MASS MEETING IS CALLED

Beaverton City Councilors Authorize Building of Union Avenue District Taxpayers' Plan in Act-On-Government-Self Statement.

So strong has become the sentiment on the part of residents all over the city against the plan of the City Council to place the public auditorium on the East Side that tonight the meeting called by the residents will be held to discuss the question of the auditorium.

No information was available yesterday as to when the meeting would take place.

PROTESTED AGAINST CROWDS

The protest against playing the Auditorium on the East Side was the same as that against the site of the auditorium, which the city councilors decided to locate on the east side.

The question was not only raised by residents of the city, but also by residents of the city, who were opposed to the auditorium.

The meeting is expected to be held tonight at 8:30.
