Yesterday's Results.

At Oakland—Sacramento 9, Oakland 2.
At Los Angeles—Venice 4, Los Angeles 7 (10 innings).

Hub Pernoll was within 12 games of a world's consecutive winning record, but guess Marquard's 19 mark is safe yet.

After eight victories in a row, Portland bombarded his fat ribs off the ramparts in just five innings yesterday, and pulled the Seals from their proud position as Coast League leaders.

Score: Portland, 5; San Francisco, 2.

Harry Krause went dark before Portland Tuesday, but Harry and his educated elbow were orthodox members of the record smashing club yesterday. Krause pitched a brilliant game, holding the Seals to seven scattered blows.

There was never any question about the ultimate result the way the Beavers were hammering Pernoll.

Beardless Youth Relieves Hub.

In the five innings he exercised his staunch port arm, Pernoll was prodded for ten lusty hits, yielding the five runs. Arlett, a beardless youth not yet on the voting list, twirled the last three innings for the Seals, and looked like 25 straight.

He was nicked for only two hits. Approximately 4000 fans were on deck, lured by the warm sunshine and the prospects of seeing the Beavers kick up a few capers on the eve of their departure for a three weeks' trip in California.

While an occasional boot splattered its way into the box score, the hitting for the most part was ornate and sensational enough for the crabbest spectators. Spear, Rodgers and Davis dabbled in necromancy on divers occasions, while O'Leary and Charles upheld the reputation of the Seals.

Unless some employee of the International Typographical Union bangs a wrong key, Fisher will be the only member of the Portland club minus a hit in the column given over to the gunning statistics this morning. Four of the boys connived to fatten their averages with a couple of safe swats—namely, Spears, Derrick, Kores and Lober.

Krause Drives in Run.

Krause acted a dual role yesterday, for he drove in Portland's first tall in the second frame with a single to center. Lober opened that frame with a smash to right.

Rodgers' single and a poke off the right field fence by Kores counted another in the third, and after that they came in so regularly that the official scorer's wing might have imagined it was anchored in juxtaposition to where the brass rubs off on your inap.

In the fourth Pernoll sunk a wide one into Fisher's anatomy, and Spears scored him by singling past third. Pernoll met his Waterloo just 11 minutes later, and who'd'ya suppose was his Wellington? Our young and freckled friend, Robert Davis, as (meaninging south) slayer.

Kores opened the fifth with a single past third. Lober thereupon doubled into right field, and Davis registered both of them with a safe poke over second base. Exit Pernoll, reminding one of a crush hat in repose.

Downs, Corhan and Schmidt were the principals in the two Seal rallies.

In the fifth Krause walked Charles, and a wild pitch and Schmidt's triple into center rang the gong. Not until the ninth did Howard's clank kick his up into the home run again. Downs started a rally, Downs scoring, but Schmidt retired the side with two men on the bases.

The series now stands three games for Portland and two for the Seals. Today, in the last game of the series, Eberhart or Martinson will work for Portland, against either Standridge or Tozer. Score:

was anchored in juxtaposition to where the brass rubs off on your instep.

In the fourth Pernoll sunk a wide one into Fisher's left arm, and Spears scored him by singling him out.

Pernoll met ble Waterloo just 11 minutes later, and who'd'ya suppose was this Wellington? Our young and freckled friend, Robert Davis, ss. (meaning southpaw slayer).

Kore opened the fifth with a single past third base. The Korean doubled into right field, and Davis scored both of them with a safe poke over second base. Exit Pernoll, reminding one of a crush hat in repose.

Notes of the Game.

If yesterday's weather is repeated...

this afternoon, there should be around 10,000 on hand to bid the Beavers good-bye.

Bill Spears continues to absorb an undue share of the calcium. In the fourth inning yesterday Bill made a beautiful line throw to first base, doubling Downs on Muncy's drive.

Arlett showed a lot of steam. He pitched in the California State League last season.

Rodgers robbed the Seals of a run in the fifth by doing a "beeson" into the air and yanking down Pernoll's screacher with one hand.

Charles, for the visitors, and Krause, for Portland, also butted into the home run league. Both made sensational stops of line drives.

Portland leaves tonight for Los Angeles for two weeks against the Angels and Venice. The third week will be spent in San Francisco against Oakland, and Mac returns home May 26 against Los Angeles.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Sacramento defeated Oakland today, 9 to 2, and demonstrated a lot of spectacular infielding that raised the fans to their toes with repeated shouts of approval.

Mohler, Young and Tennant executed double plays on three different occasions, and Young at short for Sacramento took 18 chances and fumbled once. Score:

Angels and Venice. The third week will be spent in San Francisco against Oakland, and Mac returns home May 26 against Los Angeles.

Garrett Pitches; Helena Wins.

It remained for Jess Garrett, old Portland favorite, to pilot his own team, Helena, to its first victory of the year. He set Boles down with five hits yesterday and won 2 to 1. Erv Jensen, a former teammate of Garrett's, allowed 10 hits. Both twirlers are managers of their respective teams. The game was played at Boise.

Notes on Berkeley Track Meet.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—(Special.)—Honnet, of Stanford, best Cuentend, of California, a "fat" 30 yards in the half mile. Reynolds, of O. A. C., set the pace for the field and overworked, although a hard run for second place honors.

The two-mile races brought forth C. C. McCoe, of Stanford, the O. A. C. athlete, took the conference distance event in 2:27 1-5, beating Harry Wood's coast mark of 2:34 3-5, made last year. Shortly afterward Edward Millard, of the Olympic Club, accomplished the untold-of time (in these parts) of 2:24.

It will always be doubtful whether Millard is entitled to the time. Referee Elliott refused to make any ruling on the informal protest to Dr. Frank Stewart, head of athletics at Oregon Agricultural College. Elliott said there is nothing in the rules to deprive Millard of his time. Other officials agree.

WORLD MARK GOES; O. A. C. MEN STARS

New High Jump Record Set at Berkeley—Hobgood Lowers Coast 2-Mile Time.

CALIFORNIA, 43, WINS MEET

Stanford Is Second, O. A. C. Third, and Oregon Fifth—Cole, Payne, Krohn and Reynolds Figure.

BERKELEY, Cal., May 2.—The University of California won the fifth annual Pacific Coast intercollegiate track and field meet held today at the California oval by a score of 43 points. Stanford University was second with 41 points.

The nine other competing colleges finished as follows: University of Southern California, 15; Oregon Agricultural College, 11; University of Washington, 9; University of Oregon, 6; Nevada, 3; Santa Clara, 2; Washington State College, 0; Occidental, 0; Pomona, 0.

When the mile relay race, the last event on the program, was called the score stood: Stanford, 41, with California 38. A foul by Stanford in the first lap of this race lost the event and the meet to the Cardinal athletes.

World's Record Smashed.

Over 6000 spectators witnessed one of the best and closest meets ever held on the Coast. A world's record was beaten and another equaled, while the Pacific Coast figures for the two-mile run were twice shattered, first by Guy Hobgood, of the Oregon Agricultural College, who won the conference event in 9 minutes 37 1-5 seconds, and in a special event run a half hour later Oliver Millard, of the Olympic Club, further reduced the mark to 9 minutes 42 1-2 seconds.

The world's record in the high jump of 6 feet 2 1/2 inches, held by George Horine, of the Olympic Club, was raised to 6 feet 7 1/2 inches by Dr. E. J. Beeson, a claimant of the former title-holder, in a special exhibition event between the two.

Fred Kelly, of the University of Southern California, equaled his world's record of 15 seconds flat in the 120-yard high hurdle.

In the 220 low hurdles Kelly fell at the turn and was out of the race. J. Beeson, a claimant of the former title-holder, in a special exhibition event between the two.

Oregon Athletes Star.

The two-mile run gave the athletes from Oregon a sensational victory, as they won the plaudits of the crowd. Hobgood, the Oregon Agricultural College distance man, knocked practically five seconds off the coast mark, and Payne, of the University of Oregon, finished second in the fast event, being 25 yards behind Hobgood.

Not the least of the interesting performances of the northern men was the work of young Cole, the freshman from Oregon Agricultural College, who won the 440-yard race in 1:51.11. Cole is viewed as a young corner, and was more or less a dark horse from the neighboring state.

Joe Reynolds, of Oregon Agricultural College, was third in the 880-yard event and made a whirlwind finish.

Robert Krohn, the Stanford student who won the pole vault in 13 feet 1 inch, is a Portland boy. Krohn's best previous vault performance was 12 feet 3 1/2 inches, made in the Stanford-California meet a fortnight ago. He holds the Portland interscholastic record of 10 feet 3 inches, established in the annual May meet three Springs back.
