Schator Walsh, Co-Worker With in Framing Platform, Says Secretary Knew Full Import of Canal Plank.

WASHINGTON, May 18 .- Although many Senators are yet to speak on the bill to repeal the exemption clause of the Panama Canal act, Senator Kern the majority leader, was hopeful tonight that debate would close in an other week and that a vote might be taken by May 25. Advocates of re peal say they expect to pass the bill by a safe majority, but those opposed are confident they will surprise Administration leaders.

Before the bill is voted on, the many amendments which will be offered will have to be disposed of. It is generally believed the bill cannot be passed ex-actly as it came from the House. Amendment Made by Brynn.

These were an amendment suggested by W. J. Bryan adding the railroad-owned ship clause and another substi-tioning the words "exemption from tolls" for "free tolls."

He asserted the tolls exemption was not a subsidy in the offensive sense. Senator Walsh said he had no temptation to escape from the trammels of the platform on puerile suggestion that the plank was contradicted by another than the plank wa
