Bobby Davis has been in a hitting slump for two weeks past and his fall from second to seventh place in the batting order is not nearly so surprising as the Mohler revelation.

The former San Francisco playing manager was released only a few weeks by the Portland Colff. However, Mohler's crabby disposition, not his ballolaying, brought about the blueticketing, according to inside "dope" at hand, and he ought to bolster the Senators considerably.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 4. Decision as to the winner in the first open battle between the new Federal Outlaw Baseball League and organized baseball, as represented by the National League is now up to the umpire, Judge Clarence W. Sessions, of the United States District Court, for Wastern Michigan

Arguments of counsel in the case brought by the management of the Chicago Federal League club to enjoin William J. Killifer, Jr., from continuing in the service of the Philadelphia National League club, or any other than the Chicago Federal League organization, were completed late today, and the judge took the case under advisement. He announced he would not give a decision before next Tuesday and possibly not for a week or ten days. Arguments of counsel in while the counsel for the Federal League -centered their attack on the reserve clause of contracts in organized baseball and the so-called ton-dayopen at Walla Walla and Baker will clause permitting a club to dispense with a contracted player's services at any time after a ten days' notice, the issue went off at a tangent when Judge Sessions raised the question as to the Federal League's moral rights in
