NEWSPAPER URGES BONDS

Oregon City Paper Favors Permanent Roads for County.

The Oregon City Enterprise prints the following argument in favor of the bond issue: "Clackamas County cannot afford to vote down the proposition to issue $300,000 bonds for the construction of permanent highways.

"Clackamas County has not a dollar of bonded debt, and the cities and school districts of the county are not bonded to any large amount compared with some of the smaller and poorer counties of the state. "The counties that are bonding have indebtedness greatly in excess of Clackamas County. In spite of this fact see what some of them do. "Columbia County, with a population of 10,550 in 1910, assessed valuation of $18,000,000, has issued good roads bonds to the amount of $350,000. "Clatsop, with 16,106 in 1910, assessed valuation of $18,000,000, issued good roads bonds in the sum of $400,000. "Clackamas County, with a population in 1910 of 23,321 and an assessed

POPULAR ELKS' BAND, WHICH IS PREPARING TO ADVERTISE PORTLAND AT NATIONAL CONVENTION OF ORDER IN DENVER IN JULY.

16 GILLNETTERS CAUGHT

Clifton Men, in Hurry to Beat Others, Are Arrested.

ASTORIA, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—The fact that 16 gillnetters residing at Clifton tried to gain a few minutes upon the other fishermen at the opening of the Spring fishing season yesterday got them into trouble and they are now under arrest, charged with violating the closed-season laws.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATION CONDUCTS ENTERTAINMENT TO DEFRAY EXPENSES TO REUNION.

Portland is sure to get a lot of beneficial advertising at Denver in July as the Elks' band is preparing to go there to keep the name of this city before the crowds attending the Elks' National convention.

Recently the band has been conducting a series of entertainments for the purpose of obtaining money to defray the members' expenses to the Denver meeting and it is anticipated that enough money will be raised. In addition to the band about 150 enthusiastic members of Portland Lodge will go to the Denver meeting and march in the parade. The Portland Elks are earnestly supporting Seattle in the contest with San Francisco for the grand lodge convention next year.
