

PHOTOGRAPHS OF PLAY IN YESTERDAY'S GREAT FOOTBALL GAME AT ALBANY.

1-PARSONS MAKING RUN WITH THE BALL. 2-CORNELL RUNNING BACK PUNT. 3-LIVELY MIX IN PLAY. 4-FAIR ROOTERS.

LINCOLN USES, 6-7, TO SPOKANE TEAM

Portland Boys Spring Surprise by Snappy Play With North Central High.

GAME LIVELY THROUGHOUT

Groce Brothers, Schaufler and Newman Star Performers for Visitors.

Big Crowd Cheers Lads at All Stages of Contest.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Lincoln High School of Portland surprised all followers of football today by giving North Central High, of Spokane, one of the hardest battles of the team's history at Recreation Park.

North Central was a trifle lighter than Lincoln, but started off early in the game with spectacular playing, using the forward pass time and again on several occasions to good advantage.

In the next quarter the tables were turned, Lincoln High keeping the ball in the Spokane lads' territory.

In the early part of the fourth quarter, with the ball near the center of the field, Briley, of North Central, kicked the punt, but Tammensee, playing in the back field, muffed the ball.

Hanley, North Central's right end, recovered the ball and ran 30 yards for a touchdown, tying the score.

Briley, Hanley, Abraham and Skadan divided the honors for North Central, and the Groce brothers, Schaufler and Newman were the stellar performers for the visitors.

Score—7 to 6 in favor of Spokane.

The lineup: Lincoln High. Position. North Central. ... Groce, L. H. B. ... Hanley, R. E. ... Newman, J. H. ...

CONTEST NEARS RIOT STAGE

Cottage Grove Gets Decision Over Corvallis in Hot Game.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The football game Friday between Cottage Grove and Corvallis, on the local grounds, was fast and hotly contested, almost a riot when the umpire from Corvallis declared the score a tie after Cottage Grove had in the last minute of the game made one of the prettiest plays ever seen on a gridiron.

The play was a forward pass to Brumbaugh, who, well protected by the lines, made a touchdown and carried the ball through for a touchdown.

The teams were pretty evenly divided, there being but a few points difference in the aggregate yardage.

Cottage Grove has not lost a game this season and claims the championship of the valley.

Members of the team Friday were: Lebow, Hall, Brumbaugh, Smith, Martin, Cellars, Earl, Matthews, Fulmer, S. and E. Dameswood.

JUNIORS SPRING SURPRISE

Aggie Freshmen, Doped to Win, Are Played to Standstill.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The junior football team again sprung a surprise in the final game of the intercollegiate series played here yesterday.

The freshmen were doped to win with ease yesterday, and although they showed flashes of excellent form, their work was not consistent.

CHEMAWA INDIANS WIN, 91-0

Pacific College Team Falls Before Fast Aggregation.

CHEMAWA, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The Chemawa Indians defeated Pacific College this afternoon by a score of 91 to 0. The exuberant Chemawa team was the yardage made by Walker, who tore great gaps in the Quaker line, and Scowles, who today scored the ball on the kick-off, ran 30 yards down the field.

Walker, Scowles, Lane, Downing and Faust played fine ball and were easily stars for the Indian team.

Toppish Wins, 70-20

TOPPENISH, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Toppish defeated the Ellettsburg High School this afternoon, 70 to 20, in the second clash this season.

Olympia Swamps Montesano.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Olympia High school swamped the Montesano team today, scoring 71 touchdowns, making the score 71 to 0.

FRONT TOSSES POOR

Teams Are Not Proficient in Forward Pass Game.

"U" WINS NINE PENALTIES

Rough Playing Costs Captain Bradshaw Place in Game—Fenton Is Beaten at Punting Contest by Aggie's Blackwell.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Neither of the teams engaging in the O. A. C.—Oregon game here showed a large amount of proficiency at the forward pass.

The Aggie made only three tries, none of which were successful. Twice the ball was shot away in good shape by the Aggies, and only the failure on the part of Huntley and Abraham to hold to the ball after they had it almost in their arms kept Stewart's boys from making good gains with the forward pass.

Five penalties, amounting to 40 yards, were inflicted on the university eleven by the officials, the common offenses being holding and offside play.

Blackwell outplayed Fenton, but two mediocre boots by Rasmussen and Larsen brought the Beaver average down below that of the university.

Blackwell kicked off to Abraham, who returned the ball 10 yards. Laythe, who had been hurt in the first quarter, was replaced by Smythe, of Burns.

On its own 35-yard line the Aggie team held, taking the ball after Cornell kicked off to Cook, who returned the ball 10 yards, depositing it on the 25-yard line.

Without attempting a play, Fenton went back to punt and sent the ball 40 yards to Blackwell. O. A. C. then started down the field, Robertson and Abraham piercing the green line for distance.

A fumble gave Oregon the ball on the 45-yard line. Malarkey and Bryant made 10 yards in two bucks, but the Beaver line held and Fenton booted.

Blackwell punted and Bradshaw was put out for roughing. An intercepted forward pass gave O. A. C. the ball on the Oregon 20-yard line.

PARSONS MAKING RUN WITH THE BALL

CORNELL RUNNING BACK PUNT

LIVELY MIX IN PLAY

FAIR ROOTERS

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Seven thousand people from all parts of the Willamette Valley saw the great 10-to-10 tie battle between the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College here today.

They saw not only a brilliant football game in doubt until the final whistle blew, but they saw cheering and rooting never surpassed in Oregon. For in the closing minutes of the game, when Oregon's great rally was in progress, the rooters of both schools were never silent for a second and they did not let the excitement of the closing minutes break their ranks.

The University students occupied the south bleachers, while the Agricultural College rooters were ranged along the bleachers at the north side of the field.

Probably the score does not represent the relative strength of the two teams, though the Whitmanites utterly defeated the Aggie team.

Washington State College's score was earned by touchdowns by Smith, Coulter and Heg, two goals by Coulter and a field goal for 3 by Moss.

The game was remarkably free from rough work or injuries.

Stewart's center, Ed Anderson, is a heady and aggressive player.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

PULLMAN GAME IS HARD

WHITMAN LONES 25-0 IN GAMEY STRUGGLE

Missionaries, Outplayed in Line, Come Near Scoring Several Times

ALBANY, Wash., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Credit belongs to the Whitman Missionaries for having played on Rogers Field today the shrewdest, craftiest, most gingerly game seen locally in many a day.

Probably the score does not represent the relative strength of the two teams, though the Whitmanites utterly defeated the Aggie team.

Washington State College's score was earned by touchdowns by Smith, Coulter and Heg, two goals by Coulter and a field goal for 3 by Moss.

The game was remarkably free from rough work or injuries.

Stewart's center, Ed Anderson, is a heady and aggressive player.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

ABRAHAM'S PLUNGING FEATURE

Coach Doble Watches Contest From Seat in Bleachers

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—The line-plunging of Abraham, the O. A. C. freshman fullback, was a feature of the game.

Abraham's plunging was a feature of the game. He made a number of plunges, but managed to recover most of them.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

ROOTERS FORGET RIVALRY

None of Old Bitterness Displayed in Demonstration—Bands From Eugene and Corvallis Head Large Student Delegations.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Seven thousand people from all parts of the Willamette Valley saw the great 10-to-10 tie battle between the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College here today.

They saw not only a brilliant football game in doubt until the final whistle blew, but they saw cheering and rooting never surpassed in Oregon.

The University students occupied the south bleachers, while the Agricultural College rooters were ranged along the bleachers at the north side of the field.

Probably the score does not represent the relative strength of the two teams, though the Whitmanites utterly defeated the Aggie team.

Washington State College's score was earned by touchdowns by Smith, Coulter and Heg, two goals by Coulter and a field goal for 3 by Moss.

The game was remarkably free from rough work or injuries.

Stewart's center, Ed Anderson, is a heady and aggressive player.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

ROOTERS FORGET RIVALRY

None of Old Bitterness Displayed in Demonstration—Bands From Eugene and Corvallis Head Large Student Delegations.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—Seven thousand people from all parts of the Willamette Valley saw the great 10-to-10 tie battle between the University of Oregon and Oregon Agricultural College here today.

They saw not only a brilliant football game in doubt until the final whistle blew, but they saw cheering and rooting never surpassed in Oregon.

The University students occupied the south bleachers, while the Agricultural College rooters were ranged along the bleachers at the north side of the field.

Probably the score does not represent the relative strength of the two teams, though the Whitmanites utterly defeated the Aggie team.

Washington State College's score was earned by touchdowns by Smith, Coulter and Heg, two goals by Coulter and a field goal for 3 by Moss.

The game was remarkably free from rough work or injuries.

Stewart's center, Ed Anderson, is a heady and aggressive player.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.

Dr. Sweetland, of Willamette, was in the grandstand. He reaffirmed his intention of forcing Washington University into a game with his Methodists in case Oregon fails to stop Dodge's terrors in Portland next Saturday.

Considerable money changed hands as a result of the game. The bets in most cases were that Oregon would win by better than 12 points.