Upton Sinclair, Fresh From Hunger Strike, Rejoins "Free Silence" Pickets.

BAPTIST CHURCH GUARDED

Socialist Asks Pastor Whether Christ Would Sustain Rockefeller, but Business Meeting Quickly Adjourns.

NEW YORK, May 2.—May-day demonstrations by Socialists, Industrial Workers of the World, anarchists and anti-Rockefeller agitators kept the police active in several parts of the city today. A crowd of more than 10,000 persons poured into Union Square late in the day after Socialist parades in the streets. The crowds became unruly and the police formed flying wedges and cleared the square. Several persons were injured.

The "free silence" movement of protest against what its sponsors designated as John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s, policy in the Colorado mine controversy was continued today in the day in front of Mr. Rockefeller's offices at 26 Broadway.

Sinclair Decides to Pay Fine. Upton Sinclair, author, head of the movement, was released from the Tombs after payment of the fine imposed when he was arraigned Thursday for doing picket duty. Weak from lack of nourishment because of his hunger strike, Sinclair went to the District Attorney's office to prepare an appeal from his conviction and then resumed his place among his crepe-wearing followers at 26 Broadway. He announced that the "free silence" picketing would be kept up as long as the Colorado mine strike continued.

Rockefeller Church Guarded. Police last night guarded the Calvary Baptist Church, which Mr. Rockefeller attends. There were rumors that an attempt would be made to disturb the prayer meeting.

There was no demonstration outside the church, but one of several Socialists who attempted a business meeting held after the prayer service offered a resolution for the gathering to vote whether the church should sustain Mr. Rockefeller. The pastor did not reply but declared the meeting had adjourned prior to the vote on the resolution. A police lieutenant advised the Socialists to leave the church and they did so quietly. Mr. Rockefeller conducts a Bible class each Sunday in this church.

Anarchists Address I. W. W. The gathering Sunday was intended by the Socialist party to be its annual demonstration and was in peaceful progress until after Industrial Workers of the World speakers had entered the park. The newcomers had held earlier meetings elsewhere, at Madison Square Garden, Alexander Berkman, anarchist, and others had made speeches replete with criticism of Mr. Rockefeller and threatening language directed against the mine strike.

Inscribed on the banners they flaunted as they marched upon Union Square were texts linking the Mexican crisis with the Colorado mine strike. The "Huerta is ready to mediate, Rockefeller says there is nothing to mediate."

DEMOCRATS AT BANQUET. Clackamas County Occasion Attracts Party Men of State.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—Leading Democrats from all parts of the state attended the annual Clackamas County Democratic banquet, held in this city Friday evening. Over 200 persons more than had been expected were present.

Gilbert Hedgoc, toastmaster, delivered a short opening speech, pointing out the growth and purpose of the Democratic party.

Judge W. N. Gates, of Portland, the first speaker, pleaded for better education for children and told of his experiences as juvenile judge.

Robert Miller, candidate for Governor on the Democratic ticket, told what he would do if elected.

One of the most appreciated talks was by Judge A. S. Bennett, of The Dalles. He said if he were Governor all gubernatorial candidates on the Republican ticket would be put to building roads for the state, incidentally ridding the community of Republican office seekers.

$40,000 MAY BE GAINED. Decision in Suit Favors Colonel Yates, Late of Vancouver.

By a decision in the United States District Court in London, Vt., Friday, Colonel Arthur W. Yates, until recently in charge of the United States quartermaster's office in Portland, may recover a $40,000 trust fund set aside for the benefit of his daughter, Mrs. Yates. After the death of Mrs. Yates, the trust fund went to her 18-year-old daughter, Georgia. Yates, who Colonel Yates charges spent the money extravagantly. The court held that Colonel Yates might recover the money and support his daughter in any way he saw proper.

Until last October Colonel Yates was stationed in Portland, but at that time was transferred to San Francisco. Last week he received orders to prepare to leave May 5 for service in Manila.

RIVER DANCES WITH LIGHT. 150 Boats Inaugurate Gill-Net Season at Oregon City.

OREGON CITY, Or., May 2.—(Special.)—The gill-netting season opened at noon today and to all practical purposes, the trolling season for salmon on the Willamette closed.

OREGON POLITICAL GOSSIP

Lincoln Republican Club Asks Republican Candidates Nominated by Prohibitionists to Declare Whether They Will Support Republican Ticket. One Refuses "Dry" Nomination—Rallies Well Attended—News of the Candidates.

THE Lincoln Republican Club, through its secretary, C. R. McNeely, has addressed a query to four of the five candidates for Republican nominations at the primary election, who received the Prohibition nomination for the same offices at the Prohibition county convention held last Wednesday, asking them to say publicly where they stand.

The query is addressed to D. V. Hart, Republican candidate for County Commissioner; H. C. Kornegay, Republican candidate for the Legislature; Ernest A. Middlebrooks, Republican candidate for County Surveyor; and Miss Lila O'Brien, Republican candidate for Judge of the District Court, Department No. 3.

"In the event that you are defeated in the primary election of May 15 as the Republican nominee for the office you are seeking, will you give your loyal support to the Republican nominee, or will you let your name go before the voters as a nominee for that office on the Prohibition ticket?" the four candidates are asked. "We cannot expect an economical administration when our legislative and executive branches of government are in disharmony. There are several candidates in the race for Coroner who are preaching the gospel of a public morgue. I believe in a public morgue. We need one to bury some 100 candidates after May 15, more after November 3, and a bundle of useless commissions and officeholders in the next 25 years, according to Edward Dudley Kenna, of Chicago, former vice-president and general solicitor of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway, who has written a book entitled "Railway Misrule."

Word has been received by R. P. Hutton, assistant superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, from Secretary of State Olcott, that his department had been caused much trouble by action of circulators of prohibition petitions in sending signed petitions direct to the Secretary of State's office. Though Mr. Olcott has returned a number of these petitions, he says that they are showering in on him so fast that a good many will find the waste-paper basket unless the practice is stopped. It appears that the state is as fast as they are signed to Anti-Saloon League headquarters in the Stock Exchange building, Portland, where preparation of the general petition is in hand.

Two rousing Republican rallies were held under the auspices of the Lincoln Republican Club Thursday night, one at Lents and the other at Sunnyside.

At the Lents rally, C. M. McNeely, a Republican candidate for the Legislature, urged united support for the candidacy of R. A. Booth for United States Senator. "I think every Republican should put his shoulder to the wheel," said Mr. McNeely, in part, "and vote straight for R. A. Booth. I feel that Mr. Booth can be elected to the United States Senate by a large vote, but it is up to the Republicans to get behind him and give him the best support at the general election and in the campaign preceding it. Let us have Republicans."

At the Sunnyside rally was paid the Lincoln Republican Club and the work it is doing for Republican harmony by C. A. Johnson, who declared that the club in turn should have the backing of all Republicans.

Other speakers included Nelson R. Jacobson, candidate for Coroner; Daniel Grant, candidate for Coroner; and H. A. Darnall, candidate for the Legislature.

Speakers at the Sunnyside rally were George M. McBride, candidate for Joint Senator; Dr. Samuel C. Slocum, candidate for election as Coroner; E. E. Southern, candidate for the Legislature; T. J. Kreuder and C. W. Hohlt, candidates for County Commissioners; and J. W. Carter, candidate for Governor, and Evert L. Jones, for George M. Brown, candidate for Attorney-General.

"M. B. S." RADIO IS "S. O. S." Wireless Operators Explain How Siberia Report Spread.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—How a wireless operator, hearing the steamship "M. B. S." sign her code signal "M. B. S." after giving her latitude and longitude, and misread it into "S. O. S." the signal for assistance, was explained here tonight by those familiar with the international code, which is used in wireless telegraphy.

The symbols for the two sets of letters are as follows:

M	B	S

Now a steamer in giving her longitude and latitude sends her code signal, thereafter, twice. It is considered more than probable that some recording operator missed the "M" and "B" and mistook only the "S" for an alert at the first letter of the distress signal, he caught the two dashes of the "M" and the one dash of the "B" and overlooked the slight pause between these two dashes and the first dash of the "S" and then all three together. Thus he had:

The final three dots of the "B" made the third "S."

The operator, having the location of the vessel, and what he thought was the "S. O. S." relayed the call. The "M. B. S." having given her location and name, proceeded, without more ado, to save her and she was taken to the local college hospital, but died shortly after admission.

NATIONAL BUREAU OF RAILROADS, PREDICTED

Edward Dudley Kenna Predicts This as Outcome in Rail Situation.

NEED OF FUNDS IS CITED

Former Head of Santa Fe Asserts Belief $25,000,000,000 Required in Next 25 Years Can't Be Obtained for Railways.

CHICAGO, April 28.—The railway problem in the United States is not that of freight rates, but the necessity of raising $25,000,000,000 for extensions and betterments in the next 25 years, according to Edward Dudley Kenna, of Chicago, former vice-president and general solicitor of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway, who has written a book entitled "Railway Misrule." Falling to raise the vast sum required—and Mr. Kenna doubts if it can be obtained—Government ownership is the alternative.

Mr. Kenna points out that the railways of the United States have reached a stage of their development where they must begin to double their facilities to take care of the growth of the country in the next 25 years. New systems must be built, and there must be further development of the old ones to care for normal growth. If this work is not done there will be stagnation and business depression, Mr. Kenna declares.

Not even a small part of this sum—$25,000,000,000—can be procured, Mr. Kenna says, unless there is radical change in present methods of regulating the railways. Capital, seeing earnings steadily reduced by the inorganic and confusing regulations made by 48 states and one Federal Government, will not come forward.

Safety Securities Voted. The investor is offered, under present methods, only a slim profit, a "rate of interest," fixed by the public, and no guarantee that he will not lose both principal and interest. With municipal bonds, the investor is offered the same returns but he is offered by the railroads, the investor chooses the municipal bonds, or if he desires some risk with a chance of profit, he invests in the railroads. He purchases the bonds of the railroads in Africa, Asia or South America at less than par and gets a stock bonus. He does not want American railroad securities.

Increased freight rates will not encourage him, because the expense of increased safety devices and the necessities of competition brought about by the anti-trust laws will continue to grow and eat up any increase in rates granted.

The need of the railway problem, Mr. Kenna finds, is then not freight rates, but the application of the anti-trust law to the railroads. "It has been to prevent the concentration of all traffic on the lines of one or two railroads," he says, "that the economic transport and to make impossible enormous savings that might be possible were the companies free to arrange for better and more economical service than is possible at present," he says.

Alternative, Government Ownership. If railroad combinations are not to be permitted, the alternative, Mr. Kenna says, is Government ownership, which he declares would not be as bad as its opponents try to make it appear. Statistics pointed to as proving failure abroad are not valid, he says. Those who cite the cost of 1.41 cents for hauling a ton of freight per mile in Germany and compare it with a cost of .741 cent in the United States, do not explain, he says, that the average haul in Germany is 60 miles and in the United States is 1.41 miles. The difference in the haul is a controlling factor, as the same terminal service must be performed for the short as for the long haul.

Mr. Kenna lists 35 railroads—the ownership of which would give the Government control of the railroads of the United States and shows that at the highest price at which they have sold since 1911 the entire issues of the common stocks of these roads could be bought for $1,000,000,000. The dividends now being paid by these roads would give a return of $264,414,758, or 6 1/2 per cent on the $4,000,000,000 cost. The Government procured funds for the purchase by the issuance of 2 1/2 per cent bonds, the deal would net the Government $1,000,000,000. The Government could be used for improvements. Incidentally the Government would get control of the anthracite mines owned by the railroads.

There would be no need to pay stockholders an exorbitant price for their shares. Mr. Kenna thinks that if the Government bought three railroads—one in the East, one in the South and one in the West, it could fix the freight and passenger rates for the entire country and force the stockholders to other roads to sell.

AMERICANS STAY IN Between 500 and 800 Decide They Cannot Be Spared.

VERA CRUZ, May 2.—The refugees from the capital who arrived here from Puerto Mexico on board the transport Hancock yesterday, and later were transferred to the steamer Monterey, on board which they will proceed to Galveston, said they had received good treatment on the way from the capital to Puerto Mexico. Their only suffering was due to heat.

It was estimated that from 500 to 800 Americans remained in the capital, most of whom felt that they could not leave their interests unprotected.

Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American Charge d'Affaires, and his family left yesterday for Galveston. They were aboard the steamer Yankton for Galveston.

TWO AUTO THIEVES CAUGHT. 18 and 19-Year-Old Lads Nipped as They Are Stealing Car.

Caught in the act of stealing an automobile, Ivan Covish, 19 years old, and Howard Simpson, 18, were arrested Friday night by Detective Hill and Hamersley, at Park and Washington streets. The automobile was left near a theater, by its owner, Miss Annie Brock, 255 Corbett street.

Hill and Hamersley came upon the men on Yamhill street, where they were believed to be attempting to start an automobile. They followed them to Washington street, where they HUERTA MINISTER RESIGNS. Rojas, in Charge of Foreign Affairs, Leaves Cabinet.

MEXICO CITY, May 2.—Jose Lopez Portillo y Rojas, Mexican foreign minister, resigned yesterday. Esteva Ruiz, under secretary to the foreign office, also resigned.

A proposition made by the Foreign Minister to send an official commission to Washington to help arrange the difficulties between the United States was rejected at a Cabinet meeting.

Clara Farry, the young girl who has started Portland at various times with her feats of prowess in the water, won the cup in the diving contest staged at the Orpheum Theater last night by Odva, the water nymph exhibiting there in a tank act.

Clara Farry was one of the few able to do the "march step," a method of getting across the water feet first. She failed on the evolution, but her style in the other events won for her. Other entrants were Earl Smead, Portland Swimming Association; Victor Mahon, Multnomah Club; S. Anderson, Portland, and Jess Perry, Portland Association.

SALES ART TAUGHT WOMEN. Berlin Shop Assistants Shown How to "Handle" Customers.

BERLIN, May 2.—The Municipal School for Women Shop Assistants, established by the City of Berlin a year ago, is now in its second year. The "handling" customers. One-half of the 12 months' course is devoted to this.

The young women are taught how to receive a customer, how to serve him, how to conduct themselves "in a difficult situation" and how to treat a customer who is hard to please.

IF BACKACHE OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

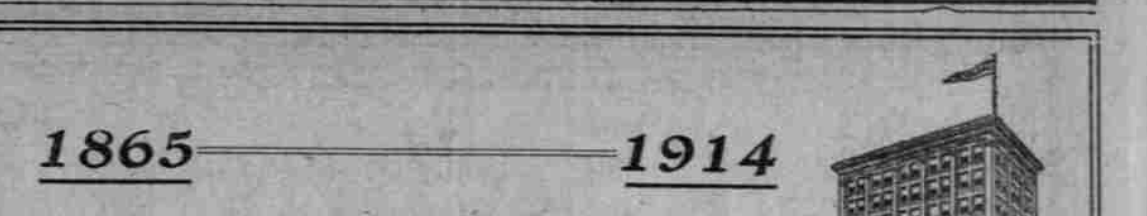

Eat Less Meat Also Take Glass of Salts Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to urinate two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

But less meat, drink lots of water; also get rid of any foodmatters from your system. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will be relieved. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean the kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

following ingredients and mix yourself, taking a teaspoonful at meal times and at bedtime: 10 grains of potassium iodide, 10 grains of sodium salicylate, 4 grains of wine of colchicum, one-half oz. compound carduus, 1 oz. compound sassafras, 5 oz. This is my favorite prescription for rheumatism.

"Charlotte" writes: "Some time ago you answered my question about my backache. I was very much relieved. Will you kindly repeat the formula?"

Answer: I shall be very glad to repeat the formula for you. Get from your druggist a 2-grain suppository and take according to directions. These tablets are mentho-laxene and mix with honey or hot water and take one or two according to directions given on the bottle. This is a very mild laxative and will surely relieve your bowels in a few days at most. It is absolutely harmless and very pleasant to take.

"B" writes: "What can you prescribe to relieve my backache? I have very much. I have pains and heavy limbs feeling after eating. Your advice, please." Answer: A three-course treatment. First, take 10 grains of potassium iodide, 10 grains of sodium salicylate, 4 grains of wine of colchicum, one-half oz. compound carduus, 1 oz. compound sassafras, 5 oz. This is my favorite prescription for rheumatism.

"John W." writes: "Being past middle age and observing that my nervous system is in a state of collapse, I am looking for a remedy. I do not gain strength from my food, am weak, listless, forgetful, irritable, and am tired and unable to act the part of a strong man of health. Can you prescribe a remedy?" Answer: Get from a well-stocked pharmacy a sealed tube of 3-grain cadomane tablets. These are excellent for all the troubles needing a strong, harmless, refreshing tonic. Antacid and pleasant results follow and life and hope are renewed.

"De V." writes: "I should like to ask you how one can reduce the weight. I am too large, and last summer suffered on account of excess of fat. Can you give me a remedy, harmless and safe?" Answer: Get from your druggist a 2-grain suppository and take according to directions. These tablets are mentho-laxene and mix with honey or hot water and take one or two according to directions given on the bottle. This is a very mild laxative and will surely relieve your bowels in a few days at most. It is absolutely harmless and very pleasant to take.

"Nina R." writes: "Please advise me what to take to overcome extreme thinness. My arms and bust have fallen into development and my face is so thin that I am positively homely, although my features are regular." Answer: Many ladies would be much pleased to have their arms and bust as fleshy, and as an increased weight is possible it is the duty of every woman to be at least as well as she can. Begin with three grain hypo-nuclease tablets, which are obtained from your druggist. Take them three times a day, after meals, and continue until your weight is satisfactory. Frequently a two months' treatment will do it. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

"Mrs. O." writes: "Kindly publish again the recipe for the remedy for backache which you gave to 'Ted' some time ago." Answer: I shall be very glad to repeat the formula. Get at the drug store the following ingredients and mix yourself, taking a teaspoonful at meal times and at bedtime: 10 grains of potassium iodide, 10 grains of sodium salicylate, 4 grains of wine of colchicum, one-half oz. compound carduus, 1 oz. compound sassafras, 5 oz.
