It is said there are employes in Mr. Dieck's department who have been appointed over the heads of persons who have taken civil service examinations and are on the waiting lists. Mr. Caldwell's letter to Mr. Dieck reads as follows:

"It has come to our attention that for several months there have been working under temporary appointment several persons with the title of inspector. From the present information it is the judgment of the board that the work being done by these temporary appointees is such that it is placed within the scope of the exami-nation for persons who now comprise the eligible list of senior inspectors.
