Miss Winnifred Wilson (above)
Miss Gertrude Wilson (below)
PORTLAND GIRLS WHO WERE ENTERTAINED IN HONOLULU.

Mrs. Julius Meier and Mr. and Mrs. M. Sichel, who also will give dinners and bridge parties.
The Misses Gertrude and Winnifred Wilson have just returned from an extended visit with Mrs. Robert Hair, of Honolulu, where they were entertained delightfully at dinners, trips and parties by members of the smart set. They gained much popularity in the island, and their return to Portland was regretted by their many friends there.

Miss Frances Brady complimented Miss Cronan with an informal tea Friday afternoon. About 20 of the younger set called. Presiding at the tea table were Miss Harriet Kern and Miss Irene Daily. A program of songs, recitations and readings was given. Mr. and Mrs. James Cook will entertain for Miss Cronan and her fiancée, Harry B. Humphrey, at a delightful dinner.

Miss Marjorie Haussmann, who has been passing the Summer at Seaside, returned last week and is preparing to go to New York to continue her vocal studies. Mrs. Henry Haussmann and Miss Getta Wasserman also returned last week from Seaside.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST
The delightful weather of the last two weeks has had a wonderful effect on reducing the number of parties in the post. The Mexican situation, being followed more closely by those in the Army than civilians, has also had its effect. There are some who believe that the regiment will be ordered to the Mexican border within a month, in which case it is probable that the ladies of the post will be left behind. A campaign on the honor, which is desired by some, would be an exceedingly hard one, and many would prefer service in the Philippines to the border.

Mrs. George S. Tiffany, wife of Captain Tiffany, of the Twenty-first Infantry, was charming hostess at a 3 o'clock tea Friday afternoon, nearly all of the ladies of the post being present.

The Second Battalion, of the Twenty-first Infantry, has gone to the Government-leased target range near Probstel for target practice, and Thursday Major Samuel E. Smiley relieved Captain Cromwell Stacey of the command there. The troops now at the range include Companies E, Captain Jack Alexander, Mrs. Owen Summers, Wheeler, F. Captain George S. Tiffany, Lieutenant F. J. Riley, G. Lieutenant W. O. Boswell, in command, Lieutenant H. H. Taylor, and H. Captain Edgar A. Fry, Lieutenant Robert T. Snow, Lieutenant Bernard Lantz is battalion adjutant.

Colonel George S. Young has returned from a short trip to Pendleton, where he attended the Roundup, and he was more than pleased with the entertainment.

Miss Constance Taylor, of Portland, visited Mrs. Robert T. Phinney Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Taylor, a sister of Mrs. Robert T. Phinney, who has been visiting her for the last two months, expects to join her husband, Captain W. W. Taylor, Jr., with the Nineteenth Infantry, at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., about the first week in October. She is remaining here while it is so extremely hot in Kansas.

Major Adrian S. Fleming, Adjutant-General of the Seventh Brigade, with headquarters here, has resumed his station. During his absence his place was filled by Major Samuel E. Smiley, of the Twenty-first Infantry.

When the Second Battalion returns from the Probstel target range on October 1, the Twenty-first Infantry band, under command of Captain Cleland McLaughlin, will practice pistol shooting, and it is expected that the Machine-Gun Platoon, of 22 men, under Lieutenant Robert T. Phinney, will practice.

Lieutenant S. A. Gibson arrived Sunday from West Point and he has been assigned to Company I, Twenty-first Infantry. Lieutenant P. W. Newkard, who came on Tuesday, was assigned to Company K.

The children of the post started to school Monday, several of them for the first time entering a public school-room. A Government bus drives up and down officers' row and takes the children to and from the schools in Vancouver, even taking them home for lunch. There is no school in the post for children, so they are sent to the nearest public school.

Major and Mrs. Jere B. Clayton have returned from an automobile trip through Central Oregon.

Captain Brooke, of the Thirtieth Infantry, on Thursday completed taking his examinations for promotion to the rank of Major. The examining board included George C. Smith, Major for Samuel E. Smiley and Major Wilson Chase.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK
Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Graham celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage on Thursday evening at their home at a large reception at their home on Natilla street. The occasion was made pleasant by the reunion of many old friends who called to extend wishes and congratulations to the couple.

The rooms were decorated effectively with palms and white flowers and Mrs. Graham received in a handsome white charmeuse gown, which was elaborated with point lace. The table was presided over by Mrs. P. J. Cronin. Mrs. F. Sullivan, Mrs. William Jessop and Mrs. F. A. Ball. Mrs. Cronin wore a handsome gown of black lace over Mrs. Sullivan wore a gown in Chantilly lace draped over white satin. Mrs. Jessop was attired in gray charmeuse trimmed with black lace and Mrs. Ball wore royal blue silk.

The punchbowl was presided over by Miss Margaret Fallon, who was attractive in white crepe with drapes of black and white chiffon. Assistance about the rooms were Miss Dorothy Graham, the pretty young daughter of the household, and Mrs. Graham's four nieces, the Misses Gladys, Marion, Grace and Harriet Connolly, each of whom wore dainty girlish French frocks.

Presents of silver, tokens of the love and esteem of friends and numerous letters and telegrams of congratulation were received by Mr. and Mrs. Graham.

Gordon Granger Woman's Relief Corps was entertained at the home of Mrs. Anna Bernard, 1198 Albina avenue, last Friday. Mrs. Bernard was assisted by Mrs. Edith Owen, Mrs. Lizzie Conaway, Mrs. L. A. Foster, Mrs. C. M. J. Mrs. George Low, Mrs. Larsen. The guests were entertained by readings by little Miss Francisca Roth, after which a fine musical program was given which Gordon Granger is becoming famous. Those present were: Mrs. Gano, Mrs. Letts, Mrs. S. Newell, Miss Ada Murphy, Mrs. A. J. Smith, Mrs. J. Gregory, Mrs. A. I. Thornton, Miss Jessie Gemmill, Mrs. Cullen, Mrs. J. H. Dingus, Mrs. C. S. ran, Judge McDevitt, E. Covey, W. L. McCullen, J. Downing and John Storan.
Gordon Granger Relief Corps, No. 42, gave a house-warming to Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Thornton, who have just completed their handsome new residence. Mrs. Thornton has been the corps musician for a number of years. The old-fashioned dances were enjoyed until midnight, when supper was served.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Thornton's hospitality were: Mrs. Edith Owen, the guest of honor, who is soon to leave for Butte, Mont., where she expects to make her future home; Mrs. Rosella Haviland and O. W. Case, Mrs. Cullins, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Van Horne, Mrs. Fred Dalton, Mrs. C. E. Millar, of Seattle, Dr. J. E. Hall, medical director of the Department of Oregon; Judge T. B. McDevitt, past department commander of Oregon; J. W. Curran, past department chief of staff; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Dingus, Mrs. John Murrill.

Mrs. Jennie Beamer, of 897 East Burnside street, entertained Peter A. Porter Circle No. 25, G. A. R., at her home Wednesday. Refreshments were served, followed by a short programme, consisting of vocal solos, recitations and an interesting talk given by Colonel Reeves, of Nevada.

For the first time this season the members of St. Andrew's Society of Oregon met together at an informal supper at the Commercial Club last Wednesday night and passed several hours in jovial fellowship. Hastening to the rendition of stories, Scotch songs, etc., and to speeches which had as their text the need of securing many new members, so that the increased revenue could be used in works of benevolence among distressed and worthy Scotchmen. It was reported that so many calls have been made on the society for aid lately that the revenues derived from membership fees have been taxed. A campaign has been started to double the membership, and suggestions made that a Scots building be erected in this city to house the Scotch societies and save money now paid for hall rent.

SALEM, Oct. 20. (Special.)—Mrs. Edmund F. Carleton, wife of the assistant superintendent of public instruction, was a charming hostess Thursday when she entertained at luncheon in honor of Mrs. J. A. Churchill, wife of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. Mrs. Carleton's home, on Union street, was decorated beautifully with dahlias and asters in brilliant reds and yellows, and the place cards were ornamented with Autumn leaves. Among the guests were: Mrs. Gaylord H. Patterson, Mrs. Homer Van Winkle, Mrs. E. O. Slick, Mrs. J. C. Moreland, Mrs. Roy Burns, Mrs. Frank Spencer and Mrs. Churchill.

Miss Emma Kerble gave a party in honor of her 12th birthday, at her home, September 19. The guests were the Misses Gladys Ellsworth, Baby Violet, Helen Haer, Annette Byford, Marjorie Haar, Kathryn Easterday, Victor Edward, Leonard Greaser, Russell Ellsworth and Homer Bidwell.

On Monday evening the Waverly-Richmond Literary Club held the first meeting of the season at the home of its president, Miss Edith Youngkrantz, 1915 Brooklyn street. This is the third year of the club's existence, and the 19 members present seemed more enthusiastic than ever to make this year's work especially interesting as well as instructive. It was decided to devote the first few months to the study of current events, before taking up one of the classics. Miss Carol Mitchell will entertain the club at her home, 532 East Thirty-seventh street, September 29.

The annual business meeting of the Portland Heights Club was held Friday evening at the clubhouse and the election of officers took place. After the reports of the retiring officers were
