

27 TO 30 FARMERS AT ALBINA MARKET

Almost Everything Brought In Is Sold Quickly With Aid of Business Men.

SALES TOTAL NEARLY $700

Women's Department Is Added Feature and Homemade Cakes, Cookies, "Crusties" and Brown Bread Bring in $50 to $60.

The Albina public market, conducted by the Albina Business Men's Club, was a great success yesterday. Between 27 and 30 loads of farm and garden stuff were brought in during the market hours, and almost everything was sold quickly. One farmer came late, after 11 o'clock, after the crowd had gone, and did not sell anything. T. J. Murphy, president of the club, was on Knott street when the first wagon came, and assisted the man in selling out.

Secretary M. H. Calef remained until the close and brought tables from his store for the use of the farmers. Mrs. Curtis Holcomb, Mrs. C. W. Miller and Mrs. A. R. Zeller were on the street wearing badges and acting as assistant saleswomen. T. L. Adams, Henry Erickson, W. J. Rutherford and other business men helped the farmers to dispose of their loads quickly. An Italian gardener brought a big load of garden stuff from Columbia Slough and he set the pace in selling and handling his stuff. His big load was sold in exactly 20 minutes and he was asked what to do and how to handle the stuff.

Most Loads from Washington. The remarkable feature of the market was the fact that most of the loads came from Clarke County, Washington, while only a few loads came from Multnomah, although more from this county were there than before. Another feature was the sales of product of home cooking, which proved popular. The large loads brought from $20 to $35, and the smaller ones from $10 to $15 each. The members of the Albina Business Men's Club were greatly pleased with the success and will continue the market.

Among those who brought in loads are the following: T. J. Moe, Columbia Slough farmer, load of general garden stuff. First at market, and will come again. Alfred Holman, Portland man, with few acres. Sold eggs for 45 cents for two dozen and dressed chickens for 21 cents a pound.

A. V. Folkman, Clarke County farmer, with 35 acres, brought general load. He will come again. T. Smith, master Washington Grange, Patron of Husbandry, Clarke County, Washington, brought eggs, canned fruits and general stuff. Will come again.

H. Cerrato, Italian grower on Columbia Slough, brought peak load and sold out in 20 minutes. His skill in handling his produce enabled him to dispose of his load very soon. Joseph and John Cramer, Clarke County, Washington, had one load each consisting of potatoes, 60 dozens of fresh eggs and dressed chickens.

J. Hoogstraat, from Mount Scott, with ten acres, brought in general stuff, and will come again. John Perrier, Multnomah County, brought spinach, which sold rapidly.

F. W. Heibish, Clarke County, Washington, brought 15 sacks of potatoes and other stuff. Potatoes sold from 65 to 75 cents a 100 pounds.

H. H. Ackerman, Clarke County, Washington, brought in a general load of garden stuff. E. M. Rolfe, Clarke County, Washington, brought eggs, potatoes and sold 50 pounds of popcorn. Multnomah County, brought a general load of garden stuff.

Late Arrival Sells Much. J. W. Johnson, Clarke County, Washington, brought a general load late, but sold most of his stuff.

Women Take in $50 to $60. Probably the most interesting feature of the market was the women's department. Seven women took in between $30 and $40 from the sale of brown bread, cookies, doughnuts, cakes and "crusties." Everything they brought was bought as quickly as it could be handed out. One woman went back to her home for another supply. The cooked stuff was attractive, crisp and palatable. The crusties, something new, commanded rapid sale. These women were delighted with their success and will be on the market in future at all market days.

A farmer from Orasco brought eggs and other articles. He represented the Orasco Association. The eggs were all branded with the association mark. He said he came to look over the Albina market and advertise the Orasco Association. There were several floral wagons on the street. Nearly all on the street promised Secretary Calef that they would come again. It was estimated that the total sales

CIRCUS IS COMING TO TOWN AND BIG TIME AWAITS KIDS OLD AND YOUNG

Sells-Floto-Buffalo Bill Production to Bring All the Wonders of the Past and Present and Some Others, Including a New Beast—Tent Show Has Many Novelties This Year.

Lucie's Zoo and One of Her Herds of Performing Elephants

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the little boys in their families and also the little girls and also the kids who live around the corner and—

Well, a lot of things. For a week more, and there will come the shout of the ballyho man, the groans and grunts of the wild man and the wild lions, the trumpeting of the elephants and everything else which goes to make up "the greatest show on earth." In a week there will come groaning, squealing, grunting, howling and reverberating into town the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill (himself) for a two days' stay, Monday and Tuesday, May 18 and 19.

And of course the coming of the circus will mean two days that will be big in the lives of the kiddos of Portland. Two days of blaring bands, of squeaky, leaky trombones as the clown serenaders play the music for the burlesque riding acts, two days of peanuts and pink lemonade and all the other things which go to make up a crowded, happy afternoon and night at the circus. And will there be excitement as a result of it all? Just ask the kids who are expecting it.

For in addition to the regular circus acts, you know, there is to be Buffalo Bill himself; Buffalo Bill with all his Indians and his cowboys and his ranch girls and his soldiers and vaqueros, his ropers and his riders. There is to be the old Deadwood stage coach, and the inevitable attack upon it. There are to be the fairy-like equestriennes and the contortionists and the acrobats and aerialists; there will come the cracking of whips as Captain Dutch Recordo, who trains lions by "making them feel at home," puts the wild animals through their stunts. There will come the squealing of the elephants as they obey the commands of Zora, "the bravest woman on earth." And of course—

Of course there'll be those 40 clowns. Was there ever a circus which was really and truly a circus that didn't have its complement of clowns, to throw water on each other and do all approximated between $600 and $700, which the farmers and the women carried away in cash. All the garden stuff was clean, fresh and crisp. Everything conformed to sanitary requirements, and the buyers all appeared satisfied with what they bought.

INDIAN SUPPLIES WANTED Portland Merchants Invited to Submit Tenders by June 4.

Bids for supplies for Indian agencies are solicited from Portland merchants. Specifications have been received at the office of the Chamber of Commerce from William B. Collier, superintendent of the United States warehouse at San Francisco, on articles required by the Indian Service, including groceries, glass and enamelware, lamps, furniture, shoe findings, harness, agricultural implements and a long list of other articles.

Bids will be opened at San Francisco on June 4. Tom Boyd Undergoes Operation. Tom Boyd, conductor on the O. W. R. & N., with a run between Portland and Pendleton, was operated on at the Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday for appendicitis. Last night he had recovered from the anesthetic and was reported resting well.

Capt. Dutch Recordo, Lion Trainer

the other specified things which are laid down in the rule book of the circus's lifetime of fun. Another thing, too, will be with the circus that will mean something of an unusual interest—the new beast, the hyney, which is being exhibited with the Sells-Floto-Buffalo Bill circus just to make the thing a real success, through the kindness of the United States Government. A combination of the zebra and the burro it is, combined every useful feature of the mule and a few during its stay here, after and every graceful one of the horse, lion and evening.

Why Say "Food"

Quite often one hears an expression of surprise when beer is called a food product.

Beer is rightly called a food because, as Dr. Harvey W. Wiley says, "the term food includes all those substances which build tissues, restore waste, furnish heat and energy, and provide appropriate condiment."

It would be very hard indeed to find a food into whose preparation more scientific research and more hygienic care enter than into the making of such a beer as Olympia.

The scrupulous housewife who sees our plant marvels. We suggest that you make your Summer trip this year one to Olympia and let us show it to you.

Olympia Beer on draught or in bottles can be bought from well-conducted retail establishments everywhere in the Pacific Northwest, Alaska and Hawaii. A case for your home can also be obtained from our branch in Portland (Phone A 247, Main 371), Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Aberdeen, Pasco or Wallace.

DOES YOUR STOMACH CONTAIN A GLASSFUL OF ACID?

66 OUT OF 100 DYSPEPTICS HAVE DANGEROUS ACID IN THEIR STOMACHS, WHICH MUST BE NEUTRALIZED IF GOOD HEALTH IS TO BE MAINTAINED. If you held a teaspoonful of hydrochloric acid in your mouth for only a second you would not be surprised at its burning and inflaming all the tissues; yet an eminent specialist states that 66 out of 100 dyspeptics go about with a glassful or more of this powerful acid in their stomachs, and then wonder what causes the burning and aching and why they suffer the discomfort after meals. To put wholesome food into an acid stomach only increases the discomfort, because the acid mixes with the fresh food and turns it sour, making a lot more acid. The acid condition causes food fermentation, which irritates, distends and inflames the tender stomach lining, and it is not surprising that specialists say acid stomachs are dangerous. This decidedly dangerous and uncomfortable condition can be overcome either by following a strict diet or, and this is far easier and more quickly effective, by taking a teaspoonful of bisphosphate of magnesia in a quart of water after meals to neutralize the acidity. The latter course is much more satisfactory because it corrects the acidity and banishes discomfort without any need for diet.—Adv.

OFFICERS OF NEWLY ORGANIZED TROOP A CAVALRY, OREGON NATIONAL GUARD.
