BOGUS COINS UNDER TUB CAUSE ARRESTS

Leaky Hotel Receptacle and Forgotten Package Lead to Charge Against Trio.

$5 GOLD PIECES COPIED

Prisoners Accused of Minting Spur ious Money in Seattle Cottage and Passing It in Many Cities of Northwest.

A leaky bathtub in the Congress Hotel, and the carelessness of someone in leaving a package containing 23 counterfeits of $5 gold pieces between e tub and the wall, led to the arrest three alleged makers of counterfeit oney, W. C. Vaughn, in Portland; Harry S. Stone, at Spokane, and Charles Dutcher, at Seattle, Harry Stiles was the name written on the register at the Congress by a man who came there Saturday night a week ago. He was assigned to room 604. He left the hotel Sunday night, leaving his baggage and saying he would let the hotel know where to send it. While he was at the Congress one man called on him, and spent some time with him in his room.

Monday J. W. Long, proprietor of the Congress, made an investigation of the bathtub in room 604, and found the shiny new counterfeit coins neatly wrapped in paper, as a stack of real money is wrapped in a bank. William Glover Notified.

He notified William Glover, United States Secret Service agent. Stiles had been under the surveillance of the Federal authorities, on susplcton of being an opium smuggler, at Seattle, and after his arrival in Portland Sat-urday. The man who called on him, said to have been W. C. Vaughn, was also watched. It was found, that he

Was staying at the Broadway Hotel. Vaughn was arrested Tuesday in Portland by Mr. Glover and William MacSwain, Deputy United States Mar-shal, and was lodged in the County Stiles or Stone, for the Federal officials who have been working on the case say that the name Stiles is an alias, was arrested at Spokane Friday ght, simultaneously with the arrest Seattle of Dutcher, said to be the third member of the gang. A telegram from Stiles at Spokane to the Congress Hotel Wednesday, asking that his baggage be sent there, led to his apprehension and arrest.

Cottage Said to Be Mint.

A secluded cottage on Dearborn street, Seattle, is said to have been the manufacturing headquarters of the gang, whose spurious mintage has been passed in Portland, Seattle, Olympia, Tacoma, Bellingham, Anacortes, Wash.; Everett, Wash, and Auburn, Wash. Federal secret service men for some time had been on the lookout for the makers of the gold-plated lead coins that have appeared in these cities. More than 100 have been rejected when presented for deposit at banks in the cities named, particularly those around Puget Sound

GOOD ROAD PLANS FORMED

Celebration Widespread.

Not merely a county affair, but some thing that shall be statewide and last-ing in its effects, is what the Ad Club committee intends to make of Good Roads day, April 25. A special com-mittee will be provided to organize the state for observance of the day. Those who have been asked to serve on the committee are: Samuel Hill, C. C. Chapman, William Hanley, J. L. Meier, M. E. Smead, W. L. Crissey and C. F. Wegraphy.

G. E. Waggoner. Multnomah County's portion of the work will be on the Columbia High-way. Arrangements are to be made to run a special train out of Portland and the effort will be made to put 2000 men at work on the highway Good Roads day. Next Saturday night a meeting of representatives of all of the clubs interested in the movement will be held at the Commercial Club to discuss observance of the day.

SWEET VOICE WINS HEARTS !

Prima Donna Who Sang "Norma" Long Remembered in U. S.

There are popular songs from operas endeared to the hearts of the American people associated with famous singers. The name of "Norma" will always be associated with Gullia Grisi, the Italian prima donna, born in 1810. When only 16 she appeared in opera at Bologna, and won the hearts of the audience by her sweetness and wonderful compass of voice. It was her heartfelt rendition of "Norma" that has left its impress on musical his-

Balfe was ushered into a large but dingy palace, whose halls suggested the days of luxury. The servants threw open a stately portal, revealing a spiendid suite of rooms flooded with soft radiance and royally furnished, in which a queenly matron and beautiful girl awaited their strange guest in welcome. It was as if the dead had returned alive. The mother, with the abandon of her race, caught Balfe to her breast, covering his face with tears and kisses and uttering the most touching endearments, suggesting "I Dreamt I Dwelt in Marble Halls."

Balfe was a true genius, and does not seem to have properly appreciated the favors heaped upon him. At the end of a year Mazzora arranged for Balfe to study at Milan during his absence in England, and Balfe was able to impress Glossop, of the great La Scala Theater, with his ability as a commonser.
