

MID-SEASON'S WRAPS FOR OUTING AND EVENING WEAR ARE SWAGGER

Loudly Checked Garment, Worn by Tall, Stately Figures, Is Not Bizarre, but Aids in Modifying Appearance of Angularity—Motoring Throw-Over Is a "Knowing Sport" Creation.

Though Sensational This Cape is Extremely Chic. White Sport Cape for Athletic Girls. Cape Has Its Place in Evening Festivities.

THE tall, slender woman of distinctive carriage could wear a rather loudly checked wrap without any suggestion of the bizarre, which the cape would certainly lend to a shorter, stouter woman. It is a French wrap and the peculiar cut in extending yoke effect produces a contrasting direction in the checks that is striking. The wrap is lined with light navy silk and collar of navy blue corduroy points downward to a tassel at the back. Embroidered silk gloves are drawn under the loose cape sleeves.

CAPES OF ALL KINDS ARE POPULAR AND BECOMING FOR SUMMER WEAR

Jaunty, Severe, Stately, Graceful and Picturesque Are Styles—Waistcoat Makes 1914 Design New and Individual—Cadet Blue Military Cape Is Favorite—White Wraps Liked by Many Women.

NEW YORK, May 30.—(Special.)—One of the surprises of the Spring season is the immense and universal popularity of the cape. Almost overnight capes became the fashion. They made a tentative appearance at the Spring races in Paris. Their possibilities immediately were noted by women on the lookout for the new and, presto! all over the civilized world where fashion holds sway capes have sprung into being as the approved wrap for mid-summer wear.

cape. This cape also showed the soft black taffeta saah across the front. The Red Riding Hood model is a favorite with all women. It need not necessarily be red. The lines, not the color, are the thing. This cape is circular in cut and falls gracefully from the shoulders. A flare collar of silk matches the lining turning back from the neck.

Summer Style Tips Have Attractive Tone.

Silk Vestee-Tabs for Chest Protection Make for Acceptable Menstrual Wear—Cotton Duvetyne Popular.

THE woman who has a delicate throat or chest and to whom the deeply cut-out Spring coat, worn over a decollete blouse, is a real danger, when the sun goes under and the east wind springs up, should fashion for herself a cape especially one of the tabs, which, attached by a snap-button to the shoulder seam of the coat, may be crossed as high or as low as desired over the chest, under the coat fronts, protecting the chest from chill.

Castle Pump Has Fastening Which Is Novelty.

Combination of Leather and Broadened Silk Is Striking Feature of Newest Design.

THE influence of modern dancing on footwear styles has never been expressed so emphatically and so delightfully as in the Castle pump, whose idea was suggested by Mrs. Vernon Castle and the pump worn by her as giving the most freedom in her interpretation of the modern dance.

Latest Decree in Pumps for Misses.

THE fabric or of the suede that is combined with a smooth leather, matches the shade of the frock, thus completing the harmony of the costume.

LEAD IN BRAIN 37 HOURS

Long Island Youth Shows Remarkable Vitality Before Death.

NEW YORK, May 26.—After living 37 hours with a bullet wound through his brain, Edward Treu, Greenpoint, died in Williamsburg Hospital. The unusual vitality of the young man attracted the attention of a visiting physician at the hospital. An effort to save his life by an operation was made by Dr. Robert Morrison, chief surgeon, together with Dr. Samuel Pearlman and Dr. Samuel Ralph.

PRINCESS LOUISA IS FORBIDDEN TO RIDE BICYCLE BY QUEEN OF SAXONY

Amusement Allowed Later, When German Emperor Permits His Sister to Learn—Many Acts of Court Intrigue in Which Father-in-Law Dominated Revealed by Woman Who Suffered Much in Dresden.

NOW approach the most difficult part of my story, and that is an endeavor to show the outside world the conditions and events which finally led up to my departure from Dresden. It is a Herculean labor for any untrained woman to clear her character effectively when once it has been soiled by a scandalous and untrue charge.

Narrow Life Iridesome.

I have always wondered why a Hapsburg Princess was selected as a wife for a man of my rank. I am sure that I should never realize what I have suffered through court intrigue.

King's Fault Indecision.

These ladies were the last to suffer, and the blood of the other victims had made the planks slippery and wet. Turning to her friend the elder Queen said: "My dear, pray be careful; this horrid mess will soil your skirt."

Pattern Held Before Her.

I remember once when he unexpectedly confronted the rolling tangle of angry little boys, he looked from them to me, and said: "It is easy to see what kind of an education you give your children, Luisa."

Queen's Disdain Angers.

I was furious, and told her that my father allowed my sisters to bicycle, and what he thought right, must be right. All my arguments were received with supercilious disdain, and I left in a temper of anger and wounded pride.

Royal Example Followed.

"Arranged? Certainly not, dearest Luisa. I've sent for you to tell you that you must ride the bicycle after all, because I have just learned that the German Emperor allows his sister, Princess Frederick-Leopold, to ride one."

These Petty Tyrannies Soon Began.

These petty tyrannies soon began to have a bad effect on me; I grew hard and regardless of what I said, and occasionally did things of which I was ashamed to the existing powers; my father-in-law never lost an opportunity of goading me to desperation, and he was usually most vulgar in his methods.
