

SOCIETY EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK

CONTINUED FROM PAGE THREE.

pointsettias and a profusion of chrysanthemums. Dinner was served, and those enjoying the hospitality included Captain and Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., Captain Van Deman, Miss Page, Lieutenant and Mrs. Talbot, Lieutenant and Mrs. Boswell, Lieutenant and Mrs. Riley and Lieutenant and Mrs. Parker, all of the post, and Miss Cooper, of Independence, Or. Mrs. Sears and Mrs. Waring are sisters.

Captain and Mrs. Parker entertained informally a few friends at their quarters Wednesday evening, and later refreshments were served.

Mrs. George R. Young on Friday afternoon entertained two tables at a bridge informally. Mrs. William Chase won first prize, and Mrs. Ham second.

Mrs. Young and Mrs. J. F. Morrison had charge of selling the Red Cross seals in the post this year, and sold $22 worth, the share to be disposed of in the garrison.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Hartz entertained at dinner Wednesday evening, covers being laid for 12. Chrysanthemums and yellow were carried out, chrysanthemums being used. Those enjoying the hospitality at the Hartz quarters were Major and Mrs. Castner, Captain and Mrs. John H. Page, Jr., Lieutenant and Mrs. James M. Hobson, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gill, Lieutenant and Mrs. Gibson and Miss Margery Page.

Lieutenant Hartz has been granted a leave of absence for 15 days, and with Mrs. Hartz and their two daughters, he will leave the post Monday for San Jose, Cal., to pass the Christmas holidays at the home of Mrs. Hartz' mother, Mrs. C. H. Granger, who is situated here during the summer. The Lieutenant will return January 5, but Mrs. Hartz and children will not return before the last of January.

General and Mrs. John H. Page, Sr., who left recently for California to pass the winter, write their son, Captain Page, that they are having a delightful time.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Women's Society of the White Temple gave a Christmas programme in the lecture-room of the Temple on Wednesday evening. The affair was in charge of the social committee, of which Mrs. O. P. M. Jamison is chairman. The other members of the committee are Mrs. David Fenwick, Mrs. Leabo and Mrs. W. H. Signer. The programme included Oscar Wilde's "Prisoner of Love," by Miss Ada Tyndal with piano accompaniment by Mrs. J. G. Frankel; "The Otherwise Man," by Van Dyck, and the piece de resistance of the entertainment was a singing by Rev. Frank Gorman. His numbers were "Comfort Ye My People" and "There is a Green Hill," from "The Messiah," "Vandewater's "Night of Nights" and "Open the Gates," from "The Resurrection," accompanied by Miss Elsie Von Blieshoff at the piano.

The room was attractively decked with holiday decorations. Hot Christmas trees, decorated with lights and Oregon grape being effectively arranged in baskets and vases.

A very pretty affair was the afternoon party given by Miss Willa Shepard to announce the engagement of her sister, Miss Nellie Shepard, to Dr. William Stouff.

The guests were received at the door by little Miss Sarah Elizabeth Hollaway, and each one was presented with a large white rose wherein a tiny announcement card was concealed. Miss Mary Wood and Miss Marguerite Palitzsch also assisted the hostess.

The rooms were decorated attractively with chrysanthemums and Oregon grape combined with the color scheme of blue. Cards were the entertainment for the afternoon, after which a collation was served.

The wedding will be an event of the latter part of February and the young couple will continue to make their home in Portland.

Gordon Granger, W. R. C. No. 43, and post gave a surprise party last week to Mr. E. R. Johnson, one of the comrades, the occasion being his 78th birthday. Commander W. H. Murphy presented Mr. Johnson with a gold G. A. R. badge. Lunch was served by the corps women. Those present were: Commander and Mrs. W. H. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tawney, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Corey, H. Doolley, B. Morgan, Mrs. Fred Dalton, Charley Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Barber, Mr. John Murrell, Mrs. E. Owens, Mrs. G. A. Bales, Mrs. Cochran, Rachel Thornton, Virginia Reeks, Fairy Reeks, Mrs. M. Brown, E. Clark, H. J. Higgs and Mrs. L. Winans.

A pleasant surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Peter Oberla, 57 First street, on December 18, which day being the 15th anniversary of their wedding day. An enjoyable evening was passed, music being the feature of the party. Tokens of esteem were presented to the couple and at a late hour a nice supper was served. The following relatives and friends were present: Mr. and Mrs. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. C. Feldmann, Mr. and Mrs. G. Feldmann, Walter Feldmann, Mr. and Mrs. Matone, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kingsley, Mrs. and Mrs. G. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. H. Delmel, Mr. and Mrs. L. Klung, Miss Elaine Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. H. Bakken, Miss Riddler, Mrs. Ernst, Master H. Oberla.

MISS MARGARET MALARKY, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT WAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY.

Patterson winning first prize. After refreshments were served Miss Hagemann was presented with many gifts. The guests were Miss Jessie Hagemann, Miss Ella Newland, Miss Carol Hulbert, Miss Agnes McIntosh, Miss Emily Yaokrow, Miss Gertrude Getty, Miss Connie Walker, Miss Anna Walsh, Miss Mae Hagemann, Miss Mildred Bryan, Mrs. F. C. Hagemann, Mrs. W. E. Bern, Mrs. G. G. Schmidt, Mrs. William Patterson, Mrs. Harold Lange, Mrs. Jesse Rainey.

Miss Gladys Beeson was the hostess at a dinner party given on Wednesday at her home in Irvington. Covers were laid for 17. The rooms were prettily decorated in Oregon grape and red carnations, suggestive of the Christmas season. The evening was spent playing cards, honors falling to Miss Alice Brown and Miss Doris Mae.

Those present were: The Misses Myrtle Beeringer, Pauline Chittenden, Alice Brown, Mabel Smith, Emily Rupert, Winifred Nelson, Maude Miller, Hazel Bradford, Agnes Graves, Theodora Peers, Doris Mae, Rose Kelsindahl, Esther Criddle, Elma Paulsen, Kaitale Stephan, Mrs. Harold Minor and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Young celebrated their silver wedding on December 8 by giving a smart reception to a large number of their friends. It was one of the prettiest affairs of the week; brilliant decorations of ferns, Oregon grape and seasonal blossoms adorned the rooms. An elaborate collation was served, and the guests included: J. J. Burns, Master Robert Burras, Mr. and Mrs. J. Graf, Mr. and Mrs. S. Sloan, of Beaverton, Or.; R. J. Smith, of San Francisco; P. Stark, of Tacoma; A. R. Davis, P. Deines, Ed Deines, Miss Annie Clark, Miss Ruth Conway, of Vancouver; R. C. Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Butler, Mrs. Mercedes Woodworth, Mrs. Ada Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. West, of Salem, Or.; Mrs. N. G. Murray, of The Dalles; Mrs. C. Murray, of Salem, Or.; Mrs. M. Daniels, P. E. Miller, A. M. Ellis and Miss Edna Johnson.

Preceding the dance given by the Mystic Shriners on Wednesday evening at the Scottish Rite Temple, which in itself was a very nice affair, the feature of the evening was the short concert given by the Al Kader Temple Band, Frank Lucas director. The programme follows: "March, 'Lodovska (of Hoffman), Offenbach; waltz, 'Il Bacio' (The Kiss), Arditi; dance, 'In the Shadows,' Fink; American Polka, 'Menciam'; 'Bridal and Butterflies,' Morel.

A surprise party planned in honor of the birthday of Charles Lindbergh by Miss Margaret Chapin and Miss Mabel Korcell given last night at their home. About 25 of their friends met at the home of Mrs. Frederick Brooker on Alameda street and were received by Mrs. Carl Christensen and Miss Grace Brooker.

CASTLE ROCK COUPLE CELEBRATE THEIR 50TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Carnine. Castle Rock, Wash., Dec. 20.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Carnine celebrated their golden wedding at their home in this city recently. They were married at St. Louis, Mo., December 15, 1863. Mr. Carnine is a veteran of the Civil War, having enlisted under the first call, in April, 1861, in the Seventeenth Illinois Infantry. Mr. and Mrs. Carnine and their three oldest children crossed the plains in an emigrant train in the summer of 1875, lived one year at Vancouver and then moved to a farm at Silver Lake, where they lived until the spring of 1903, when they retired from farming and established their home in Castle Rock, where the reunion was held. Their seven children are all grown and married, and all are residents of Western Washington. There are 28 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The four sons—Thomas A. (ex-Sheriff of this county) and wife, of Hoquiam; Charles F. and wife, of Silver Lake; Milo B. and wife, of Edger C. and wife, of Tenney; the three daughters, with their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. J. Tippeny, of Silver Lake; Mr. and Mrs. William F. Walls, of Kelso; Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Graham and Miss Lola V. Graham, Burrell Carnine and Shirley Rae Walls, together with the bride and groom of 50 years ago, comprised the assemblage. Mrs. Carnine is a native of Kentucky and was born September 22, 1844. Mr. Carnine was born in Indiana July 19, 1841.

the leadership of the club's musical director, H. S. Hudd. The patronesses are Mrs. H. F. Wheeler, Mrs. E. F. Michael and Mrs. L. N. Harvey. The committee in charge of arrangements are: Miss Grace Michael, Miss Rose M. Moser, Miss Edith Wheeler, Miss Hazel L. Mann, Miss Verena Blaser, Miss Margaret Harvey, Miss Alice Durban, George Herman, Charles H. Bennett, Arthur H. Steiner, William Bradley, Joseph Roberts, Albert T. Hoppe and Harry Howard. This affair will be strictly invitational.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Donivan entertained informally at cards and dancing Saturday evening. Yuletide colors were used artistically throughout the room. Car honors fell to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pierce. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McFall, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Menefee, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Blasey, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Adrich, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bracher, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Massey, Mrs. Anthony May, Mrs. Nicholas, Miss Monte Maegy, Mrs. M. Brent, F. A. Kribs and C. M. Ferrero.

The annual holiday luncheon of the Portland Pan-Hellenic Society will take place this year at the Oregon Hotel on Tuesday, December 30. In addition to the luncheon, there will be a Greek letter women, there will be in attendance a great many young women from the active chapters at both the Universities of Oregon and Washington. Miss Agnes Beach is president of the local society and the committee in charge of the luncheon is Burton Beach, Frank Knight and Harry M. Hender-shott.

An event anticipated with keen pleasure by the Alton set is the young people's dance, which will be given at the Irvington Club on December 26. The committee consists of Lawrence Porter, Mrs. J. J. Blasey, Malarkey, Robert Stuart, Vance Ferguson, James Cameron, Jr., and Catlin Wolfard. Patronesses for the evening are Mrs. H. P. Palmer, Mrs. H. M. Haller, Mrs. R. J. Stuart and Mrs. George M. Hyland.

A Christmas eve dance to be given by the Myrtle Rose Club at Christensen's Hall next Wednesday evening will be an event of the coming week. The committee in charge will announce their New Year's eve party at Christensen's, Wednesday, December 31, dancing the old year out and the new year in. The tango dance will be introduced.

The University of Oregon chapter and the Portland Alumnae set in Phi Delta Theta will give a banquet Tuesday night in the Tyrolean room of the Oregon Hotel. All Phi Deltas in Portland are invited. The committee in charge, Mrs. W. Waller, an artist, standish, of Portland, and Ira Staggs, of Eugene.

The Decem Girls wish to announce to their many friends that they will open the new year with a dancing party at Christensen's Hall on January 22. A limited number of invitations will be issued and those receiving them will be most heartily welcomed.

The Minuet Club will give two special dancing parties to members and friends on Christmas afternoon and evening. The tango and hesitation waltz will be featured. The dances are to be given at Dreamland Hall.

Gamma Phi Beta Sorority has issued cards for a tea January 2, at the home of Mrs. James George Beach, 1913 Quimby street.

WEDDINGS. Anspach-Willard. Frank Charles Anspach and Miss Myrtle Mae Willard were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hampton officiated. The decorations of the house were very effective, ferns, Oregon grape and yellow roses being used. The bride stood under a bower of ivy and white carnations. The service was preceded by "I Love You Truly," sung by Miss Nina Emken, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Marie Hamilton. Little Edith Hampton carried a basket of white hyacinths and yellow rosebuds. Master Gerald Hampton carried the ring in an Easter lily. The bride was gowned in cream champagne, trimmed with pearls and yellow rosebuds. The bride's bouquet was of white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was attended by the Pattison as bridesmaid, and Miss Gladys Willard, sister of the bride, maid of honor. The bridesmaid wore a gown of apricot crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The maid of honor was gowned in apricot silk poplin and also carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. The Oregon grape and lace and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Anspach left for a short tour of the Puget Sound cities.

Gault-Arnold. Miss Frances Arnold and Victor C. Gault, of Gladstone, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Arnold, on Wednesday, December 19. Rev. W. G. Elliot officiated. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attractive in a gown of ivory tulle and lace and her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses.

Miss Alice Arnold, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Little Mary Arnold, cousin of the bride, carried the

On New Year's night, January 1, the Army will be the scene of one of the most popular affairs of the holiday season, when the Bachelor Buttons Club holds its third annual ball and New Year's party, for which invitations are being sent out this week. All the latest terpsichorean novelties and staples will be danced to the tune of a 20-piece symphony orchestra under the leadership of the club's musical director, H. S. Hudd. The patronesses are Mrs. H. F. Wheeler, Mrs. E. F. Michael and Mrs. L. N. Harvey. The committee in charge of arrangements are: Miss Grace Michael, Miss Rose M. Moser, Miss Edith Wheeler, Miss Hazel L. Mann, Miss Verena Blaser, Miss Margaret Harvey, Miss Alice Durban, George Herman, Charles H. Bennett, Arthur H. Steiner, William Bradley, Joseph Roberts, Albert T. Hoppe and Harry Howard. This affair will be strictly invitational.

Advertisement for Raincoats, Overcoats and Motor Wraps. Features a woman in a raincoat and lists prices: $19.50, $28.35, $35, $38, $45, $48, $65, $28.50, $37.50. Includes 'Bartholomew' and 'Washington at Tenth'.

Advertisement for Cartozian Bros. Oriental Rug Importers. Features a camel illustration and text: 'You cannot afford to buy Oriental Rugs for Gift Purposes or for your home of any quality, size, species or price without first seeing our large and choice collection.'

Advertisement for Clarke's Flowers. Features a woman holding flowers and text: 'Gifts of Real Charm and Distinction. Hundreds of dainty, pleasing gift pieces and art subjects are on display here—and all are marked at ridiculously low prices in order to close them out.'

Advertisement for Hotel Coronado, Coronado Beach, California. Features an illustration of the hotel and text: 'The gay Winter season is in full swing. Golf, Tennis, Surf Bathing, Boating indulged in daily. The famous hotel is already in the midst of its usual brilliant banquets, balls and parties.'

Advertisement for Gill's Copper Plate Engraving. Text: 'Place Your Order Now for Engraved Announcements, Calling Cards, Stationery. GILL'S THE J. K. GILL COMPANY, THIRD AND ALDER STS.'

Large advertisement for K. S. Ervin & Co. Ltd. featuring 'REMARKABLE SALE OF Raincoats, Overcoats and Motor Wraps'. Text: 'The first "Ervin" raincoat sale in thirteen years is a genuine opportunity to secure the finest of Imported Raincoats at prices which will probably not be found again. Every coat bears the "Ervin" label and is true quality in every particular.'

Advertisement for Clarke Bros. Florists. Features a woman with flowers and text: 'Are always appreciated because of the beautiful sentiments they reflect. Nothing is quite so appropriate for a lady as a box of Clarke's Flowers. Free Special Delivery to every part of the city. CLARKE BROS. Florists. Morrison Street, Bet. Fourth and Fifth Streets.'

Advertisement for G. P. Rummelin & Sons. Text: 'FINE FURS FOR XMAS GIFTS. SPECIAL REDUCTION ON ALL STOCK. FUR COATS, FUR SETS, FUR RUGS, FUR ROBES. Send for Catalogue. G. P. RUMMELIN & SONS. 124 Second Street, Between Washington and Alder. Established 1870. Phones Main 491, A 7318.'