

Miss Achrah Paget entertained on Thursday at a luncheon and theater party for Miss Doris Elkington and Miss Laura Akin. Miss Elkington will soon leave for California, where her parents plan to make their permanent home. Miss Akin will go to Europe, accompanying her mother, Dr. Mabel ter of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid. The bride was charming in a gown of marquisette over silk, trimmed in old Irish lace. She carried white carnations. The bridesmaid was attired in a pale pink silk mezzaline, elaborately finished in silver trimmings. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The impressive ring service was witnessed by a number of intimate friends and relatives. Numerous and costly presents testified to the high regard in which Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter are held by a host of friends. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the service and, amidst showers of rice, the couple was rushed off to a late train for a short wedding tour. On their return they will live at Garden Home, where Mr. Carpenter recently completed an attractive new bungalow.

Robbins-Cane.
A very pretty wedding took place at Centenary Methodist parsonage, Magday evening August 28, at 8 o'clock, when before a company of intimate friends Elmer Robbins and Regina Bernhardt Cane were united by the Rev. Delmer H. Trimble. The bride, wearing a gown of cream marquisette, trimmed with shadow lace, with a bouquet of pink roses and maidenhair ferns. R. D. Olliver was best man and Miss Jennie Olliver bridesmaid. After the reading of service the delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Trimble. The home was beautifully decorated with pink roses. They went that same evening to their little home, 1948 Lambert place, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Peterson-Dunlap.
The home of Mrs. Sopha Dunlap, 248 East Fifty-third street, was the scene of a pretty wedding, on the evening of August 25, when her daughter, Catherine Mary, was married to Chester A. Peterson, Rev. Arthur Waltz officiated. The bride, who was unattended, wore a gown of white chambray, trimmed with duchesse lace, and carried an arm bouquet of Lady Hillington roses. The rooms were beautifully decorated with Oregon grape, ferns and sweet peas. After the ceremony the bride and groom were served. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Catherine O'Donnell. Among the guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Fulton, Miss Simons, J. M. Passmore, Miss Dorothy Passmore, Miss Nellie Parmalee, Miss Katherine Evans, Miss Margaret Ewing, Miss Lillian Hollister, Miss Catherine O'Donnell, Miss Helen Hayek, Miss Elsie Ditttrich, Miss Helen Platt, A. S. Peterson, Henry Hayek, Louis Dunlap, Clemmer Platt and Raymond Street.

Bartholomew-Blair.
An interesting wedding of Monday last was that of Miss Maudie Blair, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Blair to Earl Ives Bartholomew, a prominent business man. The ceremony took place at noon at the Blair residence, West Park and Irving streets. The Rev. Horace M. Ramsey, of St. Stephens' Pro-Cathedral, read the beautiful service of the Episcopal Church in the presence of a few relatives and friends of the couple. The bride's beauty was enhanced by her exquisite French lingerie gown, with which she carried white roses. Mr. Bartholomew is the president of the firm of Bartholomew & Co. He is a Stanford graduate, a member of Zeta Psi fraternity and of the University of California.

Peery-Parker.
Miss Lois Yates Parker and Reese Howe Peery were married on Friday evening, August 23, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Parker, 207 Park and Irving streets. The bride is one of the popular members of her set. Mr. Peery is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Peery, of Williams avenue. After the ceremony the young couple left for Newport, and upon their return will reside on a ranch near Philomath, Or.

Moore-Muller.
A quiet home wedding took place Sunday afternoon, August 24, at the residence of Mrs. Kastner, 518 Commercial court, when her sister, Miss Ella Muller, was married to Sylvan Adelbert Moore by the Rev. J. Staub, pastor of the Sunnyside Congregational Church. O. Thim acted as best man and Miss Agnes Hall as bridesmaid. Little Helen Cook charmingly performed her part as ring bearer. A number of intimate friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

Bishop-Morris.
A pretty but quiet wedding took place at the home of the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Reed, 408 Clay street, Monday noon, August 25, when Miss Birdie Morris was married to Fred Bishop. Rev. Luther Dyott, of the First Congregational Church, officiated. The bride's home is in Prineville, but she is well known both in Portland and Salem, having attended the Willamette University at the latter place. The young couple left for a brief honeymoon trip to southern points and will make their home in Portland, where Mr. Bishop holds a responsible position with the States Telephone & Telegraph Company.

Hawes-Hofer.
On Monday morning Anna Fay Hofer became the bride of Bert T. Hawes. The ceremony took place in the Centenary Methodist Church at 9 o'clock. The Rev. Delmer H. Trimble read the service in the presence of a large number of guests. George Hawes was best man and Miss Mary Kelly bridesmaid. The young couple left for Eastern Oregon to visit relatives.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.
Mr. and Mrs. S. P. D. Sorenson announce the engagement of their only daughter, Lettie, to Walter A. Ritter, of this city. This announcement will be of much interest to their many friends. The wedding will take place early in October.
Mr. and Mrs. George E. Croxford announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Miss May, to Forest Glenn McDonald, of Salem, Or.

COMING EVENTS.
Saturday evening, September 6, will mark the opening of the popular dancing parties given by the Bachelor Buttons Club for the coming season. Dancing will begin at 8:45 at the East Side Woodman Hall, where so many have attended these enjoyable parties in the past. A great deal of interest has been manifested in the opening party, for which invitations have been sent. The affair will be marked by special features. The Bachelor Buttons Club is also introducing an innovation in their Tuesday evening parties which will be heartily welcomed, and that is opening the dance at 8:15, the same time as the invited guests at 11. The first party of this kind will be celebrated in the form of a ballroom dance, Tuesday evening, September 2, for which invitations have already been issued. This party will also be held at the East Side Woodman Hall.

The "Coterie" will begin the year's work with a musical and literary programme on Wednesday at Ellers auditorium, commencing promptly at 11 A. M. This will be followed by a luncheon at the Hotel Portland at 12:45. The programme will include a piano solo by Mrs. Lena W. Chambers; a paper, "Discrimination Between Cause and Effect," by George Vincent Knight; recitation by Helen Miller Senn; vocal solo, Mrs. E. E. Covert.
At the table there will be a discussion of the papers read, led by Mrs. E. A. Beasley and Mrs. L. Barker. Reservations for luncheon must be made by Tuesday noon.

St. Lawrence Court, No. 1734, Catholic Order of Foresters, will give a card party and dance at St. Lawrence Hall, Third and Sherman streets, Wednesday, September 17. This will be the opening party of the season. The committee is composed of J. C. Smith, W. P. Lillis, C. H. Feldman, R. A. Twiss and L. J. O'Reilly.

A picnic and excursion scheduled for today will be given by the United Brotherhood. They will leave foot of Washington street on the steamer Joseph Kellogg at 9 A. M.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.
Y. H. Guffey, of Nome, Alaska, is a guest in Portland this week.
Mrs. M. Bagley has gone to New York, where she has been spending the summer vacation with friends in Portland, left for home on Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stewart and their two sons, Logan and Herbert, have returned from a two week sampling trip to Bull River. They have for their house guest Mrs. M. F. Dillon, of Los Angeles, Cal.
Miss Mildred Raab returned from her summer vacation and is preparing to take up her work as gymnasium instructor for the boys and girls at the Orphan's Home and the People's Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Newbury left on August 28 for a trip East. They will visit friends in Wisconsin and Illinois. Dr. C. W. Cornelius was a week-end visitor at the Craven home in Hood River.
Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Schilt, accompanied by their sons, Alfred, Louis and Fudge, and daughter, Mrs. E. M. Kraut, returned home last night after having spent the last two months at their cottage in Seaside.
Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Gallert, of 625 Lovejoy street, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a girl born August 28. The baby is to be named Mary Jane Gellert.

Friends of Mrs. Robert Cleveland will be pleased to learn of her recovery from a recent serious operation. Mrs. Cleveland was operated on August 6 at the Good Samaritan Hospital.
George Donovan left last night for his home in San Francisco. He has been extensively entertained during his visit here. Last evening several friends tendered Mr. Donovan an elaborate farewell banquet.
Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blinn, of Los Angeles, are house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Byron E. Miller. Mr. Blinn is the junior partner of Blinn & Son and is seriously contemplating the establishment of a branch office in this city.
Miss Sadie Noyes, Miss Mabel Weed and Miss Edna Church, three enterprising estheticians, have returned from a ride to Astoria, Gearhart, Tillamook and other points. They found the roads rough in places, but met with no accidents on the way.
Mrs. H. F. Charter, of Eureka, Cal., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Preston Carter Smith, at the latter's home, 551 Buena Vista drive. Mrs. Charter was formerly Miss Madeline Smith. She has many friends in local society and will be widely entertained.

Misses Pansy and Isabelle Mallett, of Ontario, visited friends in Portland last week, after spending the summer vacation at the family home, "Shadland Farm," in Malheur County. They left for Puget Sound Friday, Miss Mallett to resume teaching at Everett and Miss Isabelle Mallett at Darrington.
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hewett and son Clyde left on Wednesday for a two months' visit at Port Huron, Mich. While in the East they will visit Mr. Hewett's old home near Port Huron and will be entertained by friends and relatives in Saginaw, Detroit and Buffalo. They will return in the latter part of October. Their short stay will be made in Chicago and in Fort Benton, Mont.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.
Miss Oliver is now in New York selecting the last word in millinery for her shop, 423 Alder street.
Opening of exclusive Fall millinery Monday, Sept. 1, in parlors 401-402, Selling Bldg. Miss Haggerty, who has now returned, will show a very beautiful line of the very newest in the millinery world from the Eastern and European markets, and will be pleased to again see her many customers and friends.

Thought It Was a Cook.
Judge.
Proud Parent—We had a new arrival at our house last night. It was an Absorbed Commuter—Did she get you a good dinner?

LADIES--

Hang on, cling on—no matter what they say;
Push on, sing on—things will come your way.
Sitting down never helps a bit.
Only way to get there's by keeping up your grit—
And get a tailored suit that'll fit

From
E. GURNEY
THE LADIES' TAILOR
406 Mohawk Building

—And you will get the best of ladies' tailoring.

Special Discount Till September Fifteenth

passed at Newport. They will be at home in their bungalow at Rose City Park after September 16.
Mrs. C. E. Holliday has returned from New York.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Everding, Miss Caroline Everding, Mrs. Richard Percy Knight and George Vincent Knight motored to Willhoit Springs during the week for a few days' sojourn.
Mr. and Mrs. William L. Borthwick, of 142 East Sixty-first street, accompanied by their two little daughters, Bull River, during the summer at Brightwood, on the Sandy River.

Congratulations are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Paterson upon the arrival of a son, born August 28. The little fellow will be known as Gregg Macdonald.
Miss Pearl Cunningham, of the teaching staff of Kennewick, Wash., who has been spending the summer vacation with friends in Portland, left for home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stewart and their two sons, Logan and Herbert, have returned from a two week sampling trip to Bull River. They have for their house guest Mrs. M. F. Dillon, of Los Angeles, Cal.
Miss Mildred Raab returned from her summer vacation and is preparing to take up her work as gymnasium instructor for the boys and girls at the Orphan's Home and the People's Institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Newbury left on August 28 for a trip East. They will visit friends in Wisconsin and Illinois. Dr. C. W. Cornelius was a week-end visitor at the Craven home in Hood River.
Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Schilt, accompanied by their sons, Alfred, Louis and Fudge, and daughter, Mrs. E. M. Kraut, returned home last night after having spent the last two months at their cottage in Seaside.

Dr. and Mrs. S. M. Gallert, of 625 Lovejoy street, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a girl born August 28. The baby is to be named Mary Jane Gellert.
Friends of Mrs. Robert Cleveland will be pleased to learn of her recovery from a recent serious operation. Mrs. Cleveland was operated on August 6 at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

George Donovan left last night for his home in San Francisco. He has been extensively entertained during his visit here. Last evening several friends tendered Mr. Donovan an elaborate farewell banquet.
Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blinn, of Los Angeles, are house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Byron E. Miller. Mr. Blinn is the junior partner of Blinn & Son and is seriously contemplating the establishment of a branch office in this city.

Miss Sadie Noyes, Miss Mabel Weed and Miss Edna Church, three enterprising estheticians, have returned from a ride to Astoria, Gearhart, Tillamook and other points. They found the roads rough in places, but met with no accidents on the way.
Mrs. H. F. Charter, of Eureka, Cal., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Preston Carter Smith, at the latter's home, 551 Buena Vista drive. Mrs. Charter was formerly Miss Madeline Smith. She has many friends in local society and will be widely entertained.

Misses Pansy and Isabelle Mallett, of Ontario, visited friends in Portland last week, after spending the summer vacation at the family home, "Shadland Farm," in Malheur County. They left for Puget Sound Friday, Miss Mallett to resume teaching at Everett and Miss Isabelle Mallett at Darrington.
Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hewett and son Clyde left on Wednesday for a two months' visit at Port Huron, Mich. While in the East they will visit Mr. Hewett's old home near Port Huron and will be entertained by friends and relatives in Saginaw, Detroit and Buffalo. They will return in the latter part of October. Their short stay will be made in Chicago and in Fort Benton, Mont.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.
Miss Oliver is now in New York selecting the last word in millinery for her shop, 423 Alder street.
Opening of exclusive Fall millinery Monday, Sept. 1, in parlors 401-402, Selling Bldg. Miss Haggerty, who has now returned, will show a very beautiful line of the very newest in the millinery world from the Eastern and European markets, and will be pleased to again see her many customers and friends.

Thought It Was a Cook.
Judge.
Proud Parent—We had a new arrival at our house last night. It was an Absorbed Commuter—Did she get you a good dinner?

Journalism. Municipal councilor at 21, a Mayor at 25, he was a member of parliament at 30. When Dick Seddon died such a man was obviously heir to the premiership of New Zealand. One of the pleasant incidents in Sir Joseph's career is his refusal of a public subscription of $50,000, got together when a big undertaking with which he was associated failed. The money was offered to his wife. Sir Joseph replied: "I am young and can work." He resigned his offices and ultimately paid all the creditors in full.

tendency to alcoholism is not hereditary," he said. "Dipsomania, which is an irresistible tendency to alcoholism, is a form of insanity and a very rare disease. The drunkard who tells us he cannot help his tendency is very near the truth, but he is accountable for getting himself into a condition where he cannot resist his appetite. Most of the immorality of drunkenness is in the fact that the drunkard has deliberately destroyed his free will."

SONG EVANGELIST NAMED
Rev. Alfred Bates to Take Up New Work in Washington.

OAK POINT, Wash., Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Much enthusiasm was manifested in the joint meeting of the Carrington, Shanghai and Goble Creek Methodist Episcopal churches, of which Rev. S. T. Grindle is pastor, and the Oak Point Methodist church, of which Rev. Alfred Bates is pastor.

The fourth quarterly conference of the group was held in the church at Oak Point, Thursday and a special launch was run from Carrington, bringing many visitors from the other places. Dr. Spencer S. Sulliger, district superintendent of the Vancouver district, Puget Sound Conference, presided and there was a good attendance.

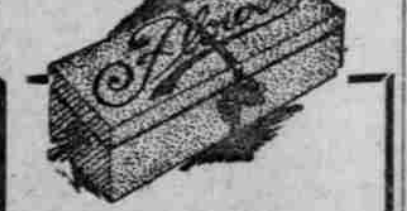

Dr. Sulliger expressed his appreciation of the work accomplished by Pastor Bates and his loyal people at Oak Point and of the good work accomplished on the other charges by Pastor Grindle, and three new members were received into church fellowship.

The Puget Sound annual conference meets at Olympia, Wash., September 11 to 12, after which a pastor who will live at Carrington have charge of this entire work, devoting all his time to it. Rev. Alfred Bates, who is well known in Portland, will be engaged in singing evangelist and is now booking engagements following the September conference.

Rev. Mr. Bates and Dr. McDougall assisted Rev. Claude Cook in revival services at Laurelwood Methodist Church last February with good success.

Fewer Letters Written.
Railway Age Gazette.
In 1912 the 21 divisions of the Pennsylvania Railroad wrote and forwarded 2,700,000 letters. Now, through the co-ordination of various departments this enormous correspondence has been reduced 20 per cent, following approximately 549,000 fewer letters being written.

Drunkards and Free Will.
Indianapolis News.
Dr. Austin O'Malley, in a lecture under the auspices of the Catholic Summer School Extension Course at the Girls' Catholic High School in Philadelphia, scouted the theory of heredity with respect to drunkards and asserted that, with the exception of the dipsomaniac, every drunkard is what he is solely because he chose to be so. "A

Chrysanthemum Flowered Asters
Are Now in Season. Finest of All Summer Flowers.

CLARKE BROS.
Morrison street, Between Fourth and Fifth streets.

B. FINK
LADIES' TAILOR
Suits to Order
$35 Up

J. K. Stern
Ladies' Tailor
Announces the Fall Opening. New goods arriving daily. Order your suit now before busy season begins. Some goods still offered at a reduction.

Velvetina

MAKES VELVETY SKIN.
If You Would Preserve Your Beauty, Use
Velvetina Massage Cream
It Clears the Skin Naturally and Feeds the Tissues Instead of Starving Them.
Velvetina Vanishing Cream
Different From All Others.
It makes a perfect dressing before applying powder, giving a soft velvety appearance, and protects the skin from sun and wind.
Ask your druggist for VELVETINA COUPONS, which entitle you to a free massage, manure or shampoo at VELVETINA SHOP, 615-616 Sweetland Bldg.

Chanticleer

A delightful motor ride of 22 miles East of Portland, along the Columbia River, will bring you to one of the most popular places in Oregon, where you can enjoy a delicious, Home-Cooked
Chicken Dinner
Phone Long Distance Corbett for reservations.

Chicken Dinner

Phone Long Distance Corbett for reservations.

We shall be pleased to receive orders for wedding invitations, cards and announcements to be prepared in the latest Tiffany style.
William Steiner & Printing Co.
Corner Fifth & Oak Streets

J. K. Stern

Ladies' Tailor
Announces the Fall Opening. New goods arriving daily. Order your suit now before busy season begins. Some goods still offered at a reduction.

J. K. STERN

447 Alder Street
WRINKLES
HOW TO REMOVE IN 15 MINUTES. HOW TO PREVENT FROM COMING. Include 25 stamp for particulars. Satisfaction guaranteed. Free demonstration at our office, 2 second floor, 285 1/2 Washington St. Dept. F. Hours 1 to 5 P. M. PORTLAND, OREGON. Phone Main 3271. Agents Wanted. Territory for Sale.

PIONEER COUPLE CELEBRATES FIFTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

MR. AND MRS. R. L. RYCRRAFT AND FAMILY.
Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rycraft, of Astoria, Or., pioneers of 1853, celebrated their fifty-fifth wedding anniversary on August 28. At the family reunion their six sons and four daughters were all in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Rycraft are well-known citizens of Astoria, and have many friends throughout the Northwest. Their children are Mrs. M. W. Wainwright of Portland; Mrs. Mildred Longbottom, of Seattle; Mrs. Belle Rowland, of Perrydale; Mrs. O. Reed and M. F. Rycraft, of Corvallis; George, Alf, Lou and Charles Rycraft, all of Astoria.