Woman Who Was “ Acting Governor” of Oregon.

Mrs. Caroly N. Shelton Tells of Her Work As Private Secretary and of Being Occasionally the State's Chief Executive.

She was Governor of Oregon, in 1913, the first woman ever to be Governor of any State. Mrs. Shelton had been Surgeon-General of the Oregon State Medical Society before she was appointed to the position of private secretary to Governor Charles L. Chamberlain, of Oregon. Since that time she has been employed in that capacity.

Mrs. Shelton was appointed to the position of private secretary to Governor Chamberlain by him in 1913, and she has been in that position ever since. She is a very capable woman and has done a great deal of work for Governor Chamberlain.

Mrs. Shelton is a woman of great energy and enthusiasm. She is very successful in her work, and she has been very helpful to Governor Chamberlain.

Mrs. Shelton was born in Salem, Oregon, on February 28, 1877. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shelton.

Mrs. Shelton is a very successful woman and has done a great deal of work for Governor Chamberlain.

Mrs. Shelton is a Woman of Great Energy and Enthusiasm. She is Very Successful in Her Work, and She Has Been Very Helpful to Governor Chamberlain.

Mrs. Shelton was born in Salem, Oregon, on February 28, 1877. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Shelton.

Mrs. Shelton is a Woman of Great Energy and Enthusiasm. She is Very Successful in Her Work, and She Has Been Very Helpful to Governor Chamberlain.

Mrs. Shelton is a Woman of Great Energy and Enthusiasm. She is Very Successful in Her Work, and She Has Been Very Helpful to Governor Chamberlain.