

TANGO CALLED STEP TO STILT WALKING

Dr. Wise Unrest Due to Revolt of Women Against Emptiness of Life.

OLD DOCTRINE PASSING

Millions Face New Conditions but Cling to Bygone Ideals That Places Are in Homes, Is Statement in Sermon.

NEW YORK, March 12.—Barefooted rope-jumping and stilt-walking were cited as logical successors of bridge-playing and tangoing among the so-called "home-keeping women." In a sermon delivered before the Free Synagogue in Carnegie Hall by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise...

When recently in France a commission was constituted on the question of re-population exclusively of men, women gently and almost timidly protested that surely in the matter of the re-population of the land women might of necessity, if not in courtesy, be given some voice in the councils dealing with the question...

Women Judges Suggested. "If women were not too patient, would they not have asked long before this that on the bench of the juvenile courts and the domestic courts women preside equally with men? Granting, as some men readily will, that women are intellectually inferior to men, who will deny that touching the problems of childhood and parental relations there are women, not a few, wise and visioning and consecrated, who might in New York and other cities serve with distinction and highest serviceability?"

Old Ideals Still Stay. "Millions of women in America and Western Europe are no longer home-bearers. Millions more are in homes in which they are not completely occupied, in which wifehood and motherhood ask very much less than a normal woman ought and can give to life. Millions of women are in homes which are only partially occupied, and yet women somehow cling to the old ideals which govern womanhood when woman lived and served completely within the home."

SUIT OVER HORSE ENDS Attorney Ordered to Return or Pay for Oregon City Animal. OREGON CITY, Or., March 14.—(Special.)—One of the suits arising over a horse that now has been lost track of by all concerned was ended today when a jury in Circuit Court awarded Hutchinson a verdict against Cobb for the return of the horse or its value, which the jury placed at $200.

"WHITE LIGHTS" BLAMED "Overcoat King" Tells How Ruin Came to Him and Brother. NEW YORK, March 9.—Abe Solomon and his brother, Samuel Solomon, who up to a year ago were regarded in the clothing trade as the "overcoat kings," pleaded guilty before Judge Hunt in the United States District Court to concealing the assets of their firm, Solomon Bros., which went into bankruptcy in August, 1912. Judge Hunt sentenced Abe Solomon to five months on Blackwell's Island and gave Samuel a suspended sentence of three months.

INCOME TAX ATTACKED CONFLICT WITH CONSTITUTION IS SET UP IN ACTION. Fact That Only Half of One Per Cent Pay Held to Be Defect Allowing Other Discriminations.

NEW YORK, March 14.—To test the validity of the Federal income tax act suit was filed in United States District Court here Friday to restrain the Union Pacific Railroad Company from paying taxes under the new law. Petitioner, Frank R. Brushaber, of Brooklyn, a stockholder, maintains the income tax law is unconstitutional.

When the income tax law was passed, the complaint declares, there were 90,000,000 people in the United States, but the tax under the law was so apportioned that only 450,000 out of them felt it. This, it is asserted, is placing the burden of the tax on slightly more than one-half of one per cent of the entire population.

HACKETT'S LATEST FORTUNE IS 'SHAKY'

Actor's Claim to Big Estate Left by Niece Faces Contest in Court.

NEW WILL MAY BE FILED

Contention to Be Made That Wealthy Widow's Most Recent Decree Was Made and Signed When She Was Perfectly Lucid.

NEW YORK, March 9.—That James K. Hackett will not inherit the fortune of his niece, Mrs. Minnie Hackett Trowbridge, without a legal battle has become apparent. Friends of Mrs. Trowbridge said today that another will, disinheriting the actor, will be offered for probate and that a fight would be made to have it declared legal. It will be contended that while the wealthy widow had been declared incompetent, her most recent will was made and signed by her when she was perfectly competent and lucid.

It is known that for more than two years Mrs. Trowbridge, who died at her home, 72 Park avenue, had made numerous efforts and means of disinheriting her actor, for whom she had conceived a bitter dislike, but since she had been declared legally incompetent there seemed no way of preventing the bulk of her $2,500,000 estate falling into the hands of the actor at her death.

TITLE WON BY DANCER DAUGHTER OF WASHERWOMAN BECOMES MARQUEE.

From House Servant to Prison, Stage and Then Wife of French Gentleman, Is Story of German Girl.

BERLIN, March 12.—(Special.)—The strange story of a servant girl who became a Marquisette after making a success as a barefoot dancer was unfolded at the Berlin Police Court this week. Minna Otto is the daughter of a washerwoman in a small town in Central Germany. The mother was burdened with the care of 12 children, so Minna came to Berlin as a servant at an early age. She remained a servant only a short time, and was soon feted as a beauty of fashionable night life in the capital. Several times she had trouble with the police, and it was even reported in court that she had served a sentence of several months' imprisonment in Dresden in 1907. Then she became a chorus girl, until she was engaged at a local cabaret to appear as a barefoot dancer. Here she attracted the attention of the Marquis de Villerey, who took her to London before removing to Paris, where he subsequently died, leaving his widow a comfortable fortune.

NEW ATTIRE GETS BLAMED Minister Says Sexes Look Like Monkeys in Dresses of Today.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Much of the dress of today seems to be designed with evil, lustful intent, and mothers, wives, sisters and daughters must be surprised and shocked at the many of the things they assume suggestive dress. This declaration was made by Dr. Charles E. Granger, pastor of Gunton Temple Memorial Church. He added: "The Darwin theory of evolution is fast becoming popular. Some persons must have come from monkeys, because they strive so to look like monkeys, and it is my impression that many of them succeed."

Hoarseness Have you got hoarseness that continues? Or do you get hoarse once in a while, whenever you get the slightest cold? Hoarseness means a catarrhal condition of the vocal cords. The vocal cords are way down in the larynx, and when affected by hoarseness should cause serious concern.
