For Sale—Lots.

FOR speculators and those who do not desire to build immediately.

Present objections: Lack of lateral sewer, permanent water mains and car service that will obviate a climb.

Advantages: First, the close-in view is wonderful. Both sides of the city, Mt. Hood, Mt. Adams, Mt. St. Helens and the river are in unobstructed and unobstructible range. This view to the home gives a constant source of pleasure, company to the wife and entertainment to friends. Second, the proximity of this property to town—about 20 blocks to the Postoffice—makes it easy walking distance. Third, space within the mile circle of the civic center, on the West Side, no matter where it is, or what it is, if you buy at the right price, undoubtedly has the best possibilities for increase in value. This is an important factor.

Investigate these view homesites, for the prices are remarkably low right now: 50x80, facing north, $725; 50x85, $825; 56x70, facing east, $1100, etc. Write or call
