VAGRANT REFORM URGED

SWISS FARM COLONIES IS CURE, SAYS DR. C. H. PARKER.

Minimum Wage Laws and System of Federal Employment Offices Are Methods Suggested at Meeting.

Minimum wage laws, compulsory high school education, a system of Federal employment offices and out-of-work insurance were among the reforms advocated yesterday by Dr. Carleton H. Parker, of the University of California, in his speech before the Oregon Civic League at their luncheon in the Multnomah Hotel. Dr. Parker advocated taking the control of vagrants out of the hands of the police, and spoke highly of the farm colonies of Switzerland as a cure for vagrancy.

"News that Portland tried with courage and humanity to care for its unemployed last winter has come to California from many sources," said Dr. Parker. "No city can hold up its social head unless it establishes a minimum of comfort for all who are destitute within its gates. On account of labor-saving devices and automatic machines, we find, in the industries that produce the necessities of life, a constantly increasing output of goods with a relatively constant force of employees. This condition has led to the employment of large numbers in the production of luxuries that, in times of panic or depression, find no market. The employees are then thrown out of work. To remedy this condition, we must first establish minimum standards for industrial life. One such is the mini-

STREET PROTEST MADE

RESIDENTS OF LADD'S ADDITION OBJECT TO PAVING PLANS.

Declaration is Made That Property Should Be Exempt From Such Assessment for Ten Years.

Property owners of Ladd's Addition took action Friday night at a meeting held in the United Evangelical Church to protest against assessment for improving Ladd avenue or any other street in the addition. It was decided to form a permanent organization called the Ladd Addition Improvement Association.

It was declared that the streets in Ladd's Addition had been paved six and one-half years and that the city was about to repave Ladd avenue at heavy expense to the property owners, owing to the bad condition of the street. It was reported that East Sixteenth and other streets show signs of disrepair.

Mrs. W. H. Hellman, of 223 Ainsworth street, Portland, Or., was a victim of disorders of the stomach and digestive processes. Her trouble affected her general health and made her unhappy.

She took Mays' Wonderful Stomach Remedy and soon was recommending it to all her suffering friends. In a letter sending for more of the remedy she wrote:

"About eight months ago I sent to you for a bottle of your wonderful stomach medicine, and after taking it sent for three bottles more, which I have taken with the best of results. I am beginning now to feel like a different person. I have been telling my friends about your wonderful medicine. I thank you for the good your medicine has done me."

CONVICTED SLAYER ENTERTAINED

Nearly 200 members of the Grand Army and the United Spanish War Veterans and the Boy Scouts' drum corps visited A. J. Pender, the convicted Whelan murderer, in his cell in the County Jail yesterday, the drum and bugle corps furnishing the special entertainment. Pender served in the Army 18 months during the Spanish and Philippine War, 14 months of which he was in the islands with the Utah Battery, which fought side by side with the Second Oregon.

Elks' Band Plays Wednesday.

The Elks' band will give a concert in the bandstand at Park and Jefferson streets Wednesday night. City Commissioner Brewster invited the band to play last Wednesday, but the concert was postponed on account of bad weather.

In such words people in all parts of the country, thousands of people, praise Mays' Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The first dose shows results—no long treatment.

Mays' Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid secretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many say that it has saved them from dangerous operations and many declare that it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitations, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYS'. Go to the Owl Drug Company and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing among people they know—or send to George H. Mays, Manufacturing Chemist, 154-156 Whiting street, Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you the wonderful effects.—Adv.
