SEATTLE, Wash., April 18 .- (Spe cial.)—In the opening game of the season Schneider downed Portland 2 to 1. Today he did a little better, the count being 2 to 0. It is an odd feature that in both of these battles the contending clubs have equalized on hits. Tuesday it was eight and eight; today it was six for each. Counting backward, features. The score: Portland has not scored on the locals for 21 consecutive innings.

Although the score today was close and the game was well played all around, generally speaking, it lacked the spice of other battles. Schneider and Battiste were the opposing pitchers. At the beginning of the seventh Coleman had his hand badly split by a foul and Murray replaced him. Schneider was strong from start to
