

IRISH CLUB VICTORS

Rain Prevents New Records at Metropolitan Games.

PLATT ADAMS IS BIG STAR

Winning Team Makes Almost Clean Sweep in Weights With Sheridan, Muller, McDonald and McKown—Finn Fast.

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—At Travers Island today the Metropolitan senior track and field championship of the Amateur Athletic Union was decided in a drizzling rain which made the track and infield so slow and soggy that record performances were impossible. The 15 events provided an opportunity for a duel between the Irish-American and New York Athletic clubs and the former won the point trophy with a total of 74 to 58 points.

Several Olympian winners participated and Platt Adams, of the New York Athletic Club, distinguished himself by scoring three firsts in the running broad jump, hop, skip and jump and throwing the javelin. Alvah T. Meyer, Irish-American Athletic Club, won the 100 and 220 dashes and J. I. Windell, New York Athletic Club, first in the 120 and the 220-yard hurdles. Hannes Kolehmainen, running in the colors of the Irish-American Athletic Club, was an easy winner of the five-mile race. His time of 23:25.4-5 was good, considering the condition of the track.

The Irish-American Athletic Club men excelled in the weight events. Martin Sheridan helped his club win by taking second place in the discus throw, which was won by his clubmate, E. Muller, with 133 feet, and his brother, Andrew Sheridan, was third, so that the whole nine points went to his club. Pat McDonald, the world's champion, put the 16-pound shot 48 feet 7 3/4 inches; Pat McKown, who made a new world's record with the 16-pound hammer three weeks ago, won another double winner by throwing the hammer 135 feet 5-8 inch and the 56-pound weight 49 feet, 2 inches. In both of these events all the points went to the Irish-American Club.

Melvin W. Sheppard, who won the half-mile run in 1:57, qualified for the final in the 440-yard run, but he burst a small artery in his nose a few minutes before the start and was unable to compete. The final was won by V. Wilkes, of the New York Athletic Club, in 59 seconds flat.

TY COBB INCREASES HIS LEAD

Matty No Longer Among Leaders of National League Pitchers.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Cobb, of Detroit, with an average of .286; Jackson, of Cleveland, with .374; and Speaker, of Boston, with .369, are making a neck-and-neck finish in the American League. Cobb's 12-point lead and the approach of the season's end make him favorite now.

Platts in the 300 class of the American League are held mainly by veterans. Henriksen, of Boston, whose illness has kept him out of practice all the games of the latter half of the season, pounded the ball for an average of .351 while he was playing his 25 games, and that percentage is enough to keep him in fourth place.

Next in order are: Eddie Collins, Philadelphia, .342; La Jole, Cleveland, .340; Baker, Philadelphia, .332; Gandil, Washington, .323; Bauman, Detroit, .317; D. Murphy, Philadelphia, .315; Crawford, Detroit, .308; Williams, Washington, .307; Lohr, St. Louis, .306; Stovall, St. Louis, .303; Schaefer, Washington, .301.

Milan, of Washington, now has 65 stolen bases, and is the best chance for anyone to catch him, though Moeller, of the same team, has 58.

Pitchers' records in the American League show Johnson ahead, as usual. The first six rank:

Name	W	L	PC
Johnson, Washington	23	7	.825
Honch, Philadelphia	22	8	.738
Falkenberg, Cleveland	22	8	.738
Wood, Boston	22	8	.738
Bender, Philadelphia	21	9	.700
Walsh, Chicago	21	9	.700
Fake Daube, of Brooklyn	21	9	.700
Fake Daube, of Brooklyn	21	9	.700
Fake Daube, of Brooklyn	21	9	.700
Fake Daube, of Brooklyn	21	9	.700

Cravath seems destined to win home-run honors for the year, as he now has 18. Luderus, of Philadelphia, has 15, and Sailer, of Chicago, has 13. Carey, of Pittsburgh, has taken away the batting stealing lead from Myers, of Boston, having 49 to the latter's 42.

Jim Vaughn's first defeat of the season came too late to be recorded in this week's averages, and he leads the National pitchers. The first five are:

Name	W	L	PC
Vaughn, Chicago	15	3	.833
Demaree, New York	15	3	.833
Cooper, Pittsburgh	14	2	.875
Luhrsen, Pittsburgh	13	1	.923
Luhrsen, Pittsburgh	13	1	.923

STANFORD DOWNS BARBARIANS

New 14-Man Formation Said to Add Speed to Rugby Game.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Sept. 20.—A fast-running backfield enabled the Stanford varsity rugby team to defeat the Barbarian club of San Francisco today by a score of 8 to 3, the 14-man formation being tried out.

RIVERS SELLS AUTOS

Mexican Never to Drive Again, Declares His Attorney.

SPEEDING CHARGE SERIOUS

Boxer, Already Under 30-Day Suspended Sentence, Said to Have Promised Not to Sit at Wheel of Machine Again.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—Joe Rivers, the lightweight boxer, has sold his two automobiles and will never again sit at the wheel of a machine.

The above statement was made today by Attorney Frank Dominguez, who for many months has acted as the legal adviser and "first friend" of the Mexican battler.

Three nights ago Rivers was arrested, charged with reckless driving of his racing car and is to appear next Monday for trial. As the boxer has a 30-day suspended sentence hanging over his head, his case takes on a serious aspect.

"I am going to do everything within my power to clear the little fellow," said Mr. Dominguez.

"Joe is a victim of circumstances, in a way. On all sides he is beset by temptation and has been guilty of acts of folly that he would never think of doing to himself. There never was a better-hearted boy than Joe and he has given me his word of honor that he will never again drive an automobile."

OLYMPIAD IS OPPOSED

BRITAIN PLANS TO WITHDRAW AFTER BERLIN GAMES.

Sportsmen Declare Athletic Meets Have Become Semi-Professional and Do Not Aid Friendship.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—If the wishes of British sportsmen are followed, Great Britain's last appearance in the Olympic games will be at Berlin in 1916. This sentiment is rapidly growing, and public opinion would favor withdrawing from the Olympic organization immediately, except for two reasons.

First, the Germans might construe the withdrawal as due to anti-German prejudice, and, second, other nations might think that after the poor showing the team made at Stockholm, Great Britain was unable to hold its own against other countries.

The policy advocated by the most influential men in the English world of sport is to send a representative well-trained delegation to Berlin and then withdraw gracefully. The reasons behind this policy lie in the belief that the Olympic are becoming semi-professional contests, and that, instead of fulfilling the purpose of their founders, which was to create international friendship, they have had the opposite effect.

The response to the appeal for $500,000 as an Olympic fund for the British athletes continues apathetic. Less than $10,000 has been subscribed. Discussion over the appeals has brought forth more expressions of opinion against the Olympics than favoring them, most of the opposition coming from old university men.

STOVALL ACTS "SPORT"

BROWN'S MANAGER TAKES DISMISSAL GRACEFULLY.

Despite Lowly Position of St. Louis Team Director Makes Many Friends and Admirers.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—(Special.)—George Stovall takes his discharge from the management of the St. Louis Browns gracefully, and has only good words to say for Jimmy Austin, his temporary successor.

Stovall issued the following statement after the announcement had been made that he had been dismissed:

"It's Mr. Hodges' privilege to fire me at any time he sees fit. However, I'm tried hard, and got everything out of the boys that was in them. They worked hard for me, and I'm sorry to part with them.

"I like Austin, and so do all the players. I hope he'll succeed. I asked Mr. Hodges after I read his letter why he didn't want me as manager. He said: 'You're not the kind of a manager I want. You don't handle the players the way I want them handled.' That was enough. I don't own the club. But I want to say to the fans that I tried my best. The club didn't have a punch. The boys would strike out or boot the ball. I can't keep them from hitting if they are not hitting. I can't keep them from fumbling in the pinch, either.

"I'm not whining. I'm willing to do as the Hodges wants. I'll stay here in the city, and if he wants me to join the team at any time I'll be Johnny on the spot. I only wish the Browns win the pennant."

Despite the lowly position of the Browns, Stovall made many friends in St. Louis, and there was a feeling of regret at his passing.

JUDGE RESCUES FIVE BOYS Youngsters, of "Army of Forgotten," Arouse Sympathy in Court.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—Five recruits for "the army of the forgotten" were saved from Grant Park when they appeared in the South Clark street court. All were under 17 years of age. They started out some months ago from their homes in New Orleans and were arrested while sleeping, hungry and cold, on the grass in Grant Park.

It was necessary to send one of the boys, Tony Dolozio, to the county hospital for treatment for malvar fever.
