

BALLOON WITH FAWCETT AND WATTS IS SAFE

Kansas City III Hangs to High Crag in Wilds Near Cascadia, Or.

MEN WANDER FOR 24 HOURS

Clothes Torn to Tatters, Pilot and Aide Find Mountaineer After Hard Travel.

BAG LANDS 9:20 A. M. FRIDAY

Racer, Ripped and Torn, Ends 80-Mile Trip 2950 Feet Up.

DONALDSON IN BAD ZONE

First of Four Balloons to Rise in Contest Is Third Found and Captain Fears Rival May Be in Wilder Place

DEVELOPMENTS IN BALLOON HUNT TOLD IN BRIEF.

Watts and Fawcett—Landed 11 miles north of Cascadia in Southern Eliza county at 9:20 Friday morning. Party walked to Cascadia, where both are safe. Balloon may be rescued. Distance from Portland 75 to 80 miles.

Berry and Morrison—Landed in dense woods two miles from Clarkes in Clackamas county at 3 o'clock Thursday night. Reached Portland last night. Captain Berry stunned and badly shaken up. Balloon badly damaged. Distance from Portland 27 miles.

Honeywell and Stewart—Landed Thursday night near Beaver Creek, Clackamas county. Distance from Portland 18 miles.

Donaldson and Henderson—Still missing. Supposed to be in dense forest and mountainous country southeast of Salem. Nothing definite heard from them.

CASCADIA, Or., June 13.—(By Long Distance Telephone.)—Stiff and weary after 24 hours of aimless wandering over precipices and down ravines, the two missing balloonists of the Kansas City III, Pilot John Watts, of Kansas City, and Roscoe Fawcett, sporting editor of the Oregonian, stumbled into the McKinnon ranch, two miles east of here, at 9:10 o'clock this morning.

They were a sad study in aeronautics, footsore, rain-soaked and shoes and clothing torn to tatters. The party left Portland Thursday afternoon in a National balloon race, and the balloon alighted at 9:20 o'clock Friday morning, making over 17 hours in the air. However, the balloon covered only 75 or 80 miles as the crew files, due to slack wind.

Balloon Hangs on Crag.

The balloon lies marooned on a spur off Hurricane Deck, about 11 miles northeast of here, high up on the side

(Continued on Page 4.)

ADLAI E. STEVENSON DIES UNCONSCIOUS

VICE-PRESIDENT WITH CLEVELAND SUCCEUMS AT 78.

Illness Following Long Vigil at Bed-side of Wife Fatal—Three Children Present at End.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Adlai E. Stevenson, Vice-President of the United States through the second Cleveland Administration, died here late tonight at a hospital after an illness of several months.

His three children were at his bedside when death came.

Mr. Stevenson was 78 years old. His last illness followed a five months' vigil at the bedside of his wife, who died about six months ago. Mr. Stevenson suffered a nervous breakdown, and a month ago he came to Chicago from his home at Bloomington, Ill., for treatment. His condition gradually became worse and he entered a hospital. The burden of his years and the oppressive heat of the last week contributed to the fatal termination of his illness.

He became unconscious Saturday morning and was revived long enough to recognize relatives, then lapsed. He was unconscious at the end.

The three children who survive him and who were at his bedside are: Lewis G. Stevenson, president of the Illinois State Board of Pardons; Mrs. Martha D. Hardin, of Chicago, and Miss Letellia Stevenson, of Bloomington.

FRENCH CABINET FORMED

Viviani Informs Poincare Another Ministry Is Shaped.

PARIS, June 13.—Rene Viviani tonight informed President Poincare that he had succeeded in forming a Cabinet.

The new Cabinet is generally well received, although many political observers are inclined to doubt its long existence.

Unless funds are found before the end of the month the treasury will be unable to pay the salaries of nearly 1,000,000 officials. Premier Viviani accordingly will submit the question of a loan to the Chamber of Deputies at the first opportunity.

ATLANTIC FLIGHT DUE SOON

Wanamaker Airship Will Try to Cross Ocean in July.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The attempt to cross the Atlantic Ocean by aeroplane, planned by the Rodman Wanamaker expedition, will be made before July of this year has passed, according to information received here today.

During next week it is expected that the airship will be assembled at Hammondsport, N. Y., and this is to be followed by trial flights.

Lieutenant John G. Porte, R. N., pilot of the expedition, expects to set forth on the trip at the earliest possible date.

FAMILY OF 10 WEIGHS TON

Garfield Woman of 135 Pounds Claims Northwest Record.

EUGENE, Or., June 13.—(Special.)—With 10 children whose weights total over a ton, Mrs. John W. Laird, of Garfield, Wash., who has been visiting here, has a claim to one of the largest families in the Northwest.

The mother is a small woman weighing less than 135 pounds. Her heaviest son, 29 years old, weighs 295 pounds. Three others weigh 245 each. The youngest child is 19, the oldest 35, and the total weight of the 10 is 2055 pounds, an average weight 205 pounds.

JAPANESE VISIT MEXICO

Minister and Officers of Cruiser Izumo Reach City.

MEXICO CITY, June 13.—The Japanese Minister, Mitsuhiro Adachi, arrived here today from Guadalajara.

He was accompanied by two officers and six marines of the Japanese cruiser Izumo.

BALLOON PLUNGES 3500 FEET TO EARTH

Pilot Berry and Morrison Land in Tree Tops.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE THRILLING

Storm-Tossed Gas Bag Rent by Lightning or Explosion.

BASKET SUSPENDED IN AIR

Sudden Stop Makes Captain Unconscious—Snow Gathered at 12,000-Foot Altitude Revives—Story of Perilous Trip Is Told.

Rent by an explosion or electric flash about 8 o'clock Thursday night at the height of 3500 feet, the "Million Population" balloon of Captain John Berry and his aide, George Morrison, and the balloon became a gigantic parachute. Then it hurtled toward the wildest part of Clackamas county at sickening speed.

Captain Berry had just time to cut away with his knife a number of sacks of ballast and Mr. Morrison to throw lifebelts and luggage overboard.

Basket Suspended on Tree.

This tended to check the downward rush, but the big bag dashed into the tree tops. So sudden was the stop that Captain Berry was knocked unconscious.

The balloon came down just in the right spot. The upper half of the envelope caught in the tops of three dog-wood trees, that towered away into the sky. These bent down and the basket was brought to a halt some 30 or 40 feet above the ground.

Frightful Death Evaded.

Had the balloon struck 20 feet to the south it would have crashed into a grove of giant firs and the aeronauts might have been killed. About 300 feet to the north is a three-acre slash clearing, and had they struck there, they would have met a frightful death. Captain Berry is positive that in more than 200 ascensions he never met with such a terrifying experience.

Balloon Reached 12,000 Feet.

When the balloon came to rest it was full of snow, which had accumulated in it at the high altitudes it had reached. With this snow Mr. Morrison revived Captain Berry.

The barograph reading of the "Million Population" shows that it reached 12,000 feet. This was immediately after the electric storm, which wrecked the balloon of Captain Honeywell and Dr. Stewart.

Captain Honeywell reported on his return that Captain Berry threw out ballast and rose high when he saw the plight of the other balloon.

Instantly Captain Berry and Mr. Morrison were in the throes of the second electric storm which was harassing Captain Honeywell at the lower level.

Elements Play With Balloon.

The balloon was picked and tossed here and there. At times the aeronauts had to cling to the upper rigging, to save themselves from being cast headlong to earth. At times the basket was almost upside down.

All the time the lightning flashed and played through the balloon with a curious whirling sound.

The rain and the snow forced the balloon down rapidly.

At the lower level of 3500 feet, the storm was struck again. There the balloon became a plaything of the elements. It was dashed along in the

(Continued on Page 10.)

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather.
YESTERDAY—Maximum temperature, 71 degrees; minimum, 54 degrees.
TODAY—Portland and vicinity, fair north-westerly winds.

Balloons.
Kansas City III local. Watts and Fawcett safe. Section 1, page 1.
Berry and Morrison tell story of thrilling escape when balloon plunges 3500 feet to earth. Section 1, page 2.
Great fear felt for occupants of one balloon still missing. Section 1, page 10.

Foreign.
Black banner of republic raised in Italy. Section 1, page 1.
Wilson to pass through canal on battleship Oregon. Section 1, page 2.
Huerta's attorney urges it is turn of United States to make concessions. Section 1, page 2.
President Wilson attends Princeton alumni reunion. Section 1, page 2.

Domestic.
Finn, Pittsburgh capitalist, charges Callifornia River salmon pack to tempt him. Section 1, page 3.
Clubwomen differ as to effect of suffrage in Illinois. Section 1, page 3.
Illinois Supreme Court upholds women suffrage law. Section 1, page 5.
Seceders in Butte, Minn., call Miners' Union rioting. Section 1, page 1.
Renewed eruptions of Mount Lassen show increased violence. Section 1, page 5.

Commercial and Marine.
Columbia River salmon pack is ahead of last year's. Section 2, page 15.
Wheat higher at Chicago, owing to excessive rains in Nebraska and Northwest. Section 2, page 15.
Marked improvement in foreign financial situation. Section 2, page 15.
Cruiser of Naval militia to Honolulu arranged. Section 2, page 7.

Sports.
Coast League results: Portland & Oakland 2; Eureka 4; San Francisco 1 (10 innings); Sacramento & Venice 2. Section 2, page 2.
Northwestern League results: Portland 7; Victoria 6; Spokane 4; Seattle 2 (12 innings); Vancouver 4; Tacoma 3. Section 2, page 2.
Cal. Ewing mixes in riot following Seals-Angles game. Section 2, page 2.
Reading car 13 goes over embankment, and driver is probably fatally hurt. Section 2, page 1.
Primaries and Allied Trades put Union Base-Ball League into Portland field. Section 2, page 2.
Salem Y. M. C. A. wins Salem-Portland relay race. Section 2, page 4.
Cady wins Trans-Mississippi golf championship. Section 2, page 4.
English polo team easily wins first game of match for cup. Section 1, page 6.
Federals not dining, says pitcher Mathewson. Section 2, page 3.
Walter A. Goss defends tennis tournaments. Section 2, page 4.
Seattle's small as games are hit by rain. Section 2, page 2.

Pacific Northwest.
Prohibition petition in Washington has 116,000 signers. Section 1, page 1.
Tillamook prepares for Grand Army encampment. Section 1, page 1.
Days of civic devotion. Section 1, page 9.
Comptroller of Oregon. Section 1, page 11.
Officials show lack of interest in primary returns. Section 2, page 16.
O. A. C. graduating class is largest in history of institution. Section 2, page 9.
University students to present "Kings Lear." Section 1, page 2.
Official count shows measures will be voted upon at election in Fall. Section 1, page 7.
Parent-teachers' associations' prove 'value' of schools of state. Section 2, page 16.
Both candidates for Supreme bench ask for recount of votes. Section 1, page 6.
Four associates with defendant in Potts Harbor plans for Brookings all ready for day of need. Section 1, page 8.
Portland and vicinity.

SECEDING MINERS RIOTOUS IN BUTTE

Union Day Paraders Routed With Stones.

MEN KNOCKED FROM HORSES

Mayor, Trying to Make Peace, Thrown Out of Window.

SAFE CAPTURED BY MOB

I. W. W. Faction, Weary of Paying Assessments to Aid Michigan Strikers, Demolishes Property of Organization.

BUTTE, Mont., June 14.—At 2 o'clock this morning the residence of Patrick Casey Sullivan, an official of the union, was dynamited. Sullivan and his wife and three children were in the house, but none was injured. The windows were blown out and a porch blown off.

It is also said that an attempt was made at about the same hour to dynamite the home of Bert Riley, president of the Miners' Union.

Several shots were heard near the home immediately after the dynamiting. A posse is searching the hills.

BUTTE, Mont., June 13.—Butte tonight is practically under martial law, with its saloons, that have not been closed in years except on election days, locked tight and with every hardware store cleared of all its arms and ammunition by the police as the result of the series of riots during the day.

Miner's Union day—the 34th anniversary of the establishment of the union in this camp. The Miners' Union, with upwards of 5000 members, is divided against itself.

Safe Taken from Police.

After a day of turmoil, in which many heads were broken, the acting Mayor was thrown from a window and seriously hurt and the union property was destroyed. A crowd of those who remained loyal to the union, started to pull the union safe down Main street to save it from the rioters. They were surrounded by a guard of police.

Four hundred rioters took the safe from the Federation members, put it on a wagon and dynamited it, after driving the Sheriff and his deputies from the ground. A wagon load of policemen watched the dynamiting from a little distance.

More than 2000 men have refused to recognize the union further and under the leadership of agitators of the Industrial Workers of the World, the seceders from the big organization today attacked the miners union parade, composed of more than half the labor bodies of the city.

Marchers Attacked With Stones.

President Riley, of the union, and Marshal Conway of the parade, were knocked from their horses by a volley of stones from the rioters. Other officers of the union were chased from the line of march and took refuge in the Sheriff's office at the Courthouse.

The parade broken up and the speaking exercises in the theater abandoned because of the stormy street scenes, the rioters moved on the union hall in the center of the city. Every piece of furniture in the building was demolished and thrown into the streets.

A piano was thrown down a stairway; the books, records and two safes of the union were thrown out. The ballot

(Continued on Page 6.)

FAWCETT SCORES A BEAT

The early edition of the Oregonian, issued at 11:15 o'clock last night, containing exclusively Roscoe Fawcett's complete story of the fate of the balloon Kansas City III, exclusive pictures of the wreck of the balloon "Million Population Club" and the first actual interview with Captain Berry, was read eagerly in hotels and by the late crowds on the streets. The first edition of another Sunday newspaper appeared with the information that the balloon which carried Watts and Fawcett was still missing.

WATTS AND FAWCETT REACH

The early edition of the Oregonian, issued at 11:15 o'clock last night, containing exclusively Roscoe Fawcett's complete story of the fate of the balloon Kansas City III, exclusive pictures of the wreck of the balloon "Million Population Club" and the first actual interview with Captain Berry, was read eagerly in hotels and by the late crowds on the streets. The first edition of another Sunday newspaper appeared with the information that the balloon which carried Watts and Fawcett was still missing.

BLACK BANNER IS RAISED IN ITALY

Republic Proclaimed by Peasants' League.

COMMITTEE ARMS VILLAGERS

Ignorant Masses Believe Every Violence Permissible.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS SACKED

Private Property Sold for Song to Give Impression 'Republic' Will Bring Millennium—10,000 Soldiers Are Preparing.

ROME, June 13.—An outstanding feature in the general situation today was the news received at the capital of the proclamation of an Italian republic by the people of several towns bordering on the Adriatic, in Northeastern Italy.

In some towns like Fabriano and Rimini scenes similar to those of the French revolution were enacted. The inhabitants, misled by reports issued from the headquarters of the anarchistic committee at Ancona, an important seaport on the Adriatic, to the effect that a revolutionary movement had been successful in overthrowing the monarchy, proclaimed a republic and substituted for the national flag the black banner of the Peasants' League.

People Fed on Rumors.

All the newspapers were burned the moment they reached those towns in order to prevent the people from knowing the real condition of the country, as the revolutionary leaders had declared that King Victor Emmanuel had escaped to Montenegro; that the revolution had mastered the entire peninsula, and that the troops had joined with the people.

In some instances the soldiers were compelled to fire on the people before order was restored, with the result that several persons were killed or injured.

At Ancona, where the first demonstration took place, which resulted in the general strike, bluejackets from the naval division, commanded by Admiral Umberto Cagni, reinforced the garrison. Ancona has been a hotbed of the revolutionary movement, as the leaders have been spreading the report that King Victor Emmanuel had been forced to flee the country and that Premier Salandra was a prisoner.

Towns Ruled by "Committee."

The most serious situation exists in the province of Ravenna, where villages and small towns are being ruled by the local republican committees, which has armed the inhabitants, thus giving the ignorant masses the impression that any kind of violence will be permitted. Churches and clubs have been sacked or burned, but in the case of private residences the revolutionists have asked the owners' permission to take possession of their belongings. These have been sold for next to nothing in order to give the poorer people the impression that the "republic" will maintain its promise to bring back the golden age and end forever the high cost of living.

Ten thousand soldiers are gradually being spread throughout the province and it is expected that Sunday will see the awakening from the brief dream.

Strike Cessation Ordered.

The Syndicate of Railway Men today ordered a cessation of the strike throughout Italy.

That the authorities were ready to

(Continued on Page 2.)

SOME LEADING EVENTS OF A BUSY WEEK ARE ILLUMINED BY CARTOONIST REYNOLDS.