BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 11.—(Special).—Playing rough, bruising, obstreperous football, the Oregon Aggies held the ravaging Multnomah Club, of Portland, to a 7 to 7 tie score today on the muddy ball park gridiron.

Dr. Stewart's collegians showed a surprising improvement in form over last Saturday, when the club won 8-6. In fact, the Corvallis lads clearly outplayed their beefier opponents. The first half today ended 0-0, but the edge was all with the Aggies. Once they worked the ball to the club's five-yard line by two forward passes, Blackwell to Abraham, and a 25-yard run by Hayes, here the winners "M" held. The Aggies resumed their offensive tactics in the second half and scored soon after when Anderson recovered a fumble on Multnomah's 20-yard line. Abraham carried the ball over on a 15-yard buck through tight tackle.

Rupert Recovers Fumble. A fumble by Ira Blackwell of the Aggies, presented the clubbers with their toughest early in the fourth quarter. Rupert recovered the leather on the 15-yard line and Keck tried for two placements, but failed owing to the heavy ball. Twice the Aggies kicked out, Keck returning magnificently. Then line bucks, in which Rodes was the prime figure, carried it over. Rodes scored the touchdown and Keck kicked goal by the narrow margin. The ball hit the south goalpost, but bounced between the perpendicular sticks.

The Aggies came back for a time immediately following the Multnomah score. After forcing the visitors to score three downs after the kickoff, O. A. C. pinned the clever forward pass, Blackwell to Abraham, for 20 yards. Following this successful toss Blackwell tried there more. The first of these failed, the second gained a few feet for the Aggies and the third was blocked by Phipps and, rolling 20 yards down the field, was recovered by the same player. The game ended with the ball in Multnomah's possession, on the orange and black 40-yard line.

Hayes and Abraham Star. The game was featured by the excellent offensive and defensive work of Hayes and Abraham on the part of the collegians and by that of Keck and McRae for the clubmen. The two O. A. C. stars are whose whose work branded them as comers. On the line honors were even between Cherry, Bailey, Rupert and O'Rourke, of the club ranks, and Christian, Anderson and Hofer, of Stewart's cohorts.

The O. A. C. team brought forth much favorable comment by its work today. Everett May, manager and acting captain of the Aggies, said, after the game: "In my opinion, the O. A. C. eleven was three times as strong today as it was a week ago; with Captain Shaw back in the game next week I believe that we will be heard from in conference circles."

That Dr. Stewart wanted today's game and put forth his entire strength was evident from his tactics in the second half, when he sent in substitute after substitute, and attempted every formation known to the game in an effort to stop the club advance. Without an alibi in the shape of a hospital list, the Corvallis coach put forth his best. Whether or not the team which can hold Multnomah to a tie score will win conference games will appear in the next few weeks. Stewart's direct-pass formation, which dispenses with the quarterback, worked well today. The lineup:

Multnomah	Position	O. A. C.

Hunters' Check is Furnished. When President Wilson signed the Federal game laws it became unlawful to hunt duck before sunrise or after sunset. The hunters have been making it a plea that they did not know when the sun rose or set.

To avoid dispute, State Game Warden Finley has issued the following table which will be recognized by wardens as the official time, the schedule being made out for weeks. It follows:

TWO STARS OF OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE FOOTBALL TEAM.

DOBIE'S TEAM WINS

Washington Beats Navy-Yard Eleven, 23 to 3.

VARSITY FUMBLES BADLY

Seattle Shows Lack of Team Work and Weakness on Line—Rieber of Bremerton Is Carried From Field in Paralyzed Condition.

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Seattle, Oct. 11.—(Special).—Although Washington defeated the All-Navy team of Bremerton today by a score of 23 to 3, it was not until the advanced stages of the second period that Washington was able to score on the tarts this afternoon.

The Navy boys scored the first touchdown 10 minutes after the whistle blew. The score was made on a bad fumble. In the third period Young, for the varsity, kicked a pretty drop from the 25-yard line. The varsity scored twice in the fourth period.

The game was ragged in many respects. Washington fumbled at critical points. Three times the tarts held the varsity on the two-yard line for no touchdown. The varsity made a great part of its ground by spurts from Miller, Shiel and Jacquet.

Washington still lacks machine work. The line is weak, as evidenced by the repeated gains by the Navy boys through the center of the varsity. Rieber for the Navy was carried off the field in a paralyzed condition. Washington succeeded in the forward pass twice out of four attempts.

Corvallis High 30, Lebanon 0. LEBANON, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special).—The Corvallis High School football team defeated the Lebanon High today. In the second half the locals held the visitors to no score and made yardage several times and once threatened the goal of the Corvallis lads.

Ashland High Beats Alumni. ASHLAND, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special).—The initial football game of the season was played here this afternoon between the high school and the alumni members of that body. Score 6 to 2 in favor of the high school.

Pacific Northwest Football Results. Multnomah Club 7, Oregon Aggies 7. University of Washington 23, Bremerton Navy All-Stars 7. Washington State College 34, Montana 8.
