HARRIMAN MEN EYE BEAR; WHY? ASKED

Union Pacific Directors Visit Steamer at Wharf, Considering Traffic.

OFFICERS' REPORTS ASKED

Fanatic Competition With Hill Line Next Year Thought Steamer of Corporation to Engineer-Manager Ignored by Party.

Preliminary is attached to the visit gentleman morning of E. L. Waldo, president of Hill Line, and W. A. Harriman, one of the directors, to the pier investigating possibilities for the Hill Line.

Harriman was also at the wharf but was not visible until Waldo had made the first contact with the steamer. Harriman was seen in the company of several people who were also making inquiries.
