

MISS HELEN LADD
For Miss Helen Ladd, Miss Elizabeth
Will Give Dinner Dance Next Friday

ALTHOUGH Fourth of July found the usual number of visitors at the seaside and country places, society on the whole seems disinclined to make the usual Summer exodus. Galettes are continuing almost unaltered through the Summer weeks. The presence of many visitors in the city has afforded opportunity for much of the delightful entertaining of the week. Wednesday afternoon Bishop and Mrs. Charles Scadding extended their hospitality to the speakers and visiting delegates of the World's Christian Citizenship Conference. In the evening Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer gave a dance in honor of her niece, Miss Margaret Ayer, who has been attending school at Dobbs Ferry, on the Hudson.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Herbert Nichols entertained with an informal tea for Miss Calista Stout, of Chicago, the house guest of Mrs. Sherman Hall, who has been feted with much informal entertaining. During the coming weeks the younger set will be especially prominent in social affairs. Mrs. Samuel M. Mears will entertain with a dance Wednesday night at the Waverly Club in honor of her daughter, Miss Margaret Mears. Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett will give a dinner dance Friday in honor of her niece, Miss Elizabeth Corbett. Miss Hoffman will entertain with a dancing party complementing her house guest, Miss Ruth Wells, at her home on Willamette Heights. At the golf links Mrs. Victor A. Johnson and Mrs. Antoine Labbe will play for Mrs. Richard Koehler's trophy.

One of the delightful affairs of the week was the reception for college women given by the Associated Collegiate Alumnae at the beautiful Portland Heights home of Mrs. James E. Kerr. More than 200 guests called during the afternoon and were received by Miss Maud Almsworth, Miss Helen Ladd, and Mrs. George N. Woodley. Helped about the rooms were Mrs. R. L. Donald, Mrs. R. C. French, Mrs. R. H. Perkins, Miss Frank Towles, Mrs. Herman Bowman sang and Miss Abbie Whitehead gave a piano solo. The rooms were beautifully decorated with great baskets of roses. Mrs. Pringle and Mrs. Henry Hunt poured. Mrs. W. T. Belcher and Mrs. Forrest Fisher served tea and were assisted by Miss Murch, Mrs. Dickson and Miss Nottingham. On the lawn Miss Helen Whisen and Miss Rachel King presided at the punch bowl.

The reception given by Bishop and Mrs. Charles Scadding in honor of the visiting delegates of the World's Christian Citizenship Conference was a notable event of the week. The guests, representing many foreign nations, were cordially welcomed by Bishop and Mrs. Scadding, assisted by J. Andre Foulhoux, Guy Talbot and W. D. Wheelwright. Mrs. Guy Talbot, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin and Miss Martha Hoyt served the tea and coffee. Dr. Minton, president of the conference, and James S. Martin, general superintendent, were among the distinguished guests.

The dance given last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer at the Waverly Club, in honor of her niece, Miss Margaret Ayer, who has been attending school at Dobbs Ferry, was one of the smartest mid-week events among the sub-debutante set. The clubhouse was gaily decorated for the occasion with pink hydrangeas, blue delphiniums and white fox-gloves. In the ballroom Mrs. Ayer and Miss Margaret Ayer received the guests, the latter attractively gowned in a daintily embroidered white frock. At midnight a delicious supper was served, charming bouquets of Dorothy Perkins roses decorating the tables.

Miss Sallie Lewis complimented Henry Jones, of Kansas City, with a dinner party Wednesday evening. The party motored out to Chateaufort Inn, where dinner was served. Major and Mrs. James F. McIndoe entertained Thursday with a trip down the Columbia on the Government tug George H. Mendell. A picnic luncheon was served. The guests included Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer, Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal, Mrs. J. J. Morrow, Mrs. Charles P. Adams, Mrs. Edmund Ames, Mrs. W. O. Boswell, of Vancouver Barracks; Mrs. James A. Canby, of Vancouver Barracks; Miss Henrietta Fanning, Miss May Fanning, Mrs. Robert Howard, Jr.; Mrs. Thomas Honeyman, Mrs. James D. Honeyman, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Miss Ella Hirsch, Mortin H. Insley, Mrs. Alma D. Katz, Mrs. G. M. Magruder, Mrs. E. C. Mears, Mrs. Florence G. Minott, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Volney Davis, Mrs. F. P. End-operated with red, rambler roses and the porch and garden with Japanese lanterns. An orchestra of five pieces furnished music during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Allen Lewis and daughter, Clementine, spent the Fourth of July with a party of friends at their summer home on the Columbia. Miss Evelina Magruder entertained with a five hundred party Wednesday for these girls of the younger set: Misses Amy Robinson, Margaret Platt, Louise King, Ethel Malpas, Margaret Elliott, Mary Holl, Helen Page, Grimsen rambler, and syringia made pretty decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Haller, with their daughters, Marie and Helen, returned the past week after a two months' pleasure trip through the Eastern and Southern States. Miss Marie graduated from the University of California on their return trip. Miss Marie graduated from Mount Vernon Seminary in Washington, D. C. in May, and from the same accompanied her parents and sister.

Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, who has been passing the Winter in New York, will not return to Portland this Summer, as expected, but will spend it with her daughter Elizabeth visiting relatives in Minneapolis. Mrs. Genevieve Halley has gone to Boise to be bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Eulalie Northrop, a debutante of the year, and Lieutenant John Wall, formerly of Monterey, Cal. Mrs. Halley and daughters expect to return to Portland in the Fall.

Mrs. H. C. Cole and family, of Chester, Ill., are visiting their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. V. Beach, at Alexandra Court. The party accompanied by Miss Marjorie Hoffman and her guest, Miss Ruth Wells, former classmates of the Misses Cole at Bryn Mawr, and Harlow Bates, Fred Swigert and Varnel Beach left Saturday to pass the week-end at the Beach farm in the Walds hills, expecting to visit the Salem cherry orchard on the way, and there to meet a canoeing party of the Portland younger set who are returning from Eugene.

The delightful concert given Thursday night at the home of Miss Maud Almsworth by Miss Genevieve Halley of Chicago, was full of interest and enjoyment to all present. The numbers on the program were chosen to represent the different visits of musical ideas.

The first group suggested energy and vigor in the music, the Schumann Romance No. 3 and the corresponding picture reliefs by Giotto. The second group brought out the idea of the triumphal march and intonation. It included the Chopin Nocturna found in 1885 among the manuscripts of a Polish publisher and the Andante Op. 57 of Beethoven. The third group were the Gorgione "Shepherdess" and the Fantin-Latour "Fantasy."

In the last group the idea of buoyancy and life were brought out by the Bach Prelude and Fugue, known as the "Butterfly Fugue." The pictures included Charles "The Laughing" and "The Golden Hours" and Botticelli's "Spring."

The second of this delightful series of concerts will be given Thursday night.

Mrs. W. F. Koehler and her son Frank are at their cottage on Cannon Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. C. Stevens were the recipients of a "silver shower" last Friday, the occasion being the 25th anniversary of their wedding. Many of the exquisite pieces were sent from Mrs. Stevens' old home in England.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST

The departure of Batteries D, E and F, Second Field Artillery, from this post for Manila, Monday, overshadowed all else in the garrison the past week. The troops left on a special train. The wives returned from the officers' and sweethearts of many were present to bid the soldiers good-bye. The Twenty-first Infantry band played lively airs, adding cheer to the leaving-taking. About 400 men and 12 officers left the post, and it is probable that they will not be replaced for some time.

Captain Sweeney has been transferred to the Twenty-first Infantry, and will arrive here Tuesday. He was one of the umpires in the maneuvers at Gate, Wash., last Summer.

Chaplain Walter K. Lloyd, of the Second Field Artillery, who was transferred out of that organization, will arrive here Tuesday for his new station at Fort Bayard, N. M. Mr. Lloyd and son, Kenyon, will follow probably in a month.

Mrs. George S. Young, wife of Colonel Young, and an admirer of the St. Luke Episcopal Church, in Vancouver, will arrive here Tuesday for her new station at Fort Bayard, N. M. Mrs. Young and other women and some of the officers of the post. The flag was presented with impressive ceremony by the Twenty-first Infantry, with two color guards, advanced and knelt before Mrs. Young, who presented the flag, on a mahogany stand. The presentation ceremony was followed by a talk to the scouts by Lieutenant-Colonel John F. Morrison on "The Flag."

All of the officers and women of the post attended the military athletic field events at the post Friday afternoon, when, it is estimated, 10,000 visitors crowded around the track. The Twenty-first Infantry band was in the officers' grandstand and furnished the music. The construction and destruction of a bridge was the final event.

A good-sized sum was realized Friday from the sale of tags to the officers, women and men of the post, and all of the money placed with the receipt of the first tag day ever held at the post.

Dr. Fred J. Ebert, son of Colonel Rudolph G. Ebert, is visiting in Vancouver for a few days. His brother, Dr. Harry Ebert, has been sent to the quarantine station, at Astoria, to assume charge.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

With two mothers, each an alumna, and their daughters present at the reception recently of the alumni of St. Mary's Academy and College to the 23 members of the class 1911, and to the two first graduates, the largest meeting of the association since its silver jubilee four years ago was held recently. Mrs. N. Johnson and daughter, Mrs. C. E. Ford and Miss Carrie Johnson, and Mrs. H. Smith and daughter, Miss Isabel Smith, all members of the association, and the first normal graduates, Miss Elizabeth Sweeney and Miss Helen Margaret Buckley, were present. The incoming members responded to the address of welcome by Mrs. Pearl Watson, president of the alumni, through their class president, Miss Helen Clementine.

Following a musical programme, Miss Aphie Dimick proposed that the association give a linen shower to furnish the new dormitory at Holy Names Academy at Oswego. Miss Dimick spoke at length on the necessity of the normal course and of the enthusiasm aroused by the presence of the two first graduates, and urged the alumni to act on this enthusiasm in projecting the linen society. Mother Mary Flavin, provincial superior of the Sisters of the Holy Names, was pleased over the unanimous response of the association to the proposed linen show-
