SOCIETY FOLK TO BE SEEN IN SPECTACULAR "JAPPYLAND"

With the season of the social performances, the dance and benefit operations which are so much a part of the social life of the city, the arrangement of the forthcoming shows should be in hand. The Armory, the location of the wondrous productions, is already the scene of activity to the extent of the admission of the public and the interviews of the performers. The dance opera, which is to be presented at the Armory on Thursday night in an early evening, is a veritable spectacle, and the performance will be the joy of the spectators. The air will be filled with the strains of the musical numbers, and the voices of the choruses and soloists will be heard from the stage. The splendid sets, the colorful costumes, and the brilliant lights will make the performance a delight to the eyes and ears of the audience.

The Armory, with its fine acoustics and its spacious floor, is the ideal place for the presentation of such an opera. The performers, who are accustomed to the demands of the stage, will give a splendid performance, and the audience will be thoroughly entertained.
