Surrender of Waterworks Demanded.

REINFORCEMENTS ARE SENT

Scattering Shots Fired as Federals Beat Retreat.

VERA CRUZ HAS NO FEAR

Serious Attack Not Expected, but Food Situation Begins to Cause Apprehension—No Orders to Advance Given.

VERA CRUZ, Mexico, May 2.—A considerable force of Mexicans attacked the American outpost at the water plant nine miles out at 11 o'clock this morning, according to a wireless message, which asked for aid.

MEXICANS ARE IN UNIFORM

The Mexican troops were in uniform and consisted mostly of infantry, but there were some cavalrymen, evidently belonging to the regular establishment.

While no fear is felt by the Army authorities in Vera Cruz that the Mexican troops will make a serious attack, it is realized that considerable inconvenience soon will be caused unless something is done to open the roads into districts where garden and dairy products come from.

The Mexicans threatened to "attack immediately unless the Americans surrendered their position at the waterworks at El Tejar within 10 minutes," but failed to fulfill their threat.

OUTLIER POSITION HELD

The Mexicans are still holding a position beyond the waterworks position and the troops have received no orders to advance. At 11 o'clock this morning a Mexican force estimated at from 300 to 500 men appeared beyond the waterworks station. As Major Russell had received orders not to assume the offensive, he and his men watched the Mexicans with much interest.

Suddenly a Mexican lieutenant and a non-commissioned officer bearing a white flag advanced and presented a demand for the Americans to surrender within 10 minutes.

Major Russell's reply was: "Hurry right back and do not waste any of the time your commanding officer has stipulated."

PREPARATIONS MADE FOR DEFENSE.

Major Russell then made preparations to resist any attack, at the same time sending a message to headquarters in Vera Cruz that his outpost was threatened.

Back at headquarters Brigadier-General Funston and his staff have been conscientiously working out the details of the new government which General Funston has been instructed to establish.

The wireless message from the waterworks station at El Tejar brought about a quick change from this work to that of active army duty.

Within a few minutes headquarters advised Major John H. Russell that reinforcements were on the way to aid him, and in little more than an hour, instead of the 240 marines composing the command of Major Russell at the outpost of El Tejar, there were in position to support him more than 1300 men, while the entire garrison of Vera Cruz was in readiness.

WOMAN BREAKS UP BASEBALL GAME

THE DALLES GAME ENDS IN 7TH WITH SCORE 16 TO 0.

Protesting Against High Fence Around Field, Retaliation Sought in "Glooming" Balls.

THE DALLES, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—A Dalles woman broke up the baseball game between The Dalles and Hood River high schools here this afternoon. The locals knocked the balls over the fence for several home runs and every time they put the horsehide over the fence a woman who lives in the vicinity, and objects to the high board fence which was recently built around the ball park and next to her property, "popped" the balls and refused to surrender them.

When the last ball had been put over the fence and the woman "gloomed" it, the game ended in the seventh inning with the score 16 to 0, in favor of The Dalles.

This was a big athletic day for the students of the Hood River and local high schools being the time for holding the annual ball game, track and field meet and tennis matches.

The locals overcame the Apple City athletes on the track and field this morning, winning the meet 86 to 46. Hood River won three of the four tennis matches. Erma Bennett and Mary Gray defeated Adrienne Epping and Etha McDonald, of Hood River, in two straight sets, but Frances Baker, Lawrence Herschner and Thurston Laraway, of Hood River, had little trouble in defeating Erma Bennett, Frank Tyler, Ben Cohen and Wilbur Hostetter, of this city, in the other tennis matches.

Young American Encounters Delay in Obtaining Depositions.

COMO, May 2.—(Special.)—The trial of Porto Charlie, the young American accused of having killed his wife and placing the body in a trunk, which he is alleged to have thrown into Lake Como, has been postponed until next November owing to the delay in obtaining the supplementary evidence which was sent for in America.

The murder occurred nearly four years ago, and Charlton was brought here from the United States for trial on August 30 last.

REBELS CONVINCED HUERTA IS NEAR END

No Concessions Made to Mediators.

GARRANZA TAKES DEFENSIVE

Scheme Regarded as Move by Dictator to "Save Face."

WAR PUSHED VIGOROUSLY

Constitutionalists' Position Is They Can Capture Rights Federals Are Trying to Save and Demand Surrender.

MEXICO CITY, May 2.—The situation in Mexico City today had every appearance of becoming serious for the administration and its well-informed circles. It was expected that Provisional President Huerta might resign at any moment.

EL PASO, Tex., May 2.—Constitutionalists here are convinced that Victoriano Huerta is ready to step down and out under pressure from his scientific supporters, who, with an accuracy of knowledge denied the masses in Mexico, are said to regard complete rebel success as inevitable.

For this reason the constitutionalists will make no concessions before the Argentine, Brazil and Chile mediators. The mediation of South America is believed by constitutionalists to have been accepted by Huerta as a means of "saving his face" and the good offices of the Argentine, Brazil and Chilean government, while accepted "in principle" by the constitutionalists, are viewed with suspicion.

CARRANZA'S AGENTS DESIGNATED

Carranza will be represented at the sessions of the board of mediators in Washington by Rafael Zubaran, now in Washington, and Louis Cabrera, on his way to the United States from Spain. Cabrera was president of the Chamber of Deputies at Mexico City at the time of the overthrow of Madero. Jose Vasconcelos, a lawyer of Mexico City, and Francisco Urquidí, who is in charge of the rebel agency at Washington, also may act as Carranza's agents.

The attitude of Carranza's agents, it is said, will be defensive. They say they regard the whole scheme as designed to save for the supporters privileges which the rebels now feel assured they can capture. They will therefore, oppose any proposition other than the unconditional elimination of Huerta and the complete recognition of Carranza and the party of which he is the chief.

WAR PUSHED VIGOROUSLY

The departure of Villa from Chihuahua for the front today, and Carranza's impending departure for the south are indications of the rebel intention to prosecute the rebellion with renewed vigor. It is understood among them that the United States is not displeased with their declaration to accept an armistice, but the truce having been declined, Carranza is eager that efforts too great an obstacle to further retreat. It is the worst waste in Mexico. They may fight at San Luis Potosí.

BATTLE AT LUDLOW BLAMED TO GREEKS

Military Board Finds Strikers Attacked.

OPERATORS 'REMOTE CAUSE'

"Lawless and Savage Peasants" Fostered by Owners.

3 ELEMENTS IN DISCORD

Underlying Cause Found to Be Presence of Soldiers, Strikers and Mine Guards, All Armed and Fostering Hatred.

DENVER, May 2.—Absolute responsibility for the fatal battle of Ludlow, Monday, April 29, was placed on the Greeks of the strikers' colony at Ludlow by the military board, consisting of Judge Advocate Major E. J. Boughton, Captains W. C. Danks and Philip S. Van Cise, of the Colorado National Guard. This commission was appointed April 25 by Adjutant-General Chase with instructions to report on all the incidents of the battle, proceeding and subsequent, and to make such report "without malice or favor."

The officers examined under oath all officers and prisoners and "as many as possible of the soldiers, deputies, mine guards and townspeople of Ludlow and nearby coal camps."

STRIKERS REFUSE TESTIMONY

They made strenuous effort to obtain testimony of strikers, but without success, reporting that "a personal request made on Mr. Lawson and Mr. Mc Kenna, strike leaders in Denver, was answered in their presence by Mr. Hawkins, their attorney, declining to give us any information on the ground that our inquiry was not publicly conducted."

The board found that the "remote" cause of this, as well as all other battles, lies with the coal operators, who established in an American industrial community a numerous class of ignorant, lawless and savage South European peasants. The underlying cause was the presence, near Ludlow, in daily contact of three discordant elements—strikers, soldiers and mine guards—all armed and fostering an increasing deadly hatred which sooner or later was bound to find some expression.

Concerning Louis Tikas, the Greek leader who was killed in the battle, the report says, "during the evening Louis Tikas, James Filer and an unknown striker were taken prisoners. Lieutenant K. E. Linderfelt swung his Springfield rifle, breaking the stock, over the head of Tikas." This incident followed a heated controversy between the Lieutenant and the Greek. The report continues:

"An attempt to hang Tikas went so far that a rope was produced and thrown over a telegraph pole. This lynching was prevented by Lieutenant Linderfelt, who turned Tikas over to a non-commissioned officer, whom he directed to be responsible for his life. Shortly afterwards all three prisoners were killed by gunshot wounds.

BULLET NOT USED BY SOLDIERS.

"The only bullet found in his body was of a kind not used by the soldiers, although the other wounds might have been caused by other bullets."

COUNCIL DISLOYAL, UNION WITHDRAWS

ABERDEEN CARPENTERS WANT NATION'S FLAG UPHELD.

ADOPTION OF RESOLUTION CONDEMNATING SENDING TROOPS TO MEXICO MAY DISRUPT CENTRAL LABOR BODY.

ABERDEEN, Wash., May 2.—(Special.)—Because the Central Labor Council of Aberdeen passed a resolution last night condemning the United States Government for sending troops to Mexico, the Carpenters' Union announced this morning its withdrawal from the council. The Carpenters' Union, numbering about 115 men, was the second largest organization in the council. The announcement of the withdrawal, which is made by the executive board of the carpenters, is addressed to the citizens of Aberdeen. It follows:

"At the regular meeting of the Central Labor Council of Aberdeen held May 1 a resolution, introduced by the Timber Workers' Union, condemning the action of President Wilson in demanding proper respect for our flag was passed. The Carpenters' Local 883, of Aberdeen, wishes hereby to state to its many friends that it worked to the best of its ability to prevent the passage of this resolution, but was unsuccessful, and that now, under instructions of the members of the union, the carpenter delegates to the Central Council have withdrawn from the council and affiliation with the Central Council has been severed."

It is said that several other unions are so strongly opposed to the resolution that they may take action in line with the carpenters. In explaining the situation one of the most prominent of the carpenters said:

"We believe in our country. We believe in its flag, and we are ready to uphold the flag at all times. We may not have wanted war with Mexico, but we do want the dignity of the United States upheld."

ASPIRANTS VIE IN LAUDING SUFFRAGE

Each Always for Cause, Women's Rally Told.

CONGRESS IS MEMORIALIZED

Resolution for Amendment Is Adopted Amid Cheers.

ONE SPEAKER EXCEPTION

A. F. Flegel, Democratic Candidate for Congress, Says It Is Useless to Oppose Sure Thing. Many Boost Themselves.

Woman's suffrage received the most enthusiastic endorsement of its career in Oregon at the Lincoln High School last night. Republican, Democratic and Progressive candidates for the United States Senate and House of Representatives vied with each other in declaring their eternal fealty to the cause of votes for women.

MR. FLEGEL IS EXCEPTION.

The one exception was A. F. Flegel, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress, who admitted that he had changed his mind, and said that he had "become convinced that women were sure to vote, so what's the use of opposing a sure thing."

"The candidates' speeches were plentifully bestowed with oral bouquets as to woman's intelligence, her right stand on all moral questions and her record of good accomplished in states where she has the right to vote. It was freely predicted by several speakers that the solution of all the great moral and economic questions that now vex the country will speedily follow the passage of a constitutional amendment granting equal suffrage.

GOODS WORDS SAID FOR THEMSELVES.

The speeches were supposed, by order of the chairman, to be strictly non-partisan in nature, but many of the candidates adroitly managed to tie the cause of suffrage to the chariot-wheel of their own particular qualifications for Congressional honors, or vice versa. Thus they devised to say a good word for themselves while saying several for suffrage.

THE OCCASION WAS THE NATIONAL SUFFRAGE DAY RALLY.

The occasion was the National suffrage day rally, the meeting at Portland being one of those held in every city in the country last night to adopt a resolution memorializing Congress to submit an equal suffrage constitutional amendment to the people.

The resolution was adopted with cheers.

"BILLY" HANLEY LATER APPLAUDED.

The candidates and prominent suffragists, women who were most active in the victorious campaign in Oregon 15 months ago, sat on the platform. "Billy" Hanley, Progressive aspirant for the Senate, came in late, just before the meeting opened at 8:30, and was warmly applauded as he took his seat. Dr. Esther Pohl-Lovejoy was chairman and opened the meeting. Beside her on the table stood a large burnished dinner-bell which she said she would use if the speakers exceeded the time limit allotted them, which was 12 minutes for Senatorial candidates and eight minutes for embryonic Congressmen.
