PUPILS HEAR HARRINGTON

Agricultural College Worker Visits Schools Near Cottage Grove. COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—L. D. Harrington, industrial field worker for the Oregon Agricultural College, visited all the schools of Supervisor Stahlman's district

Thursday and Friday of last week. Mr. Harrington gave talks to the boys and girls, in which he advised them to do well the things that come to hand. A successful farmer, Mr. Harrington said, is way ahead of a struggling corner grocer or physician in the city. "Knows a successful grocer or lawyer better than a farmer who does not know how to make his soil produce,

ALBANY BABY AWARD MADE

Dudley Brattin Given Score of 99 in Eugenic Contest. ALBANY, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Dudley Brattin, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Brattin, of this city, won first prize

as the nearest perfect baby at the Eugenics Baby Show held here recently in connection with Albany's annual Chrysanthemum Fair. The babies were examined and measured at the show, and the figures then taken—sent to the Oregon Agricultural College. The percentages announced by the judges were received here today. The competition was for babies between the ages of one and three years. Twenty babies were examined. The five highest awards follow: Dudley Brattin, 99 per cent; Carlton Sox, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sox, 98.5 per cent; Richard P. Monson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Monson, 98.5 per cent; James R. Wilkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Wilkins, 98 per cent; Mary K. Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Stewart, 97.75 per cent.

JUSTICES ATTEND FUNERAL

Supreme Court Members Honor Old-Time Negro Messengers. WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Five members of the United States Supreme Court, including Chief Justice White, crowded into a humble little home in Washington today to attend the funeral of Archie Lewis, the negro messenger, who had taken care of their robes since they were elevated to the bench. Lewis was serving the court when three of them, Justices Day, Vandevanter and Lamar, were born, and before Chief Justice White and Justice Holmes had started to school.
