Cook Stove $11.85

Just the Stove for a small home where a range is too expensive or large to consider at the present time. Does perfect baking and has a good-sized oven and a full-sized firebox. An economical user of fuel. Two sizes, No. 8, as shown here. A field goal was the only hope, and Captain Baker, standing 42 yards from the Yale goal posts, lifted the ball with a mighty swing of his foot up and over the bar for the three points needed to even the score. It was a great kick, and the name of the 1913 Princeton captain will go down in football history with glory. Thirty-five kicks netted Yale 124 yards, against 1188 yards for Princeton in 33 kicks.

Mattresses, $8.95

YALE GETS 3-3 TIE AGAINST PRINCETON

Two Long-Distance Goals From Field Only Scores in Punt Duel.

ELI'S GENERALSHIP POOR

Moral Victory, Say Adherents of Blue—Bad Judgment in Critical Times, Declare Veterans. Tigers 10-to-7 Favorites.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 15.—The Yale football team held Princeton, 10 to 7 favorites, to a tie score game at 3 to 3 in the 39th annual contest here today. Guernsey, for Yale, kicked a field goal in the second period of play, and Captain Hobery Baker tied the score for Princeton with a similar but more spectacular feat in the third quarter.

The tie score does not show the superiority which existed in favor of the blue. The blue was better than the orange and black in both offensive and defensive play. Yale adherents say tonight that holding the Tigers to a tie game was more a victory for the blue, but the veterans shake their heads. They hold that an actual and not moral victory should have been won by Yale but for poor generalship and judgment in critical periods.

The game early developed into a punting duel, with Law, of Princeton, directed against Knowles, for Yale, and during the first period the ball was kept sailing back and forth with little advantage one way or the other.

Yale refused to kick. In the second quarter, with the ball in Princeton's possession on the Tigers' 25-yard line, Law punted to midfield, but illegal tackling by the Tigers cost them 15 yards. From Princeton's 22-yard line Yale started a rushing game that carried the ball to the Tigers' 22-yard mark. Beyond this point the Princeton could not advance, and Guernsey, the Yale drop-kicker, was sent in, replacing Knowles, and given a chance for a field goal. Standing on Princeton's 31-yard line, he drove the ball over the bar, and the Yale stands, seeing victory in sight, cheered and sang with increased vigor.

They failed to consider the ability of Captain Baker as a goal-kicker, however, and in the third period the Princeton leader saved his team from defeat by duplicating, under more difficult conditions, the field goal scored by Guernsey.

Princeton Mixes Tactics.

Following an exchange of punts, Baker made a fair catch in midfield. From scrimmage Princeton, using a mixture of old and new football, advanced the ball to Yale's 35-yard line. There the blue afterwards stiffened and checked the Tiger rushes.

A field goal was the only hope, and Captain Baker, standing 42 yards from the Yale goal posts, lifted the ball with a mighty swing of his foot up and over the bar for the three points needed to even the score. It was a great kick, and the name of the 1913 Princeton captain will go down in football history with glory. Thirty-five kicks netted Yale 124 yards, against 1188 yards for Princeton in 33 kicks.

The Tigers tried three forward passes, two of which were incompletes and one intercepted, while Yale's only attempt in this respect went for naught because of a fumble.

Lineup and Summary:

BROWN DOWNED BY HARVARD

Crimson's Readjusted Team Runs Up Score of 37 to 0.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 15.—The Harvard football team, readjusted in preparation for the game with Yale, was tried out against Brown today and found in fine working order. The Crimson totaled 37 points to 0.

Harvard practically brought three elevens into play and the first string players, Logan, O'Brien and Trumbull, who went to New Haven with Coach Huntington to watch Yale in action against Princeton, were not missed.

DARTMOUTH LOSES TO INDIANS

Carlisle Overwhelms Team Reputed Best in East by 35-to-10 Score.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The Dartmouth football team, hitherto regarded by many as the best eleven in the East, was beaten today by the Carlisle Indians. The score, 35 to 10, was even more one-sided than the figures indicate, for Carlisle's points were all due to straight football. Dartmouth scored

AGGIES WIN 10 TO 2 OVER BENDER TEAM

Washington State Defeated in Rough, Fierce Contest at Corvallis.

FORWARD PASS WORKED

Visitors Penalized Heavily for Returning Quarterback to Game Illegally—Stewarts' Backfield Responsible for Victory.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Playing gilt-edged football throughout the Army eleven had no trouble in defeating Villanova today by 55 to 0. The Cadets showed much improvement in offensive tactics.

Right End Merrillat, who played a star game, twice scored touchdowns on long forward passes. Right Halfback Hobbs' fine running with the ball and spectacular kicking was a big factor in the Army's victory. Hobbs once intercepted forward pass and ran 40 yards for a touchdown.

Villanova gave the Army a scare in the first quarter when the ball rested on the Cadets' five-yard line after a series of well-executed forward passes. The visitors, however, found the Army's line too much for them at this point, and Reap's attempt at a field goal went wild. The Army lost much ground through penalties for off-side and holding.

MICHIGAN DEFEATS QUAKERS

Score of 13 to 0 Distinct Victory for Sledgehammer Football.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 15.—Using the same line of attack that crushed Syracuse, the football 11 of the University of Michigan defeated Pennsylvania today 13 to 0. Michigan simply battered the defense of the Eastern team to pieces. At no time was Pennsylvania dangerous.

Pennsylvania's attack was erroneous and her defense was mediocre. Now and then at wide intervals one of Brooke's men skirted a Michigan end for six or seven yards gain.

IDAHO VANQUISHES WHITMAN

Gem State Varsity Wins Gr. Inter. Contest, 29 to 3.

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—In a game that was decidedly Idaho's from the first whistle to last, Whitman was defeated on Varsity Field this afternoon.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Or., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—In a rough, fiercely contested game played on the Oregon Agricultural College campus today, Dr. Stewart's Aggies outclassed the Washington State College 11, winning by a score of 10 to 2. The game was marked by the smashing attack of the Aggie backs and by the dexterous use of the forward pass by Bender's hukies.

O. A. C. scored the first touchdown five minutes after the game began, the heavy Aggie backfield smashing down the field on line bucks and short end runs. Abraham made the touchdown, and Blackwell kicked goal. In the second quarter the visitors began their forward pass tactics, rushing the ball to the 18-yard line, where Abraham intercepted a pass. Blackwell dropped back to punt, but Anderson's pass was wild, and the ball rolled over the goal line, Blackwell recovering. This safety gave the Washington team two points. During the remainder of the first half Bender's men trusted entirely to forward pass and had advanced the ball to the O. A. C.'s five-yard line when time was called.

In the third quarter Referee Borleske penalized the Staters half the distance to the goal after Bender had returned Quarterback Smith to the game illegally. A minute later Blackwell made a place kick from the 20-yard line, ending the scoring for the day. In the last quarter Corvallis put up a great exhibition, the game ending with the oval in the possession of the Aggies on the Washington three-yard line. Abraham and May shone for O. A. C. while Coulter, Dietz and Smith starred for the visitors.

PACIFIC DEFEATS ALBANY

Superiority in Goal Kicking Wins for Visiting Team by One Point.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 15.—(Special.)—With the score 19 to 0 against them at the end of the first half, Pacific University scored three touchdowns in the last half and notched out a 29 to 3 victory over Albany College in a sensational game here this afternoon.

Each team scored three touchdowns in the contest, but Pacific kicked two goals, while Albany negotiated only one.

Both teams used the forward pass successfully for big gains and the contest was full of startling plays. The Presbyterians excelled in every department of the game in the first half, but the Congregationalists rallied in the second half and hurled accurate passes for long gains.

Pacific's first score came on the first play of the game. Tefft received a forward pass and ran 65 yards for a touchdown. Albany scored again in the first quarter, French carrying the ball over after the collegians had carried it down the field by straight football. In the second quarter Albany swept down the field on forward passes and cross bucks and Hodge scored a third touchdown. Again in this quarter, Albany crossed the Pacific goal line when Acheson intercepted a Pacific forward pass and ran 60 yards to the goal, but the score was not allowed for holding in the Albany interference.

Pacific's first score came in the third quarter when after several successful passes the ball was hurled over the Albany line to Ireland for a touchdown. Time and again Pacific negotiated successfully passes which Albany seemed unable to break up and Turner twice crossed the Albany goal on line bucks after forward passes had placed the ball in striking distance.

AGGIE FRESHMEN BEAT INDIANS

Chemawas, Outweighed 10 Pounds in the Man, Lose, 34 to 3.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—In a fast preliminary to the Washington State College game today the Oregon Agricultural College freshmen defeated the Chemawa Indians by a score of 34 to 3. The Indians were outclassed throughout, the Rooks piercing their line and skirting their ends for big gains. The Chemawa score was registered in the first period when Captain Downie drop-kicked a goal from the 35-yard line.

Camp and Larsen scored touchdowns in the first quarter, camp in the second and Beckett and Wilson in the fourth. Camp, Robinson, Wilson, Pease, Larsen, Stidd and Beckett played good ball for Corvallis.

Lewis was injured early in the game and forced to retire. For the Indians Downie, quarterback, and Scowille, fullback, were stars. The visitors were outweighed ten pounds to the man.
