

Entered at Portland, Oregon, Postoffice as second-class matter. Subscription Rates—Invariably in Advance.

By MAIL: Daily, Sunday included, one year $3.00; Daily, Sunday included, six months $1.75; Daily, Sunday included, three months $1.00; Daily, Sunday included, one month $0.35.

PORTLAND, SUNDAY, JAN. 11, 1914.

EDISON AS A MINOR PROPHEET.

Mr. Edison is treating himself this winter to a vacation in Florida. This winter is notable because vacations are rare with the great inventor.

One profound economist has a theory that the high cost of living is due to the increased gold production. Another searches the world over for a public abstraction, and winds up with the middleman.

The theory that women fall into immoral consequences of the low wages paid in the garment industry received another blow from the "psychological laboratory" report of Dr. Anna M. Dwyer.

Woodrow Wilson is the first among Presidents to have deliberately expressed his opinion of the Presidency long before he could have had more than a vague notion of the office.

It is the party nominees and the party votes. He can dominate his party and his people, and he can dominate the party and his people.

That is happening in the Philippines which always happens when one leader of a political party promises or encourages hope of more than other promises are interpreted as binding the party.

The situation closely parallels that which existed in the Transvaal when Mr. Gladstone acceded to power in 1890.

should take this into consideration and protect him." This sound, reasonable, inventor and other eccentric geniuses have not enjoyed much consideration heretofore either from the courts or any other established institution.

HIGH LIVING.

Some friend sends to The Oregonian a newspaper clipping, purporting to be an advertisement of an Ohio grocer, in which the grocer, in a long and fruitful sermon on the high cost of living, says the putative grocer:

Some of you people give me a pain about the high cost of living. You don't know what you are talking about. I have the most up-to-date poultry farm in the country.

It is the first place it is decidedly unethical for an engineer to pass as a consulting engineer, and therefore in a position to render impartial advice to his clients.

THEY KNOW NO BETTER.

The theory that women fall into immoral consequences of the low wages paid in the garment industry received another blow from the "psychological laboratory" report of Dr. Anna M. Dwyer.

Woodrow Wilson is the first among Presidents to have deliberately expressed his opinion of the Presidency long before he could have had more than a vague notion of the office.

It is the party nominees and the party votes. He can dominate his party and his people, and he can dominate the party and his people.

That is happening in the Philippines which always happens when one leader of a political party promises or encourages hope of more than other promises are interpreted as binding the party.

The situation closely parallels that which existed in the Transvaal when Mr. Gladstone acceded to power in 1890.

Mr. Wilson has put his theory in practice in another particular—the making of appointments. He said in 1890 in response to Mr. Quizon's threats Mr. Wilson should grant immediate independence, we may expect even worse conditions than existed in the Transvaal from 1881 to 1899.

practice in another particular—the making of appointments. He said in 1890 in response to Mr. Quizon's threats Mr. Wilson should grant immediate independence, we may expect even worse conditions than existed in the Transvaal from 1881 to 1899.

The President has taken direct control of the Mexican affair in harmony with the opinion he expressed six years ago that "the initiative in foreign affairs which the President possesses without any restriction whatsoever is virtually the power to control public opinion."

The reference by The Oregonian to "professional idlers" and "chronic idlers" was not intended to "answer to the thousands of unfortunate men honestly striving in the almost hopeless task of finding honorable employment."

WORKERS AND IDLERS.

The reference by The Oregonian to "professional idlers" and "chronic idlers" was not intended to "answer to the thousands of unfortunate men honestly striving in the almost hopeless task of finding honorable employment."

It is the first place it is decidedly unethical for an engineer to pass as a consulting engineer, and therefore in a position to render impartial advice to his clients.

WILSON'S THEORY IN PRACTICE.

Woodrow Wilson is the first among Presidents to have deliberately expressed his opinion of the Presidency long before he could have had more than a vague notion of the office.

It is the party nominees and the party votes. He can dominate his party and his people, and he can dominate the party and his people.

That is happening in the Philippines which always happens when one leader of a political party promises or encourages hope of more than other promises are interpreted as binding the party.

The situation closely parallels that which existed in the Transvaal when Mr. Gladstone acceded to power in 1890.

Mr. Wilson has put his theory in practice in another particular—the making of appointments. He said in 1890 in response to Mr. Quizon's threats Mr. Wilson should grant immediate independence, we may expect even worse conditions than existed in the Transvaal from 1881 to 1899.

practice in another particular—the making of appointments. He said in 1890 in response to Mr. Quizon's threats Mr. Wilson should grant immediate independence, we may expect even worse conditions than existed in the Transvaal from 1881 to 1899.

The President has taken direct control of the Mexican affair in harmony with the opinion he expressed six years ago that "the initiative in foreign affairs which the President possesses without any restriction whatsoever is virtually the power to control public opinion."

The reference by The Oregonian to "professional idlers" and "chronic idlers" was not intended to "answer to the thousands of unfortunate men honestly striving in the almost hopeless task of finding honorable employment."

WORKERS AND IDLERS.

The reference by The Oregonian to "professional idlers" and "chronic idlers" was not intended to "answer to the thousands of unfortunate men honestly striving in the almost hopeless task of finding honorable employment."

It is the first place it is decidedly unethical for an engineer to pass as a consulting engineer, and therefore in a position to render impartial advice to his clients.

WILSON'S THEORY IN PRACTICE.

Woodrow Wilson is the first among Presidents to have deliberately expressed his opinion of the Presidency long before he could have had more than a vague notion of the office.

It is the party nominees and the party votes. He can dominate his party and his people, and he can dominate the party and his people.

That is happening in the Philippines which always happens when one leader of a political party promises or encourages hope of more than other promises are interpreted as binding the party.

The situation closely parallels that which existed in the Transvaal when Mr. Gladstone acceded to power in 1890.

Mr. Wilson has put his theory in practice in another particular—the making of appointments. He said in 1890 in response to Mr. Quizon's threats Mr. Wilson should grant immediate independence, we may expect even worse conditions than existed in the Transvaal from 1881 to 1899.

industries and enterprises. If each will do his part in this way, we shall hasten prosperity.

IN WHOSE INTEREST?

It is asserted in a letter from a Bend contributor published today that the new tax law was not formed for the people's benefit, but must have been drawn in the interest of the bankers and note-shavers.

We cannot quite agree with the statement. The higher the penalties for delay in tax payments the more likelihood is there that the taxpayer will borrow money from the banker or note-shaver before the day arrives in which penalties begin to run.

The former law, taking into account the 3 per cent rebate, enabled the taxpayer to borrow his taxes on March 15 at 8 per cent for six months and save practically the entire penalty and interest charges imposed by the state on delinquency.

These figures, however, have to do only with the inducements offered to the taxpayer to borrow by the former law. The same taxpayer, as he now today for five months at 8 per cent, saves $2.50 over what he would pay if he let his taxes run.

WORKERS AND IDLERS.

The reference by The Oregonian to "professional idlers" and "chronic idlers" was not intended to "answer to the thousands of unfortunate men honestly striving in the almost hopeless task of finding honorable employment."

It is the first place it is decidedly unethical for an engineer to pass as a consulting engineer, and therefore in a position to render impartial advice to his clients.

WILSON'S THEORY IN PRACTICE.

Woodrow Wilson is the first among Presidents to have deliberately expressed his opinion of the Presidency long before he could have had more than a vague notion of the office.

It is the party nominees and the party votes. He can dominate his party and his people, and he can dominate the party and his people.

That is happening in the Philippines which always happens when one leader of a political party promises or encourages hope of more than other promises are interpreted as binding the party.

The situation closely parallels that which existed in the Transvaal when Mr. Gladstone acceded to power in 1890.

Mr. Wilson has put his theory in practice in another particular—the making of appointments. He said in 1890 in response to Mr. Quizon's threats Mr. Wilson should grant immediate independence, we may expect even worse conditions than existed in the Transvaal from 1881 to 1899.

regrettable "balcony" performances, he had a becoming sense of the dignity of his office.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

regrettable "balcony" performances, he had a becoming sense of the dignity of his office.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

GLEAMS THROUGH THE MIST.

The Premier Pedestriane. (A Vancouver woman has found, by use of the pedometre, that she walks more than 11 miles daily at her housework.)

Myself I rated a walker stout. In days of my earlier youth, I strolled in my leisure and found about me a crowd of admirers.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.

There is a man in our town, There is a man in our town, He has a mustache and a topknot, He has a ruddy complexion.