OREGON SMOTHERS BEEFY NAVY TEAM

Bremerton Tars Score on Fluke in First Quarter, but in Next Eugene Makes 36.

PORTLAND TRIO ARE STARS

Parsons and Malarkey Play Great Smashing Game and Cornell Makes Bensational Run-Eleven Is Yet Unpolished.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Referee Oregon vs. Navy Game. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Under a mldsumfavor, but then superior condition and team work began to tell. Coach Berdek's fighters inaugurated their scoring rampage early in the sec-ond period, and when the whistle blew at the close of this 15-minutes period, Oregon had amassed a total of 36 points. In the fourth quarter Bezdek hustled in his entire second string and the reruits more than held their own against the fatigued Navy huskies.

Parsons and Malarkey Star. Parsons and Malarkey, former Port land interscholastic favorites, did mos of the ground gaining for Oregon, but little Anson Cornell startled the enthusiasts on two or three occasions by wonderful open-field returns. The lit-tle Portland demon negotiated one 80-yard run, being cheated out of a touchdown by a meager yard. Cornell also reeled off 45 and 65-yard runs. Beckett once smashed 35 yards through tackle and Bradshaw 45 around left end. While the total score collected off the Bremerton boys is much more impressive than the tallies registered either by Washington or Pullman, Coaches Bezdek and Hayward are mildly satisfied, rather than highly exuberant, Oregon lacked polish, but Bezdek has a powerful line, averaging around 185 pounds, and it seems wonderfully well balanced. His backfield is light, par-ticularly with Bryant on the hospital list, but the secondary lads have 100 per cent more pepper and dash than shown at this stage last Fall.

Snilors Score on Fluke. Concerning details, the bluejackets scored their touchdown after less than one minute of play. Young, the Navy left end, knocked an embryonic forward

The collegians rallied, however, un-der Bradshaw's exhortations and then was begun the irresistible march to-ward the Davy Jones goal line that ended only when the veterans were yanked to the sidelines, After steady gains by Cornell, Parsons and Malarkey. Parsons carried the points. Before the half closed, Parsons | fensive was brilliant. had contributed two additional touch-downs, Malarkey two, for a total of 36 to 6, with the ball in Oregon's possession on the seafarers' three-yard line ready for another score.

Bezdek jerked Parsons before the second half, substituting Normandin.

Turs Rolly in Third Quarter. During the third quarter the tars made their most dangerous rally into Oregon territory after a recovered punt had given them the ball on Oregon's 36-vard line. A forward pass to Sloane netted ten yards and a penalty at Ore-gon's expense placed the ball in the seven-yard line. In three plays, how-ever, Bremerton gained only three yards and with the ball on the fouryard line, Oregon broke up a fake place kick and Fenton punted out of dan-ger. Fenton's punting all through the game was great.

Cornell now pulled off a 30-yard run, being tackled a yard from the line by Sloane. Normandin was shoved across for the last touchdown.

Whatever freak play enlivened the matinee was sprung by the Bremerton team. The visitors tried several shifts and spreads, but they were not productive of yardage. Sloane and Reed starred for the sailors. With envoys from Moscow and Corvallis on the sidelines, Bezdek had instructed his team to play primer football and they adhered to the letter.
