

TWO MORE MONEY PROBES PROPOSED

Both Henry and Lindbergh Offer Resolutions for Currency Inquiries.

GLASS BILL UNDER FIRE

Texas Would Give Committee Plenary Power and Minnesota Expresses Fear Glass Bill Fosters Monopoly.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Currency difficulties broke out along two different lines in the House today with the introduction of resolutions directing investigations.

The first, by Representative Henry, proposed renewal of the investigation of the money trust, as an adjunct and aid to the banking committee in its consideration of the Administration currency bill. The second, by Representative Lindbergh, of Minnesota, Progressive member of the committee, proposes an investigation to determine whether the Glass bill would create a monstrous monopoly controlled and operated by private interests.

Plenary Power Proposed.
Representative Henry's resolution would give the committee plenary legislative and inquisitorial powers over National banks and interstate corporations. In a statement accompanying his resolution, Representative Henry declared that it was introduced "solely with a view to aid an ex parte consideration of pending banking currency legislation and should be hastened, to aid the banking committee to gain all the banking information concealed that would be of vast importance in solving the currency problem."

Pittsburgh Failures Cited.
He declared that the recent bank failures in Pittsburgh emphasized the need of knowing directly "how these great institutions use their office boys, stenographers or porters as dummies to wreck and loot banks and rob innocent depositors of their trust funds. We need to dig deeper into their manipulations, schemes and conspiracies in order to understand why they greatly dread the eye of Federal scrutiny."

Representative Lindbergh's resolution contained as a preamble an attack on the methods of the Democratic members of the banking committee in considering the Glass bill in secret conference.

Banking Monopoly Feared.
It proposes an investigation by a committee of seven to determine whether the Glass bill would not create a Government policy inconsistent with the Sherman law doctrine by entering a monopoly to control privately for selfish interests the distribution of money and credit, and whether or not it is constitutional for the Government to provide a method by which to organize private interests into a compact mutual interest with the power to control the distribution of money and credit."

SALEM COUNCILMAN SUED

Mrs. Maggie May Ivie Asks $5000 for Alleged Libel.

SALEM, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Charging that E. C. Minton, a member of the City Council, had designated the Cottage Hotel, of which she is the proprietor, a disorderly house, Mrs. Maggie May Ivie today commenced a suit in the Circuit Court asking for $5000 damages for libel.

The libel is alleged to have been committed by Minton at a meeting of the committee of the Council called to investigate the police department and also to learn if there were any disorderly houses in the city.

DYNAMITE PLOTTER FREED

Parole Granted to E. E. Phillips, Convicted at Indianapolis.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., July 12.—Edward E. Phillips, convicted at Indianapolis of the conspiracy in the alleged dynamite plot, is the first of the 25 men to leave the United States penitentiary a free man.

Phillips was released on parole today and left at once for his home in Syracuse, N. Y. He made application to the parole board at its sitting the early part of June, taking advantage of the rule which allows prisoners to apply when two-thirds of their sentence is completed. While Phillips had a year and a day to serve good time allowance cut this to nine months, and he became eligible for parole after serving six months of this time.

KINDERGARTEN NOT VOTED

Women of Geneva, Ill., Unable to Interest Foreign Sisters in Ballot.

CHICAGO, July 12.—Women's votes in Geneva, Ill., did not procure for that city a public kindergarten in the special election on this date. One hundred and eighty women voted, a total of 407 votes cast, but the proposition was defeated, 168 to 238.

The measure was opposed by the women.

Mrs. Robert Farson, leader of the women voters, declared tonight that the defeat was caused by their inability to get the women of the large foreign population of Geneva interested in voting.

FLORA SACKVILLE WEST.

SISTER IS DANGER

London Discusses Social Status of Sackville West.

"UPPER CIRCLES" AMUSED

Bar Sinister on Escutcheon of Proud Lady Who Declared Lady Franklin to Be Her Inferior Is Recalled.

LONDON, July 11.—(Special.)—Though the trial of the famous "suit for millions" involving Lady Sackville West's possession of the large estate willed to her by Sir John Scott, is over, London society is still talking of one of the side issues of the case. This new interest in the case, which pervades every drawing-room in the West End, is intensified by the new lawsuit being sued on Flora Sackville West, sister of the fair defendant, who won the suit brought by Sir John's heirs. Flora does bare-legged dancing in London music halls and her managers are making the most of the indirect publicity she is obtaining through the affair.

Lady Sackville West said on the witness stand that Lady Franklin was her inferior socially who entertained her assertion on the fact that she was the mistress of Knolle, one of the historic family seats of Great Britain. Lady Franklin's home was much less important, she said.

Society Circles Amused.
Society permits itself to be amused, in a perfectly well-bred way, over this assumption of social superiority, recalling, as it does, the position of Lady Sackville West's sister, and that also of the brother of these two. The brother is a carpenter in a little village near Knolle, making a precarious living by day's wages. So the situation is presented that Lady Sackville West has a sister who entertains crowds in the amusement places and a brother who toils, while she herself enjoys an immense income, the larger part of which was the gift of a rich old baronet.

It is this incongruity that has served to keep gossip over the case alive and to emphasize another fact affecting the social status of Lady Sackville West.

Bar Sinister Brought Out.

It is recalled that the sisters and the brother were the illegitimate children of Sir Lionel Sackville West, who for a time was the British Ambassador to the United States, but was recalled because of an indiscretion in connection with an American political campaign. The eldest sister became the wife of her cousin, present holder of the title.

British court records contain evidence, now being bandied about widely, that Lady Sackville West, in order that her husband might be confirmed in his right to the title, testified to her own illegitimacy and brought into court the birth certificates proving that fact, and also including her brother and sister in the same category.

PRIEST ACCUSED OF THEFT

Bellini "Madonna" Stolen, Not Burned, Police of Rome Say.

ROME, July 12.—Father Crescini, custodian of the Church of San Maria Trastevere, the titular church of Cardinal Gibbons, has been arrested, charged with the theft of a picture, "Madonna and Child," a masterpiece of Giovanni Bellini.

In November, 1911, there was a fire in this church and apparently the Bellini masterpiece was destroyed. Recently it was found in Florence and according to the police, Father Crescini was responsible for the fire, which set for the purpose of concealing the theft of the picture. The masterpiece was sold for $800.

LICENSE NOT SUFFICIENT

Bridegroom-to-Be Surprised to Learn He Is Not Yet Married.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—After securing a license to marry here today, Sam Carl, 27, said to Charles Wirth, Deputy County Auditor.

"Well, we are now married and it is all settled, is it?"

"No, I should say not," replied Mr. Kircher, pushing a 50-cent piece over the counter as the change from the $5 gold piece given in payment for the license. "You will have to go to a minister or Justice of the Peace and have him perform a marriage ceremony. I only gave you a license to marry; I have not married you."

Sam and his bride-to-be, Miss Candace Victoria, 21 years old, astonished, turned to the witness, L. Caragnano, and a consultation was had. The address of a minister was secured and the trio went to have the ceremony performed.

Three other licenses were granted today.

RESERVOIR SITES FOUND

Fair Price Paid on Columbia Southern Project, Says Official.

SALEM, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Atorney-General Crawford returned today from the site of the Columbia Southern project, where he went to buy property upon which to erect reservoirs for the storage of water. Mr. Crawford said the desired sites were obtained at a fair price, and that the work authorized by the last Legislature was progressing rapidly under the supervision of Engineer Laugaard. According to the Attorney-General two years at least will be consumed by the state in irrigating 35,000 acres for which an appropriation of $450,000 was made.

About 50 men are employed at present and the engineer expects to enlarge the force soon. After the state finishes its work the Federal Government will be asked to appropriate $450,000 for an extension of the project. Secretary of the Interior Lane has indicated that money will be provided if the proposition has been correctly represented to the department. It also is probable that the Federal Government will be asked to assist in the building of a dam.

COLUMBIA FALLS RAPIDLY

Boatlanding at Hood River Is Again Shifted Mile From City.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—The Columbia has fallen rapidly at this point and tomorrow the high-water wharfs at the foot of First street, but a short distance from the business section of the city, will have to be abandoned. The fallen river has fallen 15 feet from the crest of the high water of the year. Business men regret to see the wharves removed to the water landing, almost a mile from the city.

The pear orchard of F. H. Button, which was submerged, apparently dead, the leaves having turned black, J. H. Koberg, who has extensive truck gardens east of the city on the flood plain, will lose heavily because of drowned vegetables. However, the sediment, several inches in depth over his place, will repay him indirectly for his loss.

RAILWAY HEADS AT BEACH

D. W. Campbell, of Southern Pacific, With Party at Newport.

NEWPORT, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—D. W. Campbell, superintendent of the Southern Pacific Railway lines in Oregon, headed a party of railroad men who visited Newport after investigating the Siletz Reservation.

Mr. Campbell, while at the Abbey House yesterday, said his trip was merely one of inspection, but the appearance of J. K. Weatherford, president and attorney for the Corvallis Eastern branch of the Southern Pacific, and Charles Gardner, ex-Lincoln County Judge, who accompanied Mr. Campbell into the Siletz Reservation, suggested that the Southern Pacific is interested both in the vast timber resources of that section and the proposed railway to run to Newport either from Falls City or Independence.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 12.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court today sustained the verdict of $1200 awarded Frank Pasarel, a striking Grays Harbor mill worker, who was shot in the arm during recent labor troubles by S. M. Anderson, a mill owner. Anderson did not deny the shooting, but claimed the judgment was excessive.

2 LOST ON DESERT

Sons of U. S. Grant, Jr., Rescued When Near Death.

BROTHERS WITHOUT WATER

Chaffee Grant Unable to Go Farther and U. S. Grant IV Goes Alone to Indian's Cabin and Gets Aid in Nick of Time.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., July 12.—It has just become known that Chaffee Grant and U. S. Grant, IV, sons of U. S. Grant, Jr., of this city, barely escaped perishing on the desert several days ago. The brothers were on their way in an automobile to Imperial Valley. When near the Salton Sea and 37 miles from Mecca their machine broke down and they were unable to repair it. Their supply of water was soon exhausted and for two days and a night they had none, except that they drank from the automobile radiator and which caused Chaffee Grant to become ill. At the time the brothers had tramped more than 20 miles across the hot sands.

Chaffee Grant could go no farther. The brother then pressed on alone, making for an Indian cabin three miles distant. When he reached it some time was required to make Fig Tree John, the Indian occupant of the place, understand what was wanted. Finally he comprehended and hitching up a mule team to a wagon accompanied Grant to the place where he had left his brother. They found Chaffee Grant lying on the ground apparently in a state of complete collapse.

The Indian took the Grants to Mecca, where they took a train for Los Angeles.

FIRE-BLIGHT FIGHT ON

GRAND RONDE VALLEY FOLK PLAN PEST CAMPAIGN.

Hundred Prominent Orchard Men Take Decisive Action—North Pacific Agency Gets Apple Men.

LA GRANDE, Or., July 12.—(Special.)—Sums of money sufficient to employ four or five fire-blight experts to come to the Grand Ronde Valley and combat a prevailing blight plague and to teach orchardists here the proper manner to fight the pest were asked of the County Court here tonight, after a meeting of 100 prominent orchard men. County Judge Henry favors the plan.

Two of the apple associations, at the same meeting, decided to join the North Pacific agency.

C. E. Perry was named county president and Sherwood Williams secretary.

Fire blight hit the orchards from various angles this year, and in some places has burned large holes through the center of fine orchards.

When it became known that blight was prevalent here, the orchard men organized a campaign of education in its prevention. This particular type of blight has been practically unknown here up to this year, and it is not known how it gained a foothold.

Experts were brought here to investigate, and Professor Jackson, pathologist at Oregon Agricultural College, has passed several days in La Grande diagnosing the conditions, and placed before the meeting this afternoon the best methods to pursue in fighting it.

Duchess de Tallrand Says Announcement Was Illegal.

PARIS, July 13.—In a paragraph referring to the Rois's tribunal's verdict annulling the Castellane-Gould marriage, the Figaro this morning prints a letter from the Duchess de Tallrand, formerly Anna Gould, in which she says that the Rois's second verdict was unsound, because she was not represented legally at the proceedings. She adds:

"My lawyer has already asked the Supreme Tribunal to declare null the proceedings in which I was insulted without the opportunity of defending myself."

MURDERED COUPLE FOUND

Bodies of Mississippi Man and Wife Pierced With Bullets.

JACKSON, Miss., July 12.—The bodies of C. D. Newell and his wife, a middle-aged couple, were found in a field of the Rankin County farm at dusk tonight. Gunshot wounds in Newell's head and his wife's breast disclosed the cause of death. The rain had obliterated all traces of the slayers and bloodhounds failed to pick up a trail. The bodies were lying 50 yards apart and it is conjectured that Newell, at least, was shot from ambush.

POLICE RAID SIX CLUBS

WOMAN'S DESTITUTION STARTS GAMBLING CRUSADE.

Arrests by San Francisco Police Number 315—Grand Jury to Begin Searching Inquiry.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—All patrol wagons in the city were kept busy tonight hauling 315 prisoners to jail from six alleged gambling clubs. The clubs were raided by order of Chief of Police White. Charges of vagrancy were laid against the prisoners, who were released as fast as they produced $25 cash bail each.

The raids were conducted simultaneously by plain clothes men. No resistance was offered. At each place squads of officers entered through unlocked doors and put those present under arrest. Among those complaining was Mrs. Beatrice Achity, who complained to the authorities that she and her 4-year-old daughter had been left destitute when the husband, Michael Achity, lost $2500, all he possessed, at the tables of one of the clubs.

A subscription fund was started today among the police officers for the woman and her child.

The foreman of the present grand jury declared tonight that gambling generally was to be the subject of an extended inquiry and he said steps would be taken to prevent Mrs. Achity's departure, so that she might testify. The husband, who has disappeared, is being sought by the police.
