

JUDGES MCGINN AND DAVIS TRADE WORK

Shift to Be Made With Beginning of May Term of Circuit Court Tomorrow.

ANOTHER CHANGE IS SET

Criminal Department to Be Judge Morrow's Tribunal—205 Cases Disposed Of by Judge Kavanaugh in 3 Months.

With the beginning of the May term of the Circuit Court for Multnomah County tomorrow, Judge Davis becomes presiding judge, succeeding Judge McGinn, who has presided the last two months. The criminal department goes to Judge Morrow's court, Judge Kavanaugh having completed his term as criminal judge yesterday.

Because of holdover cases in both courts, however, the actual change of the criminal department will not be made until the last of the week or next week. Judge Kavanaugh has started the McIntosh murder trial, which will not be concluded until Tuesday or Wednesday, and Judge Morrow will not be able to complete the Winters case before the end of the week.

205 Cases Disposed Of.

During the three months Judge Kavanaugh has presided in the criminal department, 205 cases have been disposed of, including six murder trials, counting the McIntosh trial, now in progress; two trials of F. Armstrong and Robert Armstrong; two trials of Ed Ruby, for contributing to the delinquency of a minor and two trials of Emory Hardman, on robbery charge. The Armstrong brothers and Hardman were acquitted at their second trial. The first trial in each instance resulted in hung jury. The jury disagreed in both the Ruby trials. Two juries that tried E. E. Mitchell for the murder of George Morgan disagreed, after which Judge Kavanaugh charged; the Joe Mossel jury disagreed; Luigi Farelhi was acquitted of the murder of Mike Zenola, a saloonkeeper, and Vladimir Bidzinski, convicted of the murder of Jessie Wilson and was sentenced to life imprisonment. George Hohoff, Bidzinski's partner in the murder of the Wilson woman pleaded guilty and received a sentence of life imprisonment.

More than 100 Plead Guilty.

The other cases disposed of included crimes of robbery, burglary, more than 100 of the defendants pleading guilty, a large majority of the others being found guilty after trial. When Judge Kavanaugh took up the work there were 254 criminal cases on the docket. During the three months between 50 and 75 new indictments were returned, bringing the total number of cases on the docket to about 225, of which a few more than 100 criminal cases remain on the calendar. Every district attorney in Mr. Evans' office has taken part in one or more of the trials, besides attending to civil matters, presenting cases to the grand jury and attending preliminary hearings in the district courts.

CITY "SHORTED" IS CHARGE

Contractors' Sand Deliveries Are Being Checked Up.

Having received reports from reliable sources that contractors furnishing sand and gravel to the city for sidewalk construction and street repair have been making short measure, City Commissioner Bigelow has begun an investigation. Pending the completion of a check of the dealings of the city, $300, payable to Henry Foote, has been held by order of Mr. Bigelow. Mr. Foote says the report is unfounded and he will be vindicated. He has not finished the investigation and will not know the facts until a report giving figures on purchases and deliveries is completed.

It is said the quantities of material taken at the docks for delivery to the city have differed from the quantities actually delivered, the shortages apparently having developed between the time the materials were accepted and their arrival at delivery points.

JEWELRY PLACED IN VAULT

All of the jewelry, valued at more than $2000, recovered from the women held in connection with the department store robberies, was deposited yesterday in a safety box in one of the banks. District Attorney Evans, after a conference with Deputy Roberson, decided it best not to keep the valuables longer in the light safe at their disposal.

UNITY RULE FAVORED

Single Government for City and County to Be Urged.

DETAILS BEING WORKED UP

Chamber of Commerce Committee Will Recommend Consolidation, but Report Will Not Be Ready for Several Weeks.

Consolidation of the government of Multnomah County and the City of Portland under one executive and legislative system will be recommended to the Chamber of Commerce within the next six weeks by the committee which was appointed recently by President Averitt to investigate this question.

The details of the plan of consolidation are still to be worked out and the committee will hold several meetings before they are put into the form in which they will be presented in the report. J. D. Abbott, A. L. Barbur, City Auditor; Rufus Holman, County Commissioner, and Roger Sinnott have been added to the original committee by President Averitt.

W. J. Clemens, chairman of the committee, called a meeting yesterday, at which it became apparent that the committee will report favorably on consolidation. Another meeting will be held at the Oregon Hotel Tuesday to consider further the plans for the report.

The general idea advanced by Mr. Clemens and in the main agreed to by the committee yesterday contemplates the division of the city and county into taxation zones according to the service needed, each zone to be divided into precincts from each of which one representative to the general legislative body of the city and county would be elected. This body would hire the city manager and other executives that would be required.

"There is a great mass of figures and other information that we must go through before we can compile our report," said Mr. Clemens yesterday, "but I hope that we may have it ready within the next month or six weeks."

Those present at the meeting yesterday were W. J. Clemens, chairman of the committee; Rufus Holman, County Commissioner; A. L. Barbur, J. D. Abbott and C. H. Jackson.

MR. HOLMES PAY STOPS

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD ACTS TO CARRY OUT RULING.

Salary of Temporary Appointee Under Mr. Dieck Being Held Up Forces to Issue Receding Decision.

Following recent announcement of the Municipal Civil Service Board that members of the City Commission must remove temporary appointees and fill their places with permanent civil service employees, the board yesterday ordered the pay warrant of H. W. Holmes, chief of the Bureau of Highway and Bridges, held up. This action brings to an issue a problem which may have to be settled in the courts.

The Holmes appointment has been the cause of trouble between the board and Commissioner Dieck for several months past. As a result of the action, Mr. Holmes will not be paid for his services last month. The salary is $200 a month. The action means also that Mr. Holmes either will have to work for nothing or Commissioner Dieck will have to pay the civil service examination held to procure eligibles for the position. Mr. Holmes failed to pass.

Commissioner Dieck has retained him in the position under temporary appointment. Complaint has been made by Mr. Dieck that the examination papers were not properly corrected and rated. Members of the Civil Service Board say three responsible engineers of the city rated the papers and that others thoroughly competent have examined them since and have declared the ratings to be proper.

Sol Duc Hot Springs, Hotel and Sanatorium
Water Temperature 140°; Altitude 1760 feet

Most Superbly Situated Pleasure and Health Resort in America, fitted with every modern comfort and convenience. Tennis, Handball, Bowling, Mountain-climbing, Fishing and Hunting

BY W. T. PROSSER.

AMONG the most attractive spots in the wonderful Pacific Northwest, where nature has been supplemented by all modern comforts and conveniences, without herself being marred or tamed from view, is the Sol Duc Hot Springs, "in the Heart of the Olympics."

Leaving Seattle on the magnificent steel steamer Sol Duc, the trip is past the San Juan Islands and over one of the most beautiful inland seas in the world to the historic and picturesque little city of Port Angeles.

From Port Angeles, "the port of angels," the Sol Duc Auto Stage takes you over twenty miles of winding roads through the primeval forests where the trees stand twelve feet through and cover miles and miles of park-like grounds through which the Elwha River makes its way, its great organ tones thrilling the forest hills on either bank. Emerging from this cathedral-like shade you find Lake Crescent, a wonderful body of clear water, 13 miles long with rugged, rock-bound shores, picturesque inlets and magnificent distances. The waters teem with trout of all kinds, while the country around is filled with pretty and wild oak, bear and other big game.

Here the swift little steamer "Betty Earles" takes you over the lake, and the journey ends, with an hour's ride through the Olympic National Forest Reserve upon one of the finest scenic highways in the world.

Now you are in the most romantic and picturesque of spots. Half hidden among the primeval fir stands is the Sol Duc Hotel, a structure that might grace any city in the land, with its 162 steam-heated, handsomely furnished rooms, with every convenience at hand, spacious lobby, and elegant dining room, with its own dining-room and corps of servants. It is under complete medical supervision, and contains one of the finest equipped surgeries in the world.

Nice, furnished and electric-lighted tents, with full hotel service, are provided for those who prefer the out-of-door life in full. There are also special bathing pavilions for men and women, and the hot springs only a few steps away from the bathing lot springs covered walks. All the latest and most scientific methods known in hydrotherapy are employed in the Sol Duc baths, including the tub, shower, electric, Russian and Turkish, with scientific massage and a corps of trained attendants.

The perfectly appointed Sol Duc model farm, with its bred dairy herd and its modern poultry yards, provide an abundance of fresh milk, cream and eggs. The Sol Duc country offers the best of fishing and hunting. There are miles of trails through the mountains for horseback riding, romantic trips to falls and lakes, and attractions everywhere to woo the weary and the invalid to exercise and good appetite.

Neither has the management neglected more sophisticated amusement, such as tennis courts, hand and bowling, moving pictures and a fine ball room where the guests can hang to their heart's content, inspired to rhythmic motion by the sweet strains of the Sol Duc Orchestra.

The Sol Duc Hot Springs have an elevation of 1760 feet; a delightfully mild climate all the year, and all about the Olympic Mountains circle their lofty protection and sublime beauty.

The remarkable medicinal and curative properties of the Sol Duc Hot Springs have been heralded world wide. The waters are of a temperature of 140 degrees F. That treated and its most universal foe, rheumatism, and its kindred ailments quickly disappear under its wonderful healing power. The cure of diabetes, kidney, bladder, liver and stomach troubles are also among its victories.

The following is an extract from the official analysis made by the department of chemistry, University of Washington:

Sulfates and bicarbonates of sodium. Such water increases metabolism, dissolves uric acid and allays irritation of the mucous membrane of the urinary tract. They have, therefore, been used with excellent results in treating acid dyspepsia, rheumatism, gout and diabetes, and are of value in breaking up and eliminating uric deposits and uric acid.

Following a widespread demand, the Sol Duc Waters are now bottled at the Springs and shipped broadcast. They are universal food for the people of Portland in still and sparkling form.
