C. Geron, Misses Ada Alice Tutin and Delberta Stuart. The rooms were decorated with ferns, vines and pink sweet peas. The porch was adorned with masses of white blossoms, including the gladioli. The hostesses had planned an all-fresco affair, but the day was not propitious for outdoor entertaining.

The guests included Mrs. H. C. Wortman, Mrs. Vincent Cook, Miss Dorothea Nash, Mrs. Eugene C. Horton, Mrs. Josephine Keating, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. Samuel Creadick, Miss Creadick, Mrs. E. L. Thompson, Mrs. Warren Thomas, Mrs. Louise Burke, Mrs. E. M. Wood, Mrs. Frank M. Warren, Miss Etta Morris, Mrs. John Pearson, Mrs. R. L. Dunham, Mrs. Behrends, Miss Elizabeth Cadwell, Mrs. Clarence Gibbs, Mrs. B. Aitchison, Miss Valentine Prichard, Mrs. S. Erwin, Mrs. Haines, Mrs. T. T. Geer, Mrs. Caroline Dunlap, Miss Dunlap, Mrs. Carl Denton, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Caroline S. Allen, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Miss Stuntz, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. Dr. Smith of Pendleton, Miss Smith, Mrs. Julia D. Marquam, Mrs. Hubbard, of Astoria, Mrs. A. C. Geron, Mrs. G. W. McMath, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Miss Edith Nicholson, Miss von Bolton, Miss Evelyn Bolton, Mrs. E. J. Marab, Miss Camille Dasech, Mrs. Rothrock, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Misses Laura and Winifred Miller.

Dr. Gustav Baar left Wednesday for Carlsbad, Austria, to resume his practice there, and will return to Portland in September.

Miss Tessa Dent, who left a few months ago for Europe, with Mrs. Clara Waldo and Miss Edith Waldo, is being entertained extensively by relatives and friends in England. She has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, in Eastbourne and Brighton, England, where she also has been delightfully feted. Mrs. Waldo and daughter are in Paris and later will visit in Belgium.

An interesting engagement which came as a genuine surprise is that of Miss Ruby Crichton and James Ambrose. The news was told at an informal reception given by Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Morton Williams, a brides-elect of June. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Williams, her mother, Mrs. C. B. Williams; Mrs. George W. Bates and Miss Ruby Crichton. Cards were given by Mrs. Crichton were presented to the guests on entering.

The house was artistically decorated with quantities of pink and white blossoms and a basket of Killarney rosebuds adorned the table. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Guy Menefee Standifer, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Charles Allen Reed and Miss Lillian Morton. They were assisted by Miss Frances Klosterman, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mary Long, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Ruth Plummer, Miss Bess Lloyd. Further assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George W. Bates, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. William Lyons.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, one of the smartest of the city, a member of the contingent, and a clever pianist. She is a graduate of Portland Academy and is most interesting maid. Mr. Ambrose is a nephew of George W. Bates, with whom he resides, and is also popular with the younger set.

Complimenting Miss Louise Morton Williams, whose wedding to William Hubbard Patterson will be an event of the week, Mrs. William H. Warren was hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white, and covered with Killarney rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Harry Nicolai, Mrs. Lynn Covert, Miss Leonide Fleury and the hostess, Miss Forbis and Miss Fleury are also planning to entertain in honor of Miss Williams.

Mrs. Everett Ames was hostess at a charming informal tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Low Hall, of San Francisco, who has come to make her home in Portland. The house was attractive with bowls of pink snap dragon and blue delphinium. About 30 guests called during the afternoon.

The eclectic tournament that has been going on for the past three months among the enthusiastic women members of the Waverly Golf Club closed Tuesday and has been one of the most interesting tournaments held on the Waverly links. Mrs. Guy Lombard put up a handsomely fitted traveling bag, trophy, and Mrs. W. D. Skinner won with a net score of 71. The players handed in the best score for 18 holes, and the 18 best scores were taken to make a composite score. Those who played in the tournament are Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Madame Frost, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Caroline S. Allen, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Miss Stuntz, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. Dr. Smith of Pendleton, Miss Smith, Mrs. Julia D. Marquam, Mrs. Hubbard, of Astoria, Mrs. A. C. Geron, Mrs. G. W. McMath, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Miss Edith Nicholson, Miss von Bolton, Miss Evelyn Bolton, Mrs. E. J. Marab, Miss Camille Dasech, Mrs. Rothrock, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Misses Laura and Winifred Miller.

Dr. Gustav Baar left Wednesday for Carlsbad, Austria, to resume his practice there, and will return to Portland in September.

Miss Tessa Dent, who left a few months ago for Europe, with Mrs. Clara Waldo and Miss Edith Waldo, is being entertained extensively by relatives and friends in England. She has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, in Eastbourne and Brighton, England, where she also has been delightfully feted. Mrs. Waldo and daughter are in Paris and later will visit in Belgium.

An interesting engagement which came as a genuine surprise is that of Miss Ruby Crichton and James Ambrose. The news was told at an informal reception given by Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Morton Williams, a brides-elect of June. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Williams, her mother, Mrs. C. B. Williams; Mrs. George W. Bates and Miss Ruby Crichton. Cards were given by Mrs. Crichton were presented to the guests on entering.

The house was artistically decorated with quantities of pink and white blossoms and a basket of Killarney rosebuds adorned the table. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Guy Menefee Standifer, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Charles Allen Reed and Miss Lillian Morton. They were assisted by Miss Frances Klosterman, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mary Long, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Ruth Plummer, Miss Bess Lloyd. Further assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George W. Bates, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. William Lyons.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, one of the smartest of the city, a member of the contingent, and a clever pianist. She is a graduate of Portland Academy and is most interesting maid. Mr. Ambrose is a nephew of George W. Bates, with whom he resides, and is also popular with the younger set.

Complimenting Miss Louise Morton Williams, whose wedding to William Hubbard Patterson will be an event of the week, Mrs. William H. Warren was hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white, and covered with Killarney rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Harry Nicolai, Mrs. Lynn Covert, Miss Leonide Fleury and the hostess, Miss Forbis and Miss Fleury are also planning to entertain in honor of Miss Williams.

Mrs. Everett Ames was hostess at a charming informal tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Low Hall, of San Francisco, who has come to make her home in Portland. The house was attractive with bowls of pink snap dragon and blue delphinium. About 30 guests called during the afternoon.

The eclectic tournament that has been going on for the past three months among the enthusiastic women members of the Waverly Golf Club closed Tuesday and has been one of the most interesting tournaments held on the Waverly links. Mrs. Guy Lombard put up a handsomely fitted traveling bag, trophy, and Mrs. W. D. Skinner won with a net score of 71. The players handed in the best score for 18 holes, and the 18 best scores were taken to make a composite score. Those who played in the tournament are Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Madame Frost, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Caroline S. Allen, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Miss Stuntz, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. Dr. Smith of Pendleton, Miss Smith, Mrs. Julia D. Marquam, Mrs. Hubbard, of Astoria, Mrs. A. C. Geron, Mrs. G. W. McMath, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Miss Edith Nicholson, Miss von Bolton, Miss Evelyn Bolton, Mrs. E. J. Marab, Miss Camille Dasech, Mrs. Rothrock, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Misses Laura and Winifred Miller.

Dr. Gustav Baar left Wednesday for Carlsbad, Austria, to resume his practice there, and will return to Portland in September.

Miss Tessa Dent, who left a few months ago for Europe, with Mrs. Clara Waldo and Miss Edith Waldo, is being entertained extensively by relatives and friends in England. She has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, in Eastbourne and Brighton, England, where she also has been delightfully feted. Mrs. Waldo and daughter are in Paris and later will visit in Belgium.

An interesting engagement which came as a genuine surprise is that of Miss Ruby Crichton and James Ambrose. The news was told at an informal reception given by Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Morton Williams, a brides-elect of June. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Williams, her mother, Mrs. C. B. Williams; Mrs. George W. Bates and Miss Ruby Crichton. Cards were given by Mrs. Crichton were presented to the guests on entering.

The house was artistically decorated with quantities of pink and white blossoms and a basket of Killarney rosebuds adorned the table. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Guy Menefee Standifer, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Charles Allen Reed and Miss Lillian Morton. They were assisted by Miss Frances Klosterman, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mary Long, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Ruth Plummer, Miss Bess Lloyd. Further assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George W. Bates, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. William Lyons.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, one of the smartest of the city, a member of the contingent, and a clever pianist. She is a graduate of Portland Academy and is most interesting maid. Mr. Ambrose is a nephew of George W. Bates, with whom he resides, and is also popular with the younger set.

Complimenting Miss Louise Morton Williams, whose wedding to William Hubbard Patterson will be an event of the week, Mrs. William H. Warren was hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white, and covered with Killarney rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Harry Nicolai, Mrs. Lynn Covert, Miss Leonide Fleury and the hostess, Miss Forbis and Miss Fleury are also planning to entertain in honor of Miss Williams.

Mrs. Everett Ames was hostess at a charming informal tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Low Hall, of San Francisco, who has come to make her home in Portland. The house was attractive with bowls of pink snap dragon and blue delphinium. About 30 guests called during the afternoon.

The eclectic tournament that has been going on for the past three months among the enthusiastic women members of the Waverly Golf Club closed Tuesday and has been one of the most interesting tournaments held on the Waverly links. Mrs. Guy Lombard put up a handsomely fitted traveling bag, trophy, and Mrs. W. D. Skinner won with a net score of 71. The players handed in the best score for 18 holes, and the 18 best scores were taken to make a composite score. Those who played in the tournament are Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. An-

Miss Irene Flynn, a March Rated Bride-Elect of Wednesday June 4th.

The Big Credit Institution

toine G. Labbe, Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Madame Frost, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Caroline S. Allen, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Miss Stuntz, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. Dr. Smith of Pendleton, Miss Smith, Mrs. Julia D. Marquam, Mrs. Hubbard, of Astoria, Mrs. A. C. Geron, Mrs. G. W. McMath, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Miss Edith Nicholson, Miss von Bolton, Miss Evelyn Bolton, Mrs. E. J. Marab, Miss Camille Dasech, Mrs. Rothrock, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Misses Laura and Winifred Miller.

Dr. Gustav Baar left Wednesday for Carlsbad, Austria, to resume his practice there, and will return to Portland in September.

Miss Tessa Dent, who left a few months ago for Europe, with Mrs. Clara Waldo and Miss Edith Waldo, is being entertained extensively by relatives and friends in England. She has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, in Eastbourne and Brighton, England, where she also has been delightfully feted. Mrs. Waldo and daughter are in Paris and later will visit in Belgium.

An interesting engagement which came as a genuine surprise is that of Miss Ruby Crichton and James Ambrose. The news was told at an informal reception given by Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Morton Williams, a brides-elect of June. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Williams, her mother, Mrs. C. B. Williams; Mrs. George W. Bates and Miss Ruby Crichton. Cards were given by Mrs. Crichton were presented to the guests on entering.

The house was artistically decorated with quantities of pink and white blossoms and a basket of Killarney rosebuds adorned the table. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Guy Menefee Standifer, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Charles Allen Reed and Miss Lillian Morton. They were assisted by Miss Frances Klosterman, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mary Long, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Ruth Plummer, Miss Bess Lloyd. Further assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George W. Bates, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. William Lyons.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, one of the smartest of the city, a member of the contingent, and a clever pianist. She is a graduate of Portland Academy and is most interesting maid. Mr. Ambrose is a nephew of George W. Bates, with whom he resides, and is also popular with the younger set.

Complimenting Miss Louise Morton Williams, whose wedding to William Hubbard Patterson will be an event of the week, Mrs. William H. Warren was hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white, and covered with Killarney rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Harry Nicolai, Mrs. Lynn Covert, Miss Leonide Fleury and the hostess, Miss Forbis and Miss Fleury are also planning to entertain in honor of Miss Williams.

Mrs. Everett Ames was hostess at a charming informal tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Low Hall, of San Francisco, who has come to make her home in Portland. The house was attractive with bowls of pink snap dragon and blue delphinium. About 30 guests called during the afternoon.

The eclectic tournament that has been going on for the past three months among the enthusiastic women members of the Waverly Golf Club closed Tuesday and has been one of the most interesting tournaments held on the Waverly links. Mrs. Guy Lombard put up a handsomely fitted traveling bag, trophy, and Mrs. W. D. Skinner won with a net score of 71. The players handed in the best score for 18 holes, and the 18 best scores were taken to make a composite score. Those who played in the tournament are Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe, Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Madame Frost, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Caroline S. Allen, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Miss Stuntz, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. Dr. Smith of Pendleton, Miss Smith, Mrs. Julia D. Marquam, Mrs. Hubbard, of Astoria, Mrs. A. C. Geron, Mrs. G. W. McMath, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Miss Edith Nicholson, Miss von Bolton, Miss Evelyn Bolton, Mrs. E. J. Marab, Miss Camille Dasech, Mrs. Rothrock, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Misses Laura and Winifred Miller.

Dr. Gustav Baar left Wednesday for Carlsbad, Austria, to resume his practice there, and will return to Portland in September.

Miss Tessa Dent, who left a few months ago for Europe, with Mrs. Clara Waldo and Miss Edith Waldo, is being entertained extensively by relatives and friends in England. She has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, in Eastbourne and Brighton, England, where she also has been delightfully feted. Mrs. Waldo and daughter are in Paris and later will visit in Belgium.

An interesting engagement which came as a genuine surprise is that of Miss Ruby Crichton and James Ambrose. The news was told at an informal reception given by Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Morton Williams, a brides-elect of June. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Williams, her mother, Mrs. C. B. Williams; Mrs. George W. Bates and Miss Ruby Crichton. Cards were given by Mrs. Crichton were presented to the guests on entering.

The house was artistically decorated with quantities of pink and white blossoms and a basket of Killarney rosebuds adorned the table. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Guy Menefee Standifer, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Charles Allen Reed and Miss Lillian Morton. They were assisted by Miss Frances Klosterman, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mary Long, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Ruth Plummer, Miss Bess Lloyd. Further assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George W. Bates, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. William Lyons.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, one of the smartest of the city, a member of the contingent, and a clever pianist. She is a graduate of Portland Academy and is most interesting maid. Mr. Ambrose is a nephew of George W. Bates, with whom he resides, and is also popular with the younger set.

Complimenting Miss Louise Morton Williams, whose wedding to William Hubbard Patterson will be an event of the week, Mrs. William H. Warren was hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white, and covered with Killarney rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Harry Nicolai, Mrs. Lynn Covert, Miss Leonide Fleury and the hostess, Miss Forbis and Miss Fleury are also planning to entertain in honor of Miss Williams.

Mrs. Everett Ames was hostess at a charming informal tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Low Hall, of San Francisco, who has come to make her home in Portland. The house was attractive with bowls of pink snap dragon and blue delphinium. About 30 guests called during the afternoon.

The eclectic tournament that has been going on for the past three months among the enthusiastic women members of the Waverly Golf Club closed Tuesday and has been one of the most interesting tournaments held on the Waverly links. Mrs. Guy Lombard put up a handsomely fitted traveling bag, trophy, and Mrs. W. D. Skinner won with a net score of 71. The players handed in the best score for 18 holes, and the 18 best scores were taken to make a composite score. Those who played in the tournament are Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. Anwill want to look their best for the Rose Festival! Just a week of preparation. The Eastern abounds with charming new things in Summer Suits; lovely Lingerie, Silk and Tub Dresses; White Coats, Silk Coats and nobby mixtures.

"For the Newest, Visit the Eastern"

EVERYONE

Needn't have ready money, either—pay as much as you can now, balance at convenient intervals.

Here's a New Mandarin-sleeve Balkan Suit-- a newcomer!

Isn't it stunning! Note the new Mandarin sleeves, the jaunty Balkan girdle and sash; the draped, slashed skirt. Comes in coral eponge, black and tan Bedford and shepherd checks.

Another of Nell rose eponge, with white Bengaline sailor collar. Loops and buttons give effect of buttoning to the throat.

See these new Balkan Suits at
—$27.50, $32.50, $35 and $37.50.

Lovely Combination Dresses

Dame Fashion's latest edict — lovely combination coat dresses, with coat of one fabric or color, and skirt in another. Also Coat Dresses in new silk matelasse, of new French blue, Copenhagen and white. Large showing at $20 and up.

Handsome Novelty Coats

Beautiful silk matelasse, embossed ratine and eponge, in the new blues, Nell rose, gray, terra cotta, etc. Many caught at side with immense ornaments and buttons. Draped effects are very pronounced. Prices, $25 to $40

Come in tomorrow and let us open a Credit Account for you. Thousands of Portland's best people enjoy the advantages of our liberal credit policy

Eastern

Outfitting Co.

405 Washington at Tenth

Ask for Brown Trading Stamps

toine G. Labbe, Mrs. Victor A. Johnson, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Madame Frost, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. Donald Green, Mrs. J. W. Matthes, Mrs. R. J. Furbeck, Mrs. Caroline S. Allen, Mrs. Forrest Fisher, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Dell Stuart, Miss Stuntz, Mrs. C. M. Bunker, Mrs. Dr. Smith of Pendleton, Miss Smith, Mrs. Julia D. Marquam, Mrs. Hubbard, of Astoria, Mrs. A. C. Geron, Mrs. G. W. McMath, Mrs. John Claire Monteth, Miss Carrie A. Holbrook, Miss Edith Nicholson, Miss von Bolton, Miss Evelyn Bolton, Mrs. E. J. Marab, Miss Camille Dasech, Mrs. Rothrock, Mrs. D. B. Mackie, Misses Laura and Winifred Miller.

Dr. Gustav Baar left Wednesday for Carlsbad, Austria, to resume his practice there, and will return to Portland in September.

Miss Tessa Dent, who left a few months ago for Europe, with Mrs. Clara Waldo and Miss Edith Waldo, is being entertained extensively by relatives and friends in England. She has been the guest of her uncle and aunt, Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, in Eastbourne and Brighton, England, where she also has been delightfully feted. Mrs. Waldo and daughter are in Paris and later will visit in Belgium.

An interesting engagement which came as a genuine surprise is that of Miss Ruby Crichton and James Ambrose. The news was told at an informal reception given by Mrs. Ernest W. Crichton yesterday afternoon in compliment to Miss Louise Morton Williams, a brides-elect of June. Receiving with the hostess were Miss Williams, her mother, Mrs. C. B. Williams; Mrs. George W. Bates and Miss Ruby Crichton. Cards were given by Mrs. Crichton were presented to the guests on entering.

The house was artistically decorated with quantities of pink and white blossoms and a basket of Killarney rosebuds adorned the table. Presiding in the dining-room were Mrs. Guy Menefee Standifer, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. Charles Allen Reed and Miss Lillian Morton. They were assisted by Miss Frances Klosterman, Miss Frances Fuller, Miss Mary Long, Miss Josephine Cronan, Miss Ruth Plummer, Miss Bess Lloyd. Further assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George W. Bates, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. William Lyons.

The bride-elect is a charming girl, one of the smartest of the city, a member of the contingent, and a clever pianist. She is a graduate of Portland Academy and is most interesting maid. Mr. Ambrose is a nephew of George W. Bates, with whom he resides, and is also popular with the younger set.

Complimenting Miss Louise Morton Williams, whose wedding to William Hubbard Patterson will be an event of the week, Mrs. William H. Warren was hostess at an informal luncheon Wednesday. The table decorations were carried out in pink and white, and covered with Killarney rosebuds. Mrs. Martin, Miss Marjorie Forbis, Mrs. Harry Nicolai, Mrs. Lynn Covert, Miss Leonide Fleury and the hostess, Miss Forbis and Miss Fleury are also planning to entertain in honor of Miss Williams.

Mrs. Everett Ames was hostess at a charming informal tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Low Hall, of San Francisco, who has come to make her home in Portland. The house was attractive with bowls of pink snap dragon and blue delphinium. About 30 guests called during the afternoon.

The eclectic tournament that has been going on for the past three months among the enthusiastic women members of the Waverly Golf Club closed Tuesday and has been one of the most interesting tournaments held on the Waverly links. Mrs. Guy Lombard put up a handsomely fitted traveling bag, trophy, and Mrs. W. D. Skinner won with a net score of 71. The players handed in the best score for 18 holes, and the 18 best scores were taken to make a composite score. Those who played in the tournament are Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Richard Koehler, Mrs. Peter Kerr, Mrs. Thomas Kerr, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Mrs. Walter J. Burns, Miss Anita Burns, Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mrs. Elizabeth Freeman, Mrs. An-

Ruth Dunne, Miss Louise Sutton, Miss Margaret McKenna, Miss Ruth Buck-

Comfort in Furniture

Enduring comfort is assured the possessor of a piece of our overstuffed furniture.

Several of these pieces are in our window this week. They are correct and interesting in design, and of the finest construction. The prices are well below prevailing Portland prices.

We build to order fine easy chairs and davenport of any design, and repair and recover old furniture, or make slip covers of linen or cretonne.

Our stock of coverings includes many handsome fabrics not to be seen elsewhere.

For estimates, telephone Main 7800 or A 5161.

UNANDER AND JAKWAY

Decorators and Furnishers
Alder at Eleventh St.

Summer Sale Tailored Suits

In order to make room for new goods, before going to New York, will offer the latest material at
$47.50 AND $50.00
Formerly priced at $60 and $65.00.

Strictly Plain Tailored.

J. K. STERN, LADIES' TAILOR

447 ALDER STREET

Ladies, Don't Miss This Opportunity.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY

50 TAILOR-MADE SUITS FOR $30

Work and Fit Guaranteed.

B. FINK, Ladies' Tailor

407 Bilers Bldg.,
Broadway and Alder.

WEDDING

Invitations and Announcements
Monogram Stationery
Engraved Visiting Cards
Hurd's and Crane's Fine Stationery
At Home and Reception Cards

W. G. SMITH & CO.

Society Card Engravers,
Third Floor Washington Bldg., 4th and Washington, Opp. Mer. Nat Bank.