NEIL MACKENZIE'S FUNERAL ARRANGED.—Neil Mackenzie died suddenly from heart disease Thursday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. M. Wiest, Knappa, Or. He was 76 years old, was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and came to America when he was 11 years old. Funeral services will be held at 1 o'clock Monday in Dunning & McEntee's Chapel. His son, George, was killed in a logging camp at Clifton two years ago. Mr. Mackenzie had returned with Mr. and Mrs. Wiest from a visit to a neighbor Thursday night. After he had retired and was reading a book in bed, as was his custom, he called for his daughter to give him some medicine. Just as she reached him he dropped dead in her husband's arms. Mr. Mackenzie had traveled all over the world.

BOYS WILL CARRY CHRISTMAS BASKETS.—Twenty boys have volunteered their services to play the role of Santa Claus this week and distribute the baskets which have been provided for the poor families of Portland. All the boys are members of the Portland juvenile government, and more probably will be chosen to help with the work to provide against delay in distribution. Commissioner Holman said yesterday that the Portland Heights Club had made arrangements to furnish some baskets of toys and candies for the children at the Detention Home.

JAPANESE PRINTS ARRIVE.—An important exhibition of Japanese prints is now open at the Museum of Art. These prints cover the history of this art and are full of rhythm of color, line and mass and of delicate wokrmanship and acute observation of nature. One hundred prints are shown. The museum wil be open during the holidays at the usual hours; week days, 9 to 5; Sundays, 2 to 5, with free admission the afternoons of Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, with the exception of Christmas Day, when the building will be closed.

MORE ELECTION OFFICIALS NEEDED.—Although many applications for appointment as election officers have been received, Commissioner Holman said yesterday that only enough have been received to fill a small percentage of the boards. At the next election 3912 election officers will be required, and all these must be named by the Commissioners. To secure officials who will be willing to serve the Commissioners have requested that all who are desirous of being placed on the lists send their names to the Commissioners.

HOOSIERS TO MEET MONDAY NIGHT.—The regular monthly meeting of the Indiana Society of Oregon will be held tomorrow evening in the auditorium of the Central Library at Tenth and Yamhill streets. There will be music and interesting illustrated lecture on the Hawaiian Leper Colony by Dr. J. C. O'Day. All Hoosiers and their friends and others interested cordially invited.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, Twelfth and Alder sts., Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., pastor. At the morning services, 10:30 A. M., Dr. Boyd will speak on the wonderful Christ. A chorus of 75 voices will assist the choir at the evening services 7:30 P. M., in giving selections from Handel's "Messiah." Subject of the evening services "The Unescapable Christ."—Adv.

"EYES THAT SEE NOT."—Lecture subject Sunday evening at K. P. Hall. "A man is not admitted interiorly into the truths of wisdom or the goods of love, except so far as he can be kept in them to the end of life," from Swedenborg's "Divine Providence." Rev. C. A. Nussbaum speaks, 11th and Alder, 8 P. M. All welcome.—Adv.

A CHRISTMAS CANTATA, "The Christ Child," will be given at the service Sunday morning, December 21, at 11 at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian), Broadway and Yamhill. Evening at 7:45, an illustrated Reed College extension lecture, on "How the City Gets and Spends Its Money," by Professor W. F. Ogburn. Rev. W. G. Eliot, Jr., minister.—Adv.

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH, Park and Madison streets. Christmas Sunday in this church. Dr. Dyott, the minister, preaches Christmas sermons and George Wilbur Reed, one of Portland's best tenor soloists, will sing at 11 and 7:45. Other extra music today. Come early for a good seat.—Adv.

THE NAME IN THE BOX

goes a long way towards telling the quality of the diamond it contains.

When you buy a diamond go to a responsible firm, one who has a good reputation, who will give you a guarantee that means something. If it is imperfect they will tell you so. Where they have but one price, no special discounts to anyone. We mark our goods in plain figures, everybody gets the same price. That is one of the many reasons why we sell so many diamonds.

Our Special $100 Diamond Ring is a Wonder

Look at our show windows for diamond bargains, all marked in plain figures (the same price to everybody), $10, $15, $25, $37.50, $50, $65, $75, $150, $250, $500, $750, $1000 and $1500. Beautiful Diamond Pendants with one, three, five, seven or more diamonds, from $25 up to $1500.

TRIP MADE TO MOUNT HOOD.—B. F. Higley and a party of men from Portland made an automobile trip to Welch's Hotel, at Mount Hood, last Saturday, December 13. They left Portland Saturday night at 9:30 o'clock and reached Welch's Hotel at 12:30 o'clock Sunday morning. At 11 o'clock they undertook to reach Government Camp, and arrived within two miles of that place when they encountered 22 inches of snow and were compelled to turn back the automobile. They walked to the hotel, which they reached at 1:30 o'clock. They entered through a window and registered their names as follows: B. G. Higley, Fred Hinz, W. E. McElwell, M. C. Webster and B. F. Finke. They returned to Portland the same day.

MISS BERGLAND ALLOWED $5250.—Miss Alma Bergland, who was injured when she fell from a car at the corner of Washington and Twentieth streets last July, was allowed $5250 damages by a jury in Judge Cleeton's Court yesterday. She brought suit through her attorneys, W. A. Burke and J. C. Simmons, for $10,500. She alleged that she fell because of the carelessness of the company's employes in starting the car before she had alighted. As a result of the fall, she alleged that she is suffering from paralysis of the facial nerves and muscles, and is injured about the back and spine.

PROFESSOR O'SHEA TO LECTURE.—H. V. O'Shea, professor of education in the University of Wisconsin, will deliver a lecture in the Lincoln High School Auditorium Monday afternoon, December 22, at 3 o'clock. The subject of his lecture will be "The Springs of Conduct." Professor O'Shea is a man of note in his profession. He has been lecturing in Southern California and will make two addresses before the State Teachers' Association at Salem. The lecture here is under the auspices of the Portland Education Association.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES.—William K. Benvie died at his home in Oak Grove Friday at the age of 51 years and 4 months. A widow, Mrs. V. G. Benvie, and a daughter, Miss Ruth Benvie, survive. Mr. Benvie formerly lived in East Portland and served as Deputy Building Inspector for Portland for 10 years. The funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Conservatory Chapel of the East Side Funeral Directors, 414 East Alder street, at 2 P. M.

WAGES TO BE LOWERED

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS MAKE REVISION OF SCALE FOR WINTER.

Courthouse Carpenter to Be Let Out and Eligible Lists of Employes Will Be Given Departments.

Wages of county employes working on the bridges, which were raised last September by a special order of the Commissioners, were reduced again yesterday to the original figures. All the bridge foremen, carpenters and laborers are affected by the new order, which will be followed after January 1. Until the order of last September, the foremen received $5, carpenters $3.50 and laborers $2.50. An increase to $6, $4 and $3, respectively, was authorized on the recommendation of Superintendent Murnane, who said that efficient men could not be obtained at the prices the county was paying.

The reduction to the old wages was made yesterday, Commissioner Lightner said, because the Commissioners believed that during the Winter it was not possible for the men, all of whose work is out of doors, to earn the larger amount during this season of the year.

An order was passed by the board yesterday discontinuing the position of courthouse carpenter, to take effect January 1. The incumbent is A. J. Cummings.

The Commissioners will notify Roadmaster Yeon, Superintendent Jackson, of the County Farm; Mrs. A. B. Y. Spaulding, of the County Hospital; M. J. Murnane, superintendent of bridges and ferries, and W. A. Eatchell, superintendent of machinery, that in the future when they desire to employ new helpers a list of eligibles will be furnished if they will advise the Commissioners. This order was passed as a suggestion, none of the departmental heads being required to confine their appointments to the lists provided by the Commissioners.

NEW CITIZENS ARE MADE

Judge Coke Rejects Three Applicants Because of Immorality.

American citizenship papers were refused three applicants yesterday by Judge Coke because of immorality. Five applicants were denied their final papers by the Marshfield jurist because of the incompetency of their witnesses, and others were denied because the applicants did not show good faith in their efforts to become citizens.

Examination of 38 applicants was made by United States Naturalization Examiner Hezard. Of this number 27 were admitted to citizenship and 11 were denied. Among those denied were Vincenzo Colombo and Axel P. Pederson, whose past life did not satisfy the court, and Gustav Cordes, who had perjured himself in a statement to immigration officers. Those admitted were:

Walter Klett, Rafael Saccamanns, Joseph Stefanonicz, Gaitans Tartarine, Augustana College, a Swedish Lutheran institution here, lived up to stories of college boys. Sophomores, who were anxious to keep the "freshies" from their banquet, kidnaped four of their leaders and carried them off to Camp Belle Island, in the Mississippi, placed them in a deserted cabin, tied their hands and feet and left them there.
