

E. Morey and the Misses Eastham recently.

An attractive affair was the bridge and luncheon presided over by Mrs. E. B. Brigham and daughter, the table was set by Mrs. B. Gregg, on Thursday at the Gregg residence on East Twenty-first street.

Miss Tessie Alicia Dent has returned from a six month's visit with relatives in England, among whom were Sir Alfred and Lady Dent, who had arranged to have Miss Dent presented at court, but owing to her illness she was unable to attend.

Miss Blanche Davis and Miss Alice Wilkins, of San Francisco, have arrived in Portland, to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cookingham.

Mrs. Donald Green, who has been passing the Summer at the East visiting Mr. Green's family, returned to Portland last week.

Miss Helen Stokes, of Philadelphia, has arrived to pass the Winter with her sister, Mrs. James E. Davidson, on Portland Heights. Miss Stokes was accompanied by her mother, who left Wednesday for Los Angeles, where she invariably spends her Winters.

Mrs. Davidson will be hostess at an informal dance tomorrow evening in honor of her sister, and other informal affairs are planned during the week.

In honor of Miss Margaret Catlin, a popular bride-elect, Miss Frances T. Hallinan, of Portland Heights, presided at a charming informal luncheon yesterday. Garden flowers adorned the table and covers were laid in the parlors.

A wedding that caused quite a flutter in society was that of Miss Ethelwynne M. Glass and Joseph E. Wiley, which was solemnized at the East on Monday at the rectory of St. Mary's Cathedral.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewitt Knox, of Salt Lake City, who were married three weeks ago and are on their wedding trip, attended the young couple.

The bride wore a smart tailored suit of dark blue silk, and an attractive small black hat trimmed with birds and feathers. Her bouquet was a large one of Madam Aaron Ward roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley left in the afternoon for a three weeks' trip to British Columbia and Banff.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Glass and sister of Graham Glass, who was married last year to a young girl with an attractive personality.

Mr. Wiley is the son of Mrs. Joseph R. Wiley and the late Captain Wiley and brother of Miss Clara Wiley.

Mrs. Jay J. Morrow left Friday morning for a month's sojourn with her brother, Lieutenant Rodman Butler, at Fort Logan, Denver.

In honor of Major and Mrs. James Canby, who will leave next week for Washington, D. C., where Major Canby has been ordered, Major and Mrs. Jay J. Morrow presided at a charming dinner party Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox, who accompanied her son, Theodore, Jr., East, where he entered a military school, is now in New York City visiting friends. She also will visit in Washington, D. C., for a short time before returning home about October 15.

An interesting announcement which has just been made by Mr. and Mrs. Norton M. Cross, of Minneapolis, Minn., is the engagement of their daughter, Miss Clara Cross, to Dr. Frederick Andrews Kiehl, of this city.

Dr. Kiehl is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David L. Kiehl, formerly of Minneapolis, and a brother of Mrs. J. C. Elliott King and Miss Florence Kiehl, also of Portland.

An interesting wedding of this week will be that of Miss Josephine Cronan and Harry Baxter Humphrey. The ceremony will be solemnized at the Church of the Madeleine, at 11:30 Wednesday morning, and a reception will follow at the residence of the bride's parents.

L. J. Wentworth and Mrs. A. J. Glessey presided in the dining-room.

One of the prettiest affairs of the past week was the bridge luncheon given by Miss Anna Healy in honor of Miss Mary Monks, whose wedding to Frank S. Healy will be an event of October 14.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Miss Louise Friedle, who was Maid of Honor at the Gtanelle-Friedle Wedding Last Week.

Feldeneheimer's Removal Sale Just About Over. A Real Money Saving Sale. Our determination to make this sale the greatest Bargain event ever held in Portland has succeeded! If You Haven't Participated, Do So Now. Never Before Such Prices on Rock Crystal, Leather Goods, Art Goods, Cut Glass, Sterling Silver Novelties, etc., etc. Contract goods alone reserved. See Window Display for this week's specials. Established 1868. A & C. Feldeneheimer. 283-285 Washington St., Between 4th and 5th Sts.

Largest Women's Special Store in Northwest—Five Entire Floors. 200 Styles in Women's Suits. All Portland Is Talking About Our Showing. "Wonderful!" "I never knew The Emporium carried such beautiful garments." "Aren't they remarkably priced?" We never saw such enthusiastic women as the thousands who witnessed our Opening Garment Show on living models last Monday and Tuesday! In this great five-story Specialty House we show fully two hundred different styles in Women's Fall Suits! Every possible new fabric, coloring and style. And probably best of all, every Suit is priced at an absolute saving of $5 to $10. See the wonderful values tomorrow at $19.50, $24.75, $27.50, $30. Coats! Coats!! Coats!!! There seems to be no end of them! Every express brings new ones! And how wonderfully new and different they are from those any previous season has produced. Coats of zibelines! Coats of boucles! Coats of astrakans! Coats of mixtures! Coats of white fabrics! We challenge you to find such coats anywhere at $12.50, $14.75, $19.50, $24.75. Superb Millinery at Popular Prices. The smartest styles at popular prices being put up here the largest volume of millinery business in Portland! Under new management, we're more aggressive than ever. Stocks are larger! And never did the modes seem so charming as this Autumn. Hundreds of lovely Trimmed Hats at $4.98, $6.50, $8.00 UP TO $18.00. Hats Trimmed Free. EMPORIUM PORTLAND'S. PORTLAND'S FINEST GARMENT & MILLINERY STORE. 124-126-128 SEVENTH ST., JUST OFF WASHINGTON. Great Untrimmed Section 3rd Floor.

Clive family, a purse of gold—one dollar for each of their married life, while the business men and other friends, Dr. and Mrs. Cline presented through ex-Governor Geer another purse. Messages of congratulation were received from Governor West of Oregon; Bishop Moore, of Indianapolis, and Hughes, of San Francisco, along with letters and messages from clergymen, editors and divers literary folk in Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Kansas City, Denver, San Francisco and other places. Dr. Trimble, Peter H. D'Arcy, Rev. George Hartung, Mr. Geor. W. N. Barrett and Dr. Benjamin Young made brief talks felicitating the happy couple on having reached the 6th anniversary of their wedded life.

The golden wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Cline, which was celebrated last Wednesday was a notable affair. The palatial home of Colonel Lewis and Mrs. Montgomery, East Twentieth and Salmon streets, where the reception was held, was decorated beautifully with palms, yellow chrysanthemums, marigolds, golden glow and goldenrod. In addition, the happy couple were recipients of elaborate bouquets of choicest flowers from Albert Feldeneheimer, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Northrup, Hon. and Mrs. A. T. Lewis, Judge S. A. Starr, Dr. and Mrs. Humphrey, Miss Grace Forbes and others.

Miss Beatrice Washburn, who was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Jones, in Spring, has just made her formal bow to society in Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Washburn, Jr., parents of this charming young belle, presented their daughter at a large reception and garden party last week at their country home at Manitou, Lake Minnetonka. Miss Washburn was the first debutante of the season, and the affair was a notable one. The 600 invitations included the young men of society in Minneapolis. Miss Washburn is a charming girl, and during her visit here won many friends in society.

Miss Catharine Therkelsen was hostess at a theater party at the Baker Theater on Saturday in honor of Miss Mildred Josselyn, who leaves in a week or so for New York. Among those present were the Misses Josselyn, Kate Braael, Mildred and Dorothy Moulton, Louise Heuser, Aline Johnson, Katharine Graham, Cleo Nickerson, Frances Brady, Mrs. R. S. Fisher and the hostess.

Mrs. Harry M. Calk and her mother, Mrs. J. M. Crowe, left Wednesday for an extended visit in the East. They will be gone about eight weeks and will visit all the interesting points in Eastern cities.

Complimenting Miss Marguerite Hardy, of New Albany, Ind., who is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Latourette, Miss Mary Stetson entertained yesterday afternoon with a three-table bridge party. The rooms at the Stetson residence were attractive.

Miss Beatrice Washburn, who was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Jones, in Spring, has just made her formal bow to society in Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Washburn, Jr., parents of this charming young belle, presented their daughter at a large reception and garden party last week at their country home at Manitou, Lake Minnetonka. Miss Washburn was the first debutante of the season, and the affair was a notable one. The 600 invitations included the young men of society in Minneapolis. Miss Washburn is a charming girl, and during her visit here won many friends in society.

Miss Beatrice Washburn, who was the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry Jones, in Spring, has just made her formal bow to society in Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Washburn, Jr., parents of this charming young belle, presented their daughter at a large reception and garden party last week at their country home at Manitou, Lake Minnetonka. Miss Washburn was the first debutante of the season, and the affair was a notable one. The 600 invitations included the young men of society in Minneapolis. Miss Washburn is a charming girl, and during her visit here won many friends in society.

Tomorrow Morning. We start to close out a large part of our stock. Our business in interior decorations, established last year, is growing rapidly. It now demands the great part of our floor space and our capital. We must have for it the room now filled with gift pieces and objects of art, and the thousands of dollars now tied up in them. To secure both space and money we offer, at cost, hundreds of pieces selected from our stocks of pictures, frames, china, silver, jewelry, baskets, clocks, mirrors, lamps, shades, candlesticks and small gift things of every sort; together with a number of pieces of fine furniture. The high quality and the attractiveness of the things we carry are well known. Those included in the sale are offered at one-half and two-thirds their regular values. The opportunity to buy both for your home and for wedding or anniversary gifts, and to anticipate your Christmas needs, is unique and cannot be repeated.

and Mrs. Montgomery, Dr. and Mrs. Cline and their daughter, Mrs. V. J. Miller, Mrs. Thomas W. Johnson, Mrs. Karl A. Miller and Miss Agnes Cline. Partial list of guests at anniversary included: Miss Helen Morris, Milwaukee, Or.; Mrs. M. C. Thompson, Milwaukee, Or.; M. C. Thompson, Milwaukee, Or.; Mrs. Eugene M. Thompson, San Francisco; Miss Thompson, San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Pittcock, Mrs. Grace Sue Northrup, E. P. Northrup, H. H. D'Arcy, Salem, Or.; Miss Teressa E. D'Arcy, Salem, Or.; Mrs. M. C. Thompson, Hillsboro, Or.; Rev. James K. Selwood, Mrs. J. K. Hawkins, Rev. Henry T. Green, Mrs. Henry T. Green, Rev. D. A. Watters, Mrs. D. A. Watters, W. L. Opydyke, Julia E. Opydyke, Mrs. G. L. Hopkins, Rev. George F. Hopkins, John Ingham, Lieutenant I. McGown, Milton A.

Miller, Mrs. Isabelle G. Lewis, Mrs. Martha J. Patton, Miss Lena C. Patton, Mrs. George C. King, George C. King, Miss Ethel Montgomery, Rev. Luther Dyott, Mrs. L. R. Dyott, Mrs. T. B. Ford, Oregon City; Rev. James Lisle, Salem, Or.; Mrs. S. M. Lisle, Salem, Or.; Mrs. T. C. Humphrey, Dr. T. C. Humphrey, Dr. Richmond Kelly, Mrs. Richmond Kelly, Mrs. Hannah Moore, Lieutenant Thomas A. Jordan, Rev. C. J. Larsen, Seattle; David E. Johnson, M. C. Bluefield, W. Va.; Mrs. David E. Johnson, A. E. Horthwick, Miss Emily Lyons, Rochester, Minn.; Rev. William Tecumseh Kerr, Miss Mary E. Kerr, Romaine Elliott, Miss Mary C.

Advance Fall and Winter Furs. Anticipating the trend of the modes for Fall and Winter, we purchased heavily of the most desirable and favored Furs, creating therefrom new and distinctive productions in Coats, Muffs, Neckpieces, etc., etc., that comprehend the demands of formal and informal attire. Styles for every taste. Prices for every purse.

Summer Prices Still. Owing to the backward season and the continued warm weather, we are prolonging the period of Summer price reductions. This is a rare opportunity for the far-sighted shopper to anticipate the needs of the Winter and holiday season. Fur Trimmings in Any Width Made to Order.

MANUFACTURING FURRIERS. H. LIEBES & CO. 288 Morrison St., Bet. 4th and 5th, J. P. Plagemann, Mgr.

MISS PUROLA SAYS— REGAIN OR RETAIN A BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION. USE PINK TINT. FIFTY CENTS, WITH FULL INSTRUCTIONS AND MONEY-BACK GUARANTY. AT YOUR DRUGGIST'S.

Unander and Jakway Decorators and Furnishers Alder at Eleventh Street.

WEDDING. Invitations and Announcements Monogram Stationery Engraved Visiting Cards Hurd's and Crane's Fine Stationery At Home and Reception Cards. W. G. SMITH & CO. Society Card Engravers, Third Floor Washington Bldg., 4th and Washington, Opp. Mer. Nat. Bank.