

SOCIETY

Mrs. Loyal M. Carbery, A Bride of Wednesday

Genevieve and Marian Chapin. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Charles E. Hill, Mrs. J. Kaddery, Mrs. J. C. Costello, Mrs. H. C. Broude, Mrs. C. Mace, Mrs. Isaac Staples, Mrs. H. O. Tenny, Mrs. Lewis Mead, Mrs. H. W. Wellie, Master Eddie Bonk attended the door and Helen Buckley, Grace Jordan, Katherine Lockwood and Ina Chapin also assisted. About 100 guests called during the afternoon. An attractive feature was the orchestra music. Mrs. Elfrida Heller Weinstein sang several songs in her most pleasing manner. Mrs. H. C. Newcastle was in a gown of delicate pink satin veiled in embroidered lace with trimmings of rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white roses. Mrs. C. C. Newcastle was in white satin with white Persian bands; she also carried pink roses.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Walsh, 64 East Sixty-seventh street, Taber Heights, was the scene of a pleasant gathering on Thursday afternoon when Mrs. Elizabeth entertained more than 20 of her little friends, it being her 10th birthday anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated in blue and yellow. Hobelia and Scotch broom. Games were played, after which a luncheon was served. The favors especially pleasing the little ones were well-filled bon-bon baskets. Mrs. William McGee and Mrs. Homer Richards assisted by Miss Emma Frost and Miss Francon O'Brien presided at the tables. Chaperones in attendance were Mrs. Fred Sellwauke, Mrs. William Langnor and Mrs. William Walsh. The Misses Flora and Dorothy McBride, Esther and Emily O'Brien, Madeline and Marie Burns, Kathryn and Helen Langnor, and Gertrude and Leona Helm, Alice Canaday, Gladys Terwilliger, Florence Hadley, May Duffy, Mary Costello, Thelma Hancock, Dorothy Johnson, Olga Nelson, Helen Richards, Lolita Walsh, Stella Percy, Wesley and Eugene Eldridge, Ralph Richards, Fred and George W. Geiger.

The parlors of the First Congregational Church presented an animated scene Wednesday afternoon, when the Ladies Aid Society welcomed many friends gathered for the last meeting of the season. The room was decorated with a profusion of lovely flowers. The president of the society, Mrs. C. W. King, and Mrs. Frederic Eggert, for 25 years financial secretary of the society, received the visitors, introducing them to the hostesses. A most enjoyable musical programme had been arranged by Mrs. G. W. Nothnagle, which was as follows: Vocal solo, "I Hear You Calling Me," Mrs. J. Curly's hymns, "Hallelujah," folk song and a Welsh folk song, Mildwyn Evans; violin solo, selected, Mrs. Goodwin; vocal solo, "A Little Dutch Song," Mrs. Simpson; Miss Florence Jackson, accompanist. Tea was served in the classrooms adjoining the parlors. Mrs. R. M. Gray and Mrs. Thomas Roberts presided at the samovars and Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Colton served ice. A bevy of young women, under the direction of Miss Jane Andrews, chairman of the committee, assisted in serving.

A pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ott Tuesday evening by a number of friends, it being the 10th anniversary of their wedding, which took place in this city. A number of beautiful gifts were received. A delightful evening was passed in music and singing. After which collation was served. A beautifully decorated wedding cake was presented by Mrs. F. F. Boody. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Boody, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Griffith, Miss Josephine Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Taylor, Miss Gray Holtzclaw, Mrs. Kate Terry, Mr. and Mrs. George Thomson, Mrs. Lees Mees, Edward Meese, Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Clinton, Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ott, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Wing, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Bolte, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Joplin, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Ott.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Kitts celebrated the 10th anniversary of their wedding on June 3 by entertaining at a card party and supper. An informal musical programme added to the pleasure of the guests. The house was artistically decorated in masses of pink carnations arranged exactly as had been the flowers on the wedding day. Mrs. Kitts wore a beautiful pink satin gown draped in pink chiffon. Her two little daughters, June and Nina, were also attired in dainty pink. Among those present were: Miss Charlotte E. Coughlan, Miss Ethel Green, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Tupper, Miss Adelaide P. Phelps, Abury E. M. J. J. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jorgensen, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Maxon, Mr. and Mrs. H. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Malloy Kent, F. A. Pittenger, Mrs. Cal Fry, Mrs. E. A. Gail, Mrs. Fred F. Waffle, E. G. Kline, J. P. Price, D. A. Maxson, W. R. Cornell and Mrs. E. A. Kitts.

One of the most attractive affairs of the week was the 500 party given by Mrs. Joseph H. Taylor, Tuesday afternoon at her home in Westmoreland. The house was artistically decorated for the occasion, pink being the keynote of the color scheme. Card honors fell to Mrs. George Mosher, Mrs. Henry C. Schroeder and Mrs. Otto Nelson. The invitations list included Mrs. Theodore A. Grams, Mrs. C. Gmahlina, Mrs. Otto Nelson, Mrs. H. W. Grunwald, Mrs. Sengbusch, Mrs. Eberhardt, Mrs. Mary Marach, Mrs. H. C. Schroeder.

Helene Hall, Bride of Wednesday

der, Mrs. Frederick Jennings, Mrs. H. Ludwig, Mrs. John Rometch, Mrs. Martin Saitze, Mrs. A. Hiesler, Mrs. B. Fairbanks, Mrs. George Mosher, Mrs. G. Roberts, Mrs. A. A. Poodman, Mrs. Seymour and Mrs. Anna Niemann. Several solos were given by Mrs. Grama, who is a recent arrival from St. Louis.

Miss Minnie Wise, a June bride-elect, was the inspiration for a prettily appointed 500 party Thursday afternoon given by Mrs. Ida Conrad and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Catterlin, from Bandon, Or.

The house was decorated with Caroline roses and ferns. Delightful refreshments were served at small tables. High scores were made by Miss Wise and Mrs. Edward Metcham. The guests included: Miss Wise, Mrs. W. A. Wise, Mrs. Frank Feltner, Mrs. Tom Wise, Mrs. S. Corneli, Mrs. Edward Stewart, Mrs. John Pittinger, Mrs. Thomas Sims, Miss Mercedes Sims, Mrs. Don Rea, Mrs. Harry Kaddery, Mrs. Chester Wagner, Miss Christine Denholm, Mrs. Tom Robinson, of Bandon; Mrs. Clement Scott, of Vancouver, Wash.; Mrs. Harry Kelly and Mrs. Edward Metcham.

The Misses Grim are making a life study of the white plague, and their chosen mission is to care for those afflicted. To this end they had been at the Portland Open Air Sanatorium for several months, and the high esteem in which they were held by the patients was clearly shown last week, when they were given a shower of lovely gifts from every patient at the institution.

The Misses Grim will visit at San Francisco, Los Angeles and other cities on route East. They will be joined at Ogden, Utah, by their sister-in-law, Mrs. C. R. Grim, of Oak Grove.

Mrs. John Fellermann entertained with five hundred Tuesday afternoon at her home, 507 East Forty-fifth street North. The guests were Mrs. J. L. Bowman, Mrs. E. H. Carlton, Mrs. James Goodwin, Mrs. J. A. Dowling, Mrs. T. R. Howell, Mrs. W. O. Feenahughy, Mrs. H. Blacell, Mrs. Charles F. D. Reynolds, Mrs. L. J. Wedd, Mrs. E. J. Paize, Mrs. J. W. Collins, Mrs. W. C. Richardson, Mrs. Willis Masqure, Mrs. R. E. Gehr, Mrs. A. M. Alspaugh, Mrs. R. M. Satterfield, Mrs. W. L. Johnston, Mrs. Fred Marx, Mrs. Clyde Meach, Mrs. Phillip Kluder, Miss Smith, Miss Shaw, Miss Frankland, Mrs. F. E. Dodson, Mrs. J. C. Harrison, Mrs. E.

Portland Couple Taste Joys of Golden Wedding. The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chase was celebrated last Friday at Pacific Grove, Cal., and among the guests was Miss Emma Shepard, formerly of this city and now of Seaview, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Chase formerly lived in this city, and they once owned 25 feet of ground on which The Oregonian building now stands. They own frontage on the west side of Sixth street, between Washington and Alder. Mr. Chase is an accomplished banjo player, and he plays selections ranging from the classic to popular airs of the day.

Jarvis, Mrs. W. H. Gray, Mrs. M. D. Lewis, Mrs. L. V. Rawlings.

The Jefferson High School baseball team, champions of the Interscholastic League, were the honored guests of Hopkin Jenkins at a banquet held at the Commercial Club last night at 8 o'clock. The guests were, besides the host, Omer N. Bittner, faculty adviser; Hopkin Jenkins, Captain William Williams, Percy Robinson, Walter Roberts, Robert Earl, Jack Wats, Merle Wolfert, James Shehee, Robert Colvin, A. Lodei, David Cooper, Elmer Seely, Coach Harry Newell. James Shehee was elected captain of the team for the coming season. On the same occasion Mr. Jenkins, Mr. Bittner, Willie Williams, Ward Irvine, Coach Newell and Captain-elect Shehee made speeches.

Mrs. Ida Conrad and Mrs. Frank E. Catterlin entertained at a card party Thursday afternoon, in honor of Miss Minnie Wise, bride-elect. Card honors fell to Mrs. Edward Metcham, and a guest prize was given to Miss Wise. Four tables were arranged for the game, and they were attractively decorated for the occasion.

It will be of interest to a number of people here to know that Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chase, former pioneers of Portland, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at Pacific Grove, California, Tuesday afternoon and evening, in the Civic Club house. The club was beautifully decorated with choice flowers, palms and potted plants. An orchestra hidden behind a screen of oak branches and played during the evening, while the younger guests danced. The bride wore a handsome gown of white satin, and carried a bouquet of roses, white sweet peas and orange blossoms. Songs and speeches were given. The occasion was features of the afternoon.

Several Portland folks entertained the past week for Miss Irene Jones, two brides of Wednesday. Mrs. M. D. Grim, who left Wednesday for their home in Allentown, Pa. The latter came to Portland four years ago and her sister, Mrs. M. D. Grim, who has made many friends here. They were entertained Sunday night by Mr. and Mrs. William Buckley at their home, 167 Grand, who is a recent arrival from Ella V. Wilderson with a party at the Oaks Park, Tuesday evening. Arthur R. Allen was host at a farewell lawn party at his home, 44 East Twenty-ninth street North, Wednesday evening.

On Tuesday last Mrs. Mary Brooks, of Sixth and Gisan streets, who has been confined to her home for several weeks, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise in the way of a shower by her sister members of Lincoln-Grantfield Women's Relief Corps. Refreshments were served and the afternoon was spent in games and singing. The guests were: Mrs. Brownell, Mrs. R. F. Elliott, Mrs. May Jensen, Mrs. Elvers, Mrs. Susan Welch, Mrs. Wheeler, Mrs. Seabury, Mrs. Lettie Capell, Mrs. Louise Luther, Mrs. Lombard, Mrs. McKennett, Mrs. Stevens and Mrs. Hathorn.

The Mental Culture Club and the Parent-Teachers' Circle of Arleta School met Friday in the school assembly room. Interesting and up-to-date topics were given by Miss N. McArthur, O. M. Plummer and Mrs. L. E. Ward. Mrs. Ward urged the school to have a drinking fountain, better sewerage and general improvement of sanitation for Arleta school, which houses 850 pupils and is lacking in modern appliances. The question of playgrounds was discussed and a petition to the Board of Education asking concessions was signed. Both clubs will adjourn until October.

A miscellaneous shower was given last Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Eva Gentry, 542 Third-sixth avenue Southeast, in honor of Miss Tressa Ackerson, a June bride to be. The decorations were in yellow and white, masses of Scotch broom and white roses being arranged in the rooms.

Several musical numbers were given during the evening and games were played. The guest of honor was made the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Thirty guests were present.

Gordon Grange, W. R. C. No. 43, entertained at a banquet hall Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. James Miller, formerly of Portland, but now of Salem. Lunch was served to about 100 of the Past and Corps.

The guests who sat at the table of honor were Mrs. James Willey, Mrs. A. Conaway, president of the Corps, T. B. McDevitt, department commander of Oregon; Uncle Jack Curran, chief of staff of department of Oregon; vice-presidents, Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Bernard, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Severance.

A pleasant evening was passed Tuesday, June 3, at the home of Clement Aistcock, who was the inspiration for a surprise party. After games, refreshments were served. Those who attended were: Mrs. Juanita Crawford, Mrs. Grace Cox, Mary Haas, Mildred Green, Hazel Burns, Helen Aistcock, Nellie Cox, Laura Ross, Florence Daily, Oliver Barton, Eugene McNeill, Roy Scollard, Paul Sabel, William Early, Clement Aistcock, William Brook, Roach Kenefick, Evans McLean, Arthur Penman. A short address was given by Evans McLean.

A surprise party was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. M. Chernis on their 25th wedding anniversary, Sunday, May 25. The affair was held at their home, 421 East Thirty-ninth street. The games of the evening were five hundred and eights, croquet and bridge. The latter was with Miss Esther Taylor, Mrs. Myer Youdovitch, of Walla Walla, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chernis, who was present. The house was decorated with Scotch broom.

Mrs. L. J. Gordon was hostess at a charming farewell luncheon at the Hotel Portland yesterday in honor of Mrs. Sydney Singer, who will leave for New York Tuesday. Additional guests were: Mrs. Charles H. Lehman, Mrs. D. L. Rich, Mrs. Nelson Giles, Jr., Miss Bernice Rogers, Mrs. C. T. Travis, Mrs. E. Flinsen, Mrs. George Dredt. After luncheon Mrs. Gordon entertained with a theater party at the Orpheum. Mrs. Singer will remain East some time, visiting her parents in New York City.

Queen Elizabeth Hiva, No. 54, L. O. T. M., gave a farewell party for Mrs. Lois Mathews at their last regular meeting. Mrs. Mathews has served as captain of the guard for several years, but leaves soon for Bay City and the members, wishing to show their appreciation of her services, planned a little surprise for her, presented her with a handsome gift. Mrs. Mathews is remarkably well versed in military tactics and her absence from the order will be keenly felt.

Mrs. O. E. Goodwin entertained yesterday with a prettily appointed luncheon at which she honored Miss Adelaide

A POPULAR PORTLAND GIRL WEBS.

Mrs. Frederic J. McKenna

McDune and Miss Irene Jones, two brides of Wednesday, presented her with adorned the table and were used about the rooms. Covers were laid for Miss McKenna, Miss Jones, Miss Hazel Cleveland, Miss Bernice Stinson, Miss Noland, Miss Frances Sampson, of the Dalles; Mrs. James Harrow, Mrs. Phil Brinkman and Miss Doris Byford.

At the meeting of the Waverleigh-Richmond Literary Club held at the home of the Misses Smith, 458 East Thirtieth street, Monday evening, Miss Edith Youngkrantz was re-elected president; Miss Stella Smith, elected vice-president; Miss Frances Smith, secretary; Miss Juell Reynolds, corresponding secretary; Miss Ruth Haagsma, treasurer. After refreshments the work of the evening was enjoyed in dancing.

One of the enjoyable affairs of the week in High School circles was a picnic at Johnson's Creek, given for the Jefferson gymnasium girls by Miss Georgia Wey, the physical director of the school. Immediately upon arrival at the grounds, the girls appeared in their gymnasium costumes and remained so throughout the day. At 1:30 p. m. the picnic was in full swing. The evening party returned home.

The Elchmond Self-Advancement Club met on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. V. Hartwell, 1640 Division street, with Mrs. G. C. Garrison as hostess. Mrs. M. Dobson read a paper on "Famous Statesmen of America." An interesting article on "The hold economy" was read by Mrs. C. W. Richards. Mrs. E. C. Strayer gave a piano solo. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. Melville Hitchcock of Aloha, Or., delightfully entertained on Monday at a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Bartlett Townsend. The rooms were decorated with flowers and refreshments were served in two courses. Those who enjoyed the occasion were Mesdames Tyall, Hoben, Hunt, Wheeler, Buck, Beckman, Wolf, C. M. Hitchcock, Wellborn, Quint and Libby.

E. Malwyn Evans, at present choir director of the Presbyterian Church, will begin his new duties September 1, as director of the chorus of the First Congregational Church. Mr. Evans is a Welshman, and although he has been only a short time a resident of this city, he has won a high reputation in it as a fine choir singer and oratorio soloist.

About 25 members of Gordon Grange Post and Corps No. 43, met on Fifteenth and Alberta streets Sunday evening for a social gathering. The Rev. Ghorntley gave the boys in Blue a campfire talk. After several songs were sung to the hearts of all, the Rev. Mr. Ghorntley made a talk that was highly appreciated.

On Tuesday afternoon an informal luncheon was given by Mrs. E. F. Fall at her home in Irvington, in honor of Mrs. Cohn, of Oakland, Cal. The rooms were decorated with a profusion of flowers and refreshments were served. The afternoon was passed in music, and solos were sung by the hostess.

Mrs. W. J. Furnish and her daughter, Miss Kathleen Furnish, are entertaining as their house guest Mrs. Thomas Crouch, of Great Falls, Mont. Mrs. Crouch will enjoy the hospitality of the attractive Portland Heights residence for the month of June and will be shown many social honors.

Mrs. Joseph H. Penney had as her guests at luncheon today Mrs. James Forbes, Mrs. Jack Cason, Mrs. Elsie Curtis, Mrs. A. K. Fernau, after which a motor trip about the city was enjoyed.

Nona Cova Heckinger, formerly of Portland, and John Newton Crosby were married at St. Louis, Mo., May 14 and have taken up their residence at Snow Lake, Ark.

The Portland Council of Parent-Teacher Associations held a picnic at Creston on Thursday. Mrs. J. B. Kerr, of the School Board, gave an interesting address.

Mrs. William L. Morgan entertained yesterday with a luncheon for Miss Forbes, Mrs. Jack Cason, Mrs. Elsie Curtis, Mrs. A. K. Fernau, after which a motor trip about the city was enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Systrup entertained a number of friends Monday, June 2, on the eve of their 25th anniversary of their wedding.

The banquet and closing Saturday evening dancing party of the Batchelor Button Club will be given tonight in the East Side Woodman Hall.

COMING EVENTS.

Prominent among the social functions that will add to the pleasure of Festival week will be the informal dancing party to be given in Knights of Pythias

TO OUR VISITORS

To the visitor in our city we extend a cordial welcome—to our many friends from the interior we express the wish that their visit here will be the means of renewing our pleasant relations of the past.

DIAMONDS

Watches, Jewelry, Sterling Silver, Cut Glass, Bronzes, Art Goods, Leather Goods and Clocks at

Removal Sale Prices

In order that our new store at Park and Washington may open with a complete new stock, our present lines are being closed out at phenomenal price reductions. For forty-five years Feldenheimer's name has been synonymous with all that is dependable in the jewelry line, and every article now on sale bears the Feldenheimer stamp of quality. There is positively no reserve, except in the case of contract goods. Inspection and comparison invited.

ESTABLISHED 1868

A. & C. Feldenheimer

283-285 Washington St.

Between Fourth and Fifth Streets

Hall, corner Eleventh and Alder, by the Royal Arcanum, Multnomah Council 1481, in honor of visiting members of the Royal Arcanum, members of Multnomah Council and their friends. As there is no special Festival feature Monday night, this event will not conflict with the Festival in any way. Rather it will assist in the week of pleasure in a happy manner, that visiting members of the Royal Arcanum and Portland friends may meet one another. All members of the Royal Arcanum and their friends are invited. Dancing begins at 8:45 o'clock. This will be the last dancing party the council will give until Fall.

Mrs. Lydia Catlin and Mrs. Leland James entertained the Rose Social Club at the former's home last Thursday afternoon. The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and American Beauty. Prizes were won by Mrs. Nora McAfee and Mrs. Owen Stackhouse. One of the pleasant features of the afternoon's entertainment were vocal and instrumental solos by Mrs. Lucile Eicher and Mrs. Leland James. The club was called to order by Mrs. P. Haley, vice-president. After a short business meeting refreshments were served. Mrs. Brodbeck and Mrs. Daly presiding at the punch bowl.

The Myrtle Rose Club will entertain members and their friends four evenings this week at Christensen's Hall. Dancing will be the feature of the occasion Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings. Special refreshments will be served free in the ball room, which will be elaborately decorated in harmony with the spirit of Rose Festival week. The committee is composed of the Misses Nora Cancey, Hazel Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bennett, William D. Rhoades, Eugene W. Belland, Richard J. Belland.

Mrs. C. C. Carmack, of 1655 East Twentieth street North, gave a luncheon Thursday afternoon at her home celebrating the birthday of her mother, Mrs. A. M. Lee of 594 Fifth street, at which the following were present: Mrs. Emma R. Moses, Mrs. Edith E. Mitchell, Mrs. C. Taylor, Mrs. F. F. Boody, Mrs. A. M. Lee. Each of the guests presented Mrs. A. M. Lee with a birthday remembrance, and offered an appropriate toast.

An engagement announcement recently made, which came as a complete surprise to many of their friends, was that of Miss Eva Herschler to Albert W. Ledbury. Miss Herschler has selected June 24 as the date of her wedding, which will be a simple home affair. Miss Alma Todd will be maid of honor and Miss Hilda Granstrom bridesmaid. Frank Ledbury will attend the bridegroom.

The annual meeting of the Portland Art Association will be held Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Museum of Art, Fifth and Taylor streets. A new loan collection of paintings will be shown, and in the downstairs galleries the Pennell lithographs of the Panama Canal and etchings by Piranesi. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock.

Miss Nettie Greer Taylor entertained with a box party at the Orpheum, followed by tea at the Portland Hotel, for Miss Catherine Covach, whose wedding takes place June 25. The guests included Mrs. R. W. Schmeer, Mrs. Elfrida Keller Weinstein, Mrs. George Parrish, Miss May Breslin, Miss Catherine Covach and the hostess.

The Irvington Club will give a flannel dance on Monday. The prizes won in the Spring Handicap Tournament will be presented to the winners during the evening.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY GIRL IS ELECTED EDITOR OF SCHOOL PAPER.

Miss Ada Taylor, a prominent member of the class of '13, has been elected editor of the Weekly Index, the school publication, for the school year commencing in September. Miss Taylor is the daughter of Professor Taylor, who is the treasurer as well as an instructor of the institution. Miss Taylor is a member of the Philomathean Society and has been an assistant in the conservatory of music for the past year. The election of the manager of this paper is left in the hands of the student body, when it will be voted upon in the coming week.

The meeting of St. Ann's Society will (Continued on Page 2.)

evening. The committee includes Miss Anne Kurts, Mrs. William I. Northrup, Mrs. Frank T. Foley, Oliver Morton and F. H. D. Andrews, chairman.

Miss Alice E. Tuilison sailed on the steamer Beaver last Sunday for San Francisco, where she will remain for several days sightseeing, then proceed south for an extended visit of several months with friends and relatives in Los Angeles, Pomona and Pasadena.

The officers and members of Oregon Rose Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, will be "at home" to all visiting Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen in the city next Friday evening, June 13. Many prominent officers and members will be in the receiving line.

Miss Alice E. Tuilison sailed on the steamer Beaver last Sunday for San Francisco, where she will remain for several days, then proceed south for an extended visit of several months with friends and relatives in Los Angeles, Pomona and Pasadena.

The wedding of Miss Naomi Nettie Sweet and Edward Nathaniel Weinstein will take place June 25 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Sweet, and will be a simple affair.

Chapter A. P. E. O. will meet at the home of Mrs. G. F. Peek tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. E. E. Thomas will give a paper on Olive Branch's work, and reports from the recent convention will be read.

The women of George Wright Relief Corps No. 2, will serve a dinner Wednesday, June 11, from 11 to 2, in their new hall, on the fifth floor of the Courthouse.

The Portland Council of Parent-Teacher Associations will hold a luncheon on July 2 at Hotel Portland. Prominent speakers will give addresses after the repast.

Howard Dabney has returned home from Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind., and is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dabney, of East Twenty-ninth street.

The Minute Club will give a series of special dances every evening during Rose Carnival week at Ringler's Hall. The carnival spirit will prevail. Dancing will continue till 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Lyman G. Powell and her small children, from Superior, Wis., are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McCord.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. See, who have been sojourning in California for the past six weeks, will return home today.

The meeting of St. Ann's Society will (Continued on Page 2.)

PORTLAND COUPLE TASTE JOYS OF GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mrs. H. B. Chase

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Chase was celebrated last Friday at Pacific Grove, Cal., and among the guests was Miss Emma Shepard, formerly of this city and now of Seaview, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Chase formerly lived in this city, and they once owned 25 feet of ground on which The Oregonian building now stands. They own frontage on the west side of Sixth street, between Washington and Alder. Mr. Chase is an accomplished banjo player, and he plays selections ranging from the classic to popular airs of the day.

Decisive June Reductions on Tailored Suits

WITH women who know the distinctive style, the superb tailoring, of Bartholomew garments, this announcement is sure to bring an immediate response!

Every new fashion feature, every smart weave and coloring is included in these three big groups of Tailored Suits. Come tomorrow, before assortments are broken.

Table with 3 columns: TO $35.00 SUITS $19.45, TO $50.00 SUITS $25.45, TO $85.00 SUITS $35.45

One Lot of Smart Coats—To $45. at $19.85

Bartholomew Company

Washington Street. Corner of Tenth

See Our Windows Over Sunday