

Walls. Walls—Mrs. Carl G. Liebe entertained Tuesday evening with a large 500 party. The house was exceptionally pretty in its decoration of yellow tulips, daffodils, ferns and potted plants. The fortunate contestants at cards were Mrs. James H. Absley and Jerome O. Hoyt. Those who enjoyed the affair were: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth A. Wykoff, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guild, Miss Nona Lawler, Vasco Cather, Miss Grace Collins, Edward J. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. A. Menefee, Mrs. Ambrose Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harmon, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lovelace, Miss May Breaux, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Penney, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kunder, Mrs. Luzelle M. Nicholas, Mrs. L. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cather, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Absley, Miss Lola Crampton, Harry Collins, Mr. and Mrs. William Trevor, Miss Mayne Collins, Matthew Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cason, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hill and J. O. Hoyt. The fortunate contestants at cards were: Mrs. James H. Absley and Jerome O. Hoyt.

The subject of the lectures in French given by Dr. V. De Lary in Victoria Hall at Lippman, Wolfe & Co.'s this week will be: Tuesday, "Thais," by Anatole France; Friday, "La Colline Inspiree," by Maurice Barres. These lectures are free.

The Portland Heights Club will entertain with a card party on Friday evening, February 6. The patronesses for the occasion will be Mrs. Charles A. Johns, Mrs. F. B. Houston, Mrs. Arthur McGill and Mrs. M. H. Lamond.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Weaver will send out cards for parties to be given at her home on the afternoons of February 17, 18 and 20.

An affair anticipated with considerable pleasure is the dance to be given by Trinity Guild on Tuesday evening at the Portland Heights Club. Tables will be arranged for cards for those who do not care to dance. Mrs. James E. Davidson is in charge of this particular affair, and assisting her on the committees are Miss Helen Stokes, Mrs. E. L. Van Dresar, Mrs. Benjamin Trenkman, Mrs. William C. Alvord is chairman of the entertainment committee for the guild. Elaborate preparations have been made for this party and a large attendance is expected.

Mrs. M. H. Lamond was hostess at one of the jolliest affairs of the week on Monday afternoon at her residence. It was an informal bridge and tango party. Three tables were arranged for the game and later the guests indulged in the modern dances. Card honorees fell to Mrs. Walter H. Raymond, Mrs. McKinley Mitchell and Mrs. B. S. Huntington.

Twenty-two devotees of the maddie enjoyed a snappy ride at the Portland Riding Academy Friday evening, with H. M. Kerron as drill master. After the drill, several of the riders gave an exhibition of high jumping.

Mrs. Frank Bernard Thompson, a charming young matron, formerly of South Bend, Ind., has recently joined the social colony in Portland and is now residing at the Oregon Yacht Club with her husband, Mr. Thompson. Mrs. Thompson was a guest of honor at a social reception for which Miss Mary Campbell was hostess recently, and many other delightful parties will be given in her honor very shortly.

Mrs. William H. See entertained her bridge club on Monday at her residence in Irvington at luncheon, followed by bridge. The members of the club are: Mesdames C. A. Cooldige, N. U. Carpenier, Bert M. Smith, McKimley Mitchell, Charles E. Ruyman, E. L. Baker, George McMillan, John Manning, L. M. Hubert, George Simpson and William H. See. On Monday Mrs. S. Wilmer Cannell, of Chicago, and Mrs. Miller, of Burns, Or., were substitutes for two of the members not present.

Mrs. John C. Morrison was hostess for a bridge party on Wednesday afternoon at her home in Irvington. The house was decorated prettily for the occasion with quantities of Spring blossoms, the keynote of the color scheme being ivory, yellow and pink. Nine tables were arranged for the guests, and card honors fell to Mrs. Alexander Macpherson, Mrs. W. C. McBride and Mrs. S. T. McBride.

Mrs. J. E. Cameron was hostess on Wednesday for one of the prettiest luncheons and bridge parties of the week at which she entertained her bridge club. The table was artistic in its appointments, a huge bowl of white carnations and maiden hair ferns forming the principal decoration. Covers were laid for Mrs. W. C. Cameron, Mrs. E. W. Clark, Mrs. E. Sleight, Mrs. E. E. Elsmann, Mrs. Estey White, Mrs. W. H. See, Mrs. M. H. Kerron and Mrs. E. E. Elsmann. After luncheon, auction bridge was the game of the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Hutchison are being fettered upon the arrival of a baby boy, who made his advent on January 26.

Sympathy is being extended to Mrs. George F. Fuller, who is at the Good Samaritan Hospital, recovering from an operation which was performed on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery G. Hall and their daughters, the Misses Hanel and Ruth Hall, are domiciled in their handsome new residence on East Burnside street and Laurelhurst avenue.

An informal dancing party, arranged by a number of the young people will be given at Hotel Multnomah, Thursday evening, February 5. The following are sponsors for the affair: Walter H. Korell, S. S. Whitman, George Butterfield, George Nicoll, Elwood H. Gallien. The patronesses are: Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mrs. I. A. Peters, Mrs. A. E. Butterfield, Miss Dagmar Korell.

Kappa Alpha Theta, known as the only woman's fraternity, on account of being the first sorority in existence, celebrated the anniversary of its founding, 42 years ago in Indiana, by giving a tea on Tuesday at the residence of Miss Inez Cress. The hostess was assisted in receiving the guests by the president of the fraternity, Mrs. Charles Hart, Mrs. Marion Cross and Mrs. Sydney Smith. Little Katherine Smith received the guests at the door. Assisting in the drawing-room were Misses Ethel Clarke and Margaret Woodley. Mrs. Forrest Fisher and Mrs. W. H. McVay presided at the tea table, which was adorned with a handsome silver basket filled with daffodils and ferns. Assisting in the dining-room were Mrs. Horace Fenton, Miss Helen Higbee and Miss Rae Zimmerman. The drawing-room was decorated prettily with Oregon grape and pink carnations.

Mrs. John Chambers Morrison was hostess for a charming bridge party at her home in Irvington on Wednesday afternoon. Nine tables were arranged for the games, and card honors fell to Mrs. Alexander Macpherson, Mrs. William C. McBride and Mrs. Frank T. McBride. Additional guests called at tea time.

Another charming bridge tea was given by Mrs. Charles Smith, who entertained about 60 guests at her home in Irvington on Thursday afternoon. The decorative scheme was in commemoration of the late President McKinley's birthday, red, white and blue. Baskets of red and white carnations, adorned with tulip bows were arranged about the rooms. The hostess was assisted in receiving by her daughter.

VANCOUVER, WASH., GIRL, WHOSE ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED.

MISS LOUISE CARDWELL CHALMERS.

The engagement of Miss Louise Cardwell Chalmers to William Henry Barton was announced recently. The news was told last week at a breakfast, the meeting of the Jaberbarber Club, at Vancouver, which Miss Chalmers is a member. The bride-elect's residence was charmingly adorned for the occasion, a color scheme of red being developed in hearts, cupid, streamers and carnations. During the breakfast a messenger brought a telegram for the hostess, announcing the betrothal, which came as a surprise to the friends of the bride-elect.

Miss Chalmers is the daughter of Dr. J. M. P. Chalmers, of Vancouver, and she is very popular in society, especially with the Army and Navy. She is a cousin of Mrs. Warren E. Thomas, of Portland. Mr. Barton is assistant commercial manager of the Portland Gas & Coke Company, and is well-known in social circles and clubdom. The wedding will be an event of April.

ters, Mrs. Harvey Weiss and Mrs. J. R. Dodson.

Mrs. Charles L. Boss also entertained last week with a bridge party in honor of Mrs. Orange M. Clark, who is planning to leave shortly for a few months' trip abroad. The Boss residence was decorated elaborately for the occasion, with red carnations, ferns and palms, with a profusion of daffodils in the dining-room.

Complimenting Mrs. L. C. Gilman, wife of the president of the North Bank Railroad, who formerly resided in Seattle, Mrs. Frederick Lincoln Stinson entertained Friday afternoon with an informal bridge party, with additional guests at tea time. Mrs. Charles Webber and Miss Amy Robinson assisted the hostess. Guests made up four tables of the game. Mrs. Gilman is planning to leave this month for a tour of Europe with her daughter, Miss Alice Gilman, who is at present studying art in Paris, and they will return together in the summer.

A prettily arranged and original party was that given by Mrs. Henry Augustus Sargent and Mrs. Samuel Middleton Lunders at the residence of the former on Johnson street on Wednesday. A cafeteria luncheon was served, after which bridge was enjoyed. A long table was arranged in the dining-room, with clever little signs fastened along the wall announcing the menu in a humorous fashion. Ten tables were placed in the drawing-room, library and music-room for the games, and the winner at each table was presented with a huge orange bouquet of violets and pink roses.

Bridge was again the diversion when Mrs. I. C. Sanford entertained a number of guests at her home on Thursday afternoon. Thirty-two guests indulged in bridge, and their attractive games were enhanced by the masses of lovely Spring blossoms adorning the drawing-room. In the dining-room quaint baskets of old-fashioned flowers were arranged on the tea table, at which Mrs. Charles Buckhardt, Mrs. M. A. Ashley, Mrs. Horace Butterfield and Mrs. E. P. Walte presided. They were assisted by the Misses Genevieve Butterfield, Margaret Mackenzie, Barbara Macey and Dorothea Sanford.

Mrs. W. J. Burns and daughter, Miss Louise Burns, who have been passing a few weeks in the East, returned to Portland Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Honeyman will entertain at an informal dance on Thursday evening at the Waverly Country Club in honor of their house guest, Miss Dorothea Shepard, of Portland, Conn., daughter of Colonel and Mrs. A. N. Shepard. Miss Shepard and Miss Mildred Honeyman were classmates in the Bennett School in New York. She is a charming girl, and will be extensively feted during her visit in this city.

A jolly group of congenial friends with an adventurous spirit left Friday for a trip up Mount Hood to indulge in skiing, the first attempt some of the party have ever made at this sport. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. David Taylor Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Green. They plan to return on Wednesday.

William D. Wheelwright was the genial host at a charming dinner party at the Hotel Multnomah on Tuesday evening, later entertaining his guests at the Heilig Theater with a box party. Mr. Wheelwright's guests were Mr. and Mrs. William McMaster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edward Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson Lewis and Mr. Arthur Minott.

Miss Barbara Mackenzie entertained a few friends informally last night at her home in Twentieth street. The young people passed the evening dancing and enjoying music.

NEWS FROM THE ARMY POST

"Little Women," as played in Portland Thursday, attracted quite a number of women from the post for the matinee. Among those attending were: Mrs. Herbert C. Gibner, Mrs. Leeson O. Tarleton, Mrs. James Ossewaarde, Mrs. C. F. King, Mrs. George S. Tiffany and Mrs. Lucius C. Bandy.

Mrs. Gill, wife of Lieutenant W. H. Gill, entertained at bridge Tuesday afternoon and Mrs. Rockwell won first prize. Those attending were: Mrs. George Rockwell, Mrs. Robert A. Weeks, Mrs. James Ossewaarde, Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. Richardson (Lieutenant Richardson's mother) and Mrs. C. Taylor. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Post Bridge Tournament was entertained last Friday at the quarters of Lieutenant and Mrs. Robert L. Weeks. The tournament usually meets Wednesday, but for several weeks the date has been changed to Friday evenings to accommodate the members.

Mrs. Clark, wife of Captain Elmer W. Clark, entertained Monday afternoon at an informal sewing party. Among those present were: Mrs. Jere B. Clayton, Mrs. J. P. Morrison, Mrs. James Ossewaarde and Mrs. Herbert C. Gibner.

Mrs. Boswell, wife of Lieutenant Walter O. Boswell, entertained at tea Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hobson, wife of Lieutenant James M. Hobson, post adjutant. Mrs. Page, wife of Captain John H. Page, Jr., and her mother, Mrs. Ella Fowler Wright. Nearly all the women of the post were present. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Stewart, who has been visiting her son, Lieutenant Lee H. Stewart, of the Twenty-first Infantry, will leave today for her home in the East. She has been in the post for several months.

The Soldiers' Fraternal League gave a dance in the post assembly hall Wednesday evening. Music was supplied by the orchestra of the Twenty-first Infantry band, and the following composed the committee on arrangements: Corporal Paxton, M. J. White, Bowhall, Walker and Haslam, of the Twenty-first Infantry and Company F, Engineers.

A big meeting will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the post assembly hall when "Go-to-Church Sunday" will be appropriately observed. Chaplain James Ossewaarde has chosen for his text "Public Worship and Reasons for It." Mrs. Stacey, wife of Captain Cromwell Stacey, will sing solo. The ushers will be Lieutenant Harry R. McKellar and Lieutenant Lee H. Stewart.

The glie club of the Oregon Agricultural College, of Corvallis, Or., will appear in the post assembly hall Thursday evening, February 5, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Soldiers' Fraternal League. No charge will be made for the performance, and all expenses will be met by the League from fund. The soldiers and their friends are invited, and it is assured that a packed hall will greet the Oregon singers.

General Ramsay D. Potts and Mrs. Potts have arrived from the Presidio, San Francisco, and are guests of Colonel George S. Young, post commander. They will be met by the League from fund. The commanding general's quarters as soon as their household goods arrive. This is the first time that they have ever been in Washington or Oregon, though General Potts has been in every other state in the Union, and served two tours in the Philippines. All of the members of the post assembled at post headquarters Thursday morning and went to headquarters of the Seventh Brigade. In the post, Colonel Young and staff led the way. General Potts, who commands the Seventh Brigade, met all of the officers generally. The Twenty-first Infantry Band played in the post assembly hall, and the post commander's quarters Friday for the distinguished visitor.

After February 5, Mrs. George S. Young will be at home only on Friday in every month, instead of each Friday as heretofore.

Mrs. Gibner, wife of Captain Herbert C. Gibner, and Mrs. Stacey, wife of Captain Cromwell Stacey, during the past week, were the bridesmaids in honor of the four recent brides of the post, at Mrs. Gibner's quarters. The brides of honor will be Mrs. Page, wife of Captain John H. Page, Jr.; Mrs. Hobson, wife of Lieutenant James M. Hobson; Mrs. Taylor, wife of Lieutenant C. J. Taylor; and Mrs. Gill, wife of Lieutenant W. H. Gill.

Mrs. Ella-Fowler Wright, who has been visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Page, wife of Captain John H. Page, Jr., left Friday for San Francisco. She will visit for two months in California, before returning to her home in Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Fairfax, wife of Lieutenant John C. Fairfax, delightfully entertained at "Dutch" whist Wednesday evening. Five tables were played and Lieutenant Walter O. Boswell won first prize for gentlemen. Mrs. Moore, first for ladies; Mrs. Boswell and Lieutenant Leeson O. Tarleton, consolation prizes. Refreshments were served.

A number of ladies and officers of the post have been attending the Voshburg lectures given under the auspices of the Portland Graduate Teachers' Association in Lincoln High School in Portland. The lectures are drawing large and enthusiastic crowds. Dr. E. Voshburg, a lecturer, is a visiting in the post with his daughter, Mrs. Lentz, wife of Lieutenant Bernard Lentz.

Mrs. Elmer W. Clark and Mrs. Jere B. Clayton joined energies Friday and entertained at four tables of bridge at the home of Mrs. Jere B. Clayton. Mrs. W. H. Gill, Mrs. James Ossewaarde and Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming. After a delightful afternoon, refreshments were served.

The machine belonging to Lieutenant James M. Hobson was seriously damaged Thursday evening when the driver, Private Worthing, was taking it through Portland. Those from the post in the machine were attending the Voshburg lecture, at the time, so none were hurt.

The officers in the garrison school, after taking a course in "administration," took examinations in the subject Friday. Captain Elmer W. Clark was instructor.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

The Philolexian Society of Lincoln High School delightfully entertained at the home of Miss Rae Dellor, at 874 Northrup street, in honor of their graduating members, Winifred Goodrich, Stella Gray, Dora Kenny, Alice Warren, Alice Wright, Calista Kenny, Mary Starkweather, Mary Townsend, Alice Sundstadt, and Mary Schlegel. The house was decorated prettily in Spring flowers and greens. Games and music were the features of the even-

See Immense Window Display of Waists Today

300 Dozen Fresh, New Spring Waists in Annual February Sale!

When a mere advertising man can become so enthusiastic over these pretty, new Waists, what will the women be who come tomorrow? Waists! Waists! Waists! Never such altogether different—such charming effects. Never did materials and trimmings so blend with the dainty styles! And NEVER in the ten years we've written Waist advertisements have such wonderful values been offered at moderate prices! You'll not be satisfied with one Waist. Get your first choice at the February Sale Prices.

$1.29—Over 20 styles at this price alone! Flimsy marquisette, with long and short sleeves. Some with new elastic collars, drop sleeves and shoulders. Very new corded crepes among them. Wonderful values at $1.29.

$1.75—Think of it. Real hand-embroidered. Dainty hand-scoped collars and puffed sleeves. Long and short sleeves. Another style with embroidered front, net yoke and waist insertion. Many others at $1.75.

$2.45—Very sheer batistes, with hand-embroidered fronts. Also fetching vestee effects of marquisette with front and collar trimmed in shiny lace. Never saw so much style, such materials, such workmanship before at $2.45.

$2.75—One remarkably new vestee effect, has dainty frill with sailor collar and cuffs of shadow lace. Homestitch drop shoulders. Another lovely Waist has hand-emb. front, frilled front and collar. Real bargains $2.75.

Every Winter Suit, Coat and Dress 1/2 Price

Advance Showing of Spring Millinery

EMPORIUM

PORTLANDS

PORTLANDS FINE MONT GARMENTS MILLINERY STORE

124-126-128 SOUTH ST. JUST OFF WASHINGTON

First Arrivals in New Spring Suits and Coats

DOING a thing a little bit better than the occasion requires is the distinguishing feature between mediocrity and genius. While the latter word can hardly find correct application here, it is true that the constant endeavor to elevate store methods—store service—store policies—and store conveniences has lifted this store from the category of a mere shopping place to an institution where the discriminating find pleasure in congregating, not alone to satisfy their needs in our wares, but leisurely to acquaint themselves with the latest books—the newest novelties, and the many other little things of interest to men and women.

Valentine Books FOR Mother—Sweetheart—Wife

What more typical of the Valentine spirit than a book? So many dainty little volumes are here assembled that choosing is but a matter of a moment—wrapped and packed with appropriate Valentine sentiments.

On the second floor a comprehensive display of illuminated Valentines in the favored types of the season awaits your inspection. Many subjects. Effective ideas.

GILL'S THE J. K. GILL COMPANY Third and Alder Streets

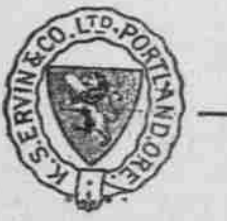

The European Hair Emporium Quarterly Clearance Sale of Fine Human Hair Goods

Switches that are regularly $3.50 to $30.00, Clearance Sale price $1.50 to $20.00. Gray Switches, of pure cut hair, regularly $9.00 to $30.00, Clearance, $4.50 to $20.00. Transformations, to cover your own hair, half price during this sale.

348 Morrison Street, Bet. Broadway and Park

DUPLICATE FORM CO.

Ladies who sew will appreciate the fact that they can fit and drape their own gowns, from collar to floor, with dressmakers' bills, no trying on or waiting for friends to assist. A perfect model of your own form guaranteed, with detachable arms. Special Price for One Month. 515-516 Swetland Bldg.

SHEPHERD SPENCERS, CARDIGANS, ENGLISH KNITTED SPORTING COATS, KASHMIR JACKETS, KASHMIR WOOL GLOVES, KASHMIR MOTOR BONNETS, KNITTED CAPS, K. S. ERVIN & CO., LTD. GENERAL ENGLISH TAILORS 20 FLOOR, SELLING BUILDING SIXTH AND ALDER STREETS

Pinehart

GOWNS FOR ALL OCCASIONS. Prices Reasonable. 708 Hoyt st. Marshall 5985.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. McMillan

—Photo by De Luxe Studio.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Gale announce the marriage of their daughter, Lela Dolan, to Alexander D. McMillan, which was solemnized on January 12 at the home of the bride's parents, 209 East Main street, Rev. William H. Boddy officiating. Mr. and Mrs. McMillan will be at home to their friends at Barstow, Or., after March 1.