HOME RULERS ARE

Leading Politicians See Need of Conference Before Bill

Of Conference Before Bill

The alarm while is the chematograph ble evil effects of the cinematograph exists even more strongly in Germany, Norway, and the United States than it does here.

The case for and against the cinematograph may be briefly stated. The for Ireland Is Signed.

ULSTER TO BE CONSIDERED

Resolution Adopted at Meeting in England Appealing to Government to Advise King to Call Others to His Counsel.

BY TIMOTHY J. O'CONNOR. DUBLIN, Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Joseph Devlin, M. P., addressed 2000 or 3000 people at an open-air meeting in Bed-ford, England, a few nights ago. He was supported by F. Kellaway, M. P. and T. Lee Roberts, president of the local Liberal Association. Mr. Devlin, who had a hearty reception, said that home rule was a democratic cause, and asked if they believed in English liberty how they could deny to Ireland, a country with common aims land, a country with common aims and aspirations, privileges which England enjoyed? Sir Edward Carson spoke not the voice of the people but the voice of Trinity College, Dublin. Even Belfast was not to be heard when Trinity College spoke. Sir E. Carson and Mr. Campbell had repeatedly declared that they would rather have home rule than tolerate the perpetuation of the government of Ireland by the Liberal party; so that their idea of the government of Ireland by England was a perpetual Tory government, spoon-feeding a perpetual Tory party in Ireland.

In Ireland.

This was not only an attack upon liberty in Ireland, but upon democracy in England. Sir E. Carson left Ireland a quarter of a century ago, and when he was there his chief occupation was the packing of juries to convict Irish members of the crime of convict irish members of the crime of standing by the helpless and the poor in the rural districts. Since then he had not known Ireland. He did not feel for any wrong inflicted on her people. He was the legal defender of the wrong, and was ready to lead revo-lution to percentage wrong. lution to perpetuate wrong.

A conference on the subject of home rule was urged at the annual meeting of the "All for Ireland" League in Cork A letter was read, in which Lord Dunraven said:

"Our immediate dure to the love of minds."

"Our immediate duty is to impress on the government the necessity of in-viting a conference. If we succeed we may save this country from great ca-

"It is essential that Irish legislation should be born of a workable act, and desirable that it should be launched into existence with the good wishes of the people of Great Britain and an honest desire for its unqualified success. The present bill does not be a success. The present bill does not be a success. The present bill does not be presentation of moving pictures dealing with sensational, indecent and criminal incidents. fled success. The present bill does not fulfill these conditions, and no meas-ure can fulfill these conditions unless it be the fruit of conciliation, conference and consent."

Lord Rossmore wrote: "The well-wishers of Ireland are in favor of a conference to get the country out of the imbroglio," while Lord Castletown also wrote, approving the policy of the league.

than even a much better bill than we are offered by the coercion of one-fourth of the population. It is the duty of all good men to make one supreme effort for peace, for mutual toleration and concession before the Miss Carpenter. He said that the guest country is committed to new divisions.

new recrudescences of all the old religious and racial rancor, the end of which no man of this generation can live to see."

In the said that th

Mr. O'Brien spoke for an hour and with even a greater degree of flery eloquence than adorns his speeches in the House of Commons, but though his advocacy was vehement it was all for peace. Neither in his nor in the sub-sequent addresses was there much de-tailed criticism of the home rule bill, but there was decidedly hostile gen-eral criticism of the measure, especialin its financial aspects.

Mr. O'Brien admitted that the odds against peace were now all but des-perate, but they were not more des-perate than the odds against Parnell "when he started to uproot landlord-ism in Ireland," and no failure was so bad as the disgrace of standing tongue-tied while the country was rushing to dangers which no honest man could minimize. He placed the supporters of Mr. Redmond and Sir Fedward Carson in the same category. Edward Carson in the same category as extremists, and prophesied that so long as they persisted in their present unbending attitude both were doomed to bitter disappointment. Sir Edward Carson, indeed, he declared to be past praying for so far as peace negotia-tions were concerned, but he appealed beyond Sir Edward Carson to the great mass of the thinking Protestants of Ireland to take a less determinedly hostile view of the case of home rules He went on to emphasize the possi-bility of his plan, and to show how both English political parties would be the gainers thereby.

Conference Is Advocated.

Lord Weardale spoke of the terrible responsibility which British Ministers would take upon themselves if they advised his Majesty to give his assent to the home rule bill unless it was indorsed at a general election or a peaceful solution of the problem arrived at in the meantime.

Viscount Hythe spoke in a similar strain. Though a home ruler, he sympathized with the feelings of the Ulster Orangemen, who felt they had been Conference Is Advocated.

pathized with the feelings of the Ulster Orangemes, who felt they had been tricked by the Parliament Act.

T. M. Healy, M. P., said that if the men of the north disliked the home rule bill, they in the south saw many things in it which they also disliked. A resolution was adopted appealing to the government to advise the King to invoke the constitutional assistance of a small conference representing all parties.

MOVIES AROUSE INTEREST

Educationists and Reformers Urge Care in Use of Cinematograph.

LONDON, Sept. 6 .- (Special.) - The uses and abuses of moving pictures are more and more engaging the attention for each more engaging the attention of educationists and moral reformers. Few modern inventions more aptly illustrate the doctrine that where there are the highest possibilities of good there are also corresponding possibilities. Ities of evil.

Leaders of opinion are now actively concerned to turn the cinematograph to good uses. Among these leaders are Cardinal Bourne, the Rev. F. B. Meyer. Sir A. Rollit, the Earl of Meath, Sir J. Yoxall, M. P., and the headmasters of Eton, Winchester and Rugby.

In speaking of moving pictures. In speaking of moving pictures, Archbishop of Canterbury said: XSo far as my knowledge extends, 1 am led to the belief that action is urgently called for in relation to the use and abuse of the chematograph, alarming statements, some of them statistical, reach us from people in many lands, and it is possible that we have created something fraught with genuine peril if it is misused, as well as with indisputable advantage, both educational and other, if the newfound art be employed aright."

ASKING FOR PEACE

The alarm which is felt at the possible evil effects of the cinematograph matograph may be briefly stated. The uses are:

Educational and recreative—where the exhibitions are well regulated as regards the choice of subjects and their suitability to the minds of those who attend them.

The abuses are more numerous or at

HEAD OF NEW CHURCH WILL SPEAK TONIGHT.

Rev. Julian K. Smyth.

One of the most able exponents of the teachings of Swedenborg, Rev. Julian K. Smyth, of New York, who is the head of the New Church in the United States and Canada, and recognized both in Europe and America as a public speaker of great ability as well as an author of a number of religious works, is to deliver a special lecture on Swedenborg tonight at Knights of Pythias Hall, Eleventh and Alder streets. This will be Mr. Smyth's first lecture on the Pacific Coast and is looked forward to with much interest. One of the most able exponents Hindrance to habits of thrift. These apparently are regarded as common forms of injury done by this class of entertainment. But other and OLD PARTIES DENOUNCED "Progressives" and Republicans.

"Progressives," near-"Progressives" and a number of others gathered in "A crisis has arrived," declared Will- the Fountain Grill of the Oregon Hotel iam O'Brien, "when even a moderate national settlement would be incomparably a greater blessing to Ireland than even a much better bill than we purposes and the organization and proquent. She made an exception in her condemnation of the Republican party when she said Western Republicans, considered by "Progressive" standards, are much superior to the Eastern variety. She intimated that an Eastern Republican is simply a standpatter gone to seed.

gene to seed.

Miss Carpenter scouted the idea that Colonel Rossevelt would ever return to the Republican party. Jay Upton, Dr. Marie Equi, B. Elmer Kennedy and other prominent "Progressives" vigorously applauded this sentiment. The speaker depled that she represented a speaker denied that she represented a one-man party.

Miss Carpenter also flaved to tatters the suggestion that the "Progressive" party will ever fuse with the Republicans. She intimated that the time is near at hand when there will be but two parties, the "Progressive" and the Conservative. She condemned all the eld-line Republicans and Democrats to seats side by side in the Conservative band-wagon.

band-wagon.

The speaker received a prolonged ovation at the close of her address, and ovation at the close of her address, and many pressed forward to receive introduction at the hands of Dr. Coe.

HUNTINGTON MAN WHO "TOTED FAIR" DIES IN PORTLAND.

P. Johnson, of Huntington. died in Portland early Friday morning after an illness of more than a year. Mr. Johnson was 54 years of age, and, besides his widow, leaves one brother in Renova, Pa. He had been a resident of Huntington for 30 years and was known as the man who "toted fair." He served several terms as Councilman and always terms as Councilman and always took a prominent and active part in the affairs of the city. He was a member of the Oddfellows and Elks. The funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10 A. M. from the Dunning & Mc-Entee chapel, $3 North Broadway, and burial will be in Riverview

Monday morning's clearance 100 pairs Women's Oxfords, all leathers, collected in one lot to sell at 65c Pair

The Last and the Best of the Big Bankrupt Shoe Stocks

The Big Bankrupt Shoe Stock Must Be Disposed Of in 18 Days

We have brought the balance of the Fall and Winter models from the basements. The cream of the lot-new styles-the last to arrive-cases never before opened.

Cut to the Limit for Absolute Clearance The Regal and A. J. Wochos Stocks were the best money could buy. Laird & Schober, Nettleton, Regal, Queen Quality, John Foster, Slater & Morrell are standards of snoe making.

C. H. Baker bought this $75,000 bankrupt stock to secure location for Baker Store No. 9. New store opens about October 1. The bankrupt stocks must go.

$3.50 to $4.50 Women's Regal Tan Shoes, price $1.95 stamped on soles; bankrupt price.

Women's Shoes

$5.00 and $6.00 Women's Street Pumps and Oxfords, all leathers and styles, including Laird & Schobers, now... $1.95

$4 to $9 Evening Slippers, all colors and materials of which evening slippers are made. Beautiful goods, acknowledged the finest assortment evening slippers ever brought to Portland. Bankrupt $3.75 sale prices, the pair.....$2.75 to $5 Shoes, black or tan, welt soles or hand-turn, button or lace, of such well-known makes as Queen Quality, Hallihan, Grover and others. Priced at, $3.45

$4 Shoes of such a wide variety of styles and leathers that you cannot help but find a pair that will please and fit you properly. Bankrupt Sale $2.75

$3.50 Black patent, gunmetal, kid leathers, button or lace patterns, high or low heels, sizes to fit you, in such makes as Queen Quality, Regal and $2.45

$6 to $7 Laird & Schober Shoes. Every woman knows the quality of these shoes and the prices at which they are regularly sold. Bankrupt price, $4.85 Men's Shoes

Women's White Buck Shoes, none reserved, formerly sold $5.00 and $6.00, specially priced.....$2.25

$4.00 Regal Oxfords, wide range of styles, in either black or tan colors, calf or kid leathers. At the price we are letting these go, it is money in $2.25

$3.50 Shoes, no styles reserved. Why spend your money for cheap shoes when you can buy $2.45

$6 Nettleton Oxfords, not a pair reserved. $2

Nettleton High-Grade Shoes to $8 made on such well-known shapes as Tarsic, Wellington, Sensation, Krime and others, in either kid or calf leathers. and others, in either kid or calf leathers. $5.25 $6 Smith-Briscoe, Slater & Morrell, button, blucher or ball patterns, kid or calf leather, black or tan colors, high, broad toes or the flat English $4.25 $5 Slater & Morrell, Regal, Alden and others, made in all leathers and wide variety of shapes. $3.85

$4 Shoes, Regals included, but all of them $3.25

tity," Says Progressive.

TALK OF SPLIT IS ABSURD

Miss Alice Carpenter, National Organizer, Tells of Experiences at the Chicago Convention and as Campaigner.

"There is no split in the 'Progressive' party in New Jersey or anywhere else, and the 'Progressive' party will entertain no proposals of fusion in any state."

Thus Miss Alice Carpenter, called "the feminine Roosevelt" by her coworkers in the "Progressive" movement in the East, unequivocally declares that the political organization she represents is a solid political entity, with not even the faintest fissure to indicate a probable split in its ranks, and without the slightest inclination Many toward amalgamation with the Republican or any other party. "I am thoroughly familiar with the situation in New Jersey," said Miss Carpenter at the Portland Hotel yesterday. "New Jersey is a strong 'Progressive' state, and the fact that there are two candidates for the 'Progressive' Gubernatorial nomination is no more indicative of a party split than two candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor in Oregon would in-dicate a split."

Colby's Election Predicted. Miss Carpenter predicts the tion and election of Everett Colby, a millionaire lawyer. He represents the more conservative wing of the "Progressive" party in New Jersey, and is opposed by E. B. Osborne, a wealthy manufacturer, the candidate of the radical element, which includes Gifford Pinchot, George L. Record and F. J. Heney.

Republican is extinct the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party the "Progressive" party. The "Progressive" party the "P Miss Carpenter predicts the nomina-tion and election of Everett Colby, a

"The standpat Republican is extinct in the West," declares Miss Carpenter, "and the Republican party as it exists in Oregon and other Western states is a green branch of a dead tree. How-ever, you will find the standpatter in the East standing as pat as he ever did, and to talk of fusing such elements as he represents with the clean new life-blood of the 'Progressive' party is absurd."

of having conspired to bring about a fusion with the Republican party, they to receive the nominations for Governor and United States Senator, respectively, as their reward.

"As soon as it was discovered what they was discovered what they was discovered what

BOTH STORES

308 Washington Street, Bet. Fifth and Sixth

New Party "Solid Political EnNew Party "Solid Political En-

Michigan Defeat Explained

Briefly reviewing the "Progressive" defeat in Michigan, Miss Carpenter said that her party went into the fight with only $6000 in the campaign fund, with only five weeks to make a fight and with a wholly inadequate organization. "In fact, our leaders gravely ques-tioned the advisability of making a fight before next Fall," she said, "but fight before next Fall," she said, "but they determined to make it, even in the face of great odds and almost certain defeat, for the 'Progressive' party is not one of opportunism, but of principle, and lack of courage is not a 'Progressive' characteristic."

Miss Carpenter became enthusiastic in telling of the woman's part in the National campaign in Pennsylvania, and how, by reason of their three years' struggle for suffrage, they were bet-struggle for suffrage, they were bet-ter equipped to conduct a campaign than the men who enlisted under the Bull Moose banner. The men were not politicians, and the women took the

Many Naps Taken.

Miss Carpenter entered the political arena by the suffrage door, and was for three years engaged in suffrage propagandist work in Massachusetts. With seven other women, she attended the "Progressive" National Convention at Chicago as a delegate. She was the only woman, with 48 men on the resolutions committee, and she was the only member of the committee, except the chairman and the secretary, who, in her words, "didn't take at least a little nap" during the night when the resolutions were drafted.

After the convention Miss Carpenter took charge of the work of organiz-ing the women of New York State for ing an audience of 50,000," she said, in admitting her fondness to expound party principles on all possible occa-

Ashland Apples Weigh 30 Ounces.

did, and to talk of fusing such elements as he represents with the clean new life-blood of the 'Progressive' party is absurd."

In discussing the Maryland situation, Miss Carpenter is emphatic that there never was any notion on the part of the "Progressives" of fusing with the Republicans. She accuses Colonel Carrington, "Progressive" state chairman for Maryland, and Charles E. Schirm, "Progressive" National committeeman, land.

ASHIAND, Or., Sept. 6.—(Special.)—Samples of Gloria Mundi apples measuring 17 inches in circumference and weighing 30 to 31 ounces have been exhibited in town, and will be added to the fruits from this vicinity which will be on display at the Jackson County Fair at Medford, beginning September 9. They are from the Hillside orchards of A. B. Scofield, in West Ashland.

REMEMBER THE LOCATIONS

Trip to Gettysburg.

SCENE STAYS IN MEMORY

Employe of City Returns From Journey Through East After Attending Encampment on Battlefield "50 Years After."

After a two months' trip to Gettysburg and various other parts of the East, Russ T. Chamberlain, veteran of the Civil War and veteran city em-ploye, has returned to the city and repoliticians, and the women took the lead in the work of organization and campalgning, with the result that Rooseveit carried the state by 65,000, and William Flynn, "Progressive leader, acknowledged the party's indebtedness to them in a letter addressed to one of the workers.

"And this in a state where women could not use their own votes," said Miss Carpenter.

Many Naps Taken.

"Bloye, has returned to the city and results and results at the City Hall where he left off. He started on his duties at the City Hall where he left off. He started on his trip June 25, going with the veterans to Gettysburg. After the reunion there he visited Washington, Mt. Vermont, Arlington, various parts of Vermont, Minneapolis, various parts of Wisconsin and the Dakotas.

Among other incidents of the trip was a visit with two of his sisters at his old home in Vermont for the first time in 40 years.

time in 40 years. The reunion at time in 40 years.

The reunion at Gettysbury was a wonderful affair, according to Mr. Chamberlain. "It was a busy week for us," said Mr. Chamberlain. "There was something doing every hour of the day and far into each night. It was an interesting scene to see the aged veterans who once struggled on the battlefield hunting up and meeting old acquaintances, visiting the spots on which incidents of the battle occurred and telling stories of the affray. Many a long-forgotten incident was recalled as we went over the ground and exas we went over the ground and examined the positions we held.

VETERAN CITY EMPLOYE IS BACK FROM GETTYSBURG.

"Too much credit cannot be given the Army officers who laid out the camp. We had every convenience, from electric lights on down the list to ice water for drinking. Meals were unusually good and well served and everything in camp went off in good style. The only person who could complain would be a confirmed grouch and luckly, there were not many such. and, luckily, there were not many such there. Great praise is due also to the Boy Scouts who were camped on the battlefield. They were of great assistance in helping the aged veterans around."

Mr. Chamberlain is a member George Wright Post. He enlisted in George Wright Post. He enlisted in the Northern Army August 28, 1861, in Company G. Fourth Regiment, Ver-mont Volunteers. He served through the entire war, with many close calls for his life and with many exciting ex-periences. In the official Grand Army records he is given credit for having a

REPORTED GIFT IS DENIED Vancouver Pastor Issues Statement

VANCOUVER, Wash., Sept. 6 .- (Special.)-That the late Guy Woodworth United Brethren Church, at Seventeenth and Harney streets, though it was named after him and so dedicated when the cornerstone was laid three year's ago, is the assertion of the Rev. J. Lincoln Ellis, who recently came here to accept the pastorate.

When the cornerstone was laid Rev.
J. T. Merrill, at that time pastor, gave the impression that Guy Woodworth, of Hood River, Or., had bequeathed several thousand dollars to build a memorial church to him.
Mr. Ellis has visited Mr. Woodworth's parents at Hood River, and got from Mrs. Woodworth a written statement that the young man had given nothing, though the parents, after his death, had contributed about $190 and have given a note for $350 more. Mr. Ellis says that he finds that a number of Vancouver people believe that the officials of the church received this large amount of money and that these officers have been openly accused of misappropriating the funds.

Mrs. Woodworth, Mr. Ellis said, would rather have the name of the church changed.

BEACH VIEWS EXHIBITED

Miss Ravenscroft Displays Paintings at Clubhouse Studio.

NEHALEM, Or., Sept. 6 .- (Special.) --The Clubhouse Art Studio was the scene of pleasant activities the last Sunday in August. Miss Ravenscroft gave another exhibit of her paintings done at this beach and Nehalem River. The Duffy Mail Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. V.

Beside the Clubhouse were assembled many other resorts, notably Miss Francis Isom and Miss Crocker. The Clubhouse guests were: Mrs. E. Wyld, Miss Dorine Wyld, Reginald Wyld, Garrard Wyld, Miss Elva Ellis, Miss Ravenscroft, Mrs. R. D. Schmidt-Mile Maillet, Miss Eberly, Mr. and Mrs.

Miss Hester Erickson and Miss Wil

$375 New Planos $235. $10 cash, $6 monthly. Graves Musi Co., removal sale, 111 4th st.

Weister, Dr. Nellie Erickson

Thought Himself Beyond Help

MR. WM. ANDERSON, SR. "I have been ill for some time and thought I never could be helped. "I can trathfully say that Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey has done me a lot of good—more good than any medicine I ever tried before. It is surely a medicinal whiskey and worthy of all that you claim it to be,"—William Anderson, Sr., 283 Prospect Street,

Duffy's Pure

Malt Whiskey is one of the greatest strength bullders and tonic stimulants known to science. It strengthens and sustains the system, is a promoter of health and longevity; makes the old feel young and keeps the young strong and vig-orous. It is prescribed by physi-cians and recognized as a family medicine everywhere. You should have it in your home. It will do you good. Sold; IN SEALED BOT-

